OUTLINE.

Another firm at Quebec; fifteen houses burned. A dispatch from Martinville, France, reports the town quiet; in the event of further disturbance martial law will be proclaimed. Mr. Seston, who has now relinquished the management of the Irish Land League, at a meeting in Dublin made a strong appeal to America for funds. A gentleman and his son were fired at and both wounded in County Galway. The census of Ireland shows a population of 4,399,540—a decrease of over two hundred thousand since 1871. New wheat from Virginia sold in Baltimore at $1.25 per bushel. The crew of the schooner Erace, at Martinville, report the captain murdered and the vessel set on fire by the Chinese crew. The injection against the Western Union Telegraph Company by Rufus Hatch has been dismissed. A fire at Eastland, Texas, burned a block of stores. Ineffective bailiffs for U. S. Senators continue at Albany, N. Y., and the Albany investigation progresses. The French American Claims Commission have set aside the time for filing claims. The International Sunday School Convention meets at Toronto to-day; delegates from several Southern States are present. The State Central Committee of the Virginia Republicans of Virginia republicans, Lewis, for accepting the nomination for Lieutenant Governor on the Republican ticket. New York market: Money 3/4 per cent., cotton steady at 13 1/2-14 1/2, wheat 1 1/4-1 1/2, sugar 13 1/2-14 1/2, coffee 31 1/2-32 1/2, grain 45-47 1/2, corn 19-20. Foreign arrivals last week at New York 11,846. The impression in England is that Gambetta's fall is near at hand. Courtiers, generals and editors are murmuring against him. The dry goods market in New York continues firm for cotton and woolen goods. New business less active. Flannels active. Prof. Whitney, of Princeton, has a paper in the Princeton Review which is said to be charged with scepticism. Its title is, "On the So called Science of Religion." The poem on Bishop Atkinson first appeared in the Star and should be credited to it. It is from the pen of a young gentleman of Norfolk, Va., and has merit. A vicious horse in New York killed a negro who undertook to go in his stable. He then kicked, trampled and dragged his groom, Murphy, breaking his skull. It is thought he will die. It is an encouraging fact that under Democratic rule the negroes have made progress in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and other States. Some of them have accumulated considerable property. Ex-Treasurer D. A. Jenkins is out in a letter in which he goes for the Republican State Executive Committee, pronouncing its recent action censurable and a misfortune to that party. Gen. Mahone has been interviewed, and he says Mr. Davis is responsible for the prolongation of the war after Gen. Lee was willing to surrender. But Mahone is not the best of witnesses in war matters, as Gen. Jubal A. Early has shown. We have received a copy of the second edition of the New York Banker and Broker's Manual for 1880-'81. It is published by the N. Y. Banker and Broker Publishing Company. It is handsomely got up and will be a useful pocket companion. It is prepared evidently with care. It is gratifying to see it given as the opinion of Gov. Blackburn, of Kentucky, that the able Scotchman who represents that State in the United States Senate with so much fidelity, usefulness and conscientiousness, will be reelected beyond doubt. Senator Beck is one of the best men who have had seats in the Senate during the last score of years. It is evident that under the present tariff there is but little prospect of reform in Russia. The truth is he has been an vigorously and persistently buffeted he has had but little chance of doing anything but seeking hiding-places from the nihilists. Some two thousand voters who were engaged in shooting the Jews were degraded without any process of law. The Car is the source of all law.

