Mr. James L. Pagh, the new Senafor elect from Alabama, is a Georgian -y birth. He served in the House one session. He appears to be very strong with his people, as he had no opposition.

Hayes has been so busy running the campaign upon the high-pressure civil service reform plan, and his absence from Washington has been so prolonged, he has not had time enough to begin his next message to Beaconsfield expresses much conti dence in the declaration that the Gladstone ministry will not last. He says: "Let the Liberal Ministry aione, they will bury themselves." But the able Tory is not always a safe prophet or a safe guide.

When an editor in the North gets hard up for a theme he indites a fear ful article on the oyster. When an editor in the South gets hard up he eats the oyster. The latter is the more palatable decidedly to theeditor. But there is no accounting for tastes.

The New York Truth knows as little of the article its name indicates as a first-class Stalwart does of the true and old paths of the Constitution. Here is Truth's latest attempt to avoid the meaning of its name:

"The 'confession' of Kenard Philp, which the New York Truth announced, is no confession at all, but simply another device to mercase the sale of that sensational jour-

The Virginia delegation elected to the next Congress are: Garrison, Democrat; Dezendorf, Republican; George D. Wise, Democrat; Jorgensen, Republican; Cabell, Democrat; l'ucker, Democrat; Paul, Readjuster Democrat; Barbour, Democrat, and Faulkerson, Readjuster Democrat. These all have certificates of elec-

We have been thinking of giving some account of the true origin of the supposed North Carolina story now going the rounds of the State press, entitled "Cousin Sally Dillard," but there is so little fun in it we do not know that it is worth the trouble of relating what two elderly and very intelligent gentlemen once told up about it. One of these is dead, the other is living, and both natives of Virginia.

In order to gain control of the Senate the Radicals will move against Senator-elect Fair, of Nevada, upon the grounds of bribery and corruption. This is capital, especially as the Radicals have been never known to bribe any one, and not one of them was ever within a thousand miles of anything that was faintly corrupt. But anything to get into power. The Baltimore Sun's correspondent in Washington writes on the 22d inst.

"It is claimed that there has been no concealment of the fact that large sums of money were spent in the interest of Mr. Fair to secure the election of members of the Legislature favorable to his election, and that names, dates and amounts can and will be given. It is quite true that there has been much talk about the use of money and other improper influences in controlling the Senatorial contest in Nevada, but it is rather probable that, after mature reflection, the Republican manager may conclude that it will be just as well not to open up an agitation and discussion which would inevitably bring within its scope, befpre it was concluded, several other much more important States than Nevada."

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXVII.---NO. 55.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1880.

The constitutional statesman of the Statesville American, who appears to have been warmed over afresh in the Radical oven since the cooling out days of Horace Greeley and the hand-shaking across the bloody chasm of 1872, has a correct view of what Ben Hill meant by his gushing letter to Stalwart Chittenden. He says of

"And in declaring, as he has done in the most emphatic manner, that he believes the United States is 'a Nation,' he seems to have taken the first great step towards the Republican party."

Hill's proposition :

The c. s. is so much pleased with the Radical party, the only sectional party in the Union, that he pronounces it a "national party."

Augustin Daly, who was in Wilmington in charge of Fanny Davenport two seasons ago, has got a new sensation. He has a troupe of "Nautob girls," whatever that means, and five genuine Eastern jugglers. The girls are ballet dancers of a peculiar sort, very captivating and much sought after by admirers of the leg-itimate drama and patrons of the high school of art. They have besides a nice collection of snakes, highly trained and warranted not to bite. It is understood that Mr. Daly has a play specially constructed for the introduction of his Oriental importation, dancers, jugglers, snakes and all.

- Senator Vance is reported as

- Horace L. Bumpass, a Person county lawyer, is dead.

- We notice a few stray "Honorables" bobbing around in the newspapers. They will get thick after January 1, when the Solons meet at Raleigh

- After seeing the official vote for President, we calculate that 40,000 is the correct number to represent the electors who failed to vote in this State.

- At this particular juncture look out in the newspapers for puffs of favorites for this office and that in the Legislature. When so many great men abound choice is

- Concord Register: We suppose Mr. Best bought the Western N. C. Railroad to make money out of it, and he thinks that it will pay him to change the gauge on the principle that a man may do as he cleases with his own. - The Governor has issued a modernation declaring the Democratic residential Electors duly elected and summening them to meet at Raleigh on the first Wednesday in December, 1880, to cast be vote of the State.

