Although there is not entire unanimity in the London papers as to McCallough's success, some of the leading ones are decided in their praise. The London Times says :

"Mr. McCullough's Virginius was, on the whole, powerful, if not always pleasing. His appearance was manly and impressive. His voice, when he did not strain it too far, was clear and full. His gestures were often singularly natural and striking. Mr. McCallough failed in the more impassioned passages, but it left a sense of power and intelligence." He is a refined Edwin Forrest, we phia Press's letter is rather significant: "A strong pressure is being brought to bear on members of the Cabinet to prevent any further steps being taken in the prosecution of the members of the Ring. It is said that some of these most prominently implicated in the scandal contributed largely to the campaign fund last fall and are relying upon this fact to shield themselves from punishment, If the report be true it will hardly serve the purpose of those who regard political services as a shield from punishment for official corruption. The President said to-day that no official under his Administration should be made to suffer without a hearing. The Attorney General has been advised of every step which has thus far been taken in the matter, fest that it is in need of it sorely.

The following from the Philadel-

There is Washington talk of the probable withdrawal of Riddleberger. It is said Garfield has promised to give him office. There is no probability of the Democrate yielding. There is some talk also of the Republicans resorting to "revolutionary methods." That is, that Vice President Arthur will allow the Republicans, with Mahone, to organize the Senate. The Richmond Dispatch's letter gives the opinion of a Democratic Senator as to what his party

"I would have them inform the Republicans that thirty-eight Senators have equal rights with thirtyeight other Senators, and that the committees must be equally divided. Suppose they refuse? I asked. He said: 'I would then have our Senators stand just as firm as they are now standing. He evidently had no idea of either compromising or surrender-What he said about expresses the views of all the Democrats I have recently met at Washington. This indicates that the deadlock has not hurt the Democratic party, but, in fact, has given backbone to its

The Baltimore American's correspondent at Washington writes that there is a large element in the Republican party that is in favor of acting on the President's nominations. The following has interest:

"Senator Platt, of New York, was also among those of the recent absentees to return. He arrived here this morning, and as there was considerable gossip affoat concerning his future course, his return was the occasion of some speculation. The Senator is reported to have cut loose from the Conkling faction, and, rumor says, will hereafter endeavor to establish a formidable Platt element in New York State. His friends say he will side with the President in foreing speedy action on the pending nominations, and will demand as much consideration in the disposition of public patronage in his State as Conkling and the so-called bosses."

The following is complimentary of a young North Carolinian. It gives us pleasure to copy-it. The Richmond State says: "Walter H. Page, the author of the interesting paper, 'Study of a Southern Borough,' which appears in the current number of the Atlantic Monthly, is a native of North Carolina, and is only 25 years of age. He is a graduate of Randolph Macon College and a Fellow of the Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Page was for a time associate editor of the Louisville Age, but is now the editor of the Gazette published in St. Joseph, Mo. It is not too much to say that Mr. Page gives promise of being one of the first men of letters in this country."

The directors of the Virginia Midland Railroad decided that the proper route be determined by actual survey under J. B. Yates, the regular engineer in the employ of the company. A special to the Charlotte Observer says : "Work will begin at Danville just as soon as arrangements for the same can be perfected, and five hundred hands will be distributed along the line at Leaksville, Madison, Walnut Cove, Winston and Mocksville. The greatest harmony and the best of feeling prevailed. The location of the road as between Statesville and Mooresville will depend somewhat on the result of the survey."

- A drummer named Calisher attempted to hold $160 belonging to another drummer named Bersenthal. The latter left his pocket-book under his pillow and but he got only $125. This we gather from the Montoe Enquirer.

- The Charlotte Home is now un der the editorial management of Mr. J. P. Strong, who is also proprietor.

- Oxford Orphans' Friend : Just and generous was the action of Dr. Grissom. going to Danville, securing the acquittal of a lunatic prisoner, and aftewards receiving him for medical treatment. We do not concur in some of the Doctor's opinions; but we admire the man who studies his subject, embodies his faith in a platform, and then stands firmly upon it.

- Raleigh Record: Little Perrin, son of our townsman, C. M. Busbee, Esq., a pupil at the Graded School, was yesterday playing at recess with his companions. having a small chain, to which was at-tached a hook, in his mouth. By some means the hook caught him in one side of the mouth, tearing the flesh back fully an inch. The wound was attended to by a physician and the boy is doing very well.

