MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

Negotiations have begun between the South American belligerents. —Indiana Republicans claim the State by 8,000 and a majority of the Legislature. —The Cincinnati Enquirer says Indiana is not expected to elect Hancock. —Wendell Phillips was nominated by Greenbackers to Boston for Congress. —Davenport made thirteen arrests yesterday; five were discharged on their recognizances, whilst the others were held in default of bail.

The Great London Circus is wending southward. It exhibits in Richmond on the 26th inst.
The exports from New York since January 1, aggregate $318,346,472, against $261,303,789 for the same period last year.

The Radical organs insisted before the election that the vote of Indiana would not decide the Presidential election. They will hardly stick to that now.

Some of the New Orleans critics are very severe on Mr. Cable's "The Grandissimes." They accuse him of Radicalism, we believe. He is a man of remarkable gifts, whatever may be his political leanings.

Chairman Fowler of the New York Democratic State Committee is confident that New York is safe for Hancock. He says the reports from every section of the State are cheering, and it is only a question of majority.

We are glad to see Gen. Hancock, in a recent interview, has been talked discreetly and wisely concerning the tariff. The Hads have tried all sorts of dodges. Their last is to frighten manufacturers about the tariff in case Hancock is elected. All this, too, when Garfield is a pronounced free trader.

Johnny Davenport has concluded it would be quite handsome in him to allow foreign-born citizens to keep their certificates. Instead of this he will have them and certificates up before the U. S. Commissioner. If the latter is as corrupt and mean as J. D. is, they will fare but little better by the change.

Of Col. D. K. McRae's speech at Henderson, Granville county, on the 12th, a correspondent writes to the Raleigh News and Observer as follows:
"The county canvass commenced here to-day, and all the Democratic candidates were present, and announced themselves as candidates, after which Henry T. Jordan, Esq., introduced the orator of the day, Col. D. K. McRae. For nearly three hours he held the audience, white and black, spell-bound. Never have we heard such an address."

The Philadelphia Times' Indianapolis correspondent thus gives us a glimpse of Radical methods on election day. It is said:
"The Republicans started the day with but one purpose and that to elect Porter, no matter what happened to the rest of their ticket. To accomplish this they resorted to every kind of trade, the most important being that with the Greenbackers, who were willing to vote for Porter to get votes for De La Mayer for Congress. This bargain was fixed up by a few leaders as far as it could be late last night, but its result was not up to the expectations of the Republicans. In Evansville the business men went out and stood at the polls, and the same thing was done at South Bend, where the employes of the manufacturing institutions were pretty generally compelled to vote for Porter."

A large number of business men of Cincinnati have issued an address urging the election of Hancock and declaring that his election cannot injure possibly the business interests of the country. They refer to the causes of the hard times following the panic of 1873 and the eventual return of prosperity, and say that the latter is due to natural causes. They conclude: Hence the claim that the country owes its prosperity to the party in power, or that it will go to ruin if that party is turned out of power, is an audacious one, and an insult to the intelligence of every business man.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXVII.--NO. 20.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1880.

WHOLE NO. 4,109

INDIANA AGAIN.

The Republican victory in Indiana appears to have been complete. They elect their State ticket, it is supposed, by 7,000; elect eight members of the House of Representatives, a gain of two, and have a majority in the Legislature, thus securing a U. S. Senator. Our leader, on second page, was written yesterday morning, and its speculations were based upon the much more favorable returns received at a late hour on the night before. Our editorial will serve to point out the means resorted to by the Radicals to consummate their ends. The South, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut can elect Gen. Hancock. California, Oregon and Maine may be considered besides as debatable ground. Hard work, great enthusiasm and an invincible will can do great things before November 2. That is the way it strikes us now before the smoke of battle has been lifted from the field. It may be that we have a chance even in Indiana.

Mr. G. W. Michal, of Newton, N. C., writes an intelligent communication to the Charlotte Observer in which he insists that the inscriptions on the King's Mountain monument do not speak the truth of history. He shows that it omits the names of Maj. Jo. McDowell and Maj. Winston, who were conspicuous officers in the fight and in command of troops. The monument represents that Ferguson was defeated by "Campbell, Sibley, Cleveland, Sevier, and their heroic followers," thus omitting Col. Charles McDowell's regiment, led into battle by Maj. McDowell, and a portion of Cleveland's regiment, commanded by Maj. Winston, placed on the extreme right. There were six distinct commands in the battle according to him.