- The facetious Asheville Citizen refers to the change of the gauge in favor of Richmond as a completion of "a North Carolina system." Yes, it is completed and with a vengeance. It was always a fraud, and the end shows it.

- Milton Chronicle : What's the matter? "Aunt Nancy" Barringer sent in his resignation as an elder in the Presbyterian Church, a few days ago, and it was at once accepted. Did those "cuss words" have anything to do with the resignation ?

- Louisburg Times: We are glad o announce that Rev. Robert B. Sutton, D. D., has accepted a call to St. Paul's church in this place, to take effect the first Sunday in Advent, the 28th inst., at which time regular services may be expected to -Edenton Clarion: The shipments of cotton from this point this season will reach 3,000 bales. - H. A. Bond made on seven acres land, town lots, 232 bushels garden peas, 108 barrels of corn. and 75 bushels of ground peas from one acre lot-who can best this?

- Lenoir Topic: Mr. David Sands, of Watsuga, 90 years of age, walked wo miles to vote the Democratic ticket. He has voted at every Presidential election from 1812. - Mr. Harrsion Aldridge, of Watauga township, has caught four bears this season-one of them had only three legs-the fourth having been left in somebody else's trap. - G. S. Woods, Esq., of Caswell county, near the Person line, made on one acre of well prepared land the handsome number of seventeen barrels of corn. How is that for corn ?-Oxford Torchlight. About the year 1860 or 1861, Dr. Robert Patterson, of Halifax county, averaged more mixed up in a similar manner in a turpenthan twenty barrels of good corn on some fifteen or twenty acres. -STAR.

- Africo American Presbyterian: The members of Ebenezer Presbyterian church, at Newbern, North Carolina, under have been laboring for the past seven months in the erection of a new house of worship. The building is 30 by 40 feet, with a vestibule 6 by 12 feet; regular Gothic style, with beautiful stained glass windows, which were given as memorial windows.

- Greensboro Patriot : Revenue Agent O. H. Blocker, who for the past wenty months has been on duty in North has been assigned to the States of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, with headquarters at Columbia, South Carolina. -Revenue Agents Horace Kellogg and W. | W. Watson, Signal Officer at this Station: H. Chapman will now operate in North Carolina, the former with headquarters at Greensboro and the latter at Raleigh.

- In a short time we may expect to see a general order issued to the general freight agent similar to that recently issued to the officers and agents of the Greenville road, and about as follows: 1. On and after the - inst., withdraw all rates to eastern points via Wilmington or Charleston.
2. You will refuse to issue bills of lading to eastern points via Wilmington or Charleston. 3. In no case must bills of lading be given to eastern cities via Wilmington or Charleston . - Statesville American, Rep.

- Alamance Gleaner: Maj. Allen Compton, a well known citizen of Orange county, while riding near Joseph Vincent's mill in this county on last Saturday fell from his horse over a fence, and striking on his head broke his neck. The horse was not frightened but stood until disengaged. Deceased was sixty years of age. The question is often asked, does the or southerly winds, Sheriff of Alamance county receive any weather with rain.

county. - N. C. Presbyterian: Rev. D. A. McRae has returned from Texas and is now at his home in Robeson county. - Mr. James Hill was recently ordained deacon in Richlands church, in Wilmington Presbytery. — A private letter from Dr. Latimer informs us that he, with his family, expects to take passage on the City of Chester, from Liverpool, December 9th. Without special delays on the passage, Prof. Latimer will thus be at his post to resume his duties in Davidson College on or about Christmas, and will resume his pastoral labors with Ramah and Huntersville churches at the same time.

- Raleigh News-Observer: The

Sunday School Board of the Western Baptist Convention held its first meeting at President, and W. W. Wells, Secretary. -The Southern fast mail service is agreed upon at last. It will give us a chance at the mails both by Goldsboro and Greensboro, and we may be sure of getting them twelve hours earlier than at present. — Gov. Jarvis is sick. — Mr. Isaac H. Rogers, an old citizen, died at his home on Crabtree, a few miles northwest of the city, Saturday. — The gauge of the Western North Carolina Railroad has been changed, and trains are now running through to Asheville again. — The grading on the road from Asheville to Warm Springs is, we learn, completed as far as Alexander's on the French Broad.

