MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

Garfield is at his home. — 180 supervisors of election appointed by Judge Trent, of U. S. Circuit Court, in St. Louis; Marshal Caste appointed 125 deputy marshals; others to follow. — Hon. A. M. Wadell and others spoke at Irving Hall, New York, Thursday night. — Kenward Philp, charged with libel upon Garfield, was examined; Alfred S. Southworth, an expert from Boston, thought Philp wrote the Morley letter; he expected pay for testifying; made affidavit at the request of Stoughton and Davenport; would vote for Garfield; Gen. Pryor wanted to introduce evidence to prove the genuineness of the letter, but objected to by Radical counsel. — A boiler of a steam saw-mill at Warrenton, Va., exploded, killing one man and seriously wounding several others. — Perry, the colored school teacher from North Carolina, arrested in Washington for forgery, is out on a writ of habeas corpus. — Excessive rains, with floods and loss of life have occurred in England and on the continent. — One of the Dent's, a nephew of Grant, has been arrested in New York city for illegally registering. — New York markets: Money 2 1/2 per cent; cotton dull at 11 1/16-11 5/16 cts; southern flour quiet and unchanged; wheat, ungraded red $1 17 1/2-18 1/2; corn a shade stronger and moderately active, ungraded 55 1/2-56 1/2; spirits turpentine decidedly firm at 48 cents; resin dull at $1 50-51 85.

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION RETURNS.

Our friends in all parts of the State where the STAR circulates who can reach a Western Union Telegraph office by 12 o'clock on the night of the election (Tuesday, November 2d) are requested to send to the nearest telegraph-operator all the election returns they can gather by that hour. These will be forwarded to the Western Union Telegraph office in this city free of expense to the sender.

Those who are too far from such telegraph office to comply with the above request will please mail the election returns to the nearest telegraph office by the first mail which leaves their respective post-offices after the close of the polls, directing their letters "Western Union Telegraph Operator at —, North Carolina."

In making up the returns state when possible the gains or losses of the Democratic electoral ticket as compared with the vote for the Tilden electors in 1876.

If any man says Horace Bagby will not be elected Sheriff "shoot him on the spot."

Don't forget your canvassers and challengers. Look especially to the First Ward.

Chairman Barnum says that Philp was arrested for writing a libel and not for forgery. A distinction with a difference.

The Atlanta Constitution says the family mansion at Mentor should be searched for the fellow who got up that Chinese letter. Good.

Watch out for frauds. See to it that no repeaters and ballot-stuffers are on hand. See to it that imported negroes and boys of the same color are not allowed to debauch the ballot.

The Philadelphia Ledger's correspondent in New York says thoughtful persons and close observers of events outside of regular party lines say the election will be extremely close. The Ledger is a Grant paper and Independent Republican.

The leading business men of Norfolk, Va., are so much impressed with the importance of the election, and, specially, of the reelection of their present able and faithful Representative, John Goode, they have published a card in the Virginian recommending the closing of all places of business on Tuesday next. They say, to devote their time and influence to the good work. Let our Wilmington business men do likewise. Let all work and vote for the county ticket; for John W. Shackelford for Congress, for the Democratic State ticket and for Hancock and English. And may God grant us a great triumph and a safe deliverance from the curse of Radicalism—from the curse of all men and everything who fight under that piratical flag!

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXVII.—NO. 33.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1880.

WHOLE NO. 4,122

THE CHINESE LETTER.

Mr. E. H. Ranch, of Mauch Chunk, Pennsylvania, is an expert of handwriting of such a high character that he has been employed in several very important law suits in the courts of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and the District of Columbia, in which it was necessary to have the judgment of a conscientious, honorable and experienced master of handwriting. The New York World of the 27th says of him:

"He was led to the study of chirography many years ago, and has since made that study a specialty by reason of his ability, which seemed intuitive, to simulate any handwriting to a remarkable degree of perfection. The study of different handwritings came later, naturally enough, from this proficiency."

He has been examining Garfield's genuine letters and the lithograph of the Morley letter. We give a vital portion of his letter to the World. He writes:

"I have been specially careful in examining the photograph as taken from the original Chinese letter in question, to discover any evidence of pause, constraint or unnatural writing, and I read it over for this purpose, with a strong magnifying glass, and I pronounce the letter, from beginning to end, perfectly regular, free, natural and consistent with itself. Were it a simulation or unnatural writing I am satisfied the evidence could be found somewhere on its face. I know of no man living who could manufacture a letter to the same length, in simulation of the hand of another, to the degree of regularity, uniformity and perfection shown in this one. I am not prepared to pronounce anything impossible, but, speaking for myself, I am sure I could not execute a perfect simulation of such a letter in the hands of James A. Garfield, unless I had the exact copy, the same subject matter, before me, and I do not believe that any person can do it to perfection. Therefore, if this particular letter is a forgery, as alleged by Mr. Garfield, I am confident that the forger must have had just such a writing by the hand of James A. Garfield, before him to copy from."

