MORNING EDITION. Printed at the Press Office at Wilmington, N. C., as the Second-Class Matter.

OUTLINE: The witness Morcy, as is alleged, has made a confession of perjury; he says he was bribed to tell his yarn.

Our friend Ennis, of Raleigh, is publishing an excellent monthly for the farmers, at $1 a year, and his list of premiums for clubs is full and inviting. We mentioned that a Hancock Club for 1884 had been formed in the Northwest. There is a Tilden Club at Pittsburgh, Pa., and it is for the old man in 1884.

One of the actresses of "Our German Senator Combination" now playing in this State, Miss Dora Stuart, lost her life by falling down the steps of a hotel in Charleston, S. C.

The New York correspondent of the Charleston News says there is no foundation, in fact, for the cry set up by Kelly and company concerning immense frauds in the election. He says it will end in talk.

After all that has been said Gen. Hancock has written no letter about the New York vote. But it is asserted that he has expressed himself as reported. Hancock will do what is right and patriotic and for the good of the country, you may well believe.

The Greenbackers appear to have been reduced to but three members in the next House, namely, two in Missouri and one in Maine. The craze captured probably 3,000 votes in this State. But never mind the votes so the candidates get the money - Greenbacks at that.

We are gratified to see it announced that Gen. Joseph Wheeler, of Alabama, has been elected to the U. S. House. It was thought he had been defeated by the Greenbacker Lowe. Gen. Wheeler is a true Democrat, and is loyal to the Constitution and the Union.

And now the Radicals are not satisfied with the election in New Jersey and they want to count out Ludlow, the Democratic candidate elected Governor. Some how in this country elections don't elect, especially when the Rads have a chance at counting the ballots.

The Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina met at Raleigh on Wednesday night. Rev. E. F. Rockwell, the Moderator, preached the opening sermon. There are 51 ministers and 42 ruling elders in attendance. The Raleigh News-Observer says: "The Synod then proceeded to the election of a Moderator. There were five nominees: Rev. L. C. Vase of New Bern, Rev. J. C. Alexander of Guilford; Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D. D., of this city; Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D., of Greensboro and Professor W. J. Martin, of Davidson College. The nomination of Professor Martin created quite a ripple of interest, it being contrary to usual custom to elect one not a minister, as well as one not a member of the Presbytery in the bounds which the Synod meets. Dr. Atkinson's name was withdrawn, and the vote resulted on the second ballot in favor of Rev. Dr. Smith.

THE MORNING STAR

VOL. XXVII.--NO. 44. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1880. WHOLE NO. 4,133

We mentioned a few weeks ago that Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine—a high authority—published some months ago a very able theoretical paper, in which Sara Bernhardt was denied the qualities of a great actress. The Philadelphia Times's critic takes a similar view. The critic for the New York Evening Post, one of the best authorities in literary and art criticism, holds the same view, whilst admitting her very great cleverness. His opinion is interesting enough to be quoted from. He says: "There is no doubt that she is a most accomplished performer, of strong individuality and much originality. Whether she is justly entitled to the appellation of great is doubtful. This remains to be proved. In Adrienne she is remarkably effective, but she did not touch greatness last night. She was at no time transformed by the fire of passion or the power of genius as to defy critical judgment. She awakened the liveliest admiration by the perfection of her method, her complete mastery of her art and brilliant intelligence, but she did not send the blood whirling tumultuously through the veins until reason is the slave of emotion. It was always possible to trace the means by which the end was reached, and this is equivalent to saying that her efforts were the result of the perfection of mechanism rather than of inspiration. She never, for instance, reached the heights of passion to which Clara Morris is wont to attain, but she gave that famous actress an invaluable lesson, if she would profit by it, touching the true significance and use of dramatic style and finish."

