OUTLINES.

President Garfield's removal to Long Branch was successfully accomplished; ex traordinary precautions were taken to prevent accident, and nothing occurred to disturb the patient on his journey; the excitement, however, resulted in a higher temperature and incressed pulse at the evening examination; Dr. Hamilton thinks the removal will soon prove beneficial. - Squirrels are devastating cotton fields in White county, Ark. - Serious anti-Lewish riots occurred in Pomerania Sunday. - The French will not assume offetis ve operations in Tunis until October: . Lindon di-patch says that M. Roustan informs his government that the Bey is supporting the rebels under orders from Turkey; he urges the occupation of Tunis and the deposition of the Bey. - New York markets: Money 4@6 per cent. and } commission; cotton steady at 124@124 cts; southern flour dull and unchanged at $6 25 @8 50; wheat, ungraded red $1 37@1 421; corn 1@14: lower, ungraded 64@684c cts; spirits turpentine quiet and firm at 521@53 . . rosin firmer at $2 20@2 254.

Representative Dezendorf, of the Norfolk (Va.) District, says he is a straightout Republican and can not vote for Daniel, but that he will be elected and the Democrate will carry the Legislature. Good.

A good joke. Richmond is suflong from a water famine. The Water Works render accounts all the rame. This beats some gas compames that charge when the occupants of the houses are out of town.

Ayoob Khan has declared a holy war against the English. He wants however, to make peace with the Ameer. The Afghans are about as troublesome to the English as the Indians are to the United States.

Suggestion to the Raleigh Evening Visitor: Use more headings to your local news. Don't put so many paragraphs under the head of "City Visits." If this suggestion is adopted the Visitor will be more generally read. It is an excellent local paper

Peter Delmonico was the first of the name to have a restaurant in New York. There was another brother and a nephew in the business. In 1833 Lorenzo, who has just died, became a clerk under them. In 1842 he became a partner of his uncle Peter, and six years later bought him cut. It was Lorenzo who gave the restaurant a world-wide fame.

The New York Sun goes for the finding of the coroner's jury in the Cramer case, and says it rendered "a senseless verdict." It says:

"There certainly appears to be strong ground for suspicion that James Malley, Jr., possesses more knowledge of Miss Cramer's death than he has yet disclosed; but we have seen no evidence that he had any hand in it, or any reason to wish her death.'

There is another prominent Repub. lican who can not see the wisdom or honesty of tusing with factions whose principles he opposes just to gain a victory over the Democrats. We refer to Judge R. J. Alcorn, of Mississippi. Like Gen. Wickham, he will not form a disreputable alliance. In the next election he will support the Democratic candidate for Governor, Gen. Lowry.

Some of the Northern papers take the position that Jennie Cramer took her own life by poison. They do not credit the theory that James Malley destroyed her. They say he had no motive. Jennie had been reared badly, and she was pretty, vain, foolish and fond of attention from the men. But why should she take her own life? A girl of her sort would hardly destroy herself. So a motive is lacking. There is no proof to show that James Malley murdered

- Washington Press: It is said that Pamlico county will raise about 75,000 bushels of rice this year. The cotton and corn is also better than at any time since the war, and they have sweet potatoes 'till you can't repose-that is if you cat too many at supper.

- Greenville Express: Saturday night, about 9 o'clock, Capt. J. T. Williams walked into Manning's barroom and struck Bob Johnson, colored, twice on the head with a hickory stick, causing concussion of the brain. Several weeks ago Capt. W. and the negro had a difficulty and the boy struck him with a brick.

- Shelby Aurora: We are informed that the guano companies have notified their agents in this place that they will expect them to settle promptly whether the farmers pay up or not. This being the case there is no chance for the farmer but to be pressed or make the men, from whom he bought his fertilizers, secure for another

It is the extension of the Buckhorn ore, and probably reaches across the State. The strike of the outcrop points in the direction of the great Pee Dee River.