This is the opinion of a great expert of the highest character. Mr. Hewitt is still confident the letter is Garfield's. He says:

"Here I have three indisputably genuine signatures of Gen. Garfield; their evidence says that the fourth signature was made by the same hand, to say nothing of the corroborative to be found in the Garfield record as to the sentiments of the letter. Now, to oppose my belief in the mere word of Gen. Garfield—a man in whom I know there is no truth. I know it by more than the public has in mind."

TOO THIN, MR. BLOCKER. An advertisement, signed "Millwright," appears in the last issue of the Fayetteville Examiner, in which the writer, after saying "I have always been a good Democrat," proceeds to give a number of reasons why he will support the Hon. Buck Parker Canada for Congress.

In reference to this matter we have received the following telegram from Mr. W. C. Troy, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Cumberland county:

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 20. W. H. Bernard, Wilmington: Millwright's advertisement was written and signed by O. H. Blocker, and refusing to give the author, we charge it upon him. (Signed) W. C. Troy, Chairman Ex. Com.

Well, well! O. H. Blocker has "always been a good Democrat." How desperate must be the chances of the Hon. B. Parker when his friends resort to such dodges as this.

The STAR does not go mad over an actress like Sarah Bernhardt, but as she has arrived at New York and is the main topic of the fashionables, besides newspapers that have nothing more important on hand, we give a description of her from one of the admiring papers:

"She is of medium stature, inclined perhaps to shortness. Her forehead, which is naturally quite low, becomes totally inflexible under the heavy and costly coiffure. Her hair itself is neither reddish nor bright golden, as described by some persons, but a warm blonde, and of so healthy a hue that a dye is not even suggested. Her features are extremely fine, and are not even remotely indicative of her Semitic origin. Her cheek bones are rather high, and her eyes, which are steel blue, are, when her face is in repose, prone to drowsiness, but as soon as her face becomes animated sparkle electrically. Her mouth is large but pretty, and her teeth are fine, although the upper ones are perhaps too long. The most striking part of her face is her complexion, which is of a transparent and warm paleness. Her bearing is graceful and unaffected, and wholly free from the staidness which many actresses are forever bent upon parading in public."

The Richmond State of Thursday announces the death of a distinguished, able, scholarly divine, Bishop David Seth Doggett, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. We quote:

"He was in his 71st year, being born in Lancaster county, Va., in 1810. In 1839, at the session of the Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Lynchburg. In 1841, and until 1846, he was Professor of Moral and Mental Philosophy in Randolph-Macon. In 1850, he was appointed editor of the Southern Methodist Quarterly Review. At the General Conference held in New Orleans in May, 1866, he was elected to the Episcopacy of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1865, with Dr. John E. Edwards, he began the publication of the Episcopal Methodist."

The Indianapolis correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal, in his letter of the 25th inst., says the Republicans are really frightened and are afraid of defeat in Indiana. He says the Democrats are doing their best to redeem the State. He says of the Chinese letter:

"Senator McDonald, Gen. Manson, and others who are familiar with the handwriting of Gen. Garfield, do not doubt the genuineness of the handwriting. It is known here in high Democratic circles that the National Committee will prove the letter to be genuine, and have another letter in their possession written by Garfield, which places him in a worse light."

The Washington Post thinks Hancock's election probable. Maine may vote either way. New Hampshire and Connecticut doubtful. Nevada certain for Hancock. California and Oregon doubtful. New York sure for Hancock. New Jersey the Republicans have about given up. The South is solid for the Democracy and its candidates, with Virginia a trifle fractious as to the manner in which she shall display her affection. This is about its view. Our own is on the second page.

Iowa is thought to be in danger. So says that veracious paper, the New York Times, Rep. "Cause, why?" The Democrats will all vote for the Greenback electors. The Times says if this is done Garfield will lose eleven votes. Then it ought to be done.

Let there be a rousing meeting Monday night in every ward. What do you say?

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

Bets in Weldon are even that Indiana and Pennsylvania will give their electoral votes to Hancock. If Hancock is not elected, no faith is to be put in signs. — Weldon News.

On last Tuesday about twenty-five hundred people assembled in Reams' warehouse to hear North Carolina's favorite son, Governor Vance. Round after round of applause greeted him wherever he was seen. — Durham Plant.

