Notices of the Press:

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up

The Wilmington STAB has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State. - Warrenton Gazette

The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight. The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typographical appearance cannot be beat-

The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typography up to editorial ability and independence.—

Petersburg (Va) Index-Appeal.

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor. Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still in continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magnitude. May its lastre never wane.—The Free

The Wilmington (N. C.) Monning Star is a model newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South, and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.-The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dailies in the South. — Robesonian.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina iournalism.—Charlotte Observer.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dallies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Turboro Southerner

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Stab. It has just reached one of its many birthdays, As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N.C.) Star, the Washington Star, Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example There must be something in a name after all—Richmond

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlotte Ob-

THE MORNING STAR, one of the best dailies we know, and as a newspaper, in our opinion, the very best, has entered upon its twelfth year. In every particular the STAR comes fully up to the mark as the principal daily in our chief commercial city. Leng may it twinkle.—Alamance Gleaner. The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspa-pers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial department is conducted with much ability .- Merganton Blads.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise began amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily 'waxed' until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newspaper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it. among our most acceptable exchanges. — Hillston Recorder.

The Wilmington Mornine STAR has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the STAR is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the STAR (rightfully teo), is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthful, moral influence of the STAR never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more its genfal, enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE SUN FOR 1881.

Everybody reads Twa SDM. In the edition of this newspaper throughout the year to come everybody will find: I. All the world's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprofitable expenditure of time and eye sight. THE SUN long ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fullners and uneatisfac - tony brevity. II. Much of that sort of news which depends less upon its recognized importance than upon its in terest to mankind. From morning to morning THE SUM prints a continue i story of the lives of real men and women, and of their deeds, plans, loves, hates, and troubles. This story is more varied and more interesting than any romance that was ever devised Was ever devised

III. Good writing in every column and fresh ness, originality, accuracy, and decerum in the treatment of every subject.

IV. Honest comment. The Sun's habit is to speak out fearlessly about men and things.

V. Equal candor in dealing with each political party, and equal readiness to commend what ipraiseworthy or to rebuke what is blamable in Democrat or Republican.

VI. Absolute independence of partisan organiza tions, but unwavering loyalty to true Democratic

V1. Absolute independence of partian organizations, but unwavering loyalty to true Democratic principles. The Sun believes that the Government which the Constitution gives use is a good one to keep. Its notion of duty is to resist to its utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up another form of government in place of that which exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decide this supremely important contest. The Sun believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Rings for monopoly, the Rings for plunder, and the Rings for imperial power.