The Senate will stand 37 Democrats, 37 Republicans and 2 Independents, Davis and Mahone. Davis will vote generally with the Democrats, we have no doubt. Mahone refuses to indicate his bias or purpose. If he votes with the Republicans it will be a tie, the Vice President Absalom Arthur, having the casting vote. The Secretary of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, one McPherson, gives the latest estimate as to the House: Republicans, 148; Democrats, 136; Readjuster Democrats, 2; Greenbackers 7. But these figures are not accurate, for every day we hear of gains and losses. It is not known, for instance, what is the complexion of the Arkansas delegation. Two darkies are reported elected. The Washington Post of the 10th inst., places it as follows: Republicans, 149; Democrats, 141; Greenbackers, 3. This gives the Republicans a plurality of 8 over the Democrats and a majority of 5 over all.

So the North Carolina darkey, Perry, who acted as a decoy for the Radicals and induced hundreds of negroes to move to Indiana that they might help carry that State, is liberated by the Radical Judge Wylie, of the District of Columbia, upon the ground that the indictment for forgery was defective and the evidence of guilt insufficient. Gov. Jarvis had made a requisition and with this result. His serving as a decoy covered a multitude of sins, even a case of forgery.

"Gen. Meyer, of Charlotte, N. C., say that the ostracism practiced by the Democrats is fearful, but that it does not alarm him because he is very rich and can buy and sell; but that any Republican will find his sons and daughters shut out from social intercourse. 'No education, no wealth,' he says, 'can wipe away the stain of being a Republican in the South.'" - New York Herald

Who is this Gen. Meyer, anyway? We never heard of him. Perhaps he is a Radical office-holder or a Radical office-seeker. Perhaps he is a myth or a nonentity.

A New York special says of the probable successor of Senator Kernan: "The gentlemen who are mentioned in the newspapers and by politicians as aspirants for Kernan's place, are Levi F. Morton, Conkling's closest political friend; Gen. George H. Sharpe, 'Iron Platt,' Frank Hiscock, John H. Starin, John M. Francis, of the Troy Times, and a host of others, even including such positive opponents of Conklingism as are Ellis H. Roberts, George William Curtis and Judge Robertson."

The following paragraph, clipped from the Philadelphia Times of yesterday, epitomizes our editorial on the New York blow that appeared previously: "Since the Democrats did not succeed in inaugurating a President whom they elected it is hardly worth while to talk about their inaugurating a Presidential candidate who was defeated. The spirit is no doubt willing, but the flesh is weak."

Garfield is a member of the House. He is Senator elect and he is President elect. What a lucky dog. Was any other man ever before elected to the Presidency from the Senate or as Senator elect? Did any other man ever become President elect whilst a member of the House and elected to the Senate?

It was reported by telegraph that Democrats in Richmond, Va., had demanded an investigation of the New York vote. The State says there is not a word of truth in it and adds: "No sane man here has ever thought seriously of contesting Mr. Garfield's election, and the same, we think, may be said of the whole South." Correct!

Mahone was in Washington Wednesday. He was in conference with leading Republicans, and had nothing to do with Democrats. General Billy is clearly for Mahone.

Spirits Turpentine

General A. M. Scales is quite sick. - Charlotte has "Our German Senator" this week. Wilmington is cut off by a bad schedule. - Warsaw Brief Mention: Miss Sallie Faison, who was engaged in teaching at Selma, in Johnston county, died at that place on last Saturday night, after a severe illness of about thirty days.

There is a man in Person county who writes a communication to the Oxford Torchlight in which he had to a half dozen or more men. He refers to all as "Hon." Why not? It is as common as "Squire" or "Kurnel."

Oxford Torchlight: Our popular countyman and leading farmer, Mr. John Meadlow, took the first premium at the recent State Fair for the finest display of golden leek tobacco. Hurrah for Granville, and three cheers for John Meadlow!

Raleigh News and Observer: Bishop Lyman arrived in this city last evening from New York, where he has been in attendance at the general convention. He will remain here until Friday, when he goes to Asheboro on his visitation.

Raleigh Visitor: The N. C. Christian Conference, colored, will meet on Tuesday next, at Cary, N. C. The 18th Annual Fair of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society, at Elizetown, will close Tuesday. The Hon. Walter L. Steele will deliver the annual address.

