THE MORNING STAR.

Several failures in the Liverpool cotton trade are announced. — Benj. Ivey, implicated in the murder of E. M. Hicks, at Weldon, N. C., some time ago, has surrendered himself, his trial takes place in September next.

Conkling has been in New York; he has gone west with the late Senator Carpenter's remains. He will return by way of Albany and he means business. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes on the 6th:

"The arrival of Senator Conkling in town this morning has given rise to a variety of reports as to the particular object of his errand, all pointing, however, to fresh complications in his contest with the President on the Robertson nomination. Mr. Conkling is excessively annoyed at the recent announcement of Robertson by the Legislature, and the fact that he has been in consultation with several State Senators and assemblymen during the day gives color to the allegation that he is making a special effort to have his name put in nomination at the same time that he is whittawing in and about the Union League Club to the effect that a compromise between the Senator and the President is under way."

Washington letter writers represent the Republican situation as growing more perplexing hourly. To get out of the fix in which they are placed by their own blundering folly they are talking of an extra session again. The correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch writes on the 7th:

"The Republican situation in the Senate daily grows more embarrassing, and not one of them can point to a way out of their dilemma, except upon the supposition, to which they adhere, that the Democrats will stand to the support of some one of the compromises heretofore mentioned in this correspondence, which have since been indirectly proposed in debate by Sherman and other Republicans. They have been thrown out in the form of incidental suggestions, not as offers of compromise."

Rev. Mr. Kametell married a Roman Catholic lady and the Presbytery of Washington seek to expel him therefor. The matter is being fully discussed. A vote has not been reached as yet.

In New York on the 6th instant, North Carolina special interest, third class, at 8 3/4 to 9 1/2; do. first class at 9. North Carolina 6's issued to Chatham Road 6 1/2 to 7; do. Central Road 14 to 15 1/2.

The Richmond Dispatch's correspondent says Senator Bayard made a great speech. He declared that he was willing to go before the country on the facts which this debate has developed, and stand or fall with them.

Here is the state of the New York goods market on the 6th:

The dry goods dealers report cotton to be quiet, first hands, but prices somewhat advanced. Prices are sluggish, but cotton fairly well reduced to 62 and 63 for tomorrow. Grain is active and quiet. Dress goods and lawns quiet. Wool goods slow of sale.

Judge Field, Democrat, wants Stanley Matthews confirmed. Sorry for Field. He is the same Judge who had so much to say about the strong government tendencies and so on. Matthews is one of the advocates of the very measures Field condemned.

John Sherman says Mahone and his set are "bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh." John and Billy will make very good companions; with Riddleberger to go along. Says John to Bill: "A sudden thought strikes me, let us swear an eternal friendship." And they swore.

The Philadelphia Press urges the Republicans in the Senate "to stand by the guns." That is correct. They are right in front of the muzzle and good Democratic gunners are at the touchstone. Dames and several others have been blown to atoms already. Let them "stand" and catch the grape.

Here is further testimony concerning Edgar A. Poe's habits. It is from the pen of Dr. W. Gibbon Carter, who writes as follows to the Richmond State:

"To the Editor:—Poe vs. Roe. I find in the Richmond Dispatch of April 5 what the elegant poet asserts about himself is true. I knew Edgar A. Poe well—was his friend—attended him as a physician repeatedly. Edgar A. Poe never was a drunkard. As I remarked a few hours ago, dress Poe in rags, and the gentleman is there."

No man can envy the position of Gen. Mahone. No man can believe that he has the approval of his own constituents. His old friends have lost all confidence in him, and his new allies cannot respect him very highly, whatever they may say to the contrary. The following, from the Baltimore Sun's letter from Washington, gives a glimpse of the little "rebel brigadier":

"As day succeeds day public opinion is found to be more and more in opposition to the Mahone business, because every day the electric light which the Democrats are turning upon it discloses more and more of its true character. To observers not particularly keen it is already apparent that Gen. Mahone himself begins to feel that he has not placed himself in an enviable attitude. Urgent and unbusinesslike as stamped in every look of his eyes.

