RALPH W. C. Dec. 2d, 1880.
I take pleasure in stating that a member of my family has used Mrs. Joe Person's Indian Tonic with good results. I believe her remedy exceeds that for the purpose for which it is intended.

FARMER W. C. Dec. 24, 1880.
I was in bad health, suffering from debility, indigestion and loss of appetite, when a friend of mine tried to buy for me a Tonic. I did so with the best hoping to see if it would do me any good. I tried it, and in a few days I was feeling better.
I then got a quantity of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters, and in a few days I was feeling as well as usual. I have now recovered from my illness.

OPERA HOUSE.

Dr. Grissom's Lecture.
Last night was extremely incident, and the audience was consequently much smaller than it would otherwise have been. But quite a number of our most intelligent people were present to hear the lecture of Dr.
Eugene Grissom, of Raleigh, who appeared upon the invitation of the Wilmington Library Association. The theme of the distinguished gentleman was "The Prince of Moses," or King David. The lecture was cog and elaborate, and was listened to with the utmost attention from beginning to end. The lecturer gave a full history of David's remarkable and chequered life. He claimed for him at the outset that he was the foremost man of all the world. He brought out vividly all of the distinguishing incidents of a long and in many respects a glorious career, and dwelt upon the leading features that marked the character of the illustrious and able King of Israel, who was poet, priest and ruler. There were some passages of exquisite literary finish that gave beauty and interest to the discussion, as well as many descriptive passages that were wrought with care and were distinguished for exactness of detail.
The concluding part was very graphic and touching, and portrayed the monarch mistreated in colors of fearful darkness and gloom, when his life had been rendered desolate and despondent by transgression and crime.
Whilst the theme chosen did not admit of the originality and freshness of treatment that other topics would have allowed, it was one of those discussions that could not fail to interest and instruct. It was so full of truth and beauty that it was in striking contrast to those lectures that aim simply at popular effect, whilst sowing insidiously and ingeniously the seeds of error and corruption. It is a gracious sign when eminent gentlemen set at themes that are replete with the profoundest warning as well as noblest incentives.
A Pleasant Visit.
We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Mr. Minot Osborn, one of the proprietors of the New Haven Register, the leading Democratic paper in Connecticut.
Mr. Osborn has just returned from a visit to Charleston, and he is much gratified at the very cordial reception he met with there and is meeting with in Wilmington. He will be able to see for himself how little cause there is for the highly colored reports sent North from time to time prejudicial to the Southern people. He will be able to bear testimony to the hearty cordiality and loyalty of our people generally. We would like for more of the well disposed newspaper men of New England to visit this section of our common country. Some of their prejudices would be dropped by the way.
Even a square-out Republican might learn something that would arouse his admiration if he were to come among us.

put on the boards at the Opera House this evening:
"Jay Rial's 'Humpty Dumpty' show at the Detroit is heartily commended by all who witnessed the opening performance last night. Some of the mechanics are new, and all the old ones well played by a good company, including Grimald' Zeltner as 'Humpty,' 'Red Mueab, the fire king, who dances with bare feet on a sheet of red hot iron, and performs other startling feats; Miss Antonio, a graceful Columbine and good jig dancer; Punch Watson, a fine cornet soloist; and 'Prof.' Wingfield's dog amount of fun."

Admission, 25 and 50 cents. Reserved evening at 6 o'clock, to remain closed until Alderman, Registrar: Whites 83, colored 312. Total 395.

trar: Whites 281, colored 85. Total 366.

An Important Railroad Connection.
Dr. R. M. Eines, who represents the Copper Knob Mining Company, to whom a charter was granted for a railroad from either Statesville or Salisbury, to that point, by the late Legislature, was in Statesville last week, and the American says "he was looking to arrangements for beginning a survey of the line, and expects to place a force in the field at an early day. He says the road is certain to be built as early as possible; that the company have plenty of means, without applying for outside aid, and that a connection will be made at this point with the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad, and with the Carolina Central Road at Charlotte, to tide water at Wilmington—the gages of all these roads being the same. By this line the company will ship their freights to Wilmington, connecting with a line of ocean steamers, and obtain their supplies by the same."

A Gentle at Large.
A young colored woman, who gives her name as Della, was wandering about the streets Monday night in a demented condition, much to the annoyance of the people, and finally went into the house of a colored woman in the southern section of the city, who was away from home, only her children being present, stripped off her clothing, piled it up in the middle of the floor and set fire to it. The screams of the children and the noise made by the woman attracted the attention of the neighbors, who hurried to the scene and extinguished the fire. The woman was plucked up on the street at an early hour yesterday morning, in almost an entirely nude condition, and taken to the guard house, where it was found necessary to lock her in a cell, and where she will remain until her condition can be examined into.

Vote for the Regular Nominces.
To-morrow the die will be cast as to who shall serve the city as Aldermen for the next year, and all who favor good, honest, and economical government should cast their votes for the regular nominees of the Democratic party in their respective wards.
See to it that every Democratic voter is registered to-day, as this is the last day for registration, and that they all vote tomorrow. Watch the enemy, as they are working hard to carry some of the Democratic wards, and though there is not the slightest perceptible change of their doing so, it is always best to be on the safe side and prepared for whatever emergency may arise.

The Emperor William's Birthday.
The 84th birthday of the Emperor William was duly honored at the office of the German Imperial Consul, Mr. Eduard Paschau, yesterday, and the flag at the residence of the Consul and also at the Consulate was displayed in recognition of the joyous occasion.
In this moist and variable climate colds are the rule rather than the exception. Dr.
Ball's Cough Syrup is just the remedy for every one to take when suffering from a cough, cold or any throat trouble.

THE CITY.

A NEW VOLUME.
The Star enters with this number upon the twenty-eighth half yearly volume of its existence. Thirteen years and a half ago it was first issued. It will aim to meet all of the demands of a newspaper in the future as it has in the past.
A LAST APPEAL.
Personal prejudices and personal jealousies should amount to nothing when the success of the Democratic party is at stake. If we lose one Ward in the pending election the city of Wilmington passes under Republican control, with only the Board of Audit and Finance left between us and bankruptcy. Then why should we divide or "split" among ourselves? Is it pleasant to think of a Republican Mayor? Is it pleasant to think of a Republican police? Is it pleasant to think of the old times of municipal partisanship and extravagance?
We submit these remarks to-day instead of to-morrow because we see that the Democrats of the Second, Third and Fourth Wards have not yet registered their full strength. If the delinquents will register to-day, we have every reason to believe they will vote right to-morrow.
Why hesitate? This is no time for allowing personal feeling to drive you from your allegiance to party.
Democrats of Wilmington, can you afford to vote any other than the straight ticket?

An Important Railroad Connection.
Dr. R. M. Eines, who represents the
a charter was granted for a railroad from
either Statesville or Salisbury, to that point,
means, without applying for outside aid,
point with the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio
Road at Charlotte, to tide water at Wilmington—the gages of all these roads be-

A Gentle at Large.
dition, much to the annoyance of the people,
attracted the attention of the neighbors,
street at an early hour yesterday morning,
can be examined into.

Democratic party in their respective wards.
registered to-day, as this is the last
