OUTLINES.

Stanley Matthews has taken the oath of office as Judge of the Supreme Court. —— Robertson's nomination has been recommended for confirmation, and will come up in executive session of the Senate to-day. —— A syndicate with $6,000,000 capital has been formed in New York to control by purchase and otherwise Southern and Western railroads. —— The Republican press are divided on the Garfield-Conkling question; one hundred guns were fired at Albany, N. Y., by the friends of the administration; public meetings have been held in many New York counties to sustain the President; it is intimated that the Democratic General Assembly will not go into an election of U. S. Senators, but will leave the choice to the next Legislature. —— Mr. Gladstone is confined to his bed, but his illness is not serious. —— French troops have been ordered to occupy Tunis; the native troops have been ordered to give way peacefully. —— Fresh anti-Jewish riots have occurred in Russia; another mine has been discovered in St. Petersburg. —— Midhat Pasha has taken refuge at the French consulate at Constantinople, and appealed for protection against the Sultan, who attempted his arrest. —— A fire at Nashville, Tenn., burned nearly four squares, loss $500,000. —— The Key West and Havana cable has been repaired and telegraphic communication restored. —— New York markets: Money 3@4 per cent.; cotton steady at 10 9-16@10 13-16c; southern flour steady; wheat 1@1c better, closing firm, ungraded red $1 12@1 27 corn a shade easier, ungraded 49@57½c; spirits turpentine weak at 37½@37½ cents; rosin steady at $1 85@1 90.

Where is Mahone?

Mahone was furious the other day. He received a scurrilous postal card and this caused the irate little Brigadier to rush to the Postmaster General's office and in a terrible way to unbottle his wrath.

Report from Washington is that the Administration will slack up in the prosecution of the Star Route thieves. The Rads desire the investigation to die out. There is too much and too many stinks.

A young woman, neatly dressed, was murdered near Hoboken, N. Y. She had been decoyed evidently to her death. The body has been discovered, but there is no clue as to who committed the foul deed. She was murdered near where Aaron Burr shot Alexander Hamilton.

Republican Senators say there is no doubt of the confirmation of Robertson and Chandler. Of the latter the New York Times says that it "ought not to be possible," as the nomination is "an unfit one" and the President must be "blind to the requirements of the position." But Chandler is not as bad as others who have been confirmed.

Baltimore was a lively place last Sunday. Here is the heading to one column of crime in the Gazette of Monday:

"Throat Cutting in a Restaurant Yard—The Victim Dies in a Few Minutes—Arrest and Committal of the Murderer—Two Young Men Shot—A Man Stabbed Below the Heart—Escaping Prisoner Wounded by an Officer."

We thank the New York Sun for reminding us that Garfield's fugleman and leader in the Senate, the canting, slandering Dawes, of Massachusetts, was one of the Credit Mobilier fellows. The Sun says:

"Dawes was one of the Credit Mobilier jobbers, and, like the rest of them, he tried to swear himself out of that corruption, but was convicted by Oakes Ames's diary, and by his own receipt in settlement of the accounts."

We take back what we said about Dawes as a leader. He is the very man for Garfield. What better leader could $329 have than $400. But more of this hereafter.

A Washington correspondent represents that Southern Republicans in that city at present, or who were there recently, are uneasy as to the movement among the colored people. They are demanding a larger share of the spoils. In Maryland a colored convention has been held, and one is soon to meet at Raleigh to consider this very matter. If something is not done the colored voters will begin to split off. The correspondent writes:

"Without the aid of the colored vote the Republican party would be no more a sectional organization, and not very much of one at that. Considering the natural shrewdness that pertains to the colored race, it seems marvelous that contributing so large a per cent. of the capital of the Republican party they have been content with such an infinitesimal proportion of the profits."

The London Observer has no favors for John McCullough's Othello. In fact it has a very damaging criticism upon his personation that will be disturbing to his admirers in Philadelphia and elsewhere. It gave a sample of the criticism:

"No effort was spared to make the house resound with Othello's fury, but the sound and fury seemed to come from the lungs, not the heart. Of the destruction of the music and rhythm of the blank verse uttered in this manner it would be hypercritical to complain if the wrath of the frenzied man were made truly impressive; but McCullough does not carry us away. He leaves us able to watch painfully the progress of his violent exertions and to wonder why, after striving so hard, he accomplishes so little."

The day has past when ranting is tolerated among cultivated audiences. Forrest lived at the right time. McCullough, Bangs and the rest of the followers are out of time.

Spirits Turpentine.

— The Elizabeth City Falcon has much enlarged its borders. It is now the largest paper published in that section of the State.

— Asheville News: We are pained to hear that the work on the Episcopal church is temporarily suspended. —— Much more building than ever before is going on in town, and the demand for houses is unsupplied.

