"We hope that our Legislature, at its approaching session, will enact a law in regard to 'legal advertising,' directing the publication in some newspaper of all notices that are now directed to be posted 'at the court house and three other public places. We do not understand how any man can doubt the propriety of passing such a law, who will seriously consider the matter. We presume, of course, that the object of posting notices 'at the court house door and three other public places' is to give them publicity. Now, we ask which would give greater publicity to a nothe, its being posted 'at the court house door and three other public places' or its publication in a newspaper that is read by hundreds of people in the county?"- Pittsboro Record.

It would certainly be a benefit to both debtor and creditor to advertise all sales of property ig some newsunder execution or by administrator. executor or guardian. Sales are often made under the present system where persons interested never heard of them until the whole thing was over, and some one cheated or defrauded out of their just dues. The Legislature should make a change in the manner of advertising legal sales.

----OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES. Capital now goes into Government bonds because they are exempt from taxation. If we would induce capital to develop our resources we must give it at least the advantages of temporary exemption. We think the greatest obstacle which lies in our road to progress is that we trust too much to our natural advantages. The prime object of government is protection, and no matter how great our natural advantages, if the Democratic party is not sufficiently imbued with such ideas of progress as will lead to fostering legislation the people should hold it to a strict account for non-performance of duty .- Henderson Review. The Republican party has been in the past the persecutor of the South. After the civil war was over and the South was in a condition to have been easily won by kindness, the Republican party commenced a series of persecutions against the Southern people. They disfranchised our best citizens; they fastened carpet-bag government upon us; they put us under negro rule. and attempted to keep us there by unlawful military interference with our local governments. These things made the South solid against the Republican party, but not against the Union or the Constitution. The South to-day is as true to the Union as the North, and it is more true to the Constitution.-Fayetteville Examiner.

THREE POINTS IN THE MESSAGE. Our synopsis of the President's annual message covered but a few of the many points discussed by him. The message is well written. Its greatest defect is its extreme length. The reflecting, law abiding citizens of the country will agree with much that he says with reference to the ballot. All good citizens are agreed that the ballot must be pure and free, and that the count must be honest. Every citizen is entitled to the right to vote. He is a sovereign under our Constitution, and his highest act of sovereignty is the exercise of the right and privilege of casting his ballot. The Presidentde facto-dwells upon the violations of the right of suffrage, in "the late slaveholding States." No doubt the election laws were violated in many places in the South in the last election. It is to be deeply regretted that such was the case. The leading papers of the South have made no denial of it, so far as we have seen. It was wrong wherever it occurred. Nay, more than this, it was dangerous and can only work mischief in the end. We say this quite deliberately. But how is it Hayes can only see abuses of the rights and privileges of citizenship in the South and can see none of it in the North? Is he blind? Can he not read? Is he deaf and can he not hear? Has he heard nothing from Philadelphia, or New York from Massachusetts or Connecticut, from Rhode Island or Maine, from Indiana or Ohio? Has he no means of ascertaining what did occur in those States on election day? Can it be possible that the President of these United States, not yet a Nation quite in spite of Radicalism, has heard of no violations of the rights of the white workingmen of the North -has heard of no intimidations or threats being resorted to by men of wealth and capitalists and ject. We believe these points imrepublican government. Let the un educated people be educated, but take care not to substitute the education of the mind for the religion of the heart. THE NEW SCHEDULE.

The fast mail service by the Atlantic Coast Line is able to run or time and quick time at that. Think of it. Only 17 hours and 35 minutes from New York. At 10:10 P. M. Monday, the New York papers of that morning are at the Wilmington depot-a distance of six hundred miles. Richmond, the capital of Virginia, distant some 243 miles, is only hours and 35 minutes from us.

There are now seven great lines in the United States with the fast mails -four in the North and three in the South. By far the most important of the great Southern lines is the Atlantic Coast, because it distributes a much larger mail to places along the line that represent more actual commercial activity and importance than the two other lines combined. A great service was done these basiness centres when the question was first agitated to give the South the benefit of a fast mail line. Some three years and a half since a mail service commission visited the South. They visited Wilmington, and were cordially received and entertained by small investment. Try it. November the business men of the city. Col. Bridgers, President of the Wilmingcents. ton & Weldon Railroad, not only gave them every facility for seeing the South under the most advantageous circumstances, but he accompanied them in most of their travels.

We do not reveal a secret but state a plain fact when we say that he did more to secure the fast mail than probably all others combined. This is as well known in Washington as it is in Wilmington. In saying this we merely do justice to the zeal and foresight of a gentleman who is not cognizant of this statement and would portant, and that they embody great truths. The great crying sin of our country is taxing fifty millions of people for the benefit of five hundred thousand manufacturers. It is a crime against civilization-an insult to intelligence. The present was tariff ought to be razed prodigiously. Its branches ought to be lopped if the trunk is not torn up by the roots.

It need not surprise any if the price of breadstuffs should decline before sixty days. The intelligence from England contained in the dispatches of the 6th inst., indicates that the European demand is less than the year before, whilst in some countries the supply is greater. It is thought probable that within six weeks the American surplus will find no demand abroad.

THE MAGAZINES.

North Carolina Medical Journal for November is full of instructive matter for the physician, but the number of original contributions is not as great as usual. REFUNDING BILL AMENDED "IN COM-MITTEE-NO CHANGES TO BE MADE IN REPUBLICAN REPRESENTATION ON COMMITTEES-THE WORK OF THE COMMITTEES-THE BILL FOR STATE TAXATION OF LEGAL TENDER TREASURY NOTES, &C.

(By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 7 -At a meeting of the Ways and Means Committee of the House, this morning, the Refunding bill was taken up, and after some discussion of the subject a motion was made by Representative Tucker, of Virginia, and uuanimously carried, that the Chairman be authoriz :d to amend the Refunding bill, now pending before Congress, by inserting three per cent. wherever the words "three and a half" occur. It is believed by the committee that the time has arrived when a three per cent. bond can be floated at par. The committee adjourned to Thursday at 10.30 A. M.

The Republican Senators held a caucua this morning to determine what changes, if any, should be made in the minority representation on Senate committees for this session. It was agreed that with the exception of one or two unimportant chaoges, the Republican membership shall remain as at present.

No business was transacted by the Senate in Eexecutive sesssion, to-day, except to refer to appropriate committees the nominations that were received from the President yesterday.

The House committee on Commerce held a meeting this morning, and began work on the River and Harbor bill. They will meet in full committee on Tuesdays and Thursdays until the bill is perfected.

In the absence of Chairman Atkins, Representative Blount, of Georgia, presided at the meeting of the House committee of Appriations to-day. Reports were received from the sub-committees in charge of Pensions, Military Academy, Fortifications and Consular and Diplomatic appropriation bills, all of which are fairly advanced. It is thought that three if not all of these bills will be ready to be reported to the House Thursday.

The sub-committee on the Consular and Diplomatic bill will hold a conference with Secretary Evarts to day, and expect to perfect a bill in a few days. The committee adjourned to Thursday.

The House Committee on Public Lands will meet to-morrow for consideration of Delegate Brent's (Washington Territory) "to extend the land laws of the United States over the territory of Alaska." The bill introduced to-day by Senator McDonald, "to authorize the local taxa-