An Oxford correspondent (by mistake, we suppose, dating his letter Henderson) thus describes the great mass meeting at that place on the 13th inst.:
"The largest and most enthusiastic assemblage of people greeted Gov. Jarvis here to-day that ever met in Granville county. The crowd was variously estimated from three to four thousand people; two thousand were mounted. The Durham Brass Band was present and discoursed sweet music on the occasion. Gov. Jarvis made one of his characteristic speeches. He was attentively listened to, and did much good for the cause of Democracy. Col. McRae spoke two hours and made a fine impression. Gen. Cox, Maj. Robbins and Capt. Joe Davis speak to-night. Never in the history of Old Granville have we witnessed such a demonstration."

There is no doubt that Hancock is stronger in all the States than the State candidates. Judge Thurman says he is stronger by 5,000 than the State ticket in Indiana and 10,000 stronger than the State ticket in Ohio. He will be stronger in North Carolina than any man of the State ticket, and possibly by thousands. But this is not exceptional. Hancock is immensely popular everywhere. In this sign we conquer.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

The disaffection in Duplin county extends only to the county ticket. All are united upon the National and State tickets. The disaffection to the county ticket is limited principally to the nominees for Sheriff and Register. —There will be a mass meeting and barbecue at this place on Saturday the 23d inst. Eminent speakers are expected. Let there be a rousing crowd. —Warsaw Brief Mention.

The Democratic Convention of the county of Greene made the following nomination: For the House of Representatives, John R. Dixon. —Capt. Coke desires us to call attention to the change in the appointment made for Judge Merrimon for October 30. He will speak at Jackson, and not at Elizabeth City on that day. —Oxford has her great mass meeting to-day. Thousands are expected to be present. His Excellency the Governor went there last night, and Colonel Duncan K. McRae, Hon. Wm. M. Robbins and General Cox also have passed through this place to speak on the occasion. We learn that Hon. Wm. M. Robbins has consented to address our friends here on Thursday night. —Raleigh News and Observer.

Josiah Turner, Esq., is making a still-hunt for the Legislature, in Orange, and is sanguine of election, we hear. Capt. B. A. Berry, of Burke, who represented the county in the last session, is out as an Independent against Col. Sam Tate, the Democratic nominee. Col. J. M. Isabel, of the same county, is running against Dr. J. C. Newland, the nominee for Senator from Caldwell and Burke. The Topic hears that Isabel will vote for Buxton. J. R. Jones, Democrat, and two or three others are running as Independents in Buncombe, but Messrs. Carter and Weaver are not alarmed. Ireddell has three Independents, one Democrat, A. C. Share; one Republican, H. G. Beam; one French Rider, H. H. Wetherman; Jason Whitson is running in McDowell; Mr. Kavanagh is running for the House, and Mr. Ballard for Sheriff in Duplin; Dr. J. B. Person is running in Wayne, and has been endorsed by the Republicans. —Farmer and Mechanic.

Every Household Would be richer and Better.

The Wilmington STAR is now in its fourteenth year, as a daily. It is one of the very best newspapers in existence. We are glad to hear that its prospects for future prosperity are bright. The people of North Carolina would be richer and better if that STAR twinkled in every household in the State.

Spirits Turpentine

—Rev. Neidham B. Cobb is to be the pastor of the Chapel Hill Baptist Church, until the 1st of January, 1881.

—North Carolina has sixty-four cotton mills, ten new ones having been added within a year, making a total for the State of 118,738 spindles. —Floating Item.

—Numerous revivals of religion are reported in the late Raleigh Advocate. The number of converts reported, we suppose, will aggregate nearly three hundred.

—Greensboro Patriot: Twenty-eight emigrants, all white, from this and neighboring counties, have left this point within the past few days for the West. There were eighteen last night. Four-fifths of the number were Republicans.

—Warsaw Brief Mention: We deeply regret to learn that Mrs. F. C. Nicholson, widow of the Rev. D. B. Nicholson, a presiding elder of the Methodist Church, one of the most talented, energetic, highly cultivated and excellent Christian ladies it has been our good fortune to know, died a few days ago.

—New Bern Record: There are five steamers constantly plying between this city and the ports of Baltimore and Norfolk, with an average capacity of 700 bales of cotton. When we take this into consideration, and recognize the fact that they are unable to do so, it is a sad and clear, then we can commence to appreciate the importance of New Bern to the cotton world.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Dick Buffalo, a colored lad, employed at the gin of Reuben Weathers, on Marsh Creek, six miles from this city, was badly injured by the gin on Monday. His arm and hand were lacerated. —The cotton receipts for the months of September, since 1870, have been as follows: 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 4,090; 1876, 4,588; 1877, 1,340; 1878, 4,633; 1879, 7,349; 1880, 14,286. —The Bingham Cadet Battalion will be some 100 strong at the fair.