A grand torch-light procession on to-morrow night is being prepared for. Major Dowd, Colonel Charles R. Jones, Colonel John D. Wylie, General A. J. Dargan and other speakers have been invited and expected to be present. — Monroe Enquirer.

We see several accounts in our exchanges of the beating of negroes who intended to vote the Democratic ticket by Radical negroes. Are white Democrats going to allow that sort of work to go on without immediate punishment? Shame on Democrats anywhere who will permit a colored man to be beat and cuffed by vicious, ignorant negroes simply because he wants to vote with the Democrats, the best friends of his race. — Charlotte Democrat.

Under the appointment of the County Democratic Executive Committee, Donsey Battle Esq., and other speakers will address the citizens of Edgecombe at Rocky Mount on Saturday, 30th of October. — The woods in the First District is full of Radical money and speakers. They are moving heaven, earth and Hades, especially the last, to elect Grandy. Latham estimates his majority at 1,600. — The barbecue at Lewis' Store on Friday was partaken of by 200 people. Hon. W. H. Kitchen spoke. — Tarboro Southern.

Col. Duncan K. McRae went to Salisbury yesterday, where he speaks to-day. — We invite attention to Gov. Brogden's card, published elsewhere. He is not a Congressional candidate, having withdrawn from the field. — Keogh has been promised "a new war" by the Republican Committee at Washington. Canada has also figured at the headquarters of his party there, though in a more occult manner. The Republicans are getting ready for eventualities. Democrats must watch and work. — Goldboro Messenger.

On Thursday morning last, when "Aunt Nancy" and Dookery had proceeded to fill an appointment the vehicle in which they rode being too heavily burdened with Radical iniquity, broke down just beyond Countryline bridge, in a stone's throw of the corporate limits. A big crowd of the "Wards of the Nation" soon gathered around to help the "brethren" out of their difficulty. Another vehicle was called into requisition, and in "unloading" the broken carriage of its political filth and slime, some man and "brother" stole Aunt Nancy's fine "Police" (Valise) as some of the darkies call it. — Milton Chronicle.

Caswell letter: It is said that $300 of the Republican fund has been sent to Caswell—$200 to Johnston and $500 to Wils Carey—and the effective part of Long's speech at Leesburg to-day was to charge them with having received a considerable sum of money (both being present). Neither denied the charge. — Hertford correspondent: Gov. Vance has been met at all of his appointments thus far by a large concourse of people of both sexes. This district will give Jarvis and Latham at least fifteen hundred to cross to Pitt with. The whole ticket is all right. Governor Jarvis spoke in Lexington, October 24, to an immense audience here on last Saturday. We had more voters here than we have had at any one time since the great Seymour and Blair demonstration in 1868. We had a grand mounted procession of some 400 horsemen. The Concord band dispensed excellent music. The ladies were out in full force. Gov. Jarvis arose amid deafening shouts and applause, which extended throughout the immense assembly. He spoke about two hours. We have heard many good judges say that it was the best speech they ever heard. — Raleigh News & Observer.

Spirits Turpentine.

— We regret to learn that Judge Brooks is too sick to hold the court on New Bern.

— Fayetteville Examiner: We regret to learn that a little son of Mr. Neill Graham, of this town, had his thigh broken on Tuesday last, by the fall of a horse on which he was riding. — Mr. John Hale, an ex-slave of Fayetteville, died at his residence in this vicinity, on Tuesday last, the 28th, aged 71 years.

— Goldboro Messenger: Mr. E. B. Borden has one 95-acre field of cotton on which he will make this year one hundred 500 lbs. bales of cotton. Pretty good. — We learn from the Warrenton News that a white man named Joe Johnson was run over and killed by the north bound train, near that town, last Saturday night. Drunkenness was the cause of the death.

— Charlotte Democrat: It will be seen by a card signed by cotton-buyers that no cotton will be cut or bought in this city on election day. — The son of Capt. John Wilkes, (Paul, aged about 14 years), who was injured on a railroad track in this city last week, we are glad to learn is getting better. He had a bone in both legs broken, and was injured on the back. His escape from death is marvelous.

— Charlotte Observer: W. S. Norment has placed in the hands of the sheriff an injunction forbidding the collection of taxes for the graded school in Charlotte, returned by Judge Seymour at chambers in Charlotte on the 1st of November. — After a lingering and painful illness, Mrs. Emma Nicholson, wife of Capt. S. B. Alexander, died at her residence yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

— Charlotte Press: The fast train to Wilmington will be a good institution. — Doves of horses pass through daily. Some have halted on account of the epidemic among them. — The Railroad Syndicate has advanced the freight on cotton to New York 20 cents per bale from this city. Their second advance. — It is a pity that a troupe of first class people like the Belgards could not draw houses such as the one of lower order extraneous like Reutz and Dumphy.