— Salisbury Watchman: Dr. Allen Newsom died in Lexington on the 3d of May, of apoplexy, aged 75 years one month and eighteen days. —— This time it was William Smith, he aimed at a dog. The bullet went through the centre of the left hand—small pistol.

— Elizabeth City Carolinian: Our town is building up; business houses are multiplying; confidence is increasing, and enterprise is quickening the pulse of trade. It is just as we always predicted it would be. The railroad is starting Elizabeth City on the highway to prosperity.

— Rockingham Spirit: It is rumored hereabouts that Col. O. H. Dockery has been appointed United States Marshal for the Western District of North Carolina vice R M Douglas. —— A young white man was bound over to Court at Troy, Montgomery county, last Saturday, charged with violating the person of a little white girl, aged seven years. All the parties to the affair are respectable. —— We learn that a colored man shot and instantly killed another colored man, a few days ago, on Mr. Pegues's plantation near the State line, some twelve miles south of this place. The cause of the killing was the insulting of the murderer's wife by the deceased during her husband's absence. ——Mr. S. W. Webb has a small farm, about 20 acres, in this immediate vicinity, upon which this season, up to last Saturday, 127 snakes have been killed. —— James McPherson, of this county, is dead, aged about 70 years. He was a good citizen and much respected by all who knew him. ——Mr. John Shortridge, of Hamlet, informs us that he expects to get his woollen mill in operation early next month. He has in position all the necessary machinery excepting some shafting and belting. He expects to make some 300 or 400 yards of cloth per day. —— Since the first of December last 825 deeds and mortgages have been recorded in this county. ——The blacksmith shop of Mr. W. W. Hailey, at Pekin, was burned a few days ago. Loss about $400.

— Raleigh News-Observer: The Chowan Baptist Association met in its seventy-six annual session with Hebron church, in Northampton county, on Tuesday, May 10, 1881. The attendance of delegates from the different churches that comprise the Association was large, nearly every church being represented. Rev. R. R. Overby preached the introductory sermon, his text being taken from Ephesians, 2d chapter, 10th verse. The following ministers were present: Thomas W. Babb, B. F. Barber, C. P. Bogart, Ephraim Dilon, J. C. Fleetwood, J. N. Haggard, O. C. Horton, J. D. Hufham, R. R. Overby, R. R. Savage, T. T. Speight, R. T. Vann, B. B. Williams, Thomas G. Wood, C. T. Bailey, T. H. Pritchard, J. E. Carter, R. Vandevender, and Reuben Jones, of Virginia. —— A letter from our correspondent at Goldsboro informs us that yesterday a decision was reached in the case of the State vs. Gurganus, for the shooting of Joseph Frazier. The trial lasted three days, and the jury was out twenty minutes, when a verdict of guilty was rendered. Judge Graves sentenced Gurganus to twelve months in the county jail. An appeal to the Supreme Court was taken. ——The Odd Fellows' banquet was opened by a blessing by the Grand Chaplain, after which Mr. Payne, of Monroe, in a very touching speech, to which he paid a tribute most beautiful to that grand Odd Fellow, R. E. Lee, presented to the Grand Master, N. M. Jurney, a splendid gold-headed cane in behalf of the Grand Lodge, as a testimony of love, truth and worth, which was replied to feelingly by the Grand Master in a few appropriate remarks. ——The friends of the Yadkin Valley & Deep River Railroad will be glad to hear that Mr. Gray, the excellent and active President of this important work, is now passing down the route making contracts for cross-ties. He seems fully confident that the iron will be on in a short time, and the superstructure will be made upon that section now graded from the Gulf to Greensboro. He expects, in a very short time, to begin laying the iron from the Gulf west. Much credit is due to the untiring exertions of this energetic and enterprising officer. Since he gave up a salary of $1,500, and entered upon this work with much less pay and greatly increased labor, he has given his undivided attention to the accomplishment and completion of this important work, which, we are sorry to say, is the only scheme worth cherishing that the Old North State has in the great enterprise of internal improvement, in which she has spent so much treasure and labor.

John Cosby, a respectable colored man of Danville, Va., was found dead in bed Sunday morning. The cause of his death is unknown. He was apparently in excellent health on Saturday. This is the second case of the kind among the colored people of Danville this month, Samuel Holland having been found dead last Sunday in a hog pen.

— Receipts of cotton yesterday 62 bales.

— There was quite a change in temperature yesterday, produced by the hail storm of Sunday night.

— Strawberries are getting to be a little more plentiful, and were selling yesterday at 10, 12½ and 15 cents per quart.

— The first snap beans of the season were in market yesterday. They were from the garden of Mr. T. H. Smith.

— The State Board of Pharmacy was in session at Goldsboro yesterday. Dr. W. H. Green, of this city, President of the Board, is in attendance.

