There is to be some grand singing at Yorktown. Director Siegel has secured already 181 voices, divided as follows: First tenors, 40; second tenors, 47; first bassos, 48; second bassos, 56. Wilmington could help swell the number and furnish some voices hard to best.

The Legislature will have to meet in extra session, and if the bill is rejected at the polls it will be promptly repealed by the body that passed it if such a step shall be thought necessary. We all know what the intention was.

Dana of the New York Sun is very happy, and all because Roscoe Conkling is down. It says he is the "foremost enemy of the freedom of the press in America" and the "leader of the Third Term party, who would overthrow the free Constitution of the United States and erect an empire on its ruine." That is a heavy bill of indictment and Roscos ought to be down. But will be stay down? Time will show.

question. Several of them came to the conclusion that they would have a meeting to test the powers and qualities of eider as an intoxicant, and that if it would have the true 'O be joyful" effect they would vote in favor of Prohibition. The meeting was held, the citizens assembled in force, and at once proceeded to the business of getting outside of cider. In about an hour the effect was gratifying in the extreme. No less than twenty-six were "happy," and in an hour more there were five fights. The test was voted a complete success, and that township is happy.

Warrenton Gazette. It does seem to us that there are too many intemperate Prohibitionists and Anti-prohibitionists. There are gentlemen who honestly advocate either side-that is to say, some oppose and some favor Prohibition. It is an honest, let as hope difference of opinion, and about which no one should quarrel. - Mountain View item: From the best information we can get we suppose about eighty-five or ninety per cent. of the whites, and at least ninety-five per cent. of the colored people will go against the bill. There will be a big Prohibition meeting at this place on Saturday, the 23rd inst. Competent speakers on both sides will deliver addresses here on that day. Gold Mine (Franklin) dot: I don't think there is a man, white or colored, in this township for Prohibition, Cowley, failed to act with proper (i. e. for the bill as it is) but as a people we are very much opposed to the too free use of intoxicating drink.

-Elizabeth City Carolinian, Rep. : An unfortunate disturbance occurred in our ordinarily most law-abiding town on Saturday night, which came near ending in a very serious affair. A white man had a dispute with his colored washerwoman about some alleged missing clothing. She called him some opprobrious names and he knocked her down. The news soon spread, and, under the leadership of certain colored men of whom better things had been ex-pected, over a hundred of their race collected at the corner of Poindexter and Main streets and threatened summary vengeance on the offending man, even going so far as to openly defy the Mayor, after he ordered them to disperse. A number of arrests were made, and on Monday the white man was fined and the colored men bound over to ap-pear at the next term of the Superior Court.

The writ of habeas corpus sued out Saturday by Messrs. Russell & Ricaud, counsel. for John McKoy, was partially heard before Judge Meares at the Court House yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Ricaud moved that the prisoner be discharged, on the ground that he was improperly committed and held.

It was agreed between the opposing counsel, Mr. Solicitor Moore appearing in behalf of the State, that the evidence taken down before Justice Harriss on Saturday. so far as it went, be used on this occasion. Mr. Ricaud then read the evidence in the case of Rachel McKoy, and introduced as additional witnesses as to the character of McKoy Mesars. J. F. Garrell, T. H. Johnson, T. P. Sikes and T. A. Watson, following with the testimony in the case of Frances McKoy. John McKoy, the defendant, was then placed upon the stand by his counsel, when Solicitor Meere stated to the Court that if the accused was to be examined he should insist that the two prosecuting witnesses, Rachel and Frances McKoy, should be brought into Court. To this arrangement the defence interposed no objection, and it - Raleigh News-Observer: The was then agreed that either side should introduce whatever testimony was deemed

> After some discussion the further hearing of the case was finally postponed until 4.30

The case was further considered in the afternoon and much of the previous testimony rehearsed, in the midst of which, owing to some disorder, His Honor, Judge Meares, ordered the Court room cleared of the large number of spectators which had gathered to listen to the revolting details, permitting only the witnesses and others specially interested in the case to remain in the room.

At the conclusion of the proceedings His Honor gave notice that he would admit the defendant to bail in the sum of $300 in each of the two cases against him, with good and sufficient security, to be approved by him (Judge Meares).

We deem it proper to state that the testimony as to character introduced by the counsel for the defence was very creditable Anti-Prohibition in Columbus.

A correspondent at Whiteville informs us that it was circulated around that Geo. L. Mabson would speak there on Saturday last, at 12 o'clock, but he failed to put in an appearance, whereupon the large crowd that had assembled at the Court House was called to order and one Sanders, of this city, a colored Prehibitionist, made quite a lengthy speech. The Prohibitionists were quite elated at Mabson's failure to be present, but before Sanders had concluded he (Mabson) walked into the town, coming from the direction of Rosindale, where he been accidentally left by the W., C. & A.

R. R. train. Sanders, in concluding, announced that other Prohibition speeches would be made, when Mabson asked the Chairman whether the Anti-prohibitionists would be allowed to speak, stating that it was his appointment. The chair stated that had gotten off the C. C. Railroad, having the Prohibitionists had permission to use the Court House; whereupon Mabson state d that he had an appointment to speak there that day, and all who would retire could hear him on the court yard. At this the crowd, amid cheers and hurrahs, left the meeting, leaving the Chairman and Secretary sitting solitary and alone. Mabson spoke to a large crowd from the stand on the public square and made a very good speech. The Prohibitionists were completely cowed after their anticipated victory and the colored citizens of the Antiprohibition persuasion (and nearly all of them are that way) were over-joyful.

Mayor's Court. Daniel Dixon, colored, was arraigned on the charge of acting very disorderly on Fifth, between Church and Castle streets, on Sunday night, about half-past 8 o'clock. The evidence was to the effect that defendant was cursing and swearing in a loud and boisterous manner, and that when Officers Williams and Skipper, of the police force, attempted to arrest him, he resisted, and it was found necessary to call for other assistance, when Sergeant Davis and Officer Watkins came upon the seene. The prisoner continued to struggle, fight and resist, in the meantime seriously disturbing the congregation and services of the Fifth Street M. E. Church, until finally one of the policemen deemed it necessary to club him, and his appearance in the court room yesterday morning showed it was to some purpose, as he was as bloody as a butcher. He was ordered to pay a fine of $15 or go bes low for thirty days. Nixon is said to be quite a desperate character, Justice Millis having warrants out against him for assault and battery and abandoning his wife, who came here from Greenville, Pitt county. He is also alleged to be an escaped prisoner from the Washington, N. C., jail. After he has served water supply to be had under ground.
