Gov. Jarvis's majority has whittied down until it will be but little over 0,000. It is a good thing that change of gauge was deferred until the Cape Fear section had voted and other sections equally potent.

Good news, if true, from California. The latest is that the Democrats will have a majority in the Legislature. If this turns out all right, and we are very sceptical, then Billy Mahone will not be the higgest man in the Senate.

Lord Beaconsfield is a very remarkable man surely. He is now in his 77th year, and he has just finished another novel entitled "Endymion," for which he has received nearly $50,000 from the Longmans. This is without a parallel.

Anson county gave a majority of 1,149 against the insane amendment to the Constitution. The Times, published in that county, gave the people light, and the result was as stated. If properly discussed it would not have received 20,000 votes in the

In June the census of St. Louis was taken. It had 333,577 inhabitants. It was not enough, so it has been retaken by its own staff. This time it has 340,362. It had five months additional growth. This shows that the first enumeration was not far

The North likes a solid negro vote. How is that if a solid section or race be treason to the country, as some of the organs have said. If the South solidifies and the negroes follow the crack of their masters' whips, and vote as they are told to vote, that is the height of patriotism. It only becomes treason when it is the Southern whites who are solid.

Gen. Schofield is to be bounced, the Chicago Inter-Ocean learns, because of his recent report. There does not appear to be much liberty of thought, speech or action allowed to army officers who do not yield themselves as pliant and ready tools to Radicalism. The country will only think the more of Gen. Schofield if he is made a martyr for the cause of truth, honesty, and the white cadets.

The State Returning Board has final jurisdiction in the matter of counting the votes. In this District two years ago the sheriffs did not meet, but the returns were sent to Raleigh. Some of the sheriffs in the Charlotte District met the other day, but Maj. Dowd, as we learn from the Observer: "Decided that it was unnecessary for the sheriffs to be detained there, as the vote would be subsequently canvassed by the State Board of Canvassers, and upon the result as determined by this Board, the Governor would determine whether or not he is entitled to the certificate of election and would accordingly give it to him."

of the vote by the State Board."

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXVII.---NO, 50.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1880.

The negro exodus in the extreme South is said to have begun afresh since the election. This is a free country and we are in favor of all going to the North Pole who prefer a sure enough cold climate.

It is now said Mr. Parnell will leave England for the South of France.

THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST

The First Day's Proceedings-Large Attendance.

CONVENTION.

Raleigh News and Observer Report. The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina met in its fiftieth annual session with the church at Goldsboro at 11 o'clock A. M. Being the semi-centennial anniversary of the convention, and the town of Goldsboro accessible from all points, an unusually large number of delegates were in attendance at an early hour. by Rev. N. B. Cobb. A hymn was sung, followed by the reading of the 91st Psalm. Prayer was then offered by Elder Elias Dodson. The pastor the church, Rev. F. H. Ivey, then made an address of welcome, assuring the delegates and visitors present of a hearty welcome to the hearts and homes of the people of ported as follows: Vice Presidents-Rev. J. B. Richardson, Rev. J. B. Taylor, P. A.

Treasurer-B. F. Montague. Auditor-T. H. Briggs, Jr.

Secretaries - Wm. Biggs and N. B. Broughton.

A communication was read from the Colored Baptist Convention of North Carolina, and its messengers, W. H. Banks, E. E. Smith and A. B. Williams, were granted an opportunity to lay before this body the claims of their Convention. They asked for co-operation in their foreign mission work especially, and for the aid of their white brethren in every department of Christian effort. Sundry speeches followed, and various committees were appointed. On motion, Revs. J. B. Taylor, F. II. Ivey, W. M. Kennedy and C. T. Bailey were appointed corresponding messengers to the colored Baptist State Convention to meet in Wilmington October next.