— The Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church propose to give an excursion to Waccamaw Lake on Saturday next, May 21st, the train to leave the depot at 8.30 A. M.

— The annual meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association will be held in the school room in rear of St. James' church, at 5 o'clock, on Thursday afternoon, May 19th.

— The listing of city, State and county taxes does not commence until the first of June. Some seem to labor under the erroneous impression that the work of listing has already commenced.

— The city hall furnishes us but few items lately. In fact, they are "like unto angels' visits—few and far between," or the traditional conclusion arrived at between the Governors of North and South Carolina—"too long between drinks."

— We were in error yesterday in stating that the hall Stonewall Lodge No. 1, K. of P., had moved out of, and the Knights of Wise Men had moved into, was in the Odd Fellows' building. It is in the hall of the College of Physicians and Surgeons' building.

Daily Weather Bulletin.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations named, at 3.00 P. The following are the Indications for the South Atlantic States to-day:

Northeast to southeast winds, rising barometer, partly cloudy weather with light local rains and slight changes in temperature.

"Covered Every Point."

Alluding to the trial of Wm. Gurganus, charged with an assault with intent to kill Joseph Frazier, which attracted much interest and attention in Wayne Superior Court last week, and which finally resulted in the conviction of the defendant, the Goldsboro' Messenger says: "Wednesday and Thursday were taken up with the evidence and the two speeches above mentioned. On Friday morning Col. McRae (of Wilmington) spoke for the defence; he covered every point, he sifted the evidence, weighed its value and made every edge cut. He left no stone unturned, and when he sat down every one said, well, Gurganus will be surely cleared after that."

False Pretense and Poisoning Poultry.

Dick Watters, a colored youth, was brought here yesterday, under a commitment from Justice J. H. Horne, of Federal Point Township, in this county, on the charge of "false pretense and poisoning poultry. The bond required was for $100, in default of which he was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury at the next term of the Criminal Court.

RIVER AND MARINE.

— The schooner Hattie E. Giles, Capt Outten, from Fredericksburg, reported in our last, brought 4,500 bushels corn to P. Cumming & Co.

— A telegram from Capt. Foster to Messrs. Geo. Harriss & Co., yesterday, announced the arrival of the schooner John A. Griffin at Philadelphia, from this port, in eighty hours, after having been delayed by a fog.

A Surprise All Round.

The Charlotte Democrat says it will surprise many of its readers to learn that there is a factory in this State for the manufacture of fertilizers, and then adds the following, from a correspondence in the Raleigh Observer, from Morehead City:

"Messrs. D. Bell & Co. have a fertilizer establishment about one mile from here. They will commence operations about the 1st of June, catching fish and preparing guano for the next season. This company made and shipped several hundred tons of guano last year, said to be more durable than any guano shipped from other factories."

It may surprise many of the readers of the Democrat, as well as friend Yates himself, judging from his comments as above, to learn that the Navassa Guano Factory of Wilmington has been established and in successful operation about eleven years, that the Company have a capital stock of about $200,000, and that not less than fifty full cargoes of material were received and worked up during the past year. The Company sold thirteen thousand tons of their manufactured fertilizers last year, and could have disposed of two thousand tons more, but for the lack of transportation facilities just at the right time.

Stealing Keys from Locks.

A colored boy named John Henry Brown was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing keys from the locks of a new and unoccupied dwelling on the corner of Second and Mulberry streets. It appears that the house had just been completed, and keys were fitted to the locks by Mr. Morrell, the contractor, yesterday morning, preparatory to turning the building over to the owner. The latter and the contractor met at the house during the afternoon, when it was discovered that fourteen of the sixteen keys had been stolen from the locks and could not be found. Steps were then taken to discover the thieves, and soon afterwards Brown was arrested by Officer J. A. Ashe, it having been ascertained that he had had four of the missing keys in his possession, which were subsequently found buried near a blacksmith shop on Mulberry street. Brown was ordered to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance before Justice Gardner at some future day, in default of which he was lodged in jail. A bunch of other keys not belonging to the house on question were found in his possession.

Anniversary Celebration Yesterday.

Yesterday the Association of Officers of the Third N. C. Infantry celebrated their fifteenth anniversary at Wrightsville Sound. Among the regular members present around the festive board at Mr. Shutte's were Col. W. L. DeRosset, President of the Association; Capt. W. A. Cumming, Capt. R F. Dangdon, Assistant Surgeon J. C. Walker, Assistant Surgeon Thos. F. Wood, Adjutant T. Calhoun James, Ensign H. B. Butler, Capt. R. S. Radcliffe, Capt. James I. Metts, Lieut. Geo. W. Ward and A. D. Meares. The honorary members present were Hon. Geo. Davis, Gen. R. E. Colston, and Capt. J. N. Maffitt. Gen. James H. Lane was also present as an invited guest. An enjoyable feature of the occasion was the reading, by Hon. Geo. Davis, of a poem entitled "Our Dead," which was pharaphrased from an Irish poem and read by the same gentleman as a regular toast at the anniversary of the Association in 1879.