The trial of William Parker, for the murder of Gen. Bryan Grimes, was in progress last week at Williamston. We have not ascertained the result as yet. The evidence appears to be very strong, and if that of Detective Griffin, from Norfolk, Va., is allowed, conclusive. The Raleigh Visitor says: "The case was commenced last Wednesday. The prisoner's counsel are Mr. Sugg and Mr. James, of Greenville; Mr. Shepard and Mr. Warren, of Washington; and James Edwin Moore, Col. D. Worthington, Head, Joseph J. Martin and W. Z. Morton, Esq., of Williamston. The State is represented by Solicitor Grandy, of Pasquotank; Hon. L. C. Latham, of Greenville; Thos. Sparrow and G. H. Brown, Esqs., of Washington; and Judge Fowle, of Raleigh. The number of witnesses is large on both sides, and it will take considerable time to conclude the case." Judge Gilmer is trying the case, which was progressing on Friday afternoon. We talk about the hot weather, and yet it is cool compared to some days in June, 1880. We reproduce from our personal record, the maximum range of the thermometer for the days named in 1880: June 13..... 95 degrees. " 14..... 97 " " 15..... 96 " " 16..... 96 " " 17..... 96 " " 18..... 96 " " 19..... 96 " " 20..... 96 " " 21..... 96 " " 22..... 96 " " 23..... 96 " " 24..... 96 " " 25..... 96 " " 26..... 96 " " 27..... 96 " " 28..... 96 " " 29..... 96 " " 30..... 96 " " 31..... 96 " " Cool again followed: June 22..... 86 degrees. " 23..... 88 " " 24..... 90 " " 25..... 90 " " 26..... 90 " " 27..... 94 " " 28..... 93 " " 29..... 93 " " 30..... 93 " " 31..... 86 " " On Saturday last, the 18th, the thermometer recorded some 88 degrees; on Sunday it must have been full 90 or more, but we did not examine a thermometer; on Monday it was 89 at our office, and on yesterday it ran up as high as 92. Gen. H. V. Boynton, the well known Washington correspondent, furnishes the Philadelphia Times with a four column review of Badeau's romance on Grant. He defends Gen. Thomas, now dead and unable to defend himself against reckless assertions, and he shows that Badeau's criticisms are unjust. He dubbs that romantic and untruthful writer the "Military Novelist." The "march to the sea" is shown to be a blunder. The Star was right when it said last week that Badeau would catch it both North and South. Sun strokes, some of them of a fatal character, have occurred in some portions of the State within a few days. Persons who are exposed to the excessive heat should take all the precaution possible. Frequent bathing of the head in cold water and wearing well ventilated hats with green leaves in them are desirable, and may act as preventives. It is said that prohibition is the disturbing element in Ohio politics and that it will be an important factor in the approaching contest. They are supposed to number 75,000 out of some 700,000 total. The Republican majority is about 25,000. The Prohibitionists hold the balance of power. According to the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun certain Republicans and Democrats who visit that city express themselves as apprehensive that the new issue in North Carolina politics will serve to break up both parties. We give this as foreign news about North Carolina matters. Spirits Turpentine. The Catawba Mercury is the title of a small weekly, price $1 a year. It has three editors—Rev. H. D. Liqueur, Prof. J. D. Howe, associate, and Dr. T. C. McNeill, local. It has our best wishes. Catawba Mercury: The North-Carolina company working the Shaford gold mine are doing a sterling business. They have spent a great deal of money in this section. The two cotton factories here are doing a large business, which is still increasing. The wheat harvest is full but where it was so early it is good. Salisbury Watchmen: The Salisbury band, assisted by several parties from Charlotte, have gone to Spartanburg, S. C., to make music for the Wofford College exercises. A student died in this city last Tuesday night. This is the first one that ever died, and therefore we note it. Main never die—this one kicked himself to death. Raleigh News-Observer: Yesterday divided the honors with Sunday as to heat. The thermometer at 5 o'clock was 92. D. H. Walker tells us that Souther's speech at Raleigh was the finest and most thoughtful he ever heard from that distinguished speaker; that it fairly bristled with facts, and was throughout a strain of fine eloquence and oratory. The speech was rather more than an hour long. Hickory Press: Gilbert and Barnett, two young men of Caldwell, who were convicted and sentenced to death each in the State penitentiary, for larceny, at the Superior Court two weeks ago, were carried to Raleigh last week by Sheriff R. G. Tuttle. These men are well known by their friends here, and citizens of that county are glad that they have been paroled to prison. Asheville News: On Wednesday last Dr. Percy Norcup, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, removed the entire lower jaw of a polioed woman, named William Gordon, for a disease which would have proved fatal in two months, or less time. Dr. Norcup was most ably assisted by Drs. G. Hardy, W. D. Willard, C. B. Grimes, and Dr. E. S. Grimes. The tumor, and after removal weighed three and one-half pounds. At present Dr. Norcup's patient is breathing through a silver tube passed into the windpipe. Milton Chronicle: Capt. A. E. Henderson, of Yanceyville, has been elected Superintendent of Public Schools for this county. An excellent selection. (Capt. H. is a grandson of Chief Justice Henderson.