Senator Edmunds is of the opinion that there will be no legislation during this session of Congress.

Virginia Rads clamored for the removal of "Guerrell" Mosby as U. S. Consulat Hong Kong, but Evarts said no. There now, sure enough.

O. O. Howard is to have charge of the morals of the young cadets at West Point. Oh! Oh! Sorry very for the y. e's. The rumor is that Hayes has sent for him and that he will be made Superintendent.

Mary Anderson made $8,500 in one week in St. Louis. She has been doing a very large business this season. She appears in New York on the 15th, at Haverly's Fifth Avenue, succeeding John McCullough.

On December 1, 1880, there were in the various warehouses of the country 32,640,000 gallons of spirite. Increase during the last sixteen months 13,500,000 gallons. Put the drinking population at 5,000,000 and each of them will have to drink about 6 gallons before the present supply is exhausted. They can do that and then wipe their chops and take an "early eye opener."

"Uncle Remus's" book is going like hot cakes. The first edition was exhausted the first day. It is something else than the mere fun of the author conveyed in negro dialect. It is an ethnological study. The "Folk Lore" is remarkable, and many of the folks came from Africa with the first negroes who were brought to this country by the New England slavers and then sold South.

The great American mendicant and dead-head will receive a very large Christmas present, it is said. One report is that Philadelphia will give $100,000. Give him as much money as he wants, so he is kept out of the Presidential Chair. It would be a "national" disgrace to have the Black Friday hero again in office. Even Hayes cannot afford to be succeeded by such a man as Grant.

Edward McPherson, the Radical who knows so well how to ged rid of States and turn out their delegations at the bidding of his party, says the Republicans will have a clean majority in the next House. Mr. Mc-Pherson claims that there will be 147 Republicans and six Greenback Re publicans-a total of 153, while the Democrats have 135 straight votes, 3 Greenbackers and 2 Readjusters-a total of 140. The total membership of the House is 293, and 147, or the straight Republican vote, is a ma-

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1880.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

We have before us the annual message of the President of the United States to the two Houses at the beginning of the Forty-sixth Congress. A most formidable document it is in length. If Hayes had two more years in which to practice writing he would require a 400-page duodecimo. We publish in our telegraphic columns a synopsis. We may in our next issue refer to some of the points raised by him and consider some of his recommendations. He favors John Sherman's scheme as to making the silver dollar heavier. It is made up of abstracts of reports from the several departments, references to good crops, good condition of the industries of the country, permanent success of resumption, decrease of the national debt, bonds coming due, and recommendations as to refunding. In view of the rapid decrease of the debt, and the prospect that such decrease will continue, he does not favor a long term bond, no matter how low the interest may be. He favors paying off the debt and getting rid of it as soon as it can reason-gives considerable space to the necessity of reclaiming Potomic flats along the river front to secure greater healthfulness of the city. Mr. John McCullough, the Philadelphia tragedian, has been playing to fine audiences in New York. The press of the latter city accord him very high praise and treat him to elaborate criticism, such as they give Salvini, Booth and Bernhardt. His elocution is pronounced superb. Wm.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS. A report from Trinity College was read and referred to the Committee on Education. The report not only represented the College as being in a splendid condition, but as having twelve Cherokee Indian boys, placed there to be educated by the United States government. These Cherokees are kept separate from the other students, and are making fine pro-

The Conference then preceded to the usual examination of the official life and work of the members. During this call, Dr. Wilson, Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District, announced that Dr. Wm. Closs had placed in his hands a complaint against Rev. F. L. Reid, one of the editors of the Raleigh Christian Advocate. The Bishop said that he would appoint a committee to look into the matter, and ascertain the merits of the case. The call for examination of character then proceeded. All passed, the reports were unusually good. The increase in membership has been very considerable and the finances seem to be flourishing. When Daniel Culbreth reported his work there was deep feeling. He had been an active worker for fifty years and now in old age asked to be relieved from active ministry. He was the oldest active member of the Conference, and for him there was warm attachment.

