gined. Two letters passed between them recently concerning some of the President's appointments. Garfield refuses to publish them now. Grant will receive the citizens' purse of $250,000 in a few days. In the meantime it is reported that Garfield wrote to Grant, while the latter was in Mexico, "to the effect that when he appointed Judge Robertson to the Collectorship of the port of New York he supposed that the appointment would be perfectly satisfactory to Messrs. Coakley, Platt and Arthur."

Many of our Northern exchanges are discussing Secretary Windom and the frauds and rascalities connected with the Treasury Department. There was much seal shown at first by the new Secretary in ferreting out crookedness, but rumor says that the crookedness got to be so crooked the cautious Secretary at once put his seal on and looked up his nose. It is no doubt a fact that the investigation has been abandoned. It is no doubt true that the Secretary is very mum as to his discoveries. He refuses positively to tell what he knows about the U. S. Treasury corruptions. If he would have the confidence and respect of even honest Republicans he must not lend his aid to suppress proper scrutiny or to prevent the exposure of criminals. The New York News says:

"A popular tide has set in that favors keen scrutiny of suspicious official affairs, and a case which will be kept on members of the Cabinet who seem disposed to cover irregularities. The Secretary of the Treasury would surely make himself the accomplice of the criminal in that department by holding back any evidence of corruption."

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal says that it is a regular business in Washington to get places under the Government for applicants, the price varying from $100 to $200. This is lovely. The chief agents in this work are women, who are the most pertinacious and unobscuring of lobbyists. The correspondent says that one of this class "made nearly, if not quite, $2,000 last winter, by obtaining the signatures of Congressmen to applications for places by persons represented by her to be her relatives, but who, in fact, paid her for the places thus obtained. In one instance the dismissal of a lady clerk was obtained on the complaint that she had denounced the administration, and a young girl was put in the vacant place, whose friends paid $200 in cash the day that her appointment was signed. It is well for the people to understand some of the many ways by which frauds are practiced upon them."

Here is Sarah Bernhardt's opinion of this country: "America is a grand country, colossal, extraordinary, fabulous; a veritable country of Jules Verne. The audiences at American theatres are brilliant. Such rich toilets! The ladies know how to dress. The public understand very well. Their appreciation is quite warm and sympathetic. The women are charming—everything that is lovable—but the men are not so nice as the women."

From the Raleigh News-Observer we copy: At 8.30 P. M. Gov. Holden delivered his address on "The History of Journalism in this State." It was a comprehensive statement of the leading journals of North Carolina from 1749 up to a comparatively recent period, the Governor leaving his own connection to other hands. It was a very instructive and valuable contribution to our meagre history of North Carolina papers and editors, and received the hearty approval of every one present. In thoroughly good taste and in fine diction, it won applause and elicited praise on all sides.

To-morrow evening will be spent in visiting the noteworthy points of Salem and Winston, and at night a ball will be given by the citizens. On Thursday night the press will attend a banquet, and on Friday morning they will take a special car, kindly placed at their disposal by Col. Andrews, and visit Morehead City.

Spirits Turpentine.
—Rockingham Spirit: Anti-Prohibition is strong in Anson—much more so than we expected—and the county will likely give a large majority that way.
—Henderson Tobaccoist and Review: Plans for a seven thousand dollar hotel, to be erected in Henderson, are being made. The hotel will be built of brick, and is to be finished by the 1st of November.
—Hickory Press: A bee stung a Mr. Young, son-in-law of Rev. P. C. Henkle, of Concord, a few days ago, from the effects of which he died Wednesday.

June 18. This is the first time we ever heard of a bee stung proving fatal.
—Laurinburg Enterprise: The Laurinburg Comedy Company made its debut on the night of the 17th inst. at Bizzell's Hall. The company consisted of an audience composed of the elite and intelligent portion of our community. The orchestra was led by Prof. L. A. Monroe.
—Correspondent of the Goldboro Messenger: There is considerable feeling manifested on both sides of the great "Prohibition" question in Pitt county. The general impression is that the farmers and country people generally are against it, while those in town and around the churches are very much in favor of and working hard for it.
—Graham Gleaser: Four thousand spindles were in operation in Swepson's mill, and one hundred and seventy-five looms were destroyed, fifteen of which had just been put in and a year of goods had been woven on them. On the 21st week Mr. Swepson was offered $175,000 for the factory. The grist will be saved with great difficulty.

—Leakville Gazette: The narrow gauge grading has been completed, except between Leakville and Smith's river. The broad gauge has been laid, and the narrow gauge is being laid. The road is now open for traffic. The number of houses destroyed were seventeen in all. The actual loss, according to the best information we can get, is $75,000, and the aggregate amount of insurance is $40,000.

—Greensboro Patriot: The damage done to Guilford county jail by the parties who lynched Taylor, the negro freed, amounted to between thirty and forty dollars, and the people of Rockingham county promptly paid the amount. It is probable that the State Executive Committee of the Democratic party will take some action on the prohibition question during the coming week.