—SRA.) We are pleased to announce that the trustees of Milton Female Academy have contracted with Mr. W. P. Farley to rent the academy thoroughly and completely, and that it will be occupied by the Rev. T. U. Fauette and his highly accomplished lady principals of a first-class female boarding school. We feel better of that. Charlotte Observer: It is learned through a gentleman from Salisbury that in the recent trial of the State vs. Yarbrough, indicted for the killing of policeman Vandervoer, the counsel for the defense, argued that a policeman is not recognized by the statute as a lawful officer, hence Vandervoer was regarded as not having authority to make the attempted arrest. It is not understood that the case was decided on this point, but it is a little significant that the trial in question the police force of Salisbury have qualified as constables under the sheriff, in order to remove all doubt as to their legal authority to discharge the duties imposed upon them. A Norfolk correspondent of the New York World says: About forty state militia men, from the City of Norfolk, are placed called Nag's Head, which has become quite a fashionable seaside resort for citizens of this city and Baltimore, as well as for the North Carolinians. It is on the narrow strip of land which separates Roanoke Sound from the Atlantic ocean, the distance between sound and ocean being less than half a mile. To locate it more exactly, it is five miles north of Body's Island, North Carolina, and about ten miles south of Kitty Hawk, where the unfortunate United States steamer Huron was stranded a few years ago. A finer place for a combination of still and surf bathing is not to be found on the entire coast. Statesville Landmark: As the Blues excursion train was returning from Salisbury, Mrs. M. E. Hyams, of this county, got on board at Old Fort, where she is visiting, to speak to a friend, and in jumping from the platform as the train started, fell so close to the wheels that her clothing was caught and she was dragged a little distance. She was caught, however, and rescued by a gentleman standing by, and escaped, after all, with a few insignificant bruises. In Alexander county, on the evening of the 18th inst., Mr. Alfred Woodward was kicked on the head by a mule, knocking him senseless, in which condition he has since remained. His life is despaired of. The crops are about average, but probably never better worked than they are at this time, and both corn and cotton are looking splendidly, though the lack of rain is beginning to be a little felt in some sections. McCabe's History gives the following account of a gigantic North Carolina: "The largest man on record was Miles Darden, a native of North Carolina, who was born in 1793, and who died in Tennessee in 1857. He was 7 feet and 8 inches high, and weighed 487 1/2 pounds. At his death he weighed a little over 1,000 pounds. In 1839 his coat was buttoned around three men, each of them weighing over 300 pounds, who walked together in it across the country. In 1850 it required 13 1/2 yards of cloth, 1 yard wide, to make him a coat. Until 1833 he was active and lively, and able to labor, but from that time was compelled to stay at home on his knees about a year. He died in 1857, and was buried in a two-chambered casket, 87 1/2 inches long, 18 inches across the head and 14 inches across the feet. It required 24 yards of black velvet to cover the sides and lids of the coffin. Lincolnton Progress: Two men had a rencounter at or near Brevard's Station, in Gaston county, a few days ago, when one of them got his car bit off and was otherwise injured. Hon. Robert F. Dick, Judge of the United States Federal Court, will advocate the cause of prohibition in a public speech at this place about the 10th of July. Julius White, a stepson of Mr. Harrison Couble, had a V-shaped peak cut in his head about 4 1/2 inches long by being thrown from a buggy on Tuesday last. The wound penetrated to the skull, and severing a small artery, bled profusely. Rev. J. W. Jenkins (of Columbus) was painfully jerked a few days ago while being violently jerked about by his horse in running away. Mr. Jenkins had hold of the horse's bridle reins, and attached to the horse was a plow. The horse had started he knew it would be almost certain death to let loose, so he hung on with the tenacity of a drowning man until he brought the horse to a standstill. In the previous slight his horse was frequently thrown in a horizontal position and swayed to and fro like an inanimate substance. After being confined to his bed several days we are glad to state he is again able to go about. Goldsboro Messenger: A colored girl, named Lillie Pender, aged 12 years, was seriously burnt in the suburbs of this city, last Thursday evening, that death came to her relief. The accident was caused by her standing in the series of meetings held at Boyett's Chapel, near Goldsboro, during the last two weeks, conducted by Prof. Troy, were brought to a close last night, resulting in being buried with heavy stones to the ground while engaged in unloading some heavy timbers designed for the Opera House. He died profusely from the ear caused by a rupture of some blood vessel in