THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXVIII.—NO. 105. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, JULY 23, 1881. WHOLE NO. 4347

OUTLINES.

Chicago markets were excited yesterday, nearly everything in the way of grain and provisions being cornered. ——The rate committee of the Southern Railway and Steamship Freight Association, at their meeting in New York decided not to change rates of freight for the coming year. ——Lapham was elected to succeed Conkling as U. S. Senator, at Albany, N. Y., yesterday. ——The London Standard is disturbed at the utterances of Irish journals in the United States. ——It is stated in a French journal that the Nihilists held a great meeting in St. Petersburg and resolved to give the Czar another warning, and if he does not heed it to kill him. —— Bradlaugh has summoned a meeting of his supporters to make an orderly protest against his exclusion from the House of Commons ——Quiet has been restored in Tunis by the occupation of Sfax by the French. ——The troubles in Perry county, Ark., have broken out afresh; J. L. W. Matthews, editor of the Fouche Valley Times, was assassinated Thursday night. ——The market for cotton goods at Manchester is reported dull and inactive, but prices firm. ——The National Educational Association, in session at Atlanta, Ga., adjourned, to meet at Saratoga next year; arrangements were made for representation at the International Educational Congress which meets at Boston. ——President Garfield's condition continues favorable; although he had more fever last night, it was regarded as merely a temporary fluctuation and no special importance was attached thereto. ——New York markets: Money 2½@3 per cent.; cotton firm at 11 11-16@11 15-16 cents; southern flour steady at $5 25@7 62½; wheat unsettled, ungraded spring 1 08@1 14; corn ½@¾c better and more active, ungraded 47@57½ cents; spirits turpentine firmer at 42½ cents; rosin firm at $2 07½@2 10.

The recent fire at New Berne did $2,000 damage to the Stanly building.

Speaker Sharpe must be a very defective egg. The New York Sun says "one Platt is worth a thousand Sharpes."

You can go from New York to Chicago for $9 and to St. Louis for $14.25. Cheap enough. So much for competition.

Conkling is going to Europe as soon as the Albany business is wound up. Is there to be another man "without a country?"

Whenever Secretary Blaine takes a drive he is flanked by friends who ride with him. "An ounce of preventive," you know, "is worth a pound of cure."

The London Times hoots fairly at the idea of disturbing the remains of William Penn and taking them to Philadelphia for interment. It is not known definitely where he is buried.

Guiteau says his prison-life is "hell." Mistaken, altogether thou user of the "English bull-dog." So much for reading dime novels, believing in Bob Ingersoll and being a scoundrel.

When Miller gets in the Senate monopoly will have a staunch and earnest and not unselfish friend. But did he desert during the war sure enough? We hope not, for the sake of New York.

Conkling's friends deny indignantly that he is trying to get back to the Senate through the aid of Democratic votes. Why not, oh Lord Roscoe? The other side would gladly have Democratic help.

The Philadelphia Press, Republican, complains that some of the Republican ring at Harrisburg are swindling the Treasury in the most barefaced manner. Thousands of dollars have been taken. Hang 'em.

A deaf mute in Philadelphia has been arrested for begging funds to defend Guiteau. He says, "Guiteau is a Frenchman and I am a Frenchman; and he is all right to kill Garfield." His name is Geo. W. Seward. Another "moral idiot."

Here is how the New York dry goods market stood on the 20th inst:

"Cotton fabrics are in fair demand and the most desirable makes are in light supply and firm. Dark prints are more active. Dress goods and ginghams remain quiet. Linseys are in better request. Men's wear woollens steady."

The Virginia papers are very hearty in their notices of the late J. A. H. St. Andrew. He was an Englishman by birth, and has resided in that State during the last ten years. He was a man of parts, of culture, a good editor and a thorough Englishman, and we cannot blame him.

