one in the fourth century, as the writings of Ambrose show. A use of short rituals will grow more and more into favor. They will not supersede extempore services, but rather supplement them. The exquisite beauty of the English Episcopal service is recognized by all who can appreciate a solemn, decorous, harmonious and admirable worship. The English of the Prayer Book is very choice, only second to that of the Bible. Its history is well known to all who have explored the matter. The collects and prayers, and especially the grand, sublime, majestic "Litany," must arrest the admiration and touch the hearts of all persons who have felt the influence of the Divine Spirit in the Soul.

SALISBURY'S POINT. If the Irish in America wish to see how much they may expect from the Tory party if it should get into the ascendant again, let them scrutinize Lord Salisbury's speech. He is the leader of that party. His utterances are, therefore, the more significant. It must be remembered that the bill against evictions was killed in the House of Lords. Take this in connection with Salisbury's remark that "it would be better that the House of Lords should cease to exist, than that its function should be merely to confirm the decisions of the House of Commons." What does he mean? This and nothing else; that if the Land Bill passes it will be defeated in the House of Lords. Why? Because it grants too much to the tenants and takes too much from the landlords. Every Tory Lord is a land proprietor, and the most of them own thousands of acres. Place the Salisbury party in power and what is gained? Ireland will be treated just as she has been all along. The most rigid enforcement of laws will be inevitable under Tory policy. Read English history for a hundred years back and you will find the Tory party always resisting the reforms proposed by the Whigs.

THE NEW VERSION. We put our readers on their guard as to the copies of the revised New Testament they buy. There may be thousands of false or bogus copies sold as the genuine. It is known that the advance extracts that were published in sundry papers were all false nearly. This is made upon the authority of Rev. Dr. Schaff, chairman of the American Committee of Revisers. There is no doubt that more copies will be sold of the new version than of any other book ever published. The reception of the new version, as we said before editorially, will be slow, probably. It will be criticised sharply, and may be again revised, but finally the changes proposed will be accepted by most scholars. Of this we have no doubt. We have been reading a very learned work by an eminent clergyman of the Established Church of England, and we think in the notes there must be some hundred changes in the translation of the James revision of the letters of St. Paul alone. He insisted, giving the Greek always, that the translation of the English Version was incorrect. He is not one of the revisers. This shows how scholars regard the cherished old revision that is full of errors of one kind and another.

THE COLORED MAGISTRATE. The colored magistrate of this city, Hill, is anxious for his people to have both a share of the spoils and a share of the offices to which is attached no pay. He insists that his colored brethren should be represented on school committees and other places of trust, and that the Democrats should grant this. We think it proper that when competent and honest colored men can be found to act as school-committeemen in the management of public colored schools that they should be represented. But the "colored man and brother" will be hardly appointed to supervise white schools. The Democrats are opposed to a mixing of the races in churches, schools and parlors. Miscegenation and social equality will never occur in the South, and Hill ought to have sense enough to know it, especially if his qualifications are equal to dispensing justice or supervising public schools. In the late colored convention the Democrats appeared to be the main subject of his thoughts. His resolution and speeches were aimed at them. But who appointed Hill a magistrate?

THE SOUTH. The South lost by the war is depreciation of land, stock and negroes, all of $500,000,000. In 1860 the land alone was valued at $161,764,955. The year after the war, so poor was the South that its entire property was estimated only at $140,457,400. In two years thereafter it had risen to $191,235,520, or $50,000,000 more than it was in 1860. In 1874, nine years after the last gun had been fired, it had risen to $273,793,293—an increase of $126,635,893 in nine years. It is certain that the census of 1880 will show a very large increase. We should not be surprised to see the figures as high as $400,000,000, or perhaps more.

AS WE GAVE A HOSTILE ENGLISH CRITICISM UPON McCULLOUGH, it is but fair that it should be mentioned that three leading London dailies spoke kindly of him. The Pall Mall Gazette was very laudatory even. The News spoke admiringly of his expressive features, excellent voice and striking elocution. The Times said that his "Virginitas" was on the whole a powerful performance. His appearance was majestic and impressive. His voice was clear and full. His gestures often singularly natural and striking.