— Tarboro Southern: Mr. John Lawrence died on Tuesday, the 20th inst., at his residence, in this county, in the 79th year of his age. He was widely known and a well respected citizen. — Some fiend incarnate on Tuesday night shot the student of the F. D. Duck Esq., in this county, and fired five bullets into the head of his fine mare. Joe Hopkins, colored, was arrested and bound over to the court for this diabolical deed. — We are informed by James W. Whitehurst, Esq., railroad agent, that there will be raised in this county the present year 30,000 bales of cotton. Number of bales shipped from this point up to date is 7,500, awaiting shipment at the depot, 300 bales. He further says that there has been imported into this county for the present year, $25,000 worth of corn; $100,000 worth of meat including sausages; $60,000 worth of fertilizers; $100,000 worth of whiskey and $10,000 worth of hay. The present cotton crop will be worth $1,350,000.

— Raleigh News and Observer: There are now 141 students at Wake Forest. — Secretary Denson is now busily engaged in the preparation of the awards at the late State fair. As soon as the committee has passed upon the awards and approves them, they will be published. The committee meets next week. The premiums are payable in thirty days after the close of the fair, and will therefore be returned by James W. Whitehurst, Esq., about 9 o'clock last night the fire alarm was sounded, caused by the burning of Mr. George Cooke's barn and corn crib, about two miles southwest of the city, containing 17,000 pounds of seed cotton, which were entirely destroyed. There was no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. — Jas. H. Lassiter, colored, of Durham, was struck by a train Tuesday night and injured that he died yesterday. He was about 16 years of age and was an employee in Blackwell's tobacco factory. He was deaf and dumb, and was walking on the track just beyond the depot in Durham, when a gravel train, backing struck him, breaking his skull and nearly cutting off one of his legs.

Went Glimmering.

Messrs. Newberry & Chasten's driver went into the store yesterday, laid down his umbrella, and, turning around, a second afterwards, it had disappeared, nor could he obtain any trace of the article or the thief. Umbrellas are slippery things on rainy days.

Turned Republicans.

We heard yesterday, upon good authority, that R. S. Waller, formerly a leading member of the Greenback party in this city, and one of their best speakers, had come out as a Republican, and is now working and speaking for the success of that party in the coming election.

Is Ole Bull any kin to the Cough Syrup man? We think not, but they are about equally well known and advertised.

Local Notes.

— Cotton receipts yesterday 764 bales.

— The registrars and judges of election will attend at the various polling places to-day from 9 A. M. till 5 P. M., to hear and determine challenges.

— Owing to the stormy weather, the address of Mr. Thos. H. McKoy, Jr., which was to have taken place last night at the Court House, was postponed.

— Cows broke into Mr. A. D. Brown's flower garden yesterday morning and played havoc with his plants and floral treasures. Some cows are a nuisance.

— Remember that no one is to register in any precinct to which he has removed for the mere purpose of voting therein; nor unless his residence is actual and bona fide.

— The Swedish brig Magness and the Norwegian Barque Abraham were cleared from this port yesterday; the former by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son with 3,050 bales cotton, and the latter by Messrs. Williams & Marchison with 1,387 bales cotton. Both vessels go to Liverpool.

— A Burglary and Attempted Robbery. A bold and daring burglary was committed yesterday morning at the residence of Mr. H. J. Mints, on Queen, between Fifth and Sixth streets. Mr. Mints was absent from home at the time, only his wife, her sister and two small children being in the house. Mrs. M. was aroused by some noise, about 2 o'clock A. M., a bright light having been let burning in the room, and discovered a stout mulatto man standing by her bed, with his hand on the headboard. As soon as he found that he was discovered, and before Mrs. Mints had recovered sufficiently from her terror to scream, the scoundrel turned and fled from the room, jumping through a window in the dining room, through which he had entered. Upon examination a saw-horse was found immediately under the window, which the burglar had used as a stepping-stone. It was thought that the man, of whose identity Mrs. M. has no suspicion, was after a trunk which was under the bedstead upon which she had been sleeping.

Bladen Politics.

Major Charles M. Stedman returned from Bladen yesterday. Together with Colonel B. R. Moore he addressed the people at Bladenboro Thursday. He says that if Shackelford does as well in all the counties of the District as in Bladen, his majority will not be less than fifteen hundred.

