cassed excellently "the suppy side of home, the sunny side of toil, the sunny side of faith, the sunny side of religion, the sunny side of death." But what sort of religion is that without faith?

A staff correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, the same person who passed through Wilmington with old Simon Magus Cameron some months ago, has been again in North Carolina and writes a rather readable letter giving an account of what he saw, heard, and, it may be, dreamt. We give one passage that reads like it may be true:

"I will bet you were a Yankee soldier, said a long, lank North Caroinian who had pushed himself into a seat by the side of me while I was travelling to-day on the Richmond & Danville Railroad towards Goldsboro', North Carolina. He came upon me before I had got tired and had forgotten the granny and her grandchildren.

"What makes you think so? I

"Cause you ask so many questions about this country and the war. I wonder, did you belong to a critter regiment or were you a footman. We didn't mind them so much, but them are critter soldiers where lightning when they got after a fellow's cattle, pigs and chickens. I have seen many a one of them who could milk a cow into the mouth of a canteen on the keen run without spilling a drop."

Theodore A. Dodge, U.S. Army, has published a work entitled "The Campaign of Chancellorsville." The Philadelphia Times praises the Colonel's work as being singularly thowas trarfield's uncle who was rough. We copy an interesting liss father has been dead a paragraph from the review in the

> "Never before nor after was Gen. Lee so completely entrapped as by Gen. Hooker on the 29th of April, 1863, and never in the history of war did a commander escape from such a trap, after defeating nearly twice his number, with greater audacity, skill and heroism, than that displayed by Lee and Jackson and the army under their command. Had Hooker continued his advance on the 29th of April and 1st of May and fought his troops as those who were engaged fought alterwards, on the 2d and 3d of May, at Chancellorsville, there could scarcely have been any escape for more than a fragment of Lee's army."

Grant's last attitude, as reported, is that he is willing to meet Garfield but is not anxious. Why should "the greatest general of the war" and an ex-President of eight years be 'anxious" to meet a President of less than four month? Of course U. S. is not "anxious" to meet C. M. G.

The funeral of her and her little granddaughter took place from the Salisbury Street Baptist church at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and was very largely astended. - Favetteville Examiner: John H. Williamson, colored, editor of the Raleigh Banner, addressed a very large number of the colored people in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening last. His arguments were pointed and forcible. He handled the Republican Executive Committee with

- Oxford Torchlight: A serious cutting affray occurred near Mt. Hoergy, in this county, on Friday of last week, between Thomas Stanley and Thomas Jones, both white. The latter was stabbed once or twice in the abdomre, causing the bowels to protrude. At last accounts the wounded man

There will be almost a complets fallure. — Over four thousand bales of cotton sold in Durham this season. — Durbam is still rising from the sabes. Price, the colored orstor, yesterday evening, at 8 o'clock, addressed a large autience from the steps of the court house on the subject of probibition. His speech was able, and was heard with much attention. He is by far the finest colored speaker ever heard here, and fully one-half of his audidence were whites. -Tarboro Southerner: About forty Tarboreans went up on Sunday to witness the consecrating coremonies of the new Episcopal church at Rocky Mount, and to hear the fine sermon by Bishop Lyman. The chapel is constructed of brick, is of an orthodox design and presents inwardly and outwardly a very pretty appearance. Pantego item: The Episcopalians wi Pantego item: The Episcopalians will soon begin to erect a church at this place. Also the Missionary and Free-Will Baptists are going to build churches.

- Greensboro Battle Ground: "Richard Moore's challenge to the captains of the Raleigh and Asheville gun clubs, to shoot a single match at fifty pigeons, has been accepted by both clubs, and will take place at Asheville on July 4, during the inter-State glass ball matches. Dick is a bad man with a gun, he having won the three first prizes in rifle shooting at the schuetzenfest, in Aiken, S. C., this spring, and we expect him to do credit to himself and Greensboro at Asheville.

- Henderson Tobacconist: Mr. Henry Smith, one of our best and most esteemed citizens, met with a sad and untimely death on Monday. He was engaged in putting an addition to his dwelling and working alone upon a high scaffold, about thirty feet from the ground, from which he fell and dislocated his neck. Mr. Smith was the owner of the Henderson Vineyard, and was a man of energy and enterprise and was very successful in his undertakings. He was of English birth, but came here from Canada, several years ago. He was about 60 years old.

- Mr. A. H. Temple, of Raleigh, says through the News-Observer: It is proposed to have a reunion of the surviving members of the Twenty-sixth Regiment North Carolina Volunteers, some early day in August next, and that it may be generally known please publish this, with the request that the Pittsboro, Wadesboro, Monroe, Charlotte, Hickory, Morganton and Wilkesboro papers will copy this call. Our old Colonel, Z. B. Vance, will be with us on that occasion. I request that every surviving member of the regiment who desires to be present will notify me-

- Charlotte Observer: Yesterday evening, about 7 o'clock, as Mr. S. J. War ren and wife were near the crossing at the old Richmond & Danville depot, on their return from a buggy drive, the horse became frightened at a train, and after making several plunges succeeded in getting from under the control of Mr. Warren and made a wild run up to College street, where a turn was made and the vehicle dashed against a tree, throwing out the occupants. Both Mr. and Mrs. Warren were very severely injured, the former receiving a bruise on the forehead, which rendered him unconscious, while the latter received a number of wounds about the head, face and neck, besides having one knee bruised.