the head, and is otherwise badly burned about the face, and is otherwise in a most deplorable condition. We were pleased to greet Col. A. Pope, the wide-awake and very efficient General Passenger Agent, of the Consolidated Railway. Col. Pope expressed highly pleased at the progress and improvements going on in Goldsboro, evidence of which are apparent on all sides, and thinks there is a bright future in store for this city. We are pleased to learn that the Colonel has his migration scheme so warmly at heart. He has already accomplished a great deal, all obstacles considered, and has great expectations for the near future. The States should more heartily co-operate with Col. Pope. Rev. L. L. Nash, with the assistance of Rev. Mr. Gwyn, of Wilson, are conducting a meeting in the Methodist church in this place, and with considerable interest manifested. It has now become a certainty that the Methodists will locate their district school in this place, which we doubt not will prove a great educational advantage to our community and most with merited success. The train which conveyed Gov. Jarvis and party to Raleigh Friday night had the misfortune, when between Princeton and Pine Level, to run over and kill Ashley Evans, a white man, living in Johnston county, who from all appearance had fallen on the track while in a state of intoxication and must have gone to sleep. The accident was not known till the following morning, when his mutilated body was found on the track and his legs feeding on it. Evans had on two previous occasions been severely injured by passing trains while on the track. THE CITY. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. J. W. HARRIS—Pleasant trip. HEINBERGER—Blank books, etc. MUMFORD—Gent's furnishing goods. CROSSLY & MORRIS—Auction sale. P. CUMMING & CO.—Hay, peas, etc. EXCURSIONS—St. Thomas S. School. Local Dots. Receipts of cotton yesterday 27 bales. Tax-listing will continue until Thursday. Call at the City Hall and get disinfectants. No cases for the Mayor's Court yesterday morning. Prof. F. M. Agoston is here on a visit to his relatives and friends. The City Hall fence is being repaired, which will be an improvement. The thermometer in the STAR office registered as high as 93 degrees yesterday. Mr. Alex. Sprunt has recently been reappointed British Vice Consul at this port. Complaint is made of boys bathing in the river at a point entirely too conspicuous. There is an unmailable letter in the postoffice addressed to Robert Elorby, Madison county, N. C. Those who participated in the Masonic excursion on the steamer Passport, yesterday, had a delightful time. There was a heavy rain about ten miles down the river yesterday afternoon. It didn't reach the excursionists. Don't forget St. Thomas's Sunday School excursion to-morrow. Boat leaves wharf foot of Market street at 9 A. M. The steamer Passport will make a short pleasure trip down the river this evening, leaving at 8 o'clock and returning by 10:30 o'clock. The Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1 were out with their engine yesterday afternoon, at the foot of Dock street, testing their new hose. From Mr. Henry Fairley, of Laurinburg, Richmond county, we have the first cotton bloom of the season so far as heard from. His cotton was planted on the 4th of April, and he now has over one hundred blooms in his field. According to the Census Bulletin the population of Wilmington one year ago was 17,390. The increase during the last decade has been at the rate of 400 per year, which would make our present population about 17,750. Our impression is that the population of Wilmington is really upwards of 18,000. Cape Fear Life-Saving Station. At the Custom House yesterday we noticed the drawings for a Life-Saving Station which the Government has ordered to be established on Smith Island (commonly known as Bald Head), near the mouth of the Cape Fear river, which is located in what is termed the Sixth Life-Saving District. The ground floor is to be about 20 by 45 feet, and the building will be two stories high, with a lookout, which will be about thirty feet above the ground level. It is stated by competent authority that this station will be the handsomest and most thoroughly and substantially equipped on the coast. Bids have already been advertised for, and the plans and specifications can be seen at the Collector's office in the Custom House. Collector Canaday informs us, in this connection, that Mr. Alvis Walker, executor of the estate upon which the station is to be established, is entitled to great credit for the liberality shown by him in furtherance of the efforts made to secure the location of the life-saving station at this point. The Lato Superior Court. From S. Van Amringe, Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court, we have the following summary of business transacted at the late term of said court, which adjourned on Saturday last: Cases continued, 80; judgments, 45; decrees of foreclosure of mortgages, 4; cases non-suited, with judgment for costs, 24; writs of possession, 2; divorces (one white and one colored), 2; orders appointing a receiver, 1; cases referred to referees, 2. Total cases, 190. Embraced in the cases non-suited were 18 of the city of Wilmington against various property holders on Front street interested in the Belgian block pavement, which were withdrawn by the city.

