OUTLINES.

There is a split in the Democracy of the Fourth Massachusetts District; they have nominated two electors. - P. Griffin was shot and killed at Abbeyville, S. C., by Charles McClurg; it grew out of a game of billiards. - The South Carolina Greenbackers have nominated a State ticket. - Everything is at a stand-still in the Turkish affairs; Riza Pasha has now 9,000 troops. - Gen. Garibaldi and his son Monotti have resigned their seats in the Italian Chamber of Deputies; his son-in-law Maj. Caczio, has been placed under arrest. -A fire damp explosion occurred in a German mine near Herne, killing eleven workmen and wounding eleven seriously. . -Fifty barges destroyed by fire on the Neva; loss £30,000. - City Sergeant Lee, of Richmond, Va., has been arrested and jailed for felony. - The address of the Democratic State Committee of Alabams thoroughly endorses Gen. Hancock's letter on the claims question. - A fresh rising is threatened in Afghanistan. - John Merritt was acquitted of the murder of flicks, in Halifax, N. C., yesterday. -The fleet of the Powers will remain ten days longer at Gravosa; Great Britain and Russia urge the assembling of the fleet at Stamboul; the Prince of Montenegro is biamed for the awkward position of affairs;

Yale College students are forbidden to parade in political processions. - Wm. McArthur has been elected Lord Mayor of 2@3 per cent; cotton quiet at 114@114 cts; southern flour quiet and firm at $4 85 @630; wheat +@1+c better, ungraded red 1 00+@$1 12+; corp, ungraded 51+@55+c; spirits turpentine firm at 401c; rosin firm at $1 50@1 571.

Conkling's man Platt is said to be running the Radical machine now in place of Chairman Jewell.

Mr. English has retired, practically, from the chairmanship of the Democratic State Committee of Indiana. Senator McDonald and State Treasurer Fleming have charge.

The Washington Republican, Radical organ, admits that more than 1,000 votes were cast for Plaisted than the plurality given him in the returns. "Thar now," Mr. Blaine.

Chairman W. H. Barnum is in Washington. He is in fine spirits, but is reticent. He merely said that the National Democratic Committee could not be better satisfied with the situation as it now exists.

Another attempt upon the life of the unhappy Czar of Russia was by placing a nitro-glycerine clock in the coal-bunkers of his new yacht. It was fortunately discovered in time to prevent the longed-for fatal catas-

A Republican writing from Indianapolis on the 25th, to the Philadelphia Times, reviews at much length the political outlook in Indiana. The sum of his cogitations is that Radical Porter will be elected Governor by a small majority.

Groesbeck's speech on the subject of the public lands and the way they were given away by the Radicals, is attracting attention, and serving as editorial thunder. We have had some extracts under our weight for days awaiting ventilation in the STAR, but they have been crowded out.

The Richmond (Va.) State thus writes of Mr. Cable's "The Grandissimes," of which we have spoken:

"The 'Grandissimes' in this issue has its ending, and proves itself an admirable work, Mr. Cable showing a power which we have never seen before in any novelist whose home was in the South. He is far above any rival south of the Susquehanna, and may fitly be set by the side of Hawthorne, although no faintest similarity exists between his genius and that of the "Scarlet Letter."

Senator Ben. Hill but echoed the univocal voice of the South when he said of Hancock's letter on the Southern War Claims bugaboo:

strengthening effect. It will have this Club, these gentlemen were called door of the shop into which King had been effect because it exactly expresses what is out again, when Judge Fowle made carried, scattered up the street, and all already the view of that question taken by all the people of the South-by every exception, throughout that part of the country. It is no new doctrine which Gen. Hancock brings forward and puts so aptly in his letter."

The Radical organ of Indiana, the Indianapolis Journal, is a very dangerous and silly paper. It has been trying to prompt indiscreet and reckless members of its party to make assaults upon leading Democrats. Its latest was to urge that Mr. Hendrick's head be rubbed with a brick and he be then put to bed. This is the way Radicals propose to conduct a cam-

VOL. XXVII.--NO. 7.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1880.

The Raleigh News and Observer of | then back through Wilkes and Caldthe 9th gives the following additional information concerning the murder of Gen. Bryan Grimes:

"The examination began on Friday, and was still in progress when our informant left Saturday. The negro boy stated that Parker had offered him money to say, if he was asked, where he (Parker) was on the day of the murder, that he (Parker) had been with him all that day. A white man named Smith is understood to have said that he was at Paramore's store, and Parker came up with a gun and several squirrels. He was complimented upon having such a good squirrel gun. He said: 'Yes, it is a good gun,' and then said: 'This is the very same gun that killed Mills. [Mills was a white man killed in Pitt county some years ago,] Smith remarked : 'I expect that's the gun that killed Gen. Grimes.' Parker to this made no reply, but soon afterwards winked at Smith, and the two went out of the store. Parker then said : 'Yes, this is the gun that killed Gen. Grimes.' Smith asked : Did you shoot him?' and Parker replied : Well, I have said enough. I am not going to say any more

"The feeling in Washington is that sufficient evidence will be brought out to convict Parker of the murder. It is, however, thought that he was a mere tool, being hired by some other party or parties to do the deed."