- The Wilmington STAR recommends Mr. Sam Phillips or Judge Buxton for places in Gen. Garfield's Cabinet .-Tarboro Southerner. Hardly that. If North Carolina is to be honored we suggested that Mr. Phillips or Judge Bynum would be probably the best selections. Only that, nothing more.

- Fayetteville Examiner: We are glad to learn that several young gentlemen connected with a Raleigh military company propose to visit Fayetteville on or about Christmas to give our "crack shots" another round. We will welcome them with pleasure, but, by the way, we do not admit the claim of the News-Observer that they are the champion shots of the State, and hope to see it disproved when they do make us

- Several editors are after some of the small offices in the Legislature. Why do not some of the craft run for Congress or Governor or the U.S. Senate? Strike high. People estimate others often according to the estimate they place upon themselves. Editors do ten times or a hundred times the work of professional politicians, but they are never expected to sit at the first table, and if they do they must sit near the door.

- Tarboro Southerner: The Eliza beth City & Norfolk Railroad, it is announced, will be finished and in running order within sixty days. The equipment and iron is in Norfolk. The length of the road will be forty-three miles. - Capt. W. H. James, of the United States Engineer Corps, and his force, are now removing obstructions from the river just below town. They have succeded in raising the boiler of an old steamer sunk during the war, which has heretofore been a dread to navigation.

- The Raleigh Visitor says a piece of a needle that entered the foot of Mrs. Elizabeth Hardie thirty-six years ago came out of her right side a few days since. For years she suffered excruciating pain, the foot at times swelling to three times its natural size. Then it would swage down, the pain would leave and she would not be troubled again, perhaps, for two or three years. She has been laid up in bed with it for six months at a time. Last Winter, speaks in the Tribune of his summer the point of the needle was in the foot, or rather the pain was there.

- Monroe Express: Mr. Armfield has sold 56 of the celebrated Tennessee wagons in two months. - Monroe'. cotton re :eipts last season were about 14,-000 bales. To the 1st of December, this season, they were 11,695 bales, against 7,-863 bales to the same date last season-3 difference of 3,834 bales in favor of this season. —The Cheraw & Chester Railroad is completed to within a mile of Lancaster village. There is some talk, we hear, of running this road to Monroe instead of Cheraw after it reaches Lancaster. Our citizens will meet any proposition of this kind at least half way.

The victims usually take the precaution to make a note of the number of the dray, and thus in most cases they are enabled to get on the track of the defaulter and bring him to terms. Wherever this precaution is neglected, however, the wood-seller is the sufferer. We are loth to believe that any considerable number of our draymen ever engage in such nefarious practices, and the innocent, for their own protection, should esteem it their own duty to point out the delinquents whenever it

Mayor's Court. James Edens, colored, was arraigned on the charge of stealing a pair of pants, a shirt and pair of drawers, the property of Andrew Maloy, colored, from a flat lying at Messrs. P. Cumming & Co.'s wharf, on Sunday night last. Maloy swore that he saw the defendant when he took the articles, but that he afterwards denied taking them. Officer Woebse, who made the arrest at the instance of Maloy, testified that he did not take the man into custody until he had vire tually confessed that he had stolen the articles, and further stated that Edens subsequently showed where he had concealed them in among a lot of cotton, when they

Mayor Fishblate ordered the defendant to give a justified bond in the sum of $50 to appear at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was turned over to the Sheriff and committed to jail. After the case was decided the stolen goods were deliverd over to Maloy, who who then claimed that the coat or "duster" that Edens had on his back at that moment belonged to him, to which the prisoner assented, and proceeded forthwith to doff his "borrowed plumage" and hand it over to its rightful owner.

ONE EXPERIENCE FROM MANY.—'I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one husband so much trouble and expense, so one seemed to know what alled me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and I used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me, they said 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters ! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy."—The Mother.-Home Journal.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she rofused to have it administrated to have it administrated to have it administrated to have it for the child, says the second of the with what he had done, she rofused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still werse, and while contemplating another sleep-less night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended with the deception practiced upon her, has coned with the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
