THE LEGISLATURE.

Raleigh News-Observer's Report Curtailed. SENATE. TUESDAY, Feb. 15, 1881.

Mr. Parish offered a protest from the county commissioners of Orange county against the formation of the new county of Durham. Also, a petition from certain citizens of that portion of the county proposed to be incorporated in the new county, against the formation of said county. Bills and resolutions were offered as follows, appropriately referred or otherwise disposed of : Mr. Deaver, to incorporate the Atlantic and French Broad Valley Railroad Company. Referred. Mr. Scott, of Naw Hanover, for the better protection of fishermen and farmers. Referred.

Mr. Dertob, so change the time of holding a certain court in Wayne, Jones. Onslow and Carteret coun-communication was received from the Governor, containing a proposition from certain parties to purchase the State's interest in the Carle Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, together with the correspondence of the parties mentioned, relative to the subject.

(Gen. Imboden, in his letter to the Governor, says that two routes the South Atlautic and Ohio Railway and Construction Company! We now copy from his letter :)

The first rout surveyed will be from Patterson, in Caldwell county, crossing the Blue Ridge at Cooke's Gap, and thence water down the shed of the Watauga River to the Tennessee line, and to a connection with the company's work in Tennessee and Vir-

Another route will then be surveyed from Cranberry, in Mitchell county, across to the waters of Linville the Western North Carolina Railroad. These serveys being completed, the company I represent will select the one or the other route, as may appear most conducive to their in-

Should the first mentioned route, with its eastern terminus at or near Patterson, be adopted, it may and doubtless will become a matter of great moment to the company that the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad shall be speedily completed and connected with their road across the moustains. My principals, understanding that the state of North Carolina owns five hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the stock of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad Company, the poswould be dearable as an inducement for them an about little the road into Caldwell county, within the next two years, I have been indruoted to make the State the following proposition,

That the present Legislature shall pass an act authorizing a sale of the State stock in the Cape Fear & Yad-Mis Velley Railroad, fifty-five bundred shares of the par value of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars, at the cost price of ten dollars per share, amounting to $35,000, to be paid into the State Treasury by or for the South Atlantic & Ohio Railway Construction and Operating Company at the time the stock is transferred.

That said purchase shall be consummated and the money paid on or before the first day of July, 1881, otherwise the right to purchase by the said South Atlantic & Ohio Rail way Company shall thence cease and

That it shall be competent for and shall be the duty of the commission or agency created by the act authorising such sale to exact from the purchasers of said stock such feasonable and sufficient security as may be agreed upon to meura the completion said Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad to its termans in Caldwell sounty within two years from the

A second communication was received from the Governor relative to the condition of the Western North Carolina Railroad, requesting the passage of a resolution authorizing him to employ an expert to examine the condition of the rolling stock of the road between Salisbury and Asheville. Mr. Davidson hereupon offered a resolution that the Governor is hereby authorized to employ such experts as may be necessary to make the proper examination of the condition of the road, and that the Public Treasurer be authorized to pay such sums of money as may be necessary for the employment of the expert. Memrs. Glenn, York and Dortch opposed the amendment, which was Mr. Richardson moved that the Senate take up the resolution relative to increasing the committee on appointing the justices of the pasce, providing five new members. The motion prevailed and the resolution was adopted. On motion of Mr. Dortch, the bill introduced by himself relative to changing the time of holding the Superior Courts in Jones, Onslow, Wayne and Carteret countles was taken up and passed its second and Miss Eleanor Calhoun.

At the Opera House, this evening, this popular Southern actress will make her first appearance before a Wilmington audience in the drama entitled "Daniel Rochat." supported by Mr. J. T. Ford's Dramatic Company. The Columbia Register says of

"Miss Calhoun's 'Juliet' last night was all that our proud, fond, Carolina heart could wish. She was bewitchingly beautiful, and exhibited a superb conception of Shakspeare's beautiful, leving 'Juliet,' the loving and brave 'Juliet,' who was willing to sleep with the dead so as to reach her noble 'Romeo's' arms. Miss Calhoun's art was exquisite, tasteful, and her rendering full of feeling and honest nature, that true conception of a true woman's aweet love which makes a desert blossom as the rose. As she came upon the boards the audience met her with a welcome applause which we could see by the modest droop of her eyes she felt to the heart. Perhaps the fair and beautiful daughter of Carolina was most bewitching when from the bal-cony she confessed her deep love to the moon, and unwittingly tolds to 'Romee's' own ravished ears the story of her love, the womanly grace and true medesty with which 'Juliet' recovers herself from the dilemma was most exquisitely done, and loving, noble, modest, pure, womanly 'Juliet' stood before us with all the force of the immortal dramatist's conception. And this is not saying a word too much, for no better 'Juliet' ever walked our Carolina boards, and in the language of an honest admirer near us, who exclaimed from the fulness of his heart, 'By Jove, she's got as good as any of 'em!' So we

Berger's Cohceft Company. This troupe, an established favorite 1 this section, had a large audience at the Opera House last evening and gave a very pleasing entertainment. Sol Smith Russell and Misses Anna and Ella Berger were sadly missed, and while other performers take their places, they fail to give the same satisfaction. The ventriloquism of Mr. C. W. Brewster is excellent. Miss Bowen recites well, and Miss Morgan, Mr. Fisher and Mr. Brand, acquitted themselves with credit in their several specialties.

The bell duet delighted the audience and general regret was expressed that there was not more of the bell ringing, once the feature of these concerts.

Mr. Halbrook's cornet solo was fine and well indicated his power to skillfully use the instrument, and the music of the band under Mr. Sullivan's direction was always delightful and fully appreciated. We think the addition of a really good humorist or vocalist would greatly enhance the merit of the performance and give much more pleasure to patrons, and hope when the company next visits us they will have one or the other.

A BENEFACTRESS.—Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A bleading on Mrs. Winslow," for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking and teething slege. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYBUP relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhosa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—knew her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power-we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all draggists, 125 cents madelle.