Raleigh Advocate: Rev. J. W. Lewis, of Madison Circuit, writes: We have had several good meetings since I saw you, with good results—15 converts and several valuable accessions to the church. - Rev. Walter S. Cressy, of Salisbury Circuit, writes: Have just closed a glorious meeting at Oak Grove. Church much revived; 38 souls converted; 30 accessions to the Church. This has been a glorious year for Salisbury Circuit—286 conversions; - Rev. M. J. Hunt, of Forsyth Circuit, writes: I wish to say that we had a good meeting at Clemmonsville and New Hope, since my last notice. Six professors in Christ. - Rev. P. L. Groom, of Pleasant Garden Circuit, writes: We have had a prosperous year on Pleasant Garden Circuit. The churches have been greatly blessed by a genuine revival of religion throughout the circuit, about 70 souls have been converted and about that number, perhaps somewhat less, have been added to the Church. - Wentworth Circuit: Our meetings were prosecuted, with good results—8 conversions and 13 accessions to the Church.

Charlotte Observer: Dr. Chadbourne, a distinguished mineralogist and geologist, of Pennsylvania, went up the Western North Carolina Railroad yesterday morning to make a further examination of the immense mine property recently purchased in McDowell county by the Vein Mountain Gold Mining Company. Sunday night, as the south-bound passenger train on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, north of this city, twelve miles below Columbia, going at the rate of twenty miles an hour, it suddenly struck a broken rail over which all the cars passed in safety but the sleeper which left the track. A number of persons were in the sleeper but no one was hurt except a little girl, who sustained a painful gash across the cheek, probably caused by the breaking of the glass in one of the windows of the car. The gauge of the Western North Carolina Railroad is being changed from four feet eight inches and a half to five feet to conform to the gauge of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, in consequence of this there will be no train on the road yesterday and none to-day. It is reported here that the entire work will be finished by to-morrow. The change will necessitate a transfer of all freight over the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad to Statesville. It also gives a continuous line from Asheville to Richmond, to Beaufort on the North Carolina coast, to Norfolk, via the Atlantic, Mississippi & Ohio Railroad, to Charleston, to New Orleans, and indeed to all Southern points and ports. By this change the Western North Carolina Railroad becomes part and parcel of the system of railroads which form the combination of lines that run the backbone of the Atlantic, in Europe triennially, and biennially in America. The last two conventions, one at Geneva and the other at Baltimore, united in setting apart the second Sabbath in November with the week following (Nov. 14-20) as a season of special prayer for young men and Christian work on their behalf.

The following topics have been suggested by the International Committee for meetings each week: Sunday morning, Nov. 14—Workers together with Him, their spirit.—II. Cor. vi: 1-10. Sunday afternoon—Bringing One's Friends to Jesus.—Luke v: 17-26. Sunday evening—The Worst Foe and the Best Friend of Young Men.—Luke xxii: 31-33; Peter v: 8; Luke xix: 10. Monday, Nov. 15—In What Does Life Consist?—Luke xii: 15-23; Eccl. ii: 17-18; Romans viii: 6. Tuesday, 16—Investigation, a Path to Faith.—John i: 46; John iv: 28-30, 40-42, v: 39. Wednesday, 17—Jesus Testing the Impulsive, the Procrastinating and the Undecided.—Luke ix: 57-63. Thursday, 18—A Young Man who Obeyed the Voice of Christ.—Luke vii: 11-16; Eph. v: 14. Friday, 19—Oris in Daniel's Life.—Daniel i: 8-20. Saturday, 20—An Unconditional Surrender.—Acts i: 1-9; Phil. iii: 7-9.

The North Carolina Democracy owes a debt of gratitude so largely to save the State ticket, by making gains, instead of falling off, viz.: Columbus 655, Onslow 704, Sampson 470, Currituck 308, Duplin 740, Anson 687, Union 601, Rockingham 850, Pitt 475, Robeson 528, and a few other counties which, like Halifax, reduced the Republican majority one half. It will be noticed that in nearly every county where there was a big demonstration and speaking we lost ground. We lost 700 in Mecklenburg, 400 in Buncombe, 400 in Iredell, 871 in Wilson, 300 in Rowan, 350 in Caldwell, 255 in Watauga, 300 in Wake, 400 in Orange, 200 in Duplin, and so on. [New Hanover had a "big demonstration" and made by it. See vote.—STAR.]