—Statesville Landmark: The fifth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North Carolina convened in the Presbyterian church of this place Thursday night. After devotional exercises the address of welcome was delivered by Mr. B. F. Long, Rev. J. B. Boone, W. B. Pressly and A. B. Shilley also welcomed the visitors to Statesville. Responses were made by Mr. R. E. Caldwell, of Greensboro, and Mr. Watkins, secretary of the international association.

—Charlotte Observer: The Hornet Fire Company will leave to-night at 12 o'clock for Greenville, to participate in the firemen's tournament at that place to-morrow. The reports of the Baltimore stock market show a downward tendency in Baltimore and North Carolina Gold Mine shares, as also in Conrad Hill stock. The market for the latter was former was $3.05, while the last quotations are $2.65. Conrad Hill was up to $1.70, and has fallen back to $1.50.

—Newbernian: The last Legislature appropriated $3,000 to establish four additional Normal schools for white teachers, and the same amount for four additional schools for colored teachers. One of these colored Normal schools has been located in Newbern. The selection of this point is wise, as it is the centre of a very large colored population. The Superintendent of Public Instruction has appointed Rev. C. L. Yarr, and Messrs. Geo. Allen and G. S. Fisher as Directors. Arrangements will be made promptly for the opening of this school at an early day.

—Newbernian: The truck shipped from this point by railroad during the season up to and including Wednesday last, stood up in bushels as follows: Peas, 24,429; beans, 1,414; potatoes, 15,653; turnips and cabbages, 1,232; squash, 143; cucumbers, 642; tomatoes, 53; melons, 47,470; bushels. The truck freight by steamers amount to 38,875 bushels, which gives, this far, a footing of 83,351 bushels. The number of freight cars required to transport the vegetables now on hand for shipment at this point, will average from eight to ten daily, though on Tuesday last it required fifteen cars.

—Greensboro Patriot: We have just learned that Mr. J. J. Busick, of this county, recently lost a valuable store and stock of goods by fire. He was really going to have an old fashioned 4th of July celebration in Greensboro this year. We learn that steps have been taken in that direction. Mr. J. M. Leach, Jr., of Lexington has been selected as orator for the occasion. On Sunday night last, Mr. Geer, a worthy citizen of Durham, N. C., died at about 8 o'clock. Sometime during the same night Mr. Geer died. He was 89 and the 75th year of age. He had been married 58 years. Both were buried at the same time Tuesday afternoon.

—Hillsboro Observer: It is said that a rape was committed on Sunday last by Bill Fancott, colored, on the person of Lizzie, a child of Jenny Fancott, a colored woman living near Upper Sand bridge, above Hillsboro. The girl is about two years of age. Freeman Hail, a colored man living in Cedar Grove township, and one of the finest tobacco raisers in North Carolina, sold a two-horse wagon load of tobacco in Durham last week for eight hundred and fifty odd dollars. It averaged $51.87 to the hundred after paying warehouse charges, etc. And yet a negro at the South don't have a fair showing.

—Greensboro Battle-Ground: The peaceful citizens in the neighborhood of Martinsville are very indignant over an attempted rape, made on Thursday last, by Charles Gilmer, upon the person of a daughter of Prince Winchester, all colored. This is the third offense of this character by Charles, and he should be quickly dealt with by the law. Once he was convicted of an attempt at rape and sentenced to nine years in jail, but succeeded in having the sentence shortened. He was again up on a similar charge, convicted and sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary, where he served nine years, and was again released. The good people are hunting him but do not talk of lynching.

—Goldboro Messenger: The stockholders meeting of the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad next week, will doubtless be an interesting one. We learn that at least two lease propositions will be pressed—one by Messrs. R. B. Bridges and John P. Deane, and the other by Mr. W. J. Best. Both propositions are said to be much better than those considered last summer. We learn from the Kingston Journal that at the last meeting of the Caswell Mount Association it was finally decided that the monument should be unveiled on the third of August. The Grand Master of Masons of North Carolina was requested to call the craft together and join in the ceremonies. It was decided that Gov. Jarvis, Mr. Gov. Ives and other relatives of Gov. Caswell should be especially invited to attend the unveiling ceremonies. And now the newboys are not permitted to sell papers on Sunday in this city. There is much being said about the postoffice from delivering mail on Sundays. Thursday night some burglar entered the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, located in the Gregory House, and robbed Mr. W. W. Slocumb's desk of sixty-one dollars and fifty cents.

—Raleigh News-Observer: The total receipts of cotton from the 1st of September to Friday last, were 74,839 bales, against 48,726 bales up to the same date last year. This gives an increase of 26,113 bales in favor of this season. We learn that the destruction by the great forest fire, near Manly, which was described in this paper a few days past, is ever greater than was then known. Yesterday another fire was raging near Hamlet, and the smoke could be seen at a distance of many miles. The friends of O. H. Dockery, of North Carolina, are working very industriously to have him made Marshal of the Western District, in place of Robert Douglas. They think they will make the rifle. Judge A. W. Tourgee is endorsing Mr. Dockery. Two store houses in Chapel Hill are advertised for sale. Mr. Thomas W. Battle, son of Mr. Kemp P. Battle, Mr. James Manning, son of Hon. John Manning, and Mr. Charles C. Holden, son of ex-Gov. W. W. Holden, will all sail from New York on Saturday next for England. The following are the indications for the South Atlantic States to-day:
Fair weather, winds mostly north-easterly, stationary or higher temperature and barometer.

