the hour for the consideration of the special order for the day having arrived, it was taken up. The bill was introduced by the Senator from Wayne, it being a bill to levy a tax of five hundred dollars on persons eagaged in hiring or employing laborers to go beyond the limits of the State. The bill provides that the tax shall be levied for each county in which any person may be so engaged. Mr. Gudger offered the following amendment: "Provided that this act shall not apply to those counties lying west of the Blue Ridge Mountains." The amendment was adopted. Mr. Carter offered a second amendment as follows: "Provided, that this act shall not apply to the county of Warren.

Mr. Dortch said that he and other Senators desired to say something on the bill, but as the hour for adjournment had arrived he moved that the Senate adjourn.

The Senate adjourned at 2 o'clock. Mr. Dorich's bill is one of unusual importance, and provoked a good deal of able discussion, in which Messrs. Staples, Glenn and Whitaker specially distinguished themselves.