Henry G. Fairweather, an English actor and singer, was so reduced he was compelled to beg. He was arrested in New York as a vagrant and locked up. He gave the facts, and the result is highly creditable to human nature. The correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says:

"A number of communications were received at the Jefferson Market Police Court, in the course of the forenoon, containing sums of money for his relief, ranging from $1 to $25, and more than one benevolent citizen came forward to say that a good position would be given the man if he were discharged. Bad as the world is, little incidents like this show that there is a great deal of good in it, after all."

But as the great actor, Garrick, said:

"A fellow feeling makes one wondrous kind."

Rev. Dr. W. N. Pendleton, of Lexington, Virginia, who was Chief of Artillery under General Lee, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage recently. Mrs. Margaret J. Preston, a Pennsylvania poet, but who lives in Virginia and is thoroughly Southern in her feelings, wrote a neat poem for the interesting occasion. The last two verses read thus:

"You have the best life holds in store,
Fair fame, true faith, contentment, love,
Children and friends and home and more
Than all, the Heaven that waits above.

So I can only ask, as one
Who fain would twine my bit of spray
Into your wreath, God's benison,
Upon your Golden Wedding Day."

Representative-elect Dexendorf, of Norfolk, Va., thinks the straight-out Republicans have an encouraging outlook. He is reported in the Baltimore American as saying:

"We propose to conduct our campaign on the principles laid down by the President in his interview with Gen. Wickham's delegation, and in doing that we know that we are acting up to the wishes of the administration. We cannot afford to any coalition with Gen. Mahone, and we will stick to our platform to the letter."

Senator Ben Hill has just had a surgical operation performed upon his tongue by Dr. S. D. Gross, of Philadelphia, for epithelioma. Dr. Gross says: "This affection, which formed inside the mouth, has been in progress about eighteen months, without the patient being aware of its dangerous character." He says the prospects are good for a rapid and permanent recovery.

Here is an item, if true, which is well calculated to awaken surprise in the North and farther South. We do not believe it, but here it is:

"H. R. Revels, the colored ex-United States Senator, has been chosen Presiding Elder of the Jackson District by the white Methodist Conference of Mississippi. Mr. Revels was offered, but declined, the editorship of the New Orleans Christian Advocate."

That Tennessee child which was born without eyes, is not the first of its kind. The Democratic party came into the world in the same condition. To have your eyes put out through sinful indulgence is a crime. The Republican party could see a little at first, but its course was downwards, and now it is shut up in darkness.

The New York Legislature yesterday elected Lapham to fill the Senatorial vacancy created by the resignation of Conkling. Miller and Lapham! What a pair to represent the great State of New York in the Senate of the United States. Intellectually, pigmies, Tom Thumbs, anything and everything that is remote from greatness.

CAMPAIGN NEWS.

A Wayne county correspondent of the State Journal says that county will give 1,500 majority against Prohibition.

The Elizabeth City Carolinian, "conscientiously believing that the mis-named 'Prohibition' crusade is not a movement to promote honest temperance reform, and that its success will result in greater injury than benefit to the morals, cannot join it."

Durham Plant.

The announcement that there would be an Anti-prohibition speaking in Durham on Saturday last, brought a large number of people to town. On the stand we noticed Cols. W. T. Blackwell, John N. Staples and James E. Boyd; and J. J. Ferrel, P. M. Briggs and Sherard Garrett.

La Grange correspondent to Kinston Journal.

I fear that Prohibition is not gaining in this township. I believe that some of the best citizens are opposed to it, while others equally as good favor it; but the way of arguing seems to be wrong—making the argument personal. You can never convince by wounding the feelings or exciting the prejudice.

State Journal.

There will be a grand gathering of the Anti-prohibitionists at Roxboro, Person county, on Saturday, July 30. A free public barbecue will be served. Able speakers will address the people. —— We are requested to put down Rutherford at 1,500 against Prohibition, and every county west of it with majorities the same way. Anson county will also give a large majority against Prohibition.

Durham Plant.