—Fall asleep in Jesus, on Tuesday, September 28th, George Frederick, the bright and beautiful son of the late General Bryan Grimes, of Pitt county; aged three years and three months.

—The following concerning the Weldon Fair on the 12th we take from the Norfolk Virginian: The trotting race, mile heats to harness, best two in three, was won by black Ethan Allen, entered by L. M. Blaisly, in two straight heats. Time 2:46. The second heat was won by Od Sport, entered by C. H. Dozier, the first to receive $5. At 2:30 o'clock there was a running race, half mile and repeat, all ages, for a purse of $40, the first to receive $23 and the second to receive $15.

Cotton for Liverpool—A Good Cargo. The British barque Minnie Gray, Capt. Berrels, consigned to Mr. C. P. Mebane, has completed her cargo and will sail for Liverpool in a day or two. It consists of 1,460 bales of cotton, which is estimated to be 1,955 pounds to the registered ton. The cargo is shipped by Messrs. Williams & Murchison, and was pressed by the Wilmington Compress Company's hydraulic press. Not a bale of the cotton, we are told, is stored in the cabin or fore-cabin.

For the Penitentiary. Daniel Howard, Deputy Sheriff and Jailor, left for Raleigh yesterday morning with the following convicts for the Penitentiary: John Grady, manslaughter, twenty years; Love Ann Jones, accessory in an attempt to commit rape, five years; Henry Johnson, larceny, eight years; Peter Croon, larceny, five years. All of the above are colored but Love Ann Jones.

—See that your name is registered correctly if you wish to vote. A gentleman examined to see that his was all right a few days ago and found it incorrect upon the registration book.

Good advice. If you have a friend with a cough or cold tell him to try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It is a good thing, and he will thank you for your advice. Therapies is only 25 cents a bottle.

Local News

—Cotton receipts yesterday 1,505 bales.

—Spirits turpentine is still on the "boom," the last sales yesterday being at 44 cents per gallon.

—Frost was reported yesterday morning, on the line of railroad between this place and Florence, S. C.

—Rev. T. Page Ricard, of this city, will fill the pulpit of the Methodist Church at Smithville next Sunday.

—The Board of County Commissioners have issued their annual statement for the county of New Hanover for the fiscal year ending August 31st, 1880.

—A window of a store on Front street was found open by the police Wednesday night, and the key found in the door of a lawyer's office on Princess street.

—There was only one case of "drunk and down" for the consideration of the Mayor yesterday morning, and that was disposed of without the formality of a trial.

—The arrival of a cargo of ice is very gratifying to consumers of the article in this city, the stock on hand having been so greatly reduced that for several days past only five pounds was allowed as the quota for each purchaser.

—We had a call last evening from Mr. J. G. Charles, of the Tarboro Southern, a valued friend of other days. Mr. Charles is on a visit to relatives in Pender, and concluded to make a flying trip to Wilmington before returning to Tarboro, for which place he leaves on Saturday.

—Have you changed your ward since the last election? If so, you must have your name taken off the registrar's book of the ward in which you then resided, get a certificate from the registrar of the ward from whence you removed, and register in the ward in which you are at present residing.

—The last circus that passed through this city advertised Rev. Dr. Deems and other clergymen in New York as having endorsed that show, whereupon a gentleman of this city wrote to Dr. Deems and received an answer that all might expect who know that high-toned, sensible Christian gentleman, that he "never saw the show, never read its advertisement, never endorsed it, and knows nothing of it whatever."

Universal Prayer for Sunday Schools. Churches in this and the old country, of all denominations, have been requested by the International Sunday School Executive Committee, the London Sunday School Union, and kindred institutions abroad, to observe next Sunday and Monday, the 17th and 18th of October, 1880, as days of earnest prayer for Sunday schools throughout the world.

The following outline of services is recommended for observance as far as practicable:
That on Lord's-day morning, October 17, from 7 to 8 o'clock, private intercessory prayer be offered on behalf of Sunday schools throughout the world.

That the opening engagements of the morning school be preceded by a meeting of the teachers for prayer.

That ministers be asked to preach, morning or evening, or both, on topics connected with Sunday school work.