THE WEATHER MAN. Time, the weather man, seems to be jealous of Vennor. He says the latter's prophecy for April of a cold week was based merely on a remark of Humboldt in his "Cosmos." Time says he is a great success himself in the earthquake business. Hear him: "This is the first in New York since April, and I predicted the earthquake at Ohio, which came on the very day foretold by me. I hit every earthquake that has occurred within the year, hitting the time within thirty-five hours. I put the earthquake and storm periods together. Wholesale porcelains atmospheric disturbances produces telluric earthquakes."

and they were seized with violent spitting; and they did spit, even in ladies' parlors, and in the house of the Lord of Hosts. And the Saints of the Most High were greatly plagued thereby. And in the course of time it came also to pass that others sufficed it; and they were taken suddenly with fits and they die sneezing with a great and a mighty sneeze, inasmuch that their eyes filled with tears, and they did look exceedingly silly. And yet others cunningly wrought the leaves thereof into rolls, and did suck vehemently at the other end thereof, and did look very grave and calf-like; and the smoke of their torment ascended up forever and forever.

AGUE CURE. Is a purely vegetable bitter and powerful tonic, and is warranted a speedy and certain cure for Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, and all malarial disorders. In malarial districts, the rapid pulse, coated tongue, thirst, lassitude, loss of appetite, pain in the back and loins, and coldness of the spine and extremities, are only premonitions of severer symptoms, which terminate in the ague paroxysm, succeeded by high fever and profuse perspiration. It is a starting fact, that quinine, arsenic and other poisonous minerals, form the basis of most of the "Fever and Ague Preparations," "Specifics," "Syrups," and "Tonics," in the market. The preparations made from these mineral poisons, although they are palatable, and may break the chills, do not cure, but leave the malarial and their own drug poison in the system, producing giddiness, dizziness, ringing in the ears, headache, vertigo, and other disorders more formidable than the disease they were intended to cure. AYER'S AGUE CURE thoroughly eradicates these noxious poisons from the system, and always cures the severest cases. It contains no quinine, mineral, or any thing that could injure the most delicate constitution, and its growing excellence, and its certainty to cure, is that it leaves the system as free from disease as before the attack.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, AYER'S AGUE CURE. By direct action on the liver and biliary apparatus, drives out the poisons, breaks the chills, cures the ague, and restores the system to a vigorous, healthy condition. We warrant it when taken according to directions.

State Gleanings.—Oxford Torchlight: We regret to learn that while riding horseback to the Asylum, Willie, son of Mr. H. Field was thrown from his horse and his leg broken. The Daily Advocate is the name of a new anti-Vance county paper just started in Oxford, and to be published every day until the election. L. R. Ferber is the editor. The members of the "Clio Society" of the Oxford Female Seminary have secured Rev. A. A. Boshamer, pastor of the Edenton Street Methodist church at Raleigh, as orator at the Commencement Exercises to be held in Oxford on the 6th day of June next.

Wilson Leader: In 1877 there were in Stokes county thirty-one tobacco factories; now there are only five small ones, not working over 25,000 pounds on an average. An attempt was made to break the night school law, but failed. The keeper, Mr. J. W. Masten, has gone to church, and no one but his wife and family, who had retired, were left in charge of the premises. Mrs. M. heard a noise in the hallway, which was followed by a man looking in at a window. The only quarter hurriedly dressing, she seized a pistol, and on going to the door saw the burglar entering another room. She fired, which caused the intruder to beat a hasty retreat through a window. The only quarter mill in the East is in North Carolina, says the New York Sun. "Rab for North Carolina."

