

Niagara Falls have been illuminated grandly. Sixteen electric lights of 2,000 caudle power each were used.

Ex-King Cetewayo, of Zululand, has been paroled by order of Mr. Gladstone. He is not to return to has people.

It is ascertained that Leo Hartmany, the assassin, fled when no man pursued. The Rossian Government has made no demand for his surrender.

The weather has been so hot in New York that even the bulls and bears could not stand it and fiuancial circles were very quiet but intensely in iting.

Railroad President Garrett, of Baltimore, intimates that W. H. Vand-ibilt is not truthful. The owner of Maud S. will reply, it is said, in a card.

It was John Amweg and not Arnweg that Nellie, of St. Louis, fell in love with. "She chose a fellow with skin and hair." Please insert light before skin and you will read it as we wrote it.

When John McCullough returns he is to have "a rousing reception." What for? He did not make half the reputation that Edwin Booth did, and there has been nothing said of giving him a rouser.

On Monday and Tuesday there was great improvement in the weather. Yesterday about 81 was the highest in this office. Vennor hit the weather exactly on the head. He foretold a pleasant change on the 15th and it came.

The people of Terry, Ala., have regard for decency and the "fitness of things." They drove out of town one Clemens, who married a second wife three days after the death of his first. There ought to be a law for just such cases.

There is great excitement in New Haven over the murder of pretty Jennie Cramer. A woman named Annie Clements alias Blanche Douglas is under arrest. It is believed she was seduced and murdered by James Mallay.

and takes rank with our best Ameri can sculptors." It cost $71,500. We again copy from the Chicago paper:

"Within the tomb chamber repose the remains of Douglas, in an iron casket placed in a white marble sarcophagus, the marble from his native country of Rutland, Vt., and surmounted by a white marble life-size bust of him. The following inseriptions are on the front side of the sarcophagus:

"'Stephen A. Douglas-Born April 23, 1813. Died June 3, 1861.'

"'Tell my children to obey the laws and uphold the Constitution.' The bronze statuary consists of Douglas on the top, 9 feet 9 inches high, standing in repose, holding a scroll in the left hand and the right thrust under the lapel of his tightlybuttoned undercoat. The four pedestais at the base of the tomb are occupied by heroio-size statues of Illinois, History, Justice, and Eloquence, in sitting attitudes."

We notice a dispatch in the Charleston News and Courier dated Tuesday morning 16th, which looks as if the Doctors at that time had about given up all hope. It is brief and reads as follows :

"Dr. Agnew has informed Mrs. Garfield that she must prepare for the increase. The shipments by rail during worst."

Dr. Reyburn, not long before this, said to a reporter who asked, "Will the President die to night?" (Tuesday) plying here are all in a flourishing condition. "'Oh! I can't say that,' exclaimed the Doctor quickly. 'It is not likely, but I cannot say.'"

Say what you will of Gambetta he does not lack either boldness or consistency. On Saturday last in his speech at Menilmontant he declared that the army and magistracy ought to be reformed, and that if he were at the head of affairs he would do it. He considers the Government both imbicile and corrupt. The eloquent and bold Frenchman has somehow lost much of popular favor.

Dr. Agnew publishes a card in the Times saying that he did not accuse that paper of fabricating or a medical gentleman of misrepresenting intentionally. The point he makee: "It is very easy, even for a medical man, in reporting an informal conversation on a professional subject, to omit technical exactitudes, especially most improved patent thermometer, and on Tuesday had since been hatched, they come a little higher than the common though one of the little ducks was dead. where anatomical questions are con-

The event agitating the Quaker borough of West' Chester, Pa., is the chance that fell upon Mr. Jesse E Webb, one of the best known business men, the proprietor of a large jewelry store on Gay street. He was fortunate enough to hold half of ticket Ne. 88,112, the capital prize in the drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery, held at New Orleans on July 12th, winning $15,000. We will remove to our New Store abou the 15th of September. jy 28 tf L. S. L NEXT DRAWING OF THE A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming con-vinced that Mrs. Winslow's Boothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it ad-ministered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Return-ing home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the fa-ther with the child. During her absence he admin-istered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the ba-by, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow swoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wenderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering cry-ing babies and sleepless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to re-lieve the baby and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle Louisiana State Lottery TAKES PLACE SEPT'R 13.