Reidville News: A Reidville parent's fond heart was highly gratified at the receipt of a postal from his hopeful two-year-old son who was sent off to school to be made into a statesman. The postal was as follows: "Dear Mam—The old man has 'kicked' me for fighting Bill Sykes, in his Bill '20 and me 10, I'm still here in the school, keep in good order if I did get a kicking. Yon, da, Davy Dumps. That boy's on line. But his little sister wrote back very offended and asked him please not to write of such public matters as postal cards. Entirely a brand new generation we are raising up for the next century."

Weldon News: There are seven species of magnolia known to botanists, and North Carolina has them all. Of oaks we have 19 kinds, of pines 8, of spruces 4, of cypresses 2, of birches 3, of maples 8, of hickories 5. On Friday night last a negro named A. L. Sasser, applied to Col. J. R. Davis, proprietor of the Davis House, for supper, and was refused. An hour or two afterwards Col. Davis was sitting in his private office, some one threw a rock through the window, shattering the glass and narrowly missing Col. Davis' head. The negro was arrested and had a hearing before Mayor Emry. He is in jail.

Goldboro Messenger: The Atlantic & N. C. Railroad announces a reduction of passenger fares on its road. The wife of Mat. Carter, in Duplin county, recently gave birth to triplets—girls. At the same time she delivered a pair of twins, a boy and a girl. The little boys of Smithfield, will have a Tournament and Coronation party at Smithfield on the 9th instant. The riding to be done in a chess box down a hill 300 feet on a track laid with pine straw, time, 5 seconds and rings taken with a lance 3 feet long and held as you please.

The directors of the Eastern Seaside Asylum will meet in Goldboro, Friday the 15th instant, to organize a brand new and incorporating that institution. The directors are: J. W. Vick Johnston; Theo. Edwards, Greene; E. B. Borden, Wayne; Matt Moore, Duplin; M. M. Kala, New Bern; W. P. Craven, Currituck; N. Ramsey, Northampton; J. A. Bonitz, Wayne; A. D. McLean, Harnett. The Oswell Memorial Association holds weekly meetings in Kinston each Monday night, at which the Democrats are putting the course marked out for themselves at the beginning of the fight for Senate office.

Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: Now, we can name a town, twenty miles from the State capital, that offers for a cotton factory the site of a fine road, freedom from taxes, plenty of fuel and material, and a daily purchase of 2,000 yards of cloth, as an inducement for somebody to start a factory. Nay, more, the town will take stock in the factory, and a chance for some wide-awake Northerner!

A glance at the United States postal report shows many funny things. There is another county, which by nature is a wide and fertile one, and the thinnest of our counties; yet the good people of Wilkes have thirty-seven offices, and we wish may soon have a dozen more. Another county, which is a really more prosperous in development, is the county of Randolph, which is a perfect square, (as becometh all who bear the name), has forty-seven offices.

Raleigh News-Observer: Thirty-three drummers' licenses were issued from the State Treasury during March. The license was sent up to the Western North Carolina Railroad a few days since. It is rumored that a wealthy citizen is about to purchase some of the property on Fayetteville street, where wooden buildings now stand, and erect a splendid seven-story handsome brick store.

The North Carolina Probationist is the name of a newspaper, the first number of which made its appearance yesterday. It is devoted to the cause of absolute and unequal prohibition, and is edited by H. V. Paul. The Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum met at that institution yesterday. The following composed the board: Messrs. A. M. Merrimon, J. B. Smith, S. M. Son, E. Burke Hayward, W. S. Battle, R. L. Steele, W. S. Harris, A. J. Tomlinson and J. C. McRae. This was the first meeting of the new board.

Concord Register: The liquor dealers in the North are contributing money to carry the State of North Carolina against prohibition. Twenty-five thousand dollars was subscribed in New York in one day.

Goldboro Advance: Dr. Closs is reported to have preached nine times within the last eight days. On last Sunday he dedicated a new church at Morehead City. We understand it was an occasion of great interest.