- Elizabeth City Economist: The body of the lamented Frank G. Hines, of Edenton, was found on the beach, Wednesday morning, one mile and a half below the place where he was drowned Monday morning. The general impression is that he was struck by a shark while bathing in the surf. His body was taken to Edenton Thursday night for burial. - Washington item: The cool nights cause the cotton to shed its leaves and turn yellow. Highland rice is thought to be somewhat injured by the dry weather, but that on low land looks splendid. — Bertie dot: Crops in this section are good. Cotton very, and our people generally healthy.

- Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: Col. W. L. Saunders and Justices Ashe and Ruffin of the Supreme Court will occupy rooms in the Agricultural Building, or National Hotel. The wing, devoted to Prof. Kerr's Geological. Entomological, Agricultural, etc., Museum is nearly ready for occupancy. Commissioner McGehee's office was removed to the first floor, corner room, as soon as the property was pur-chased. — Ten dollars reward for information sufficient to convict the thief who stole a letter mailed to the Farmer & Me-chanic, by Mr. R. - The Goldsboro Messenger reports the proceedings of a meeting held in that place composed of merchants and business men. Mr. Best, of the Midland N. C. Railway, in a speech, said; "He intended to give the State a North Carolina policy of railroads, a grand trunk line that would have for its object the building up of North Carolina seaports, and afford the greatest protection to the State and people. He mean to carry out the conditions of his lease of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, and to complete the road to Salisbury. Referring to the freight policy of the Midland line, he said that he would be guided by business principles-did not propose to go into cutting of rates, but would give every guarantee that freights over his line should be promptly forwarded, and all damage or loss should be promptly made good.

- Statesville Landmark: Persons from this place who attended the campmeeting at Ball's Creek camp-ground, Catawba county, returned with the story of a tragedy which was enacted there last Saturday night, Pinkney Abernethy losing his life at the hands of Joseph Blalock. Both men were under the influence of liquor. Abernethy applied to Blalock to hire his mule to run after more liquor, and Blalock agreed to let him have it for a stipulated price, and then withdrew his consent, fearing that the animal would be ridden too hard. The refusal of the mule angered Abernethy, and a quarrel ensued. A fight followed, and Abernethy had struck Blalock two or more blows when the latter drew a knife and rushed upon his antagonist, stabbing him in the left breast. The wounded man ran a short distance when he fell to the earth. He was carried to the tent of a person who was camping on the grounds, where he lingered five hours, when death occurred. The knife blade is said to have entered the heart.

Unjust Discrimination Against Out

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday to take into consideration the recent action of the Board of Underwriters, at their meeting in New York, on the 26th of August, to adopt new rates of insurance for Southern cities, in which it is claimed that there is an unjust discrimination against this city, as compared with Savannah, Charleston, Norfolk, and other Southern ports. A committee; consisting of A. H. VanBokkelen, Esq., President of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. R. E. Calder, President of the Produce Exchange; Cart. D. R. Murchison, Col. Roger Moore, and Messrs. James Sprunt, R. E. Heide and E. Peschau, was appointed to confer with the Board of Underwriters and secure, if possible, the removal of this unjust and uncalled-for discrimination against our port. The committee will meet at the Produce Exchange to-day at 12 M. Unmailable Matter.

The following is the unmailable matter remaining in the city postoffice up to this date : E. J. Carter, Farmers' Turnout, Brunswick county, N. C.

THE PRESIDENT.

PRAYERS FOR HIS RECOVERY IN THE VARIOUS CHURCHES YESTERDAY-PRAYERS ON THE STEAMER PASS-PORT, &C.

Services were held in nearly all the churches of the city, yesterday, in response to the proclamations of Governor Jarvis and Mayor Smith, and the attendance was colony of German Immigrants in western fair. In the churches where no services were held the omission was owing to the absence of the pastors, or from some other cause rather than an intentional disregard of the recommendation alluded to. During the interval from 10 to 12 o'clock, designated as the hours in which the services and prayers in the President's behalf were to be held, business was almost altogether suspended, many of the stores and other business houses, including bar rooms, being closed, and the streets putting on very much the resemblance of Sunday.

