Mr. Manning, a memorial from Mr. James H. Foy, contesting the seat of Mr. Ward, from Onslow county.

Mr. Morrison, a petition from the citizens of Lincoln county against the sale of liquor.

Mr. Tate, a petition from the North Carolina (colored) Industrial Association, asking for State aid.

or twenty miles of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad have already been graded.

Lincolnton Progress: It was a hardened heart and eyes unused to tears that did not acknowledge the consoling lessons, the tender pithos and the solemn sympathy of the funeral services over the mortal remains of Messrs. Smith, Bloom and Goodson.

New Berne Nut Shell: On Christmas day James Hayes, colored, aged 15 years, was carefully handling a loaded pistol, when the weapon was accidentally discharged.

Hickory Press: The gospel train also moves through our town with seven coaches, viz.: Methodist, German Reformed, Lutheran, Baptist, Episcopalian, Roman Catholic--besides having three separate coaches for the colored brethren.

Hickory Carolinian: The Carolina Manufacturing Company, situated near this place, engaged in the manufacture of plaids or checks, commonly called "Alamance," have recently increased their machinery about one-third more which enables them to increase their capacity of work.

Salisbury Watchman: Some of our citizens report an unusual sight. Last Monday evening they saw a most beautiful snow-bow.

Charlotte Observer: It was stated that no one was hurt in the Stateville collision, all the passengers having got out. But it is now learned that Mr. Will Meares, well known in this city as the popular "Jesman of the New York clothing house of Edmund Bates & Co., received a severe but not serious laceration on the forehead.

Raleigh News-Observer: Judge Graves, at the opening of Court yesterday morning, gave the county commissioners a well-deserved rapscap for the condition of the court house.

Local News

Cotton receipts yesterday 238 bales. And still no cases for the Mayor's Court.

The guard house has not a solitary boarder. Mr. James Madden has been quite ill for some weeks past, but is now improving.

City bonds of the denomination of $1,000 were purchased at the office of the City Clerk and Treasurer yesterday at par.

Mr. Samuel L. Yopp, formerly of this city, but for a few years past a resident of Rowan county, has, we learn, sold his property there with the view of returning to his old home.

The Norwegian barque North-cole, Capt. Erickson, which cleared from this port for Bremen, yesterday, takes out 1,600 bales of cotton.

Mrs. Brown, of Philadelphia, who was hurt by the railroad accident on the night of the 4th inst., and who has since been at the Parcell House in this city, has recovered sufficiently to leave for home.

The streets, which were never in a worse condition than during the past week or two, are rapidly drying and becoming ready for the improvements which are contemplated as soon as they shall be considered in a proper condition to receive them.

The glorious sunshine of yesterday was appreciated because so rare. It is the third day Old Sol has shown his face during the present year of 1881, and we hope his appearance hereafter will not be so much like angel's visits--"few and far between."

County Commissioners: The Board of County Commissioners met in adjourned session yesterday; present, Col. W. L. Smith, Chairman, and Commissioners B. G. Worth, J. A. Montgomery, E. L. Pearce and H. A. Bask.

Standard Keeper in the sum of $200, with Jno. F. Stotter and Chas. M. Bonham as sureties, which was accepted and Mr. Mills was duly qualified.

The following was ordered by the Board: It appearing to the satisfaction of the Board that the Register has failed to collect the tax on purchases of liquor according to law he is hereby instructed to notify all such parties to come forward and reform their list in conformity with the law.

OPERA HOUSE

The Concert given at the Opera House last night, under the direction of Mr. E. Van Laer, was largely attended and passed off very creditably to all concerned.
