Died in Pender.

A white preacher by the name of Rev. L. B. Lewis, who has been preaching to the past two or three months, and who hails from Halifax county, died near the "Borough," a short distance from Point Caswell, on Tuesday night, and his remains were brought to this city on the steamer John Doscoon yesterday, for burial here or transportation to his old home.

Miss Calhoun. Miss Eleanor Calhoun arrived last eve ning and is stopping at the Purcell House. The company supporting her are located at the Purcell and Commercial Hotels. They play here Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee.

The Berger Troups.

Our old acquaintances, the Bergers, who are to appear at the Opera House this evening, are thus referred to by the Savannah Notes of a late date :

"A very refined and cultured audience greeted the Bergera' Elite Concert Company on their first appearance at the theatre last evening, and most amply were they repaid for their attendance. The entertainment opened with an orchestra overture by the full brass band, and was followed by a cornet solo by Mr. A. M. Holbrook, which was received with every evidence of pleasure. Miss Mary Bowen, an attractive young lady, then favored the audience with a recitation, in a style which showed that she had carefully studied elocution. "This was followed by a solo from Miss Etta Morgan (who is well and popularly remembered in connection with the Berger family) on the Saxophone, a queer looking instrument in shape, resembling a meerschaum pipe. She was enthusiastically applauded for the artistic execution dis-

"Mr. Charles W. Brewster, a talented young ventriloquist, next appeared, and with his lay figures afforded the house or more. Mr. Brewster is very skillful in the practice of this difficult accomplishment, and has few equals and no superior that we have seen as a ventriloquist.

"The selection played by the Berger Cornet Band was superbly rendered, and was followed by another capital recitation by Miss Marie Bowen. "The zither solo, by Mr. A. Fisher, one of the most accomplished musicians in the country, was a genuine treat. "One of the most pleasing and enjoyable features of the evening was the beli duet, by Miss Etta Morgan and Mr. Henry G. Berger. It was a relic of the popular Bergers of cide and was most heartily recog-nized and appreciated. They were greeted with round after round of applause, and twice recalled "Mr. Leo Brand's performance on the xylophone was artistic and skillful, and elicited hearty plaudits. The entertainment, which may be termed truly delightful to every appreciative lover of the refined and beautiful, closed with a fine selection by the Cornet Band."

About Market Houses. It may be gratifying to the sel cted people of Wilmington to know that they are not alone in their misery about market houses. The town of Edenton is in trouble too. The Board of Councilmen of that ancient burg having passed a resolution providing for the sale of her market house. a petition is in circulation praying that honorable body to rescind the resolution. In Edenton the people don't want to sell, and in Wilmington they don't want to buy.

This is a big question in Wilmington, and is likely to settle the hash of divers and sundry Aldermanic aspirants one way or the other. Meantime, we buy our shanks and tripe and bivalves on the best possible terms, without regard to geographical lines, and with an eye single to the glory of our stomachic department.

Mark our prediction ! Yes, market well If the many gentlemen, both married and single, who are ambitious of becoming City Fathers don't switch off on some other issue, in less than forty days they will find themselves slaughtered, skinned, disemboweled, and dangling from the meat hooks of the butchers' stalls, while the band will play that favorite national anthem: "See what you got for being for or against the New Market."

A New Hall for the Colored People. Allen Evans, one of our prominent and energetic colored men, is about completing a large building on the corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets, comprising two stores below and a large hall above. On Tuesday night, in accordance with invitation, quite a number of colored people met to "christen" the hall and to partake of the refreshments, both solid and liquid, provided by the host for his invited guests in honor of the occasion. After partaking of these to their entire satisfaction the assemblage was called to order and Benj. Hill who had been selected for the duty, proceeded with appropriate remarks to announce that the hall would hereafter be known by the name of Minnie's Hall, in honor of the proprietor's youngest daughter. The festivities did not close until about 12 o'clock, and were, we learn, greatly enjoyed by those present. In dimensions, the hall is about 40 by 70 feet.

Removing the Cape Fear Tebacco Works. The building of the Cape Fear Tobacco Works, located on Chestnut, between Sixth and Seventh streets, is in process of demolition, preparatory to removal, in accordance with the statement made by us a few days ago. The company have purchased a lot at the corner of Sixth and Campbell streets, in the location known as Camp Lamb, which has the advantage of being convenient to the railroad, as well as otherwise adapted in the way of temperature, etc., as a place for the manufacture of tobacco. The work of erecting the building in its new location, and in its enlarged form, will be pushed forward with dispatch, and it is expected to have the works in readiness for operation in about twenty-five days at the farthest.

An Incane Patient. Essex Stevens, a colored insane patient from Pender county, was brought here

Tuesday night, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Hand, and lodged in jail for safe-keeping. It seems that Stevens was taken to Goldsboro on Tuesday, to be confined in the asylum at that place, but no application for his admission having been previously made the authorities declined to receive him, Officer Hand was therefore compelled to bring him here to await the necessary action on the part of the authorities of Pender and those of the asylum, preliminary to his admittance.

Mayor's Court. The only case for a hearing before this Court, vesterday morning, was that of Mary Hayes, a damsel of dusky hue, who says she formerly resided in Bladen county, and who was taken to the guard house Monday night on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and resisting the police. It being her first offence, and she having been locked up since Monday night, the Mayor suspended judgment in her case, with the understanding that if brought before him again on a similar charge she will receive double punishment. No More Bivalves.

Said an old Market street merchant yesterday, "D-n it, don't things look dead around here since them fish carts was removed?" Then the tears began to trickle down his aged cheeks as he said, "I never expect to eat another oyster as long as I live. I can't buy one without going to the new market, and damme if I'll ever eat one that came from there." This reporter squeezed a little lemon juice into his eyes and mingled his young tears with those of the venerable merchant aforementioned. Verily, we are fallen upon evil times.

The schooner was expected to sail from Morehead City for Wilmington yesterday at 9 A. M. and will probably reach this port to-day. We learn from the owners, Messrs. Sol. Bear & Bros., of this city, that great credit is due to the efforts of Capt. Gabrielson, officers and crew of the Revenue Cutter Colfax, for this fortunate result, and also Mr. W. P.
