We learn from a Washington correspondent that already many members of Congress have left for their homes to spend the Christmas holidays. After a laborious session of a few days they must rush to their homes to spend in idleness several weeks. What folly for the Congress to meet in December if it means to adjourn from about the 20th to the 10th of January, or later? Why not meet as soon affer the Christmas holidays as the state of their stomachs and nerves will allow, and then work in earnest. The time of meeting ught to be changed.

HE MORNING STAI

VOL. XXVII .-- NO. 78. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1880.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean has as- of some length and of great vigor, in which | Local Bots. certained the views of a great many people as to the selection of a Cabinet for Garfield. In its issue of last Saturday it publishes the result. We give a part only of these who were preferred. It says:

"U. S. Grant, 174; John Sherman, 163; John A. Logan, 106; Roscoe Conkling, 85; P. W. Hitchcock, 80; Best Harrison, 61; Levi P. Morton, 58; James G. Blaine, 50; William Windom, 48; James F. Wilson, 44; C. I. Filley, 89; R. G. Ingersoll, 35; Geo. F. Edmunds, 83; E. B. Washburne, 32; George F. Hoar, 27; Newton Booth, 26; J. D. Cameron, 24; F. W. Palmer, 22; John M. Langston, 21; S. W. Dorsey, 20; Eugene Hale, 18; John F. Hartrant, 18. Horace Maynard, 16; Schuyler Colfax, 16; Emery Maynard, 16; Schuyler Colfax, 16; Emery Storrs, 15; Hannibal Hamlin, 14; B. K. Bruce, 13; W. D. Kelley, 12; Marshall Jewell, 11."

A young Solomon in Warren county shoulders the responsibility and thus delivers his judgment:

"Macon, Warren county, N. C.—Give us an able Republican from the South, such as Settle, or Holden, of this State, for the head of the Postoffice or Interior Departments. Judge Tourges could also well represent our interests, and Robert J. Ingersoll for Secretary of State or Attorney BENJ. I. EGERTON, JR."

Tourgee is lovely. Benny ought to read what the carpet-bagger says of the best people of the State before he concludes that he "could also well represent our interests." Benny 18 not a success, we fear, as a political adviser.

The Savannah News says of "An American Girl" :

"We must confess to great disappointment in the play, which is devoid of any strong features, and has nothing of great merit in it. The character of 'Kate Vivian' enables Miss Davenport to display her versatility and vivacity to advantage, and exhibit several handsome dresses, but no scope to show the dramatic genius which has made her 'Mabel Renfrew' in 'Pique' so renowned."

- Asheville News: Candler Genry, was killed last Friday at Marshall, Madison county, by a pistol shot by Wesley Sawyer, the town marshal. The particulars, as they were given us, are these: Gentry was drinking, and went into one of the stores of the town with his pistol cocked, and was waving it around in a dangerous manner, when some one in the store persuaded him to uncock his pistol and put it up. He put it in his pocket, and while doing so cocked it again. The persons in the store ran out and Gentry followed and fired his pistol at the door of another store that was closed. Mr. Sawyer, then came up and endeavored to persuade Gentry to put up his pistol, when he fired two or three times at Sawyer, who then drew his pistol and fired at Gentry, the shot taking effect in his abdomen. Sawyer was entirely justified in killing him. - On last Thursday some boys from the country, who were stopping at the Pioneer Warehouse, concluded to have some fun at the expense of a young man by the name of Wells, who was also stopping with them. Wells was a young man of rather weak mind and had been drinking somewhat, and one of the boys pretending to be an officer made an attempt to arrest him, and being frightened he left the Warehouse and started for his home on Sandy Musk, in this county, but missed the way and took the road towards Richmond Hill. His friends having missed him, search was made during Friday and Friday night, and on Saturday morning he was found dead near the road leading to Richmond Hill.

Badly Cut Up. Mr. Wm. Canaday, a resident of Topsail Sound, and well known in this city, was terribly cut up by being caught in a pea machine a few days ago. He received a gash in the side, another in the thigh, another in the arm and another still in the face. The wound in the side is a terrible one, and it is feared that it will ultimately prove fatal. Our informant states that the injured man's head would have been severed from the body had it not been for the presence of mind and promptitude of Mr. Frank Grier, who seized one of the teeth of the stemmer and jerked it with such force that the belting was thrown off and the machine stopped, his hand being considerably lacerated in the daring but successful act, through which Mr. Canady
