Only seven States have annual sessome of the Legislature.

And now Conkling and Carnell do not speak. What naughty fellows.

Dr. Hemboli's son Mason has been arrested in New York for obtaining goods on false pretences.

The crop prospects in Ireland are reported to be excellent. This will be good news on both sides of the Atlantic.

President Garfield is credited with saving that he would not agree to Mrs. Garfield's receiving the subscripon that has been raised for her ben-. fit. It now amounts to $155,000.

In the editorial of yesterday on "Obstinate Injustice" there were two grammatical errors for which the writer, who read the proof, was not responsible, as they were noted in the proof. They were "results corresponds, &c., and certain "things marks the course."

We gather that the STAR's idea of what is nice and ours are different. there is no disputing on matters of tast - Raleigh News Observer.

Are we mistaken in the belief that now and then a "nice" little reference to our esteemed contemporary and its saff has appeared in its columns? It so, then indeed is that paper the met modest of papers. We hope th - is in good "taste."

Representative Townsend, of New I rk, was asked what he thought of Mr. Conkling's future. He said in

"Should President Garfield live it will be some years before we hear much from him, but should Vice President Arthur become President, Mr. Conkling will become the controlling power of the government, and will control the next Republican National Convention."

There is some faint hope that the Jeannette, Bennett's exploring vessel, has not been lost. The last winter was one of almost unexampled severity. The thermometer at times recorded fifty-seven degrees below zero. All the whalers were ice-locked. It is hoped the Jeannette will be found by the steamer Proteus, although the prospect is by no means

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press from Washington discusses blood poisoning. Referring to the statement of Dr. Bliss that there is none whatever in the case of the l'resident, he writes :

"He may state the truth in this matter. I am certainly not disputing him, but he does not offer anything beyond his assertion, and I merely state that all the symptoms of the President for the past two weeks have been consonant with the theory that his blood is slightly poisoned by the puss from the wound."

Detective Pinkerton, of New York, 83ys that Thomas A. Marvin, who deceived and deserted Miss Turpin, of Richmond, Va., has had no fewer than ten wives in six years. We quote from the detective:

"His numerous alliances were made solely for the purpose of enabling him to pass bogus checks on banks by having his wife's relatives identify him, and by these nefarious means he has succeeded in defrauding no fewer than ten banks out of large sums of money. He has also appeared in the role of a railroad president, and by that means obtained free passes over a number of roads."

He is known to have obtained over $7,000 in this way.

- Receipts of cotton yesterday - The receipts of rosin yesterday footed up 2,282 barrels. - Rev. J. W. Craig will preach at the Front street M. E. church at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. -The usual open-air Sunday afternoon religious services will be held at Dud ley's Grove at 5 o'clock. - The astronomers say the comet will be at its brightest to-night, when it will have reached its perihelion. - The next excursion by Prof Agostini, on the steamer Passport, takes place on Thursday, the 25th inst.

- The Register of Deeds issued only two marriage licenses during the past week, one to white and one to colored

- Mr. Joseph Denck, who has but recently recovered from a severe attack of typhoid fever in Columbia, South Carolina, is now on a visit to this city.

- A family excursion to Smithville and the forts, on the steamer Passport. under the auspices of the members of St. Thomas' Catholic Church, will take place on Wednesday next, the 24th inst. The boat will leave at 9 A. M.

- A colored brother, who came to the city yesterday to get a coffin for one of his friends, said, in response to an inquiry, that he died of a "very contagious" disease, and, upon further questioning, he stated that the disease was dropsy.

- A certain individual thought he had discovered a lead mine over the river a day or two ago, but found upon further investigation that the accumulation of lead sides a very learned and decidedly was the result of frequent attempts on the part of Wilmington Nimrods to shoot wood cocks in that particular region.

> The Cotton and Rice Crops. The long continued dry weather is proving very destructive to the crops in this immediate section. The cotton on Mr. James Petteway's plantation, which was promising very fine a few weeks ago, now looks as it it may not yield more than one-third of what might reasonably have been expected of it with good seasons. It is thought probable that he will not get over one picking. The same may be said of Mr. W. J. Mott's prospecis, as well as of other planters > in that section. Judge Russell's fine crop in Brunswick, which was promising so well only two or three weeks ago, now looks almost as if a fire had swept through it, and we suppose the same is the case with Dr. Bellamy's, in the same neighborhood. In fact, wherever the drought reaches the same distressing state of affairs exists. Mr. J. F. Garrell, who planted his cotton about a month or five weeks later than the others mentioned, can still boast of a very fine stand, but in some places, where the soil is lighter than in others, his is also turning yellow, and the entire crop will suffer badly if the excessive drought > continues a few days longer. Upland rice is also suffering materially for the want of rain, as a wet August is absolutely essential to its proper development. In most cases, we hear, planters hereabouts will hardly make their seed. In Cape Fear township, in this county, nearly every farmer, white and colored, puts a good portion of his land in rice, and the loss to such will be ry severe.

The lowland rice is, after all, the most certain crop, as neither long-continued drought nor excessive rains can injure it or retard its growth, and those of our planters who have large crops of this important cereal, in the low grounds, can smile serenely while others less fortunate grieve over their blighted prospects.

Alarm of Fire. The alarm of fire yesterday, about 1 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a hole in the roof of the store on the southwest corner of Third and Walnut streets. The flames were extinguished by the neighbors before the engines arrived, and the damage was slight. The fire originated from a spark from the chimney. Husic and Patriotiem. Prof. W. H. Neave, who was commiss sioned to organize a State Band to accompany the North Carolina military to Yorktown, has selected Messrs. S. G. Hall, Tubs, and G. E. Willson, Cornet, from the Cornet Concert Club of this city, to comprise a Magistrate's Court. The four seamen arrested a few days since, on the charge of larceny of clothing belonging to some of their brother seamen, had a hearing before Justice McQuigg, yesterday, and were adjudged not guilty, the prosecutor being required to pay the costs.

Eight fishermen from Masonboro township were arraigned before Justice Millis, on a warrant issued at the instance of Mr. W. C. Fergus, charging them with trespassing upon his property, in fishing in the Sound and hauling their nets in upon his land, after being forbidden to do so. When the cases were called affidavit for removal was made and the application granted, when the cases were heard by another magistrate, who dismissed them at the cost of the prosecutor, the evidence not being sufficient to convict. Harriet Morgan, a colored woman, was arraigned before Justice Millis on the charge of committing an assault and battery upon Rosanna Larkins, also colored. Defendant was discharged and the prosecutor ordered to pay the costs. The same defendant was next arraigned on a peace warrant sworn out by Rosanna Larkins and wasjordered to pay the costs and give bond in the sum of $25 to keep the peace for thirty days.

The Bice Birds. The festive rice bird, true to his instinct and prompt in his movements, made his appearance in the rice fields in this section yesterday, the 20th, which is the usual time for them to take up their positions and enter upon the vigorous campaign before them. In the meantime, their opponents are not idle, one planter telling us yesterday that he had just laid in twenty-seven kegs of gunpowder for their benefit.
