The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

— Charlotts Democrat.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head." - Concord Register.

The Wilmington STAB has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic.

The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typography up to editorial ability and independence.—

Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor.

Although at the head of the press in this State in although at the need of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a State of the first magnitude. May its lastre never wane.—The Free Will Baptist.

The Stan is so well and favorably known in this section of the State that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dailies in the The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina lournalism.—Charlotte Observer.

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press.

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gasetts!

The Wilmington Stan is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typographical appearance cannot be beat-en.—Jackson Exporter.

The Wilmington (N. C.) MORNING STAR is a model newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South, and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—
Turboro Boutherner.

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington STAR. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times.

The Wilmington Stan is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The Stan is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Ohariotts Ob-THE MORRING STAR, one of the best dailies we know, and as a newspaper, in our opinion, the very best, has entered upon its twelfth year. In every particular the STAR comes fully up to the mark as the principal daily in our chief commercial city. Long may it twinkle.—Alamanos Gleaner.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily 'waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening presperity. As a nanapaper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among dur most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsbore

The Wilmington MORNING STAR has entered upon The Wilmington Mornine Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too), is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters an thoroughly educated newspaper men.