Prohibition mass meetings will be held at Mangum's Store, Patterson's Mill and Olive Branch Church, on Saturday, the 23rd. Able speakers will attend all these appointments. ——Luther Benson, of Indiana, spoke on Thursday night in Parrish & Blackwell's warehouse, in favor of Prohibition. This was the first time our people ever heard Mr. Benson, but the reputation that preceded him had prepared them for his wonderful lecture. He is certainly a very remarkable man, and all who have an opportunity should be sure to hear him.

Weldon News.

The Prohibitionists and Anti-prohibitionists both claim a majority of about forty thousand in August. We believe a small vote will be polled and whichever way the majority goes it will not reach anything like forty thousand. ——The Prohibition canvass has become a little more lively in this section. Mr. Jonah Boughton has been making speeches in this and adjoining counties. On Sunday he made a speech in this place and was replied to by Maj. T. L. Emry. Jas. E. O'Hara, Esq., spoke here last Friday night in favor of Anti-prohibition. Hon. A. S. Merrimon did not fill his appointment at Littleton, Saturday, though other gentlemen made speeches.

Tarboro Southerner.

Mr. Jonah Broughton delivered two powerful speeches on Prohibition in this place on last Wednesday and Thursday nights, and was listened to by large audiences on each occasion. —— The Anti-prohibitionists were represented at their appointment at Leggett's Store, on Tuesday, by Battle Bryan, who for an hour or more entertained with his eloquence (?) an audience of forty or fifty colored persons and perhaps a dozen whites. Speeches in reply were made by Messrs. John and George Hart and H. L. Leggett, Esq. ——The speech of Dr. Brown, colored, of Boston, on Prohibition, was listened to with great interest by a large crowd, both white and black, in the court house on Monday night.

Spirits Turpentine.

— At the Franklin (Macon county) Normal School 115 students attended

— Charlotte Observer: Rev. Dr. Theodore Whitfield, in company with Dr. Nelson and Rev. Mr. Webb, left the city last night to attend the National Baptist Ministers' Union at Lake Chatauqua, New York.

— Monroe Express: The family of Mr. John P. Secrest, of Monroe township, has recently passed through a season of deep affliction, three members of the family passing away in less than forty-eight hours' time, all with that terrible disease, typhoid fever.

— Durham Plant: The Primitive Baptists are erecting a church on Roxboro street, near the Methodist church. This denomination is not very numerous in this section, but it embraces some of our most substantial citizens. When this church is completed Durham will have five churches for white people and four for colored people.

— Raleigh Visitor: Mr. John A. McDonald has been relieved of his position as janitor of the U. S. Postoffice building, in this city, and Stewart, Ellison, colored, has been appointed in his stead. —— We were pleased to see Mr. W. T. McGee so far recovered from the injuries he received recently by a horse falling on him as to be able to be on the streets to-day.

— Raleigh News-Observer: The Board of Directors of the State Penitentiary adjourned yesterday. No successor to Major R. P. Atkinson, as superintendent of the convicts on the Western North Carolina Railroad, was chosen. Mr. W. B. Troy was instructed to take charge until an election was had. —— A letter from Mr. Joseph E. Pogue, at Henderson, says: "The amount of cash paid the farmers for tobacco at our premium sale, last Thursday, approximates $51,000, instead of $16,000, as published in your issue of the 16th.

— Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: Mr. Wm. J. Best and family have removed to Morehead, and expect to make North Carolina their permanent home henceforth. His success in leasing the New Berne Road, and the earnest manner in which he is surveying the Goldsboro and Salisbury connection, indicate an intention to make good the magnificent promises of April 1, 1880. —— We venture to say there are fewer Carolina boys at Yankee schools and colleges to-day than at any time within fifty years past, except four or five years immediately succeeding the surrender. ——Mrs. Gen. Bryan Grimes and her two sons (bright little men, fully awake to the foul wrong done their father and themselves by a gang of assassins) have come to Raleigh to reside during the summer with their relatives.

