DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN.

Table showing weather forecasts for various locations including Atlanta, Augusta, Charleston, etc.

Remark was born on April 1st, 1812. He is, therefore, 68 years old. A great man was born in Germany that day; it was All Fools' Day.

It is believed confidently that Mahone's man Friday, one Riddleberger, has no chance of confirmation by the Senate. So with that fellow Gorham.

Since March 1st twenty deaths from scarlet fever have occurred at Charleston, South Carolina. There were six deaths last week from this disease. Over one hundred cases reported.

Massachusetts is a little wary of woman suffrage. There was a bill in the house giving to women the right to vote in municipal elections. It was defeated by a vote of 122 to 76.

Senators Johnston, Voorhees, Butler and one or two others are booked for speeches in reply to Mahone. By the way, the Louisville Courier-Journal says Mahone read badly the speech Conkling had written for him.

Robert Lincoln is to be taken up by the Grant men as their candidate for President in 1884, provided the great National Medicine cannot get at himself. So Gen. Garfield may be warning "a viper" that may sting him.

There is great rejoicing at the University of Virginia over its prospects. Enough money has been raised to guarantee the securing of the McCormick telescope, the Vanderbilt Observatory, and the chair of Astronomy.

The negro cadet Whitaker is faring badly in the trial. He was under fire on Friday, and indignations from his former statement were fully brought out according to the reports in the New York Times, Republican.

If Conkling cannot defeat Judge Robertson's nomination in any other way he will as a dernier resort appeal to the courtesy of Senators. This courtesy—a sort of unwritten law—is a mutual understanding that Senators have a veto on all appointments within their territory. It is said Blaine has taken advantage of it in the past.

In the debate in the Senate on Saturday Butler and Beck turned the tables on the Stalwarts by showing the murders and outrages in Northern States and by bringing out the habits of building and corruption of suffrage in Rhode Island and Massachusetts. That is right. Make them take the physics they propose to the South.

The Charleston News & Courier is satisfied that a majority of the males in South Carolina are "Colonels." It thinks most American titles is wanted, because when all become "Colonels" some will strike for a higher title. In this State only three fourths of the white voters are "Kurssis," for that is the correct orthography for men who won their spurs at a militia training. The men of war—the fighters—the genuine—are ad-valley and Carolina Central Railroads appear to have also done much damage. Charlotte Observer: The article is the latest Carolina invention. Mr. O. J. Fox is one who is inventing it. It has not been interviewed yet, but is understood to be a kind of bicycle that isn't a bicycle. That is to say, it is a bicycle. What we mean is that it is a bicycle with only one wheel.

Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: Toolset Too late! Old Bachelor is now inevitable. The Legislature (made up of married men) imposed a tax of $1.00 on all marriage licenses, and 50 cents to the Registrar. Now, when you come to add another fifty cents for the person's fee, and a shilling's worth of gum drops for the bride, when she goes to the altar, it is not at all a bad idea to end it! It is not railroads we oppose, but Railroad Kings. It is not the actual working lines we denounce, but the underground wire-pulling. The roots of the trouble lie in the fact that the State does not own them, except for political and pecuniary purposes.

Hamlet Argus: A fire broke out just east of this place on Tuesday last. The woods being very thick and the wind blowing, the flames spread rapidly up Mark's Creek, destroying nearly everything in their course. When about one and a half miles from here it got into a turpentine orchard belonging to Mr. G. J. Freeman, and destroyed all but about 4,000 of the boxes, together with the entire fence around one of his farms. We hear of another fire that broke out about six or eight miles south of here on the same day, destroying the plantation, distillery and a lot of rosin belonging to Tony Mumford.

Asheville Citizen: Hiram Sumner was struck on the head last Thursday, with a very heavy piece of oak slab, by Bill Johnson, from which he died on Saturday—both colored. Occurred on the Western North Carolina Railroad have completed the road to the French Broad bridge, four miles from the Swannanoa depot. They are at present grading and laying out down the river at once and rapidly, iron having been purchased and an outrigger. The frame-work for the bridge across the French Broad is being very rapidly prepared. It will be completed far down toward Paint Rock.

Snow Hill Advocate: Kinchen Gian, an escaped convict, who was sentenced from this county to the penitentiary, is said to be at his home, about seven miles from this place. He gives the following account of the manner in which he escaped: "I was arrested on the 21st of December, and another convict, were sick in the same cell, the other one died and preparations made to bury him, his coffin was brought and he was placed in it. They were then left together until eleven o'clock, during which time Gian succeeded in taking the dead man out of the coffin and placing him in his bunk, covering him very carefully, and then getting into the coffin himself. He was taken to the grave yard and committed to the earth. He was buried in the coffin. This frightened those who had the burial in charge, and they ran off. He then raised the coffin lid and made his escape. This comes to me as a great relief. A terrible storm passed over a small scope of country about two and a half miles from this place, on the Goldboro road, on Tuesday night. Two dwellings, one of them a new one, were torn to pieces; fortunately none of the inmates were seriously hurt. Trees were uprooted and twisted off, fences blown down, and things in the line of the storm demolished generally.