Kinston Journal: We much regret the loss sustained by Mr. L. E. Duffy, of Onslow, in a fire week before last, which consumed his barn and stables, including cows, fodder and his farming utensils. Mr. Duffy's hands were badly burned in trying to save his horses.

The Goldboro Messenger credits the following item to the Morganton Blade: "In 1850, according to the census, there were fifty-nine papers and periodicals published in North Carolina. In 1880 the number reported is 131." Hunting up the facts cost us some time.

Tarboro Southern: Our townsmen, W. S. Battle, Esq., who has recently toured as far South as New Orleans, sojourning while in Alabama and Mississippi, says, taking everything into consideration, North Carolina is the best State to live in; that employers and laborers get on better; and that our country is more certain and general progress superior to any State through which he passed except Georgia.

Mr. J. W. Harper, on account of impaired health, has retired from the editorship of the Kinston Journal, which he founded. Under his management the paper became mostly, and at last entirely, a local gazette, from him the more because of the uniform courtesy which he has always received from him. We shall be glad to know he prospers in whatever he undertakes. Mr. E. A. Nantz succeeds him, who has also the best wishes of the town.

Stateville American: There is a prohibition law, nominal only, against selling spirits in Stateville Township, and yet it is quite disregarded and daily violated. Died, at the residence of his mother in this place, last Saturday afternoon, after protracted illness, Mr. William L. Alexander. It is to be regretted that the agitation of Prohibition is overlooking the price of corn owing to the uncertainty of failure, when that product was

Local Notes. — Good Friday and Memorial Day are both approaching.

The storm flag was displayed at the Signal Station yesterday.

The hour for evening services has been changed in some of our churches to 8 o'clock.

The weather yesterday was somewhat stormy and disagreeable, and during the afternoon another considerable fall in temperature was experienced.

Mr. N. F. Thompson will deliver an address on the subject of temperance at the Fifth Street Methodist church on Sunday night, commencing at 7 o'clock.

The City Clerk and Treasurer give notice that tax-listing will commence at the City Hall on Wednesday, the 1st of June, and continue for twenty working days thereafter.

Sergeant Davis received instructions, yesterday morning, to kill a vicious dog belonging to a party in the Southern part of the city, which bit a little child a day or two ago.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard left for home yesterday morning. His visit here proved a source of great gratification to his many friends in Wilmington, and especially to the congregation of the First Baptist Church.

Daily Weather Bulletin. The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations named, at 8:00 P. M. yesterday, Washington mean time, and also the amount of rainfall in inches for the twenty-four hours ending daily at 3 P. M., except Tuesday, when it is 48 hours, as furnished by Sergeant James W. Watson, Signal Officer at this Station:

The following are the indications for the South Atlantic States to-day: Areas of rain, followed by clearing weather; northwest to southwest winds, rising barometer and stationary or a slight rise in temperature.

Reorganization of the Board of Audit and Finance. We have heretofore omitted to state the fact that the Board of Audit and Finance of the city of Wilmington, at its last regular meeting, was re-organized by the election of officers for the ensuing term of two years.

Mr. William Calder, the newly-elected member from the Second Ward, came forward and was duly qualified.

Mr. John S. McEachern, in order to relieve the Board of any doubt or misapprehension as to the existence of a vacancy, under the recent action of the Governor, tendered his resignation, which was accepted by the Board, and he was thereupon immediately re-elected as a member of the Board to represent the Fifth Ward, and was duly qualified.

Mr. Octavius A. Wiggins, the newly appointed member for the First Ward, also came forward and qualified, which was immediately followed by a tender of his resignation, upon which, however, the Board has not yet taken action.

Mr. Norwood Giles, member from the Fourth Ward, was re-elected Chairman, and Capt. John Cowan Secretary.