— Floating item: A number of respectable German citizens of Philadelphia have organized the Teuton Co-operative Colonization Society and purchased 3,000 acres of land near Asheville, North Carolina, between the Alleghany and Blue Ridge Mountains, to which they and others who may join them will emigrate. The capital of the association is $10,000, and each member is expected to take ten shares, $10 each, besides paying an entrance fee of $3. A town will be laid out, and factories, schoolhouses, museums, theatre, etc., built, everything being on the co-operative principle. Beer saloons, churches, ministers and lawyers will not be tolerated in the settlement. Beer will be brewed, however, and distributed at cost price, while no profit will be made on articles sold to members for consumption. Hotels will be built and an attempt made to entice visitors to the place as a summer resort.

— Kinston Journal: A. W. Oxley, Frank Green Huggins | Pollock and several others, of Jones county, went driving for deer one day last week. They killed two fine bucks which weighed upwards of 200 pounds net. In eight days they have slaughtered eight deer. —— A friend has kindly furnished us with a list of the old men of Onslow county, given below with their ages. He says the most of them are working men and are active, sprightly and healthy: Jere W. Yopp, 78; James Hobbs, 78; John Brown, 89; Joseph Eanett, 86; John Yeates, between 90 and 100; Thomas Edens, 76; Thomas Hill 77; Asa Sidberry, 77; Abner Erwin, 87; Thomas Jarman, 72; Britton Dawson, 77; William Roberts, 83; James Langly, 83; Ben Bryan, 82; Wright Horne, 77; James Patrick, 71; Daniel Futrell, 73; John R. Fountain, 70; Hezekiah Fountain, 70; Fields Brinson, 70. Another prominent man who don't like to have his name in the papers is 72.

— Weldon News: The crops are looking well, though the farmers are complaining of the cotton lice which may be found to a limited extent in nearly all the cotton fields—it has done but little damage yet, but will if we have much wet weather. We have been blessed with pleasant rains, but hear of much complaint of drought about Ringwood. ——On last Saturday night a terrific thunder storm prevailed in and around Scotland Neck. The lightning played around everywhere and struck in many places in the town. The Methodist Church was struck and set on fire, but was put out before much damage was done. A small hole was burned in the roof. ——We learn that the Baptist Church in Scotland Neck has been sold to the trustees of Vine Hill Academy, and will, in a short time, be moved to the Academy grounds. The members of the church have contracted for the erection of another church in another portion of the town, upon which work will commence in a few days.

Magistrates' Court.

The case of John McKoy, colored, heretofore referred to in the STAR, came up for a hearing before one of the magistrates in the Court House yesterday morning. The two daughters of the accused, Frances and Rachel McKoy, the former aged 16 and the latter 17 years, were examined, together with quite a number of other witnesses, the Court room, in the meantime being pretty well filled with spectators, mostly colored, but with a fair sprinkling of whites, and at the conclusion of the testimony McKoy was committed, without the benefit of bail, for trial at the approaching term of the Criminal Court, and was thereupon remanded to the county jail.

Mr. Solicitor Moore, of the Criminal Court, was present to assist in the examination on the part of the State and Marsden Bellamy, Esq., appeared for the defendant, making earnest and forcible arguments in favor of his client.

Anti-Prohibition in Pender.

We are informed that a large meeting of anti-prohibitionists was held yesterday at Rivenbark's Mills, about six miles from Burgaw, in Pender county. Speeches were made by Messrs. C. H. Bell, J. W. Madden and H. E. Scott. It is said to have been one of the largest meetings of the campaign, and to have been virtually unanimous against Prohibition.

Prayer Meeting.

We understand that there will be a mass meeting in favor of Prohibition at Smithville on Wednesday next, the 27th inst., which will be addressed by several white and colored speakers. Things are getting very

Our Sumter Visitors—The Sounds, &c.

We learn that our friends of the Sumter Light Infantry are enjoying themselves finely at Smithville, where they are in possession of the barracks formerly used by the garrison of Fort Johnston. Some ten or twelve members of the company came up Thursday evening, a few of whom were obliged on account of business engagements to return home, while the others expected to take a short trip to the sounds and then rejoin their comrades at Smithville.