The introductory sermon was preached at night by F. H. Jones, of U. S. Commissioner, John L. Davenport, has been in Maryland hunt ing up evidence as to the forged letter. The Baltimere Sun's letter from Washington of the 16th, says:

"Mr. Davenport returned home this afternoon. He was also disposed to be rather reticent in imparting any details of the information which he has obtained, or thinks he has obtained, while here. The following is understood to be the theory which Mr. Davenport has worked up in his own mind: That a man named Hadley, connected with the conservative Republican party in New York, is the man who went to Cumberland and signed his name on the botel register as Henry Walton, and wrote the correspondence for the Truth newspaper of New York from that point; that he went to two hotels and registered different names, and that Hadley is also the man who signed the name of the alleged fictitious H. L. Morey, at Lynn, Mass.

- Winston Leader: There are some people in Winston mesa enough to steal from a dog. Tom Piohl gave his dog a piece of beef for his breakfast, one day last week. The dog started home with the mest in his mouth and a darky stole it before he got a hundred yards from the market. | A sorry dog that would not fight for

- Oxford Torchlight: Mr. Willis Harpe, of Brassfields, has the largest hog in the county, of its age. It is only fourteen months old and weighs six hundred pounds. And Mr. Ruffin Holmes, of the same neighborhood, has an older one that will weigh over seven hundred pounds. And as for snakes, a den of thirty-nine copper heads (snakes, not Democrats) were found and killed in the same township.

- Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: The Richmond & Danville Railroad last week effected a Railroadic coup-d-etat by a rapid change of the gauge of the Western N. C.; widening it to five feet, so that the rolling stock of the main lines may be used on this branch. Many rumors in relation to the matter were in circulation; it being stated that interested parties were endeavoring to serve an injunction upon Col. Andrews' working force, but could not reach him either by rail or telegraph.

- New Berne Nut Shell: Yesterday morning about 5 o'clock an old tumble-down affair, designated by the occupants as a dwelling-house, situated near the skating pond, in the rear of the Richardson property, fell down, with a terrible crash, and seven persons, two colored women and five colored children, were buried beneath The convention was called to order | the ruins. Mrs. Phillips was present but could not control the infuriated brute. The doctor was going to the house accompanied by Mrs. Phillips when he was attacked, the dog attempting to seize him by the throat, in which he was foiled by the active efforts of the assailed, who at length seized the dog by each jaw with his hands and threw him to the ground and subdued him by beating him with his knee, and then taking him by the mouth and carrying him through the house, he threw him out at the rear door. The Doctor was pretty badly bitten upon the hand and arm. - Raleigh News and Observer: Yesterday we published an account of a horrible murder in Mark's Creek township, in which a colored man had been shot by some one unknown, and instantly killed. resterday morning Ceroner Richardson went to the scene, and the body of Berry Bunch, the murdered man, was disinterred and an inquest held. Yesterday afternoon some deputy sheriffs brought and placed in jail here Dick Morgan, colored, who is accused of being the murderer. - The North Carolina Conference of the A. M. E. Church is in session in this city. — The State Board of Canvassers, composed of the Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General and two State Senators appointed by the Governor, meets to-day in the hall of the House of Representatives, to canvass and compare the returns for Presidential electors. The work is a heavy one, and will perhaps not be completed to-day. Or the 25th the Board again meets to canvass for Congressmen and Judges of the Superior Court. — Mr. Victor Dubamel, aged 48 years, died yesterday at his home on Person street, after an illness of a few days. He was a native of France, but had been in this country for some years, and was a jeweler by trade. — The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina will commence its ninety-fourth annual communication at its Hall in this city on Tuesday, December 7th, at 71 o'clock, Conservative Commoners 75; Republicans 45. The majority on joint ballot is 56. In this are included the following Independents as Democrats; Senator Foil, and A. F. Heilman, of Cabarrus; Abram Cox, of Hyde; F. M. Davis, of Haywood; J. F. Ray, of Macon; D. McYount, of Catawba. Repubpublican Independent, C. S. Winstead.