And while prayers were ascending to heaven from all over this broad Union in his behalf, the stricken President was being borne, with all the care and solicitude possible to human sagacity, foresight and skill from the malarial impregnated surroundings, amid which he has suffered and languished so long, to the cool and pleasant shades of Long Branch, where it is hoped that, fanned by the inspiring and healthgiving breezes of "Old Ocean," he may soon be restored to his friends and country in all the vigor and strength which characterized him ere the hand of the assassin had attempted his life.

In this connection we would state that the congregation of the Chesnut Street (colored) Presbyterian church, of which Rev. D. J. Sanders is pastor, having arranged to go on an excursion down the river, in lieu of a service of prayer for the recovery of the President in their church, held such a service on board of the steamer Passport immediately after leaving the "Rocks" on their way down.

A Grand Aggregation of Talent.

"Four splendid hall shows in one" is an announcement that will be hailed with enthusiasm by amusement goers, and Anthony, Ellis & Hathaway's Majestic Consolidated Aggregation, which has created so decided a furore, will receive a hearty welcome here. Lovers of pantomime will be delighted to know that Ravel's newly hatched "Humpty Dumpty" troupe, with the great Grimaldi as clown, constitutes a leading feature, and this company is the most complete pantomime troupe in this country. Every one will be eager to see the beautiful Sadwah, a veritable East Indian princess and fire worshipper, who has but recently arrived in this country from the Orient. Her songs and specialties once heard and seen are never to be forgotten-The musical attractions of the consolidation are superb, and the specialty artists are well known favorites. Don't fail to enjoy this unique entertainment, which appears at the Opera House to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening.

Give Them Tobacco. It may be to some extent detrimental to health-in some instances we know it to be so-to use tobacco, especially to an excess, but it nevertheless seems hard to shut down on the habit in the case of a dependent fellow-creature who has been used to it all his life. Superintendent Savage has, we understand, been furnishing the parishioners at the County Poor House with tobacco at his own expense, until recently, when, on account of the rise in the price of the necessaries of life, he was compelled, in justice to himself, to cease this gratuity, not specified in the contract. As the expense of furnishing the sged and indigent beneficiaries of the institution with the little consolation to be drawn from the "weed" would be very slight-probably less than three dollars per month-it is to be hoped that our "County Fathers" will consent to make an allowance for this

Magistrates' Courts.

Charles Bowden, alias Charles Herring, a colored man apparently about 35 or 40 years old, was before Justice Gardner yesterday morning, charged with an assault with intent to commit a nameless crime upon a little colored girl, only about five or six years of age, named Mary Pollock. Several respectable colored people were witnesses in the case and the evidence seemed to be of a very damaging character. He was ordered to give a justified bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

M. Bellamy, Esq, appeared for the de-l'heobe Johnson, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millis on a peace warrant sworn out by Annie Wade, also colored, and defendant was required to pay the costs and give bond in the sum of $25 to keep the peace for sixty days.

FORTUNE'S FAVORS TO AN IRISH LAD.—
The wheel of fortune turned most favorably for a poor Irish lad, James O'Gorman, who came to Philadelphia two years ago in search of a fortune. He ladelphia two years ago in search of a fortune. He had seen the advertisement of The Louisiana State Lottery in the newspapers, and the thought occurred to him that he had better give it a trial. Accordingly, on the 5th of July, he sent one dollar to M. A. Dauphin, No. 212 Broadway, New York city, for the drawing of the 12th instant. In a few days he received the ticket No. 23,547. He received a telegram at No. 36 N. Delaware avenue, where he is a barkeeper, that the ticket had drawn $5,000. and, as he held half of it, that he was entitled to $2,500. Such a pile of meney was indeed a fortune to him. He obtained it this week.—Philadelphia Mercury, July 24.