Some of our Sumter friends were not aware that we had any other place of resort in the neighborhood of the city except Smithville, the forts, the Blackfish grounds, etc., and were surprised to find such pleasant, handsome and attractive resorts as Wrightsville and the neighboring sounds, where, especially at the former place, the best of good eating can be had at the most reasonable prices, the tables being supplied with choice fish, fresh from the ocean and sounds; oysters, as delicious in fritters and other seductive arrangements in the summer months as during the more seasonable weather incident to the fall and winter; crabs, clams and other delicacies of the seashore, combined with all the facilities for bathing, boat-sailing, visiting the ocean beaches, inhaling the healthful, invigorating salt sea breezes, etc., etc. In this connection we append a full list of officers and men attached to the Sumter Light Infantry, as we find it in the Sumter Watchman:

Officers—Capt W R Delgar, 1st Lieut R D Lee, 2d Lieut D J Auld, 3d Lieut Marion Sanders, Orderly Sergeant Chas E Bartlett, 2d Sergeant James H Chandler, 4th Sergeant W F Rhame, 2d Corporal W D Bogin, 3d Corporal B R Sanders, 4th Corporal H Goldstrom.

Privates—H D Barnett, C F H Buitman, W C Chandler, J H Durant, L B Durant, J M Dick, W E Dick, Milton Dargan, Archie China, James M Earle, A L Frustenburg, J B Hurst, H A Hoyt, Wm Haynsworth, W C Ivy, John McQueen, W W McKagen, F J O'Connor, C W Stancill, F M Spann, H F Wilson, J W Villenuve.

Yeadon Delgar, Eddie Green, Markers.

The following named persons accompanied the military:

Mrs W R Delgar, Mrs Perry Moses, Miss Carrie Sanders, Miss Agnes Moise, Miss Auld, Miss Maggie Harney, Mr and Mrs R E Carnes, General G Richardson, Capt Robert Witherspoon, Lawrence Folsom, Altamont Moses, W E Epperson, A S Brown, R M Jenkins, R J Bradham, S F Flowers, Josh Moses, T L McLeon, E C Haynsworth, F E Thomas, D Rosendorff R B Mahoney, Charlie Osteen, Alva Solomons, Mr and Mrs J B Roach, E L Spencer, James Durant, J A Carnes, J E Baskins, A O Dixon.

The Storm Last Night.

An unusually severe storm visited this city last night about 9 o'clock. It came from the northwest and was accompanied by a high wind that for a little while was of almost unexampled force and fury for this section. At the time, however, we can hear of no damage done beyond a few trees and fences blown down in various parts of the city. The blow was followed by heavy rain and thunder and lightning. The Western Union Telegraph Office was visited by the latter, and the "switch-board" had its metal facing melted in places by one of the discharges of electricity. A ball of fire as big as a man's head danced about the office, but the operators present being rather accustomed to that sort of thing were not even shocked at the familiarity.

The Speaking Last Night.

Mr. Wm. R. Hunter spoke at the old market place last night to a good sized crowd in favor of Prohibition, and delivered an earnest and impressive speech, which, to the regret of many of his auditors, was cut short by the storm. The campaign here has been enlivened very much during the past few days with meetings, speeches, &c., and the indications are that things will be kept pretty lively from this on to the day of election.

Quarterly Meeting.

For Front Street M. E. Church convenes in this city to-day and will be continued to-morrow, the Presiding Elder, Rev. Dr. Burkhead, being in attendance. This, we understand, will probably be the last quarterly meeting Dr. Burkhead will hold previous to leaving for Europe to attend the Ecumenical Council.

RIVER AND MARINE.

— The steamers A. P. Hurt and Wave, which arrived yesterday, report the river still falling.

— The steamer Wave, Capt. Robeson, which arrived here from Fayetteville, will go on the ways for slight repairs to her bottom, received from scraping on the shoals during the extreme low water in the river which recently prevailed. In the meantime the steamer D. Murchison will do double duty.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of forty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a Female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world renowned as a benefactor of the race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DAILY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York city. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