The Philadelphia Times damns with faintest praise Mary Anderson's Parthenia. She appeared in that character on Monday night. As the very handsome Mary is a Southern favorite we clip the following from the criticism :

"Miss Anderson does not, indeed, any more than she did a few years ago, give the impression of a very earnest artist. She is, as has been said, unusually pretty and her attitudes are unexceptionably London. -- New York markets: Money graceful. Total receipts to that date 1,219 gives flashes of real feeling, she as often disappoints where strong expression is expected, and she has still the beginner's tendency to tear passion to fatters, as though vehemence could supply intensity

> A special to the New York Times of some days ago, sent from Richmond, Va., represented that thousands of the colored voters of Virginia "will of their own free will, and knowing fully the importance of their action, walk deliberately up to the polls and cast their votes against the nominees of the National Republican party and for the Hancock and English electoral ticket." So be it if shey prefer. The Readjuster or Mahoue ticket, however, is the one re-

On the 24th inst. that nice Radical blood and thunder sheet, the Cincinnati Commercial, was pleased to get ahead of the brass band after this

"The truth is, Hancock dare not say that he would veto the Southern claim bills."

There were a great many ladies in the Court House to hear Judge Fowle Saturday night, and they enjoyed his speech very much. We like to see the ladies attend political meetings, for it would have a good influence. The Democratic meeting at Bush Hill, Randolph county, on Satureay last, was a large and enthusiastic one, and eloquent speeches were made by Hon. Daniel G. Fowle and Gov. Vance. On their return to High Point in the afternoon, where a meeting was being held for the purpose of excitement increased. We copy a part: "Immediately after giving this warning to the bystanders, John King, a powerfully built man, stepped around to "Ohief's" head and was in the act of turning him around when the crowd heard him call the elephant by name in a frightened tone, and the next moment they saw the enraged animal turn upon his keeper and crush him against the car. King sank to the ground without a groan and the men who were with him fled precipitately. The crowd scattered up Trade street and the wildest confusion followed The men were afraid to approach the infuriated animal, and King was allowed to remain for several minutes on the ground where he had fallen. The elephant surveyed the scene for an instant, gave a short snort and started at brisk pace up the railroad track. As soon as he was out of reach King was picked up, apparently lifeless, and conveyed across the street to Ferry Morehead's barber shop, where several doctors were summoned. In the meantime the elephant kept sorts of reports were affoat, no one being able on account of the darkness to determine the whereabouts of the elephant. It back to duty.

A gentleman of this city who arrived here a few days since from New York, and who was there at the great Democratic demonstration last week, says the feeling in that city amounts almost to that of certainty among Democrats, that Hancock and English will be triumphantly elected. They seem perfectly confident that New York, Ohio and Indiana will go Democratic, and appear very sanguine that Pennsylvania will do likewise. The leading men of the party seem to have no fear of the result. Mayor's Court. Archie Ellerby, a colored drayman, was arraigned on the charge of driving on a sidewalk, and also with defying the officer the fact that the defendant was a new hand at the business of drawing and next the defendant was a new hand at the business of drawing and next the business of drawi at the business of draying, and not therefore likely to be advised in regard to the ordinance against driving on sidewalks, that case against him was dismissed; but he was required to fork over $2.50 for resist-yesterday (and our city readers can very well imagine to whom it belongs), the "Roll of the Palmetto Regiment at the Siege of Vera Cruz, March, 1847." It was executed under the patronage of the then Governor (Means) of South Carolina, and is very neatly gotten up. It is in the form of a scroll, supported by a pillar on each side. surrounded by various devices and inscriptions, and flanked by flags, one of which bears the inscription, "This flag presented by Gen. William O. Butler, of Kentucky, in the City of Mexico," and the other, "This flag presented by the City Council of Charleston, through T. Veger Hutchinson, and carried through the war." This last was the first flag in the City of Mexico, being planted inside its gates by F. W. Selleck, of Company E, Capt. T. Foster Marshall. In the centre is a palmetto tree, under which is inscribed "South Carolina Volunteers, commanded by Col. P. M. Butler; called into the service of the United States by the President, under the act of Congress, approved May 13th, 1846, to serve during the Mexican war." On one of the pillars is inscribed "Lt. Col. J. P. Dickinson, wounded a Churubusco; died at Miscoac, Sept. 11, 1847." On the other, "Col. P. M. Butler, killed at Churubusco, August 20, 1847. The battles in which the regiment took conspicuous part are also given, as follows: Vera Cruz, Contreras, Churubusco, Chapultepec, Garita De Belen.