Major Stedman speaks in the highest terms of the capacity and skill of Mr. F. H. Smith, the Chairman of the County Executive Committee of Bladen, as an organizer. The Democrats of Bladen are making a red hot canvass. Mr. Shackelford will poll the full party vote, and the election of Mr. N. A. Stedman, Jr., over both the Republican and Greenback candidates for the Legislature is claimed by the Democratic Executive Committee with great confidence.

A telegram was received from Fayetteville yesterday afternoon, by Messrs. Worth & Worth, stating that the steamer A. P. Hart left for this city at 11 o'clock that morning, and that it had been raining steadily all day. The presumption is, therefore, that there will be plenty of water in the river for boating purposes in a day or two.

Fifth Ward.

The following named persons have been appointed challengers and canvassers by Capt. P. T. Dicksey, President of the Fifth Ward Club, to serve at the polls in that ward on the day of election:

Challengers—Wilkes Morris, W. E. Mayo, J. M. McGowan, J. W. Millis, Jordan Branch, F. Rheu, Williamson Hunt, Sylvester Burris, J. D. Stanley, Benj. Farrow.

Magistrate's Court.

Langdon Perkins, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millie, yesterday, on the affidavit of George Robinson, also colored, charged with assault and battery. Judgment suspended on the payment of costs. Bettie Hurst, colored, was arraigned on a peace warrant sworn out by Ann Daniels, another dusky-bred dame, which was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor. The same defendant was next called up on a charge of assault preferred by Ann Daniels, and judgment was suspended on the payment of costs.

Mayor's Court.

Alice Ransom, colored, was before the Mayor on the charge of going into a store on Market street and abusing one of the clerks, using very profane as well as loud and boisterous language, which she repeated on the sidewalk in front of the store. Defendant was ordered to pay a fine of $10 or go below for ten days, from which decision she appealed to the Criminal Court, and was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $50 for her appearance. Subsequently, however, she withdrew the appeal, and paid the fine.

Water Works.

At a meeting of the joint Committees of the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Audit and Finance, on the proposed introduction of water works in this city, held last evening, it was unanimously agreed to accept the proposition of Dr. Cloud, acting for the firm of J. A. Cloud & Co., of New York city. A meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be held this evening, when the report of the joint committees will be laid before that body.

Closing Bar-Rooms, &amp;c.

Mayor Fishplate has issued his proclamation, to be found in this issue of the STAR, requiring all bar-rooms and other places where intoxicating liquors are sold, to close their places of business on Monday evening, the 1st inst., at 6 o'clock, and to keep them closed until the following Wednesday morning at the same hour, in accordance with the law, for the violation of which a severe penalty is prescribed.

Grand Rally of the Democracy.

At the request of leading citizens of the Fifth Ward arrangements have been made by the Executive Committee for a grand rally of the Democracy and the final effort of the campaign in this city, at the old "stamping ground" corner of Sixth and Castle streets, on Monday night next. The other wards in the city are invited to participate. The speakers will be announced in Sunday morning's paper.

Theatrical.

The engagements for the Opera House during November are:

John T. Ford, 14th and 15th; attractions unknown. Mrs. James C. Oates, 24th. Cyril Searle & Co., 30th. There is an enquiry for the night of the 8th, but as yet the date has not been definitely taken.

Change of Schedule.

A new schedule will go into effect on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad to-morrow. The day express and passenger train will leave here at 6:30 A. M., instead of 6:50 A. M., and arrive at 10:30 P. M., instead of 9:55 P. M., as formerly. The night express and passenger train will leave at 8 P. M., instead of 8:30 P. M., and arrive at 9 A. M., instead of 8:40 A. M., as formerly.

The proper time to use Dr. Tait's Liver Pills is when you have Nausea, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Cast of the Skin, Rush of Blood to the Head, Cold Extremities, Ringing in the Ears, Pain in the Urine, Side and Shoulder-aches. They afford prompt relief. As a family medicine they have no equal.

CITY ITEMS.

NEWSPAPER FOR SALE.—A well established and prosperous Weekly Newspaper, located in a thriving, growing town on the line of a prominent Railroad, is offered for sale. Terms cash. For terms and particulars apply to the editor of this paper.

From Eminent W. L. Almon, President Medical College, Halifax, N. S.: "Golden's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator is invaluable for fever, indigestion, weakness, and cannot be surpassed for female complaints."

"DON'T KNOW HALF THEIR VALUE." "They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney complaint, as recommended. I had a half bottle left which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and administering it with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homoeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse, and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended with the doctor's prescription, she was soon convinced of the value of the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have yielded to the baby's remedy. The mother's prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle."