Good Times in Old Sampson. "A Bachelor," writing us from his "Rancho" in old Sampson, under date of March 30th, narrates an occasion of unusual enjoyment which took place in a building near Mr. Daniel Robinson's, on Friday, the 20th ult., under the auspices of several of Sampson's fairest daughters, and in which quite a number of young folks from Sampson, Duplin, Bladen and Pender counties participated.

Among the attractions he mentions good music, sumptuous fare, plenty of dancing and the prettiest of ladies, and it is exceedingly likely that our "Bachelor" friend has been dangerously smitten in his old age.

RIVER AND MARINE. The schooner Jennie R. Morse, with a cargo of ice for Mr. B. H. J. Ahrens, was reported aground on the Bar, but was expected to get off at high water.

The schooner reported ashore on Fryling Pan Shoals got off yesterday at 12 o'clock. Capt. C. G. Morse, of the Pilot Boat Briak Timmons, cruising off the light ship picked up 40 barrels of kerosene oil and 80 boxes of soap, which were thrown overboard from the schooner. The vessel was bound to Charleston and proceeded on her way. Her name was unknown. Capt. Morse will furnish any particulars desired by parties interested.

Premature Loss of the Hair. Nostrils may be entirely prevented by the use of BURNETT'S COCAINE. It has been used in thousands of cases where the hair was coming out in handfuls, and has never failed to arrest its decay; it promotes a healthy and vigorous growth, and it is at the same time invigorated as a soft and glossy dressing for the hair.

BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS are the best, strongest and most faithful. Sold everywhere.

Original Court. The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

State vs. Sis Conley, charged with larceny. Defendant found guilty, with a recommendation to mercy. Judgment $10 and the costs.

State vs. Smith Eason and Minerva Eason, charged with harboring an escaped felon. Defendants found guilty and sentenced to two years each in the State Penitentiary.

State vs. C. H. Gilbert, charged with violating a city ordinance. Defendant submitted and judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs.

State vs. C. H. Gilbert, charged with violating a city ordinance. Defendant submitted and was required to pay one penny and the costs.

State vs. C. H. Gilbert, charged with violating a city ordinance. Case dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

State vs. H. Bentley, charged with conducting a lottery. In twelve cases defendant submitted and judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs. In thirteen cases not pro. was entered.

State vs. M. J. Bentley, et al.; charged with conducting a lottery. Not pro. as to W. A. Bentley. Others continued.

State vs. Jerry Palmer, convicted of false pretences. Defendant sentenced to twelve months in the State Penitentiary.

Maj. John W. Dunham, Clerk of the Court, tendered his official bond, with sureties, which bond was approved and accepted by the Court.

The Grand Jury came into Court, announced that they had concluded their labors, submitted their report and were discharged.

A Flower Robbery. The flower garden of Mr. A. Adrian, on Orange, between Second and Third streets, was despoiled last evening of twenty five or thirty beautiful double hyacinths, in the growing and possession of which the owner had taken a great interest and just pride. The theft was committed in the early part of the night, and was discovered almost immediately, as Mr. Adrian had had visitors, and when they were leaving took them out into the yard to give them some of the flowers only to find that he had none to dispose of. He was naturally much disgusted at finding the result of his care and attention thus appropriated by another, and we trust this notice will result in the detection of the robber and a stop being made to similar depredations.

Completely Recovered. James Marshall, the seaman from the Schr. Katie Collins, who was attacked with small pox and sent to Mt. Tirzah Hospital, below this city, about a month ago, where he was nursed by Mr. Dan. Shean, completely recovered from his malady, but was afterwards prostrated with other diseases, though of a less serious nature. He has, however, finally come forth from the trying ordeal perfectly restored to health—a somewhat remarkable fact, considering his age, which is said to be upwards of sixty.

Mayor's Court. The only case for Mayor Smith, yesterday morning, was that of a small colored boy, named James Johnson, who says he came here from Wadesboro about two weeks since, and who was found by the police asleep in a box on the street. He told such a pitiful story, saying he had no father or mother, was anxious to get something to do to support himself, etc., that he was discharged, with suitable advice and admonition.
