Magietrate's Court. Wellington Williams, colored, was arraigned before Justice McQuigg on the charge of being engaged in a fight on the street with rocks Wednesday night, in the neighborhood of St. Luke's church, while a festival was in progress there, during which one Furman Wesley was stricken a severe blow. The evidence was to the effect that the rocks were of such size as to come under the head of deadly weapons, and the defendant was therefore ordered to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was sent to jail.