- N. C. Presbyterian: Rev. Chas. Phillips, D. D., though not able to attend the sessions of Orange Presbytery at Chapel Hill, was able to receive his many friends at his own house, where they enjoyed sweet Christian fellowship with him once more. - Prof. Chas. Dabney, Ph. D., is winning golden opinions on the every side by his wise management of the Agricultural Station and his courteous manners.

- Greensboro Patriot: Capt. A. B. Andrews, President of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, passed through the city last evening en route to Asheville, where he goes to look after the work now in progress on that line. It is understood that 500 hands, in addition to 500 convicts, will be placed upon the road at once, and of course the work will be pushed to completion at the earliest date

- Rockingham Spirit: The store and contents, of Mr. M. B. Lassitor, of Montgomery county, was burned on Tuesday night of last week. Loss about $5,000. No insurance. — The prohibition meeting, which was advertised in the Bee to be held at the Court House Thursday night, did not come off. The bell was rung seve eral times, and a few persons collected but it was decided to postpone the meeting until last night, when it was hoped that there would be a better turn out.

- Greensboro Patriot: On Friday night the citizens of Reidsville were shocked that a young citizen of that town had taken his own life. The sad event occurred about 9 o'clock, and the young man age, who was engaged in working tobacco for Mr. R. P. Richardson, in whose employment he had been for a number of years. It appears from what we can learn that the act was premeditated.

- Robesonian: On last Sabbath the Shoe Heel Presbyterian Church was appropriately dedicated by its pastor, Rev. Roger Martio. - From a table elsewhere printed, it will be seen that Robeson is the seventh county in the State in point of population. It is the largest county in the State. - Preparations are being made on an extensive scale for a grand May ball, to be given in this town on the evening of the 6th of May. — We learn that the students, assisted by patrons and friends, have already raised $150 towards procuring a monument for their teacher, Miss Laura Tillett. This is as we expected.

- Charlotte Observer: Nine persons were immersed at the Baptist church recently. - The Oates cotton factory s now running 6,240 spindles—the full capacity. — The Adams Mining and Reduction Company will employ 100 hands when in full blast. - One man became frightened Tuesday and bought and put away a barrel of whiskey in his private residence against the day of prohibition.

— Capt. W. T. Bell has been invited to deliver the memorial address on the 10th of May, and has accepted. - Judge A. S. Merrimon has accepted an invitation to dea liver the annual address before the King's Mountain High School, at the approaching commencement. - Dr. J. C. Gatchell who has been spending the winter in Asheville, has returned to this city for the purpose of reviving the Turkish baths for the summer season. Quite a num-ber have already engaged for the baths. - Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: Go away with your foolishness! Why, in a number of instances our North Carolina Bright Yellow" tobacco has sold for $4. $7 and $8 per pound, instead of the 100 pounds! These, it is true, were "fancy prices" for very small lots. But instead of 23 per acre, there are hundreds of our farmers who make from $400 to $600 per - There is a curious fashion in Raleigh of going fishing on Easter Monday. Nearly one thousand persons went forth last Monday, but there were mighty few "perch" for so many "poles." - We did not know that Col. W. H. Cheek was the Colonel of the 1st North Carolina cavalry, whose gallant double charge across Chamberlayne Run, near Dinwiddie Court House, a few days beore the war ended, won from Gen. Fitz Lee the remark that no braver deed was done at Gettysburg. We mean to printere long an account of that fight, and the subsequent escape of Barringer's Brigade. Cheek ought to be called General. His commission had been ordered by Gen. Lee when the war closed. - In relation to our doubts respecting the report that a little North Carolina Colonel cursed and denounced Gen. Mahone to his face and in his own camp, the Lilesville correspondent of the Anson Times maketh answer as follows: 'Regrets' are unavailing, but facts are very stubborn things; and your correspondent's valued and honored friend, the editor of the Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic, can learn all the 'particulars' of that little episode in our history about a certain Virginia General and a certain North Carolina Colonel-long since dead-by addressing his very truly.