There is a bright future in store for this city. We are pleased to learn that the Colonel has his migration scheme so warmly at heart. He has already accomplished a great deal, all obstacles considered, and has great expectations for the near future. The States should more heartily co-operate with Col. Pope. Rev. L. L. Nash, with the assistance of Rev. Mr. Gwyn, of Wilson, are conducting a meeting in the Methodist church in this place, and with considerable interest manifested. It has now become a certainty that the Methodists will locate their district school in this place, which we doubt not will prove a great educational advantage to our community and most with merited success. The train which conveyed Gov. Jarvis and party to Raleigh Friday night had the misfortune, when between Princeton and Pine Level, to run over and kill Ashley Evans, a white man, living in Johnston county, who from all appearance had fallen on the track while in a state of intoxication and must have gone to sleep. The accident was not known till the following morning, when his mutilated body was found on the track and his legs feeding on it. Evans had on two previous occasions been severely injured by passing trains while on the track.

Partly cloudy weather, possibly followed by local rains; variable winds mostly northerly, stationary or lower temperature in north portion and high barometer. The Fire Last Night. A fire broke out about 10 o'clock last night in a small wooden building, used as a kitchen by Mr. G. F. Colin, in rear of the "Scandinavian saloon," on Water street, between Dock and Orange. A building adjoining the stables of Mr. W. P. Oldham, was also consumed, together with two horses belonging to Mr. Jas. O. Stevenson and a horse and a mule belonging to Mr. Oldham. Mr. Stevenson also lost two delivery wagons, a dray and harness, and Mr. Oldham a cart. Three cows, a stallion and a mule, the property of Mr. Oldham, and which were also in the stables at the time, came out and escaped. Mr. Oldham's loss is estimated at about $75 and Mr. Stevenson's about $450; uninsured. Mr. W. H. Lippitt's ice house, which is in close proximity to the burned building, also caught fire at the eaves and windows, but the flames were extinguished by the fire engines. Fifty dollars will cover the damage done to this building. The premises upon which the fire started belongs to the Walker estate, and it is understood are not insured; but the damage to this property was slight, the "kitchen" destroyed being a mere shanty. The fire engines and Hook and Ladder company were prompt in attendance, and in a few minutes after their arrival had no fire under control. Knights of Hope. At the regular semi-annual meeting of Carolina Lodge No. 484, K. of H., held on Monday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: S. P. D.—J. A. Springer. V.—N. W. Schenck. Y. D.—Clayton Giles. A. D.—Josh. G. Wright. Reporter—Geo. N. Harris. F. Reporter—Jno. L. Dudley. Treasurer—Rev. J. B. Orwig. Chaplain—W. J. B. Orlan. Guide—C. W. McClammy. Guardian—J. P. Williams. Sentinel—J. M. McGowan. Med. Exr.—Dr. F. W. Potter. The officers elect will be installed on the first Monday in July. Magistrate's Court. Sam Pope, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millie, yesterday, on a peace warrant sworn out by Henderson Davis, colored, who swore that he was afraid the defendant would do him some bodily harm. After hearing the evidence the case was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor. SEVEN AND NINE. The pilot boat Francis Elizabeth, Capt. Swann, of Charleston, put in here yesterday afternoon on a friendly visit. No Fayetteville boat since Saturday, the river being so low that they have not been able to get through. The North State and A. P. Hurt are en route. FARM MARKS. The malls close and arrive at the City Post Office as follows: Close. Northern through malls, fast, No. 100, 5:30 P. M. Embraced in the cases non-suited were 18 of the city of Wilmington against various property holders on Front street interested in the Belgian block pavement, which were withdrawn by the city.