Raleigh News-Observer: Nero Jones, charged with the murder of Matthew Pettigrew in Edgecombe county, in August last, was placed in Wake county jail yesterday for safe keeping. Judge W. M. Shipp arrived in the city yesterday, and was sworn as Judge of the Superior Court District by Chief Justice Smith. We learn that Gen. Edward Jones Mallett, of New York, who graduated at the University of North Carolina in 1818, will be present at the next commencement. We understand that Judge David A. Schenck will hereafter act as attorney for the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company. He will represent that company, it is said, in the Best Lumber case, before Judge Seymour, at Wilkesboro next week. Hon. Clem Dowd and Mr. John S. Henderson will represent W. J. Best. The receipts of cotton this past week were $773,462, against $218 for the corresponding week last season. The total receipts this season to date amount to 162,104 bales, while up to the same time in 1880 they were only 45,798 bales. This gives a total increase of 116,306 bales in favor of the present season. About a hundred Republicans of the ultra sort gathered at the court house last evening to indulge in speeches, etc. on the question of James E. Harris and the Postmaster. Resolutions praising and recommending him, and bitterly opposing the present Postmaster for his failure to appoint negro clerks and his apathy as a Republican, were adopted. The meeting was a Harris-Shaffer affair, so appeared to be considered.

We learn that Principal Harrison's Female Seminary at Wilson has had 130 students during the year, including more boarding and more music pupils than ever before. MEADE & BAKER'S CARBOLIC MOUTH WASH is a fragrant and delightful toilet article, and will positively cure all diseases of the MOUTH and THROAT, cure diphtheria, purify the breath, and preserve the TEETH. It will also relieve Bad Breath, and has an excellent value for SORE THROAT. Price 50 cents a bottle. For sale by drug dealers generally. The trade supplied by the wholesale druggists in Richmond and Baltimore. mh 96 5m ed

The deceased was well-known here as a spirited, energetic young man, and was esteemed for his many fine qualities. He formerly worked in the W. C. & A. R. R. shops, when they were located on the west side of the river, and subsequently at Florence, S. C., where they were removed, remaining there about two years. He next went to Montgomery, where he remained a short time, and then returned to Birmingham, Alabama, where he had been employed about six months in the shops of the South & North Railroad. The news of the sad accident by which he lost his life—fall particularly of which have not yet been received—produced a great shock upon his family and friends, and especially upon his aged mother, who lost another son by accidental killing many years ago. The subject of this notice was about 24 years of age.

Willington District—Col. J. G. Barr. Cape Fear—Iredell Johnson. Harriet—A. A. Moseley. Masonboro—J. A. Montgomery. Federal Point—J. H. Horne. J. W. Duls, John Carroll, R. H. Bordeaux, A. D. Wessell, John O. Heyer and John Taylor—the latter of Federal Point and to sell malt liquors only—were granted licenses to retail.

Rev. Dr. Fritchard. Rev. Dr. T. H. Fritchard, President of Wake Forest College, who is here on a brief visit, delivered two very able, interesting and convincing discourses at the First Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon and night, which were listened to by large audiences. Last evening Dr. Fritchard was to have delivered an address on Wake Forest College, its history, etc., but was prevented by sickness. It is expected that he will do so tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, at the First Baptist Church.

Schooner Lantis Cobb, Cobb, hence, arrived at New York on the 1st inst. Norwegian brig Gaellen, Wisbye, sailed from New York on the 2d inst. Schooner Sally M. Evans, Willets, hence, arrived at New York on the 3d inst. Schooner Hattie A. White, Balliste, sailed on the 31st ult., from Providence for this port. Schoer Jennie Hart, from Belfast, Ct., for this port, put into New London, Ct., April 1, with loss of jib-boom by collision with an unknown schooner near Dutch Island. She will repair and proceed. Schooner Getwynny, from New York for this port, with guano, was run into and sunk March 30th, off Kitty Hawk, N. C. (The above is doubtless the schooner which was reported sunk on the night of the 30th, and was subsequently stripped.) The schooner Wm. E. Van Buren, from New York for Jacksonville, Florida, which put in here leaking badly, on Friday last, is discharging her cargo of railroad iron at the wharf opposite Mr. J. E. Neff's, preparatory to going on the dry dock, if found necessary. The schooner H. H. Gibson, Capt. Sturges, which left here Sunday morning, for Elizabeth City, collided with the Norwegian barque Mediator near what is known as Five Fathom Hole, near the mouth of the river, and carried away the barque's jib-boom and lost her own jib-boom and fore-topmast. The Gibson returned to this city for repairs.

The steamer Vesta, Capt. Patrick, hitherto reported as having parted chains at Northwest Light House on the 26th ult., and dragged to White Shoals, four miles northwest of Portsmouth, N. O.; where she was stranded, is reported by Signal Officer Watson, at this station, as being pretty much in the same condition, as when last reported. The Vesta was purchased by Medea E. T. Love and James Bagley, of this city, who were on her when she was ashore, and was intended to ply on the Cape Fear River, between this city and Fayetteville. She is a stern-wheel steamer and said to be something near the size of the steamer Vasa, and built pretty much after the same plan. It is probable that she will be gotten off when good weather sets in, accompanied by favorable winds.

Jerry Palmer, colored, had a hearing before a magistrate yesterday on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretence. He was ordered to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was lodged in jail. HOSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE sets as a brain and nerve food. It is not a quack medicine, but is prepared according to the directions of the well known Prof. N. Horsford.