- Raleigh News-Observer: It is a singular thing that the place in New York where Mrs. E. G. Reade was hurt was exactly the same at which Mrs. Charles Parks, of Hillsboro, was injured, a year or two cleaning up some low grounds south of the city, made a dash through the heavy undergrowth. He was shot at several times, and after one shot fell, but rose again and ran on. He was tracked for two miles. He was in for a year for larceny. -A letter from New York yesterday conveyed the gratifying intelligence that Mrs. E. G. Reade, whose hand was so terribly crushed in that city on Saturday last that an amputation was necessary, stood the operation remarkably well. The fingers of the right hand were bruised and broken by the wheels. Two of the fingers were cut off. On Sunday she was able to sit up and eat breakfast. — And now it is whispered that William A. Smith, of Johnston, is at Washington, with an eye on the collectorship of this district. -The plans of the new court house have arrived, and a very handsome building do they provide for. So much anxiety has been expressed about the new building, and there is such a desire to see one worthy of the city and county arise in the place of the present unsightly structure, that we are sure all will be gratified at seeing the plans. The building they provide for is of pressed brick, iron trimmings, on a foundation of rubble stone. The height is three stories, with a high pitch and a mansard roof. Encouraging news comes from the Eastern part of the State in regard to the arrival of English immigrants of a substantial class. Last week several landed at New Berne, and the family of Mr. Leary, who arrived a few months since, also came. These new settlers are a portion of a colony sent out by Mr. S. J. Fall, and have settled at various points on the railroad between Kinston and Morehead City. Since the present year opened forty English immigrants have arrived. Many of them are engaging in truck

The Lecture No-night.

Wilmington has been fortunate thus far this season in having provided for the intellectual appetite of her citizens such choice food from such rare sources, thus implanting in the mental system the germs of a vigorous and healthy intellectual growth that will strengthen and expand with the coming years. Few cities of much greater pretensions have been more favored in this respect, and the thanks of those who properly appreciate such rare entertainments are due to the gentlemen of the Wilmington Library Association, who have spared no effort to give us lectures of the highest standard of excellence. Tonight, at the Opera House, Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, D. D., will deliver the fourth of the series on a subject that will afford him ample scope for the display of his powers of oratory, great natural ability and large fund of information.

Tickets to the lecture may be had at the First National Bank, the Bank of New Hanover, Heinsberger's Bookstore, Yate's Bookstore, Messrs. Brown & Roddick's store and Capt. R. M. McIntire's store.

U. C. Railroad-Meeting of Stockholders-Biection of Directors, &c. At a meeting of the stockholders of the Carolina Central Railroad, held in this city vesterday morning, the following gentlemen were elected Directors: F. O. French, A. V. Stout, T. H. Porter, A. B. Graves, R. A. Lancaster, J. S. Whedbee, Branden Matthews, D. R. Murchison, C. M. Stedman, M. P. Leak, D. W. Oates.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors the following were reelected officers: D. R. Murchison, President, V. Q. Johnson, General Superintendent.

James Anderson, Treasurer. F. W. Clark, General Freight and Pasenger Agent.

Johnson, a negro convict, while at work A colored man near Fayetteville left home a few nights since with a gun in his hands. He was asked what he was going to do with it, when he replied that he might have some need of it. He afterwards went to a house in the neighborhood occupied by a number of bad characters, and soon thereafter the report of a gun was heard in that direction, which was followed subsequently by the discovery of the corpse of another colored man in the road short distance from the locality referred to. These are the somewhat vague and unsatisfactory reports that come to us, our informant not knowing the names of the parties or any additional particulars.