— In our tables last week we gave Gov. Jarvis 7257 majority. Later returns take off the 200 in Ashe, giving that county to Buxton by 5 votes; take off 300 in Wilkes and give Buxton 68 majority; reduce Tyrrell from 202 to 82; increase Carteret from 220 to 285; take off 166 in Alleghany; add 12 to Watauga; take 2 from Surry and 9 from Iredell. — We may be obtuse, but for the life of us, after repeated readings, we fail to see where the wit comes in or to find anything specially amusing in H. C. Jones's "Cousin Sally Dillard." It probably owed its fame at first to the fact that fifty years ago a newspaper rarely ventured to print a joke; and is now passed around because our fathers thought it

Embezziement. Henry Loftin, colored, was arrested Wed nesday on the charge of embezzling money. It seems that Loftin has been draying for one Washington Highsmith, and on Monday, last one Austin Middleton, colored. gave Loftin a dollar to get him a load of wood and twenty-five cents to pay the drayage, telling him where to take the wood. Middleton was not acquainted with Loftin, but took the number of his dray, which, as the sequel will show, was a very lucky precaution. Loftin failed to take the wood to Middleton's house, and, when approached on the subject the next day denied that he had received the money or the order. Afterwards, however, when being spoken to again on the subject, he promised to deliver the wood as soon as his dray, which was then being repaired, could be got in readiness. Investigation on the part of Middleton, who doubted the correctness of the other's statement, showed that his dray was not undergoing repairs, but was on the wharf at the time with the horse attached to it. Middleton followed after Loftio, and he left his dray altogether and sought concealment in Brooklyn, Highsmith in the meantime having to put another man in his place as drayman. Loftin was finally arrested, and yesterday his case came up before J. C. Hill, J. P., who ordered him to give a justified bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next which he was lodged in jail.

Fires Yesterday Morning. The alarm of fire yesterday morning, about half-past 1 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a very small frame building on Harnett, between Third and Fourth streets, occupied by a colored man in making buckets. All of the engines and other appurtenances of the fire department were on the ground, but their services were fortunately not needed, as the flames were kept in subjection by the use of water from buckets in the hands of people living in the vicinity, there being no other buildings in close proximity. Loss immaterial. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an in-term of the Criminal Court, in default of

A few minutes at er the above alarm had subsided fire was discovered among a lot of shavings and sawdust in the engine room of Mr. Alex. Oldbam's grain mill, corner of Walnut and Nutt streets, by a number of seamen who were boarding on the opposite side of the street. With a promptness and energy characteristic of the "jolly tars," who are so often called upon to face dangers and perils in the pursuit of their profession, they rushed to the scene of the conflagration and with buckets and basins of water soon succeeded in subduing the flames. The fire is supposed to have been caused by sparks from the furnace. The damage was very slight, and no general larm was sounded.

the "Devil Fish."

We availed ourself of the opportunity Wednesday night of examining the "Devil Fish" alluded to by us a few weeks ago as being in the possession of Mr. James Mas cumber, in Harnett Township. It is an exact image, on a small scale, of the representations on the show bills of the one attached to Coup's circus, and is certainly a queer and wonderful specimen of that portion of the creation that are classed among the inhabitants of the "vasty deep." It has been preserved in brine, and is now on its way to the State University, a gentleman of this city baving been to the panis of securing it as a contribution by its owner to the Cabinet of Curiosities connected with that institution. The wonderful fish was on exhibition at Dr. E. Willia' drug store, corner of Seventh and Mulberry streets.

Wilmington Coon Club. Pursuant to notice a large number of young gentlemen met at the Purcell House ast evening and organized themselves into a club under the above title. The following officers were elected for he ensuing winter:

President-D. M. Wright. Vice-President-C. B. Willson. Secretary-H. D. Burkhimer. Treasurer-Simon Sanders.

Director of the Chase-Herbert Petteway Keeper of Kennel-Pat. Carr. It being the desire of the Club, the President ordered the first hunt for Monday evening next at Castle Hayne; members to meet at the Purcell House promptly at 7 o'clock P. M. on that day.

Library Association. There was no election of officers at the meeting of this body last evening. The bad weather prevented a full attendance of members, and the election was therefore postponed to some future meeting.