Local Items. - Lovely weather yesterday. - Cotton receipts yesterday 1216 bales. - Chesnut street, between Third and Fourth, has been greatly improved by a judicious use of ballast. - Mr. James S. Melvin, who was stricken with paralysis on Wednesday morning, is said to be still very low. - Sheriff Manning has gone North after his wife, who has been spending some time with relatives in Brooklyn. - Wm. Davis, colored, who was arrested by Officer Simon Richardson a few days since on the charge of being an escaped prisoner from the State Penitentiary, was taken to Raleigh by his captor on Wednesday.

Gen. Lee Angel, of the American Union Telegraph Company, whose visits of late have been "few and far between," is expected here about the 1st of December to organize the forces of "the opposition." It is said the A. U. will have its wire here before the close of the present year.

Mayor's Court. The case of C. H. Grant, charged with acting disorderly at the Fifth Ward polls on election day, came up for investigation yesterday morning. Messrs. M. & John London appearing for the defence and Col. D. K. McKee and the City Attorney, Mr. F. H. Darby, for the prosecution. Several members of the police force and others testified to the fact that the accused was very disorderly in the neighborhood of the polls during the entire day, and that he openly defied the officials, police, etc., saying that he had plenty of friends in the crowd who would stand by him if he were arrested. It furthermore came out in evidence that the disorderly proceedings around the polls had the effect to confuse the poll-holders and prevent them from receiving the votes as expeditiously as they would otherwise have done. The defence introduced no evidence.

At the conclusion of the examination, during which the court room was filled with interested spectators, Mayor Fishplate sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of $50, or be confined in the city prison for thirty days, being the extreme penalty of the law. From this decision the accused, through his counsel, appealed to the Criminal Court, whereupon His Honor required him to enter into a justified bond in the sum of $250 for his appearance. The defendant was next arraigned on the charge of resisting the police, and at the conclusion of the testimony he received the same sentence as in the previous case. His counsel again appealed, and he was required to enter into an additional bond of $250 for his appearance, making his security altogether $500. The necessary bonds were furnished, with W. P. Canada, Esq., as surety, who justified to the amounts named.

Week of Prayer for Young Men. The Young Men's Christian Associations meet in International Convention on both sides of the Atlantic, in Europe triennially, and biennially in America. The last two conventions, one at Geneva and the other at Baltimore, united in setting apart the second Sabbath in November with the week following (Nov. 14-20) as a season of special prayer for young men and Christian work on their behalf.

RYE AND MAINE. - The Schr. Clara G. Cloud, which cleared from New York for this port on the 5th of October last, with a cargo of salt, and consigned to Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co., has never been heard from and is supposed to have gone down, with all on board, in the gale of the 17th of that month. She was commanded by Capt. Frank C. Cook, a resident of the State of Maine. A letter from the father-in-law of the mate of the ill-fated schooner, Mr. George Greenleaf, of Liberty, Maine, has been received here, making inquiries in regard to the missing vessel. The Clara G. Cloud hailed from Boston and was owned there and in ports in Maine. - The schooner Mary Bear, owned by our enterprising firm here, Messrs. Sol. Bear & Bros., sailed from Smithville yesterday, about 1 o'clock. Mr. Thomas M. Morse, son of Capt. C. C. Morse, of Smithville, went out on the Mary Bear as mate and navigator. This is quite a compliment to the young gentleman, who is said to be "a chip of the old block." The schooner is freighted with a cargo of lumber and bound for the West Indies, and will bring back a cargo of phosphates for the Navassa Guano Company, of this place. We wish friend Morse and Capt. Chadwick, the master of the Mary Bear, a pleasant voyage and a speedy return to their homes and firesides. - A severe gale prevailed at Smithville and vicinity Wednesday afternoon and evening, during which the schooner Louis Harmon, loaded with phosphates for the Navassa Guano Company, grounded on what is known as the "Red Bone" shoal, at "Horse Shoe," about four miles above Smithville. At the time the steamer Elizabeth passed yesterday, at 3 P. M., the steamer Passport and the steam-tug Blanche were tugging away at the unlucky vessel, trying to get her off the shoal, the tide at the time being at its flood. It was feared that the cargo, or at least a portion of it, would have to be lightered before she could be gotten off, provided the steamers failed to get her into deep water during the high tide which then prevailed. - The Customs officials in this city have received inquiries through the Signal office at Cape Hatteras as to the fate of the missing schooner W. P. Cox. Capt. Edward Burrus, captain of the ill-fated vessel, is understood to have been a resident of that vicinity, and it is presumed that the inquiries were made for the benefit of his anxious family and friends. There appears to be no doubt that the vessel is lost, and an answer to that effect was returned. The last news here, which came through a pilot, was to the effect that she was seen standing off from Hatteras on Saturday, the 8th of October, in the midst of the heavy gale which prevailed on that day. A New York paper stated that she went down off Cape Lookout. The W. P. Cox sailed from Philadelphia for this port with a cargo of coal, on the 29th of September, and, as before stated, she was overtaken in Newbern. It seems to be a settled fact that the vessel is lost, and that all on board perished.