That in the afternoon the ordinary engagements of each school be shortened, and a devotional service be held, to which the parents of the scholars might be invited.

That at the close of the evening service the teachers, in union with other Christians, meet for thanksgiving and prayer.

That on Monday morning, October 18, teachers again bring their scholars, one by one, in private prayer before God.

That in the course of the day the female teachers of each school hold a meeting for united prayer and thanksgiving.

Second Ward Democratic Club.

The meeting of the Second Ward Democratic Club last night was well attended, many citizens from other wards being present. The Cornet Concert Club lent their aid to add interest to the occasion, and escorted the orator of the evening, Mr. J. D. Currie, from the Parcell House to the headquarters of the club at the Court House, where the speaking took place.

Mr. Currie was introduced by Major Danaham, the President of the club. His address was calm, unprejudiced and logical; appealing to the better feelings of all Democrats to heal their little differences and face the common enemy with an undivided front.

He spoke of the disfranchisement of our State from Radical rule; showed how the Democratic State government had assisted and befriended the colored race, by its liberal provision for schools and charitable institutions; quoted Garfield's utterances as the cause of their being a "Solid South" and a solid Democratic party. The entire speech was replete with patriotism, good sense, and wise suggestions. At its conclusion, on motion, the thanks of the club were tendered the speaker for the entertainment afforded.

The club meets again on Thursday next, at the same time and place.

The following are the indications for the South Atlantic States to-day: Easterly to southerly winds, stationary or slowly falling barometer, a slight rise in temperature, partly cloudy weather and local rains.

Opera House To-night.

The New York Criterion Comedy Company opens at the Opera House this evening in the farcical comedy entitled "Freaks." It would be hearty laugh just about now, and, judging from the comments of the press, they are sure to get it if they patronize the Criterion Comedy Company. The Boston Journal says of the play: "The most attractive performance of the week, by the New York Criterion Comedy Company, in our view, is 'Freaks.' It is a running stream of fun, and contains more witty dialogue, no less than comic situations, than any play written for many years. And it was correspondingly enjoyable. It is something cheerful and exhilarating to hear an audience on the continuous roar, and especially at and with what is decent in sentiment and incident. Such were the audiences the latter half of the week."

"The New York Criterion Company is an excellent organization. All the leading parts were given with cleverness, clearness and accuracy."

Sudden Death.

Coroner Hewlett was notified Wednesday night that a colored man named Elisha Lewis had died suddenly at his house on Tenth, between Chesnut and Mulberry streets, that evening, nobody being present but two or three little children. The Coroner accompanied the brother of deceased to the house and found the corpse lying stretched out upon the bare floor, without covering of any sort. He saw that proper attention was paid to the body, and then granted permission to the brother, John Lewis, to remove the remains to his house. There an inquest was held over the body yesterday morning, and the jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death from some natural cause to them unknown, but supposed to have been from a congestive chill. Deceased was a cooper, in the employment of Messrs. Hall & Pearsall.

RIVER AND MARINE.

The officers of the brig Ambrose Light say they never witnessed such a terrific gale as that of Friday night and Saturday last, off Hatteras. The brig's guards were completely submerged a part of the time, and one of the officers remarked to us that when poor Austin, the young seaman, was lost overboard, he felt the unfortunate man had only passed into eternity a little ahead of his shipmates, who would soon be called upon to follow in his footsteps through the threshold of the Great Beyond. Our informant stated further that he has been following the sea on and off for about twenty years, but he has never made his last trip, as it is his intention to leave the vessel and take the cars for his home in Maine. In reply to the suggestion that there was danger on the land as well as on the sea, as there was occasionally a smash-up on the railroads, he answered that he was like the darkey who said: "If you get smashed-up on a train, there you is; but if you get lost at sea, where is you?"

Opinion of Belmont Dr. H. E. Walton, Annapolis, Md.—Golden's Liebig's Extract of Beef and Tonic Navigator, is a most excellent preparation. It is per se excellent. Superior to Cod Liver Oil or any thing ever used in wasted or impaired constitution, and an excellent preventive of malarial diseases.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

I shall address the people at Richlands, Onslow county, on Monday, October 18; South Washington, Fender county, Tuesday, October 19; Harrell's Store, Sampson county, Wednesday, October 20; Beauty's Bridge, Bladen county, Thursday, October 21; Point Caswell, Fender county, Friday, October 22. J. W. Shackelford, Esq., is respectfully invited to attend, and speak if he wishes to do so.

Respectfully, H. R. KORNBERG.