Arrested on a Capias.

Charles Hawes, colored, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff T. C. Miller, yesterday, on a capias issued by Evander Singletary, Esq. Clerk of the Superior Court of Bladen county, charged with larceny. He claimed to be a resident of Topsail Sound, though he had been working here for some time, and persisted in the declaration that his name was Charley Hall and that he was not the man they were after. His declarations were made in such a way, however, as to convince an observant person that he was playing a part, and finally a former citizen of Bladen, who was conversant with his history, and said he assisted in trying him on one occasion, came in and identified him beyond question. It is said that he was arrested for stealing a sheep and brokelout of the jail at Elizabethtown. He is also accused of having at one time been tine transaction, and he finally admitted that there was some trouble about a little tar, but he couldn't recall the affair about the turpeatine. He at first declared he had the care of Rev. A. A. Scott, stated supply, never been in Bladen county. He was committed to jail, where he will be held to await the requisition of the Bladen county

Mr. Edward E. Marks was in the city yesterday making arrangements for the appearance at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings next of Cyril Searl's Company, supporting Miss Rose Eytinge in Charles Reade's famous dramatization entitled "Drink," which will be put on the boards the first night, and in "Led Astray" on Tuesday night. The New Orleans Democrat has this to say of their performance in that city:

"The strangely interesting drama of Drink," from Zola's 'L'Assammoir,' is, as t deserves, attracting great attention at the Grand Opera House. As a picture of the lower classes of Paris, as a terrible warning to those who drink, it is wonderfully strong. The excellent manner in which it is mounted and acted is a pleasant sur-Asheville on Friday. The Board was prise. In these days of stars and small organized by electing Elder A. C. Dixon, surroundings it is good to see a play so well acted throughout as 'Drink' is by Rose Eytinge, Nellie Jones, Nannie Egberts, Thompson, Barclay, Loring and Cyril Searle, to say nothing of the smaller people in less important parts. Miss Eytinge, who is really a queen among actresses, in no way asserts herself or play above the part of Gervaise, the simple laundress. Hers is a natural piece of acting, and very effective. The Verginie of Miss Jones is also strong and good. Mr. Searle's Coupeau is really a good piece of character acting. It is so because of its naturalness. The terrible delirium scene, thank Heaven, is not a familiar picture, yet too many have witnessed in real life the insanity produced by strong drink. The play of 'Drink' is

Wm. Dabney was arraigned on the charge of the larceny of a pair of pants, the property of Jacob Elsbach, but the evidence was deemed insufficient to convict and the defendant was discharged.

Attempted Suicide.

A correspondent at Rocky Point informs us of an attempt at suicide. It seems that on Monday a colored man named James Brown had a difficulty with his wife, during which he struck her several blows, - There will be Thanksgiving when she became frantic with rage, rushed from the house and jumped into the well on the premises. Fortunately, the water was only about waist deep, and, after allowing the desperate woman to remain in her self-imposed predicament long enough to cool off, she was pulled out and returned to her duties and responsibilities "a wiser and a wetter woman.'

Almost a Fire.

The roof of Mr. R. Thorburn's house, on Third, between Walnut and Red Cross streets, caught fire yesterday, about 11:45 o'clock, and for a few minutes considerable excitement prevailed in the neighborhood. The flames were finally extinguished, however, by the active exertions of the neighbors, after burning a hole about four feet square in the roof, and without causing a general alarm, though the family commenced moving their effects from the

The Brunswick Horror.

In Tuesday's paper we mentioned th fact that the body of a colored infant had been reported as found in a swamp near Summerville, Brunswick county, with its head and one arm missing. We now hear that a colored woman has been arrested on the charge of being the mother of the infant and with having committed the crime, and that the evidence against her is very strong, though we have not as yet ascers tained her name.

Vegetable Curlosity.

We examined yesterday a curiosity in the shape of a potato which grew through the ring of a key which happened to be imbedded in the ground by it. In the middle it is shaped to the dimensions of the ring, while both ends are of the size of an ordinary potato. The key is old and rusty, as if it had been in the ground for a long time. The potato is from the patch of Mr. James H. Durham, Sr., of Rocky Point.