The Chinese Convert.

We learn that Charles Soon, the young Chinese convert, who was taken from this city to Trinity College by Rev. T. Page Ricaud a month or so ago, is progressing very finely with his studies and bids fair to become an instrument of much usefulness in the great work upon which it is designed for him to enter, and to reflect great credit upon that whole-souled, generous gentleman in Durham—Mr. Julian S. Carr—through whose instrumentality the requisite sum was raised to procure what is known as the Marvin Scholarship for his benefit. We saw a letter from the young Chinaman to Rev. Mr. Ricaud, yesterday, and it evinces wonderful progress in intellectual attainments for one so recently from the land of darkness and superstition, as well as interest in all that concerns the important position in life for which he is preparing himself. He desires to be remembered to his friends in Wilmington.

The Passport.

The repairs to the steamer Passport having been completed she will begin her regular summer schedule to-morrow, under command of Capt. Harper. In addition to the thorough renovation of the boat from stem to stern, improvements have been made which will add greatly to the comfort and convenience of passengers. The upper deck has been relaid and extended to the guards, and a neat companion-way on one side affords easy access thereto; paint and varnish have been liberally used, and the machinery of the boat put in perfect order.

The Escaped Convict.

The case of Simon Gregg, colored, alleged to be an escaped convict from the South Carolina penitentiary, came up for a preliminary examination before Justice McQuigg yesterday morning. Only two witnesses testified, some important ones being absent, and it was therefore decided to continue the case for a further hearing until this morning, when it is expected to have the remainder of the witnesses present. The prisoner was thereupon remanded to jail.

Died Suddenly.

Mrs. E. A. Williams, residing on Wooster, between Ninth and Tenth streets, died suddenly yesterday morning, having been found dead in her bed. She had been subject to disease of the heart, and was in the 61st year of her age.

A RARE BARGAIN.—A well established and prosperous Weekly Newspaper, located in a thriving, growing town on the line of a prominent Railroad, is offered for sale. Terms easy. For terms and particulars apply to the editor of this paper.

"I DON'T WANT THAT STUFF," is what a Boston lady said to her husband when he brought home some medicine to cure her of sick headache and neuralgia which had made her miserable for fourteen years. At the first attack thereafter it was administered to her with such good results that she continued its use until cured, and was so enthusiastic in its praises that she induced twenty-two of the best families in her circle to adopt it as their regular medicine. That "stuff" is Hop Bitters.—Standard.

WHERE OVER $100,000 WAS GIVEN AWAY. The following intelligence is of much interest to many readers: At the 122d Grand Monthly Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, held in New Orleans, on April 12th, No. 37,093 drew $30,000. One-half of this, or $15,000, was drawn in San Francisco, Cal., and $15,000 by Charles Heller, Esq., of Mt. Holly, N. J. No. 14,206 drew $10,000, one half to Mr. James Gandin, S. Braintree, Mass., and Mrs. Catharine S. Taylor, Sullivan, Ind.; No. 4815 drew $5,000, one half drawn by Mr. James M. McEwen, 49 Wood St., Pittsburg, Pa., the other by Joseph Lane, Greenpoint, L. I.; tickets No. 76,071, to Alex. Beyer, Philadelphia, and No. 94,123 to J. O. Tucker and other parties in Washington, La., drew $2500 each. The remaining money was divided among 1858 ticket holders. To know more address M. A. Dauphin, No. 319 Broadway, New York city, or same person at New Orleans, La. On June 14th the Grand Semi-Annual Drawing will take place, managed by Gen'l's G. T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early, of Va.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use Syrup, and, suffering children and sleepless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

The Richmond Iron Paint Company.

REASONS WHY WE HAVE THE BEST OF Testimonials in the State of Virginia for Good Workmanship and Honest Material, are, we use the Best of Mineral Paint, the Sequa Oxide of Iron, which is the Double Oxidation of Iron, which proves to be the best. There are various grades of that material, the same as with other commodities in the market; the same way that oils and other material used in painting are adulterated to suit the prices for work. Now we use the best, and make it a point to stop all leaks with our Cement, that gives the best of satisfaction to those we have done work for, where others have failed. It is not the simple fact of daubing on a certain amount of material, and that in many cases of inferior quality, that protects your roofing, but it is good material, put on with good judgment and care which saves you much of the annoyance of having your roofing to soder up almost every month, and your cistern water not fit to use half the time.

By care and attention to square work we have gained the best of testimonials, and hope to secure your patronage.