Noticed at the depot on last Monday several emigrants to the West. They were bound for Oregon, Idaho, or Utah. One of the "Old North State" men, Better stick to the "Old North State" river. He had fishing in the Yadkin river has been profitable this year. Not long since a North Carolina editor being awakened by a knock on his door. He opened the door and a man asked him to be a burglar. "I want money and bonds," hissed the burglar through his teeth; "and quick about it too." "My friend," returned the editor, "I am looking for those things for the last twenty years without success. But go on with your burglary. I'm sleepy." He went on—out of the window.

Charlotte Observer: Between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday morning, a grocery store at North West, on the Carolina Central Road, belonging to the railroad agent at that place, was burned. The owner, Mr. John E. Moore, formerly of this city, and a younger brother, were sleeping in the building. They barely escaped with their lives. The total loss, including the stock, was $500. During the past week Capt. Fred H. Smith discovered at his Ward Gold Mine, in Davidson county, two additional lobes, one silver and the other gold, which now makes ten well-defined, mammoth veins embraced in a width of 1,000 feet. One of them is 400 feet wide, and the shaft, only eight feet deep, cuts good ore. The silver is found in a very fine granulated white quartz vein, and the gold in a yellowish ore. The mine is 100 feet deep, and the shaft is 20 feet in diameter. A shaft was sunk to the level of 100 feet, and the ore was found. This is said, can be mined, milled, etc., for $4 per ton. A piece of ore from the Belle mine, in Moore county, was received at the mint in this city, five days ago. It assayed over $2,000 to the ton, which is considered remarkably good, as our best mines do not average over $84 to $60.

The Richmond Iron Paint Company. REASONS WHY WE HAVE THE BEST OF TESTIMONIALS in the State of Virginia for Good Workmanship and Honest Material, are, we use the Best of Mineral Paint, the Segua Oxide of Iron, which is the Double Oxidation of Iron, which proves to be the best. There are various grades of that material, the same as with other commodities in the market; the same way that oils and other material used in painting are adulterated to suit the price for work. Now we use the best, and make it point to point with our Customers, that give the best of satisfaction to those who have done work for, where others have failed. It is not the simple fact of advertising a certain amount of material, and that in many cases of inferior quality, that we are proud to have our name on our cans, but on with good material, and care which gives you much of the annoyance of having your roofing rot under your feet every month, and your water water not at all to use half the time. By our attention to square work we have gained the best of testimonials, and hope to secure your patronage. Please send postal card to JACOBSON & COLLIER, Post Office Box No. 464, Wilmington, N. THE SUN FOR 1881. Everybody reads THE SUN. In addition to the newspaper throughout the year to come everybody will find: I. All the world's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprofitable expenditure of time and eye-sight. The SUN long ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fullness and uninteresting brevity. II. Much of that sort of news which depends less upon its recognized importance than upon its interest to mankind. From morning to morning THE SUN prints a continued story of the lives of real men and women, and of their deeds, passions, loves, hates, and troubles. This story is more varied and more interesting than any romance that was ever devised. III. Good writing in every column, and freshness, originality, accuracy, and decorum in the treatment of every subject. IV. Honest comment. THE SUN's habit is to speak out fearlessly about men and things. V. Signal candor in dealing with such political party, and equal readiness to commend what is praiseworthy or to rebuke what is blameworthy. VI. Absolute independence of partisan organizations, but unwavering loyalty to true Democratic principles. THE SUN believes that the Government which the Constitution gives us is a good one to keep. Its notion of duty is to resist to its utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up another form of government in place of that which exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decide this supremely important contest. THE SUN believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Kings for monopoly, the Rings for plunder, and the Rings for imperial power. Our terms are as follows: For the Daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is 45 cents a month, or $5.00 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an extra page sheet of 37½ columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.50 a year, postage paid. The price of the WEEKLY SUN is also furnished separately at $1.50 a year, postage paid. The price of the WEEKLY SUN, including the Sunday paper, an extra page sheet of 37½ columns, the price is $1.00 a month, or $12.00 a year, postage paid. Publisher of THE SUN, New York City.