Partly cloudy weather, possibly followed by local rains; variable winds mostly northerly, stationary or lower temperature in north portion and high barometer. The Fire Last Night. A fire broke out about 10 o'clock last night in a small wooden building, used as a kitchen by Mr. G. F. Colin, in rear of the "Scandinavian saloon," on Water street, between Dock and Orange. A building adjoining the stables of Mr. W. P. Oldham, was also consumed, together with two horses belonging to Mr. Jas. O. Stevenson and a horse and a mule belonging to Mr. Oldham. Mr. Stevenson also lost two delivery wagons, a dray and harness, and Mr. Oldham a cart. Three cows, a stallion and a mule, the property of Mr. Oldham, and which were also in the stables at the time, came out and escaped. Mr. Oldham's loss is estimated at about $75 and Mr. Stevenson's about $450; uninsured. Mr. W. H. Lippitt's ice house, which is in close proximity to the burned building, also caught fire at the eaves and windows, but the flames were extinguished by the fire engines. Fifty dollars will cover the damage done to this building. The premises upon which the fire started belongs to the Walker estate, and it is understood are not insured; but the damage to this property was slight, the "kitchen" destroyed being a mere shanty. The fire engines and Hook and Ladder company were prompt in attendance, and in a few minutes after their arrival had no fire under control. Knights of Hope. At the regular semi-annual meeting of Carolina Lodge No. 484, K. of H., held on Monday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: S. P. D.—J. A. Springer. V.—N. W. Schenck. Y. THE CITY. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. J. W. HARRIS—Pleasant trip. HEINBERGER—Blank books, etc. MUMFORD—Gent's furnishing goods. CROSSLY & MORRIS—Auction sale. P. CUMMING & CO.—Hay, peas, etc. EXCURSIONS—St. Thomas S. School. Local Dots. Receipts of cotton yesterday 27 bales. Tax-listing will continue until Thursday. Call at the City Hall and get disinfectants. No cases for the Mayor's Court yesterday morning. Prof. F. M. Agoston is here on a visit to his relatives and friends. The City Hall fence is being repaired, which will be an improvement. The thermometer in the STAR office registered as high as 93 degrees yesterday. Mr. Alex. Sprunt has recently been reappointed British Vice Consul at this port. Complaint is made of boys bathing in the river at a point entirely too conspicuous. There is an unmailable letter in the postoffice addressed to Robert Elorby, Madison county, N. C. Those who participated in the Masonic excursion on the steamer Passport, yesterday, had a delightful time. There was a heavy rain about ten miles down the river yesterday afternoon. It didn't reach the excursionists. Don't forget St. Thomas's Sunday School excursion to-morrow. Boat leaves wharf foot of Market street at 9 A. M. The steamer Passport will make a short pleasure trip down the river this evening, leaving at 8 o'clock and returning by 10:30 o'clock. The Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1 were out with their engine yesterday afternoon, at the foot of Dock street, testing their new hose. From Mr. Henry Fairley, of Laurinburg, Richmond county, we have the first cotton bloom of the season so far as heard from. His cotton was planted on the 4th of April, and he now has over one hundred blooms in his field. According to the Census Bulletin the population of Wilmington one year ago was 17,390. The increase during the last decade has been at the rate of 400 per year, which would make our present population about 17,750. Our impression is that the population of Wilmington is really upwards of 18,000. Cape Fear Life-Saving Station. At the Custom House yesterday we noticed the drawings for a Life-Saving Station which the Government has ordered to be established on Smith Island (commonly known as Bald Head), near the mouth of the Cape Fear river, which is located in what is termed the Sixth Life-Saving District. The ground floor is to be about 20 by 45 feet, and the building will be two stories high, with a lookout, which will be about thirty feet above the ground level. It is stated by competent authority that this station will be the handsomest and most thoroughly and substantially equipped on the coast. Bids have already been advertised for, and the plans and specifications can be seen at the Collector's office in the Custom House. Collector Canaday informs us, in this connection, that Mr. Alvis Walker, executor of the estate upon which the station is to be established, is entitled to great credit for the liberality shown by him in furtherance of the efforts made to secure the location of the life-saving station at this point. The Lato Superior Court. From S. Van Amringe, Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court, we have the following summary of business transacted at the late term of said court, which adjourned on Saturday last: Cases continued, 80; judgments, 45; decrees of foreclosure of mortgages, 4; cases non-suited, with judgment for costs, 24; writs of possession, 2; divorces (one white and one colored), 2; orders appointing a receiver, 1; cases referred to referees, 2. Total cases, 190. Embraced in the cases non-suited were 18 of the city of Wilmington against various property holders on Front street interested in the Belgian block pavement, which were withdrawn by the city.

Mr. E. L. McCormac, of Shoe Heel, sends the STAR a cotton bloom, raised by Thos. Watkins (colored), of Richmond county. It came to hand since the one mentioned elsewhere was received.