Arrangements have been made by the Association for a course of lectures to be delivered during the season. Dr. Deems, of corn, two thousand five hundred pounds official, which have been already published, of New York, Dr. Grissom, of Raleigh, of lint cotton, thirty-five bushels of rice, or may hereafter be published, were sent | Dr. Wilson and Dr. Yates, of this city, we | understand, have made engagements with the Association, and it is probable that Dr. Hoge, of Richmond, will also deliver a lecture under the auspices of the Association some time during the winter.

Extinguishing a Bear.

D. F. Hines killed a large bear, on Friday last, between Merret's Creek and Lane's Ferry, in Pender county. Bruin was chased about four hours by Hines and his dogs before he took a tree. He was killed near the side of the main road.

Bainbridge, Gs., June 11, 1870.—"Dr. Tutt:—Dear Friend:—You know the cause of my bad health. I had concluded that there was no remedy that would relieve me until I used the pills you sent me. They proved to be the very thing I needed. I am under lasting obligations to you for the blessing you have conferred on me and mankind generally." A Patriotic Letter.

We find in the New York Tablet, an Irish-American paper, the following patriotic letter from that gallant Irishman, Major James Reilly, of this city:

WILMINGTON, N. C., October 13, 1880:-Editor Tablet:-SIR:-However much I re. gret the necessity of this communication, I would prefer that an abler pen than mine would raise its voice in favor of fair play. Please give these few remarks a space in the columns of the Tablet. I think the Tablet editor is doing his best to alienate my countrymen from the party that has sustained them in all their rights as American citizens since its organization as a If it was not for the Democratic part party-that is, the Democratic party. probably you would not be holding the position as a journalist you do to-day. Know-Nothingism would have kept you in the rear. What killed that spawn of iniquity but Democracy? And you tacitly advise Irishmen to join the offshoot of iniquity, the Republican party, to quit Democracy and be independent in voting. It certainly is a gratuitous advice; instead of praising the bridge that carries you over safe you are using your talents to the con-

You say in one of your leaders in the issue of the 16th inst., your paper is not a sectional paper. I consider it very little better than some of the most rabid of the Republican papers. In your editorial columns you make use of the words "Rebel" and "Southern sympathizers," and in a 'sense" I think it is nothing but to bring them into ridicule, and this because they are Democrats and do not do as you like they would; you will not allow them to be independent and cast their votes according to the dictates of their conscience. Well, they are rebels; so was Robert Emmet, Lord Edward, Wolfe Tone, and George Washington. Rebels! I am one, and fought as hard as any man could fight for the Lost Cause, and the very same principles as the above-named rebels foughtthat is, to protect my home, fireside, and the land of my adoption (the South) from the presence of an invader. We Irishmen living in the South cannot read your Northern Irish-American papers without being insulted. We were rebels, and fought in a cause we thought just and right, and I for one do not wish to be informed of the fact in almost every issue of your sectional

And until the editors of such papers realize the fact, you cannot expect to be patronized by Irishmen living in the South, who fought for home and principle. JAMES REILLY.

Pestival. The festival by the ladies of the congregation of Front Street M. E. The hall was elaborately and tastefully decorated, and the arrangement suited to all tastes-oyster stews served piping hot by bevies of ladies on one side, and the coldest ices on the other, with side tables supplied with "intermediate refreshments" of various kinds, The stage at the end of the hall was appropriately fitted up for the acting charades which was a part of the entertainment, and added much to the enjoyment of the even-

> For the Star. Give Us Light.

The working men of this city have just grounds of complaint, and we do complain, that owing to the stinginess or neglect of the city officials we are compelled to grope our way in the dark every morning to our work, because it pleases some one to have the gas extinguished after midnight. Should these same gentry go to bed earlier and be obliged to rise before daylight in order and be cotiged to rise before daylight in order to earn a living, they would be more apt to have a little light on the subject. The last few mornings, being rainy and cloudy, it has been almost impossible to see how to walk the atreets. Very many of your subscribers are obliged to be stirring before day, and they think they are entitled to lights as well as those who travel late and lighted fill apprise. We seem! Role We lie abed fill sunrise. We want light. We help pay for it and want it.

Respectfully,
A Workingman.