ELECTION RETURNS.

All the returns under this head marked official, which have been already published, or may hereafter be published, were sent specially to the STAR by the Registers of Deeds of the various counties: TYRRELL—Official. Majorities—Hancock 80; Governor—Jarvis 88; Congress—Latham 74; Senator—Democratic 49; House—Republican 20.

Daily Weather Bulletin.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations named, at 3.00 P. M. yesterday, Washington mean time, and also the amount of rainfall in inches or the twenty-four hours ending at 3 P. M., as furnished by Sergeant James W. Watson, Signal Officer at this Station: Tem. R. F. Weather. Atlanta..... 63 .90 Clear Augusta..... 71 .04 Clear Charleston..... 73 .45 Clear Charlotte..... 69 .08 Clear Corvallis..... 71 .00 Clear Galveston..... 66 .00 Clear Havana..... 83 .00 Clear Jacksonville..... 76 .80 Clear Key West..... 84 .17 Fair Mobile..... 68 .00 Clear Montgomery..... 72 .00 Clear New Orleans..... 67 .00 Clear Punta Rasa..... 59 .00 Fair Savannah..... 72 .91 Clear Wilmington..... 72 .49 Clear Cedar Keys..... 74 1.36 Fair Pensacola..... 68 .00 Clear

The following are the indications for the Middle and South Atlantic and East Gulf States to-day: Clear or fair weather, winds mostly from northwest to northeast in the latter and westerly in the former, nearly stationary temperature, and stationary of higher barometer.

Escape of Prisoners.

Henry Crews and George Hill, two of the eleven Penitentiary convicts who escaped from the guard room in Jones county on Saturday night last, who had been detailed to work on a canal, were under sentence from the Criminal Court of this county. Henry Crews was tried at the last April term of the Court for arson, larceny and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, and was sentenced by Judge Meares to confinement in the Penitentiary for twenty years. George Hill was convicted of larceny at the same term and sentenced to six years in the Penitentiary. He effected his escape from that institution not long afterwards, but was subsequently recaptured in Federal Point Township, in this county, where he was passing by the name of Rowan, and was sent back to the Penitentiary on the 21st of June last. Both of the prisoners are colored, and Crews is considered a dangerous man.

CITY ITEMS.

THE MORNING STAR can always be had at the following places in the city: The "Purcell House," Harris' News Stand, and the "Star Office."

GET OUT DOORS.—The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, inactive liver, kidneys and urinary troubles, poor blood, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of food, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle. See another column.—Christian Recorder.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has unflinchingly devoted her time and talents as a Female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a "Soothing Syrup for Children's Teething." It operates like magic—wins rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming widely renowned as a benefactor of the race; children certainly do nurse up and sleep better; especially in this case in this city. Last quantity of the Soothing Syrup was daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use. It is a medicine of gentle and pleasant taste, and is perfectly safe and reliable. No mother, nurse, or child, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