— Warsaw Brief Mention: We understand that Clinton Female Institute closed its spring session on last Friday night, with very interesting exercises by the students. — The prospect for good crops generally are very encouraging. Cotton, corn and rice in this vicinity are, as far as our knowledge extends, very fine. - We learn that a lad by the name of Carter, aged about sixteen years, was shot and mortally wounded near Mt. Olive, last Saturday night, by a desperado, whose name we have been unable to learn. The deed seems to have been done out of mere wantonness, as the lad had not done any thing to the man to cause him to shoot him. Caused by liquor, the murderer being at the time drunk. -A tremendous forest fire has swept away the timber, turpentine, cord-wood, etc., on 20,000 acres of land in Moore county. One farm-house, several out-houses, one church building and a number of fences were destroyed.

- Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: Mesars. Bart. Moore and Washington Bryan were thrown from a buggy in the suburbs, and Mr. Moore's arm was badly njared by a fence barb. -But speaking of Best, we learn that instead of having to beg for aid, he is now begged to take money. Every dollars worth of stock in the Midland line has been subscribed, and he has continual application for large blocks of "shares." -The Richmond & Danville Road has a strong array of lawyers, and newspapers, and agents, and employees, but the current of public opinion is a powerful force when fully aroused. And it is ripe for an outburst. - When that Washington Inspector reported 15 cents as an average price for North Carolina leaf tobacco, he missed the fact by a long way. It is a rare thing for tobacco to sell at Durham, Henderson, Oxford, Winston, or any of the leading marts, so low as 15 cents per pound. This thought is suggested by noticing that our friend and subscriber, Capt. J. E. Burroughs, last week sold to Messrs. J. C. & D. Y. Cooper, of Henderson, a large load for 66, 77t, 75 and $1.00 per pound, according to grade. Another load averaged $74.91. Rev. W. S. Hester's load averaged --- Winston item of June 16: The anti-prohibitionists held a meeting in the court house here to-night. Quite s pleasant time. The convention was called to order by Mr. N. C. Cook, and the object of the meeting explained. Many able speeches were made; among others, speeches by J. C. Buxton, C. B. Watson and Judge Cloud. The probibitionists will meet with yery strong opposition here, and it is said entire opposition in the mountain counties further west of us. - Winston is growing very rapidly; twenty or more new buildings are now being erected, among them a large tobacco werehouse, owned by Mesers. Hinshaw Bros. & Gorrell, 200 by 80 feet. We have sixteen factories in full blast. - Messrs. F. & M. Fries are about completing their large cotton mill, sufficient it is said to give employment to two hundred hands. The antiquated yet beautiful old town of Salem also shows signs of enterprise and thrift, as a great many houses are undergoing repairsand new ones are being built. The entire community seems to be alive to business.

capes from the Officers. Dock Deberry, colored, an old effender against the laws, was arrested yesterday for making a desperate assault upon his wife with a chair, by which she received several very ugly wounds on the head; one of them being of such a serious nature as to require the services of a surgeon to sew it up. Deberry, who resides on Brunss wick, between Fifth and Sixth streets, was being taken to the county jail by Officer J. W. Bryan, to await a hearing before a magistrate to-day at 12 o'clock, and had reached a point nearly opposite the jail gate, when he suddenly broke and ran in the direction of Third street, with the officer in pursuit. The fugitive turned up | For sale by Druggists. ap 29 2m eod. Third street and ran to Mulberry, then down Mulberry, and finally in a northerly direction again, and was chased all the way to Hilton bridge, being about half-way across that structure when the officer reached the east end. Thence he speedily made his escape into the woods and Officer Bryan abandoned the pursuit. Deberry has served a term in the Penitentiary.

Mayor's Court. James Williams and Charles Hall, two colored boys, were arraigned for fighting and acting otherwise disorderly on Nutt street on Thursday night, about 94 o'clock. The defendants were ordered to be confined in the city prison for ten days each.

Clara Nixon, charged with disorderly conduct, was turned over to a Magistrate to undergo an examination as to her lunacy. Edward Goelet, concerned in the disorderly proceedings with James Williams and Charles Hall, referred to above, was are rested and brought in, but his case was con-

Westbrook & Bro., of Pender county, and robbing it of a sum of money and other articles, and who were taken up for trial before the Superior Court, were returned to our county jail. It seems that the evidence was insufficient to connect them with the robbery referred to, but Solicitor Galloway ordered them to be sent back to this county, to be held for carrying concealed weapone, for which indictments are pending in our Criminal Court.

In the case of Addie Howard, colored, charged with infanticide, which was tried before the Superior Court of this county on Thursday, His Honor, Judge Graves, presiding, the jury at about 11 o'clock same night returned a verdict of guilty manslaughter. Messrs. Bland and Powell appeared

The Human Hair. HOW TO PRESERVE AND BEAUTIEY IT.

Many persons abuse this delicate and beautiful ornament by burning it with al-coholic teastes and plastering it with grease, which has no affinity for the skin, and is not absorbed. Freeman":—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has preved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the alsep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever.