Arrested for Larceny.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Marinda Farrow gave out a number of articles of clothing to be washed, and soon afterwards discovered that her pocket-book, containing four dollars in money and other articles, had been left in a pocket of one of the dresses. She immediately went to the house of the washerwoman, one Flora Tyler, colored, and made inquiry about the pocket book, but the woman declared she had not seen it, and knew nothing about it. She saw the dress referred to, however, and noticed that the pockets were turned wrong-side out. She knew the pocket-book had beem in the pocket of the dress when it was taken from her house, and she therefore had a search warrant issued by Justice Millis, which was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff J. W. Bryan, who went to the house of Flora Tyler and instituted a search for the missing property. Upon entering he found a portion of the money described in the warrant on a bed in one of the rooms, and when pressed by the officer to inform him what had become of the pocket-book she finally told him him that her husband, Wm. Tyler, had it. This individual was seen to leave the house a few minutes before, and the officer started in pursuit. Upon getting on the street Tyler was observed in the act of turning a corner, when Officer Bryan called to one Wm. Smith, colored, and asked him to tell Tyler to stop. He did so, and the officer soon came up with him, but in the meantime Tyler had made an attempt to hide the pocket-book by dropping it in the cart rut in the middle of the street and throwing dirt over it with his feet. The attempt was discovered, however, and the officer recovered the book, which was easily identified by its contents, among which, besides a portion of the money, were eight printed tickets usually given out by clothiers and a small paper parcel containing two skeleton squirrel's feet.

The two parties were both arrested, and had a hearing before Justice Millis, who ordered them to give bond in the sum of $50 each for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default which they were committed to jail.

DUPLIN CANAL.

Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Duplin Canal Company. The stockholders of the Duplin Canal

Company met in annual session at Magnolia on Wednesday, the 27th inst., W. T. Bannerman being called to the chair and R. O. Cowan acting as secretary. After ascertaining that a majority of the stock was represented, either in person or by proxy, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The following names were put in nomination for Directors and unanimously elected : J. W. S. Miller, William H. Williams, Jr., W. T. Bannerman, William Larkins, R. H. McKoy, Wm. E. Calder and W. L. Young. The following resolutions were offered by Henry Farrior, Esq., of Duplin, and Resolved, That the stockholders of the Duplin Canal Company respectfully suggest to the Directors the great importance of directing their immediate efforts in draining the overflowed lands of Gum Swamp, thereby placing in the hands of the company one-half of the lands re-Resolved, further, That we deem it advisable to work at such points as may not necessitate the blockading of Holly Shelter creek below the head of flat navigation, and that the true interests of the company require the cutting of sluice ways and di recting all adjacent streams through the same, thus leaving the canal way to the action of the water, without forcing upon the company the immediate expense of making the same navigable until the North East river is directed through it. Resolved, further, That the Directors should, if they deem it advisable, cut a passway for flats through the blockade across Shelter creek. Resolved, further, That we recommend after due notice has been given, efforts shall be made to collect by law from each and every delinquent subscriber all installments due the company.

On motion the meeting adjourned until March 10th, 1882.

Escaped Convict.

Edward Sanders, a colored prisoner, escaped from the county house of correction on Wednesday, and is still at large. It seems that the superintendent, Mr. Savage, had Sanders and several other prisoners engaged in setting out cabbage plants, but finding that Sanders was not making much headway, and was very bungling at the business, he finally sent him in charge of a guard to cut wood in the forest near by. The guard, upon his return, reported that Sanders, after working for some time, asked permission to step aside for a moment, which was granted, and, after waiting a suitable length of time for his return, and he not making his appearance, the guard went to look for him and he was gone, and the most diligent search failed to discover his whereabouts. Mr. Savage, as soon as he heard of the escape, came to this city and instituted a thorough search for him, but without success, and it is supposed that he has made his way to South Carolina, where he is said to belong.

Sanders was sentenced at the last term of the Criminal Court to twelve months imprisonment for carrying a concealed weapon.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.-Rev Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the "Boston Christian Freeman":—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing byrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

Mrs. Joe Person's Indian Tonic Bitters CURES SCROFULA, RHEUMATISM, HEART Disease, Chronic Bilious Celic, and all kinds of Bruptions and Skin Diseases arising from impurity of the blood. As an Alterative Tonic and Purifier of the Blood it has proven itself unequalled. SEE GOV. HOLDEN'S OPINION.

RALBIGH, N. C., Dec. 2d, 1880.

I take pleasure in stating that a member of my family has used Mrs. Joe Person's Indian Tonic with good results. I believe her remedy excellent for the purposes for which it is intended.

SEE JUDGE STRONG'S OPINION. RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 1st, 1880.

Mrs. Joe Person: Madam—Some months ago I was in bad health, suffering from debility, indigestion and loss of appetite, when a friend induced me to try your Bitters as a Tonic. I did so with the most happy results. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a valuable and efficient vegetable Tonic.

Very respectfully, GEO. V. STRONG.