M. yesterday, Washington mean time, and also the amount of rainfall, in inches for the twenty-four hours ending July at 3 P. The following are the indications for the South Atlantic States to-day:
Fair weather, winds mostly north-easterly, stationary or higher temperature and barometer.

THE VISIT OF THE CHARLOTTE AMATEURS TO WILMINGTON.
The Charlotte Observer, of yesterday, has the following concerning the recent visit of the Gounod Club to this city:
"The Gounod Club returned from Wilmington yesterday evening at 8.45, and from all accounts met with a brilliant success in the city by the sea. The club, on its arrival in Wilmington, was met at the depot by a delegation from the Dramatic Club of that city, who escorted the Charlotte club to the Opera House, and then to the Parlor, where they were entertained in royal style during their stay. The presentation of the 'Pirates' Monday night was followed by an informal reception at the Parlor House, after which one portion of the club was invited to the club room where refreshments and cigars were served. On Tuesday morning the whole party, accompanied by a large number of Wilmingtonians, were taken to Wrightsville Sound, where dinner was served, and yachting and surf bathing were indulged in. Tuesday night a ball was given at Germania Hall in honor of the Charlotte club. This is a brief outline of the manner in which the club was entertained while in Wilmington. The members of the club assert that their entertainment while in Wilmington could not have been surpassed, and speak in the highest terms of the courtesies extended to them generally, and by the Dramatic Club in particular. There was not the slightest occurrence tending to mar the pleasure of the trip, and the occasion will ever be remembered as one of the most pleasant events in the history of the club."

COMPENSATORY REP.
A hop was given at Germania Hall on Wednesday night complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. B. Hanstein, on the eve of their departure for New York, where Mr. Hanstein will go into business. A large number of their friends were present, and the affair was an exceedingly pleasant one. Mr. Hanstein's family left for New York last evening, and he will follow them in a few days. Mr. H. was a good citizen, and leaves many friends behind, who, while regretting the necessity that calls him from their midst, will wish him a prosperous career in his new quarters.

WATER WORKS CONTRACTOR.
The water works contractor, offers, if the authorities will suitably enclose and turf the site of the old market house, to furnish a fine fountain and the necessary water.

EXTENSIVE AND DAMAGING FOREST FIRE.
On Sunday last, the 19th inst., during a severe storm, lightning struck a pine tree at the head of Colvin's Creek, near the dividing line between Sampson and Pender counties, when the tree became ignited, and the flames continued to spread until it had swept over some six or seven thousand acres of land, destroying box trees, fences, turpentine, timber and other property, including a large part of the growing crop of corn belonging to Giles Hayes, colored, which happened to fall within their devastating course. The principal sufferers are Messrs. J. R. Hawes, L. Vollers, G. W. McMillan, Archie Corbett and Geo. Howell, the latter of whom lost about thirty or thirty-five barrels of turpentine, some in shipping order and some in boxes. The fire was still raging up to Tuesday night, but our informant, Mr. C. C. Woodcock, thinks the rains of the last day or two have effectually stayed the devouring flames in their onward course.

ARREST OF A CRAZY WOMAN.
Emma Nixon, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon, by Officer Stone, of the police force, charged with acting very disorderly in "Brooklyn." The husband of the woman subsequently called at the station house and declared that his wife was crazy, and that he had been compelled to remove their children into the country in consequence of this derangement of her mental faculties. She will be held for a hearing before the Mayor this morning.

EVES AND MARINE.
—Barque Alfon, hence, arrived at Anwerp on the 23rd inst.
—The Steamer A. P. Hurt finally succeeded in reaching this port from Fayetteville Wednesday night. She left the steamer Waco, North State and D. Archibald in the neighborhood of Elizabethtown trying to make their way to this city. The water is exceedingly low.

—Steamer D. Archibald, Capt. Roberts, arrived last night about 11 o'clock. The captain reports the river distressingly low. The balance of the fleet—the Waco and the North State—will probably reach here this morning. The Archibald left Fayetteville on Tuesday last. There have been fine rains along the river below Fayetteville.

PREJUDICE KILLS.—Eleven years ago daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several kind of medical men, which did not know to no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by a simple remedy as Hop Bitters, which we had had for years before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters. "The Parents."

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the "Boston Christian Freeman":—"We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we do not know to be good—particularly for infants. But Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge in our own family. It has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and his parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection and which is harmless: For the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub which is brought to the world in this way, is the process of teaching its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it has finished with the nursing stage, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle."
