It is said he is to report to the members of the Richmond Danville syndicate, now in this city, on the advisability of making a bid for the Chester & Lenoir Narrow Gauge. Col. A. S. Buford, Gen. T. M. Logan, and Col. G. J. Foreacre and President Hood, of the Knoxville & Clayton Railroad, were in Charlottel yesterday in consultation, it is understood, in regard to the consolidation and completion of the three lines of railroad between Augusta, Ga., and Knoxville, Tenn. The one completed between the first named city and Athens, and the two latter leading through Rabun Gap, down the Tennessee river to Knoxville. -Neither the fast mail nor the express due here at twelve night before last arrived They reached here in two sections yesterday afternoon at about 3 o'clock. The oc casion of the detention was in the first place a collision at Granite, a station four miles this side of Belle Isle, and in the second place the obstruction of a run off freight train between Burkeville and Danville. The latter is a rumor and the railroad men won't give up facts, so it goes for what it is worth. But the collision was a collision to the extent of a dead engineer and several slightly bruised. The smoke and steam obscured everything about the engines, but in a moment engineer Mosely dropped from the telescoped tender with his leg cut off and hanging to the stump by a piece of his pants. He died that night. Engineer Mosely was a Richmond man and ran only to Greensboro.

lieged Pension Fraud. W. C. Mooney, an old citizen of Shallotte, Brunswick county, was arrested Tuesday by Deputy U.S. Marshal Klein, charged with an attempt to obtain money by making a fraudulent application for a pension for alleged service as a soldier in the war of 1812. The case came up before U. S. Commissioner McQuigg, yesterday, but, pending the examination, the case was .continned until this morning, at 10 o'clock, to John D. Sprunt, formerly of this city, says the M. P.'s he heard speak did not compare favorably with leading members of onr Legislature in oratory or otherwise.

Assault with a Deadly Weapon.

Dick Fennell, colored, employed at the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad depot, had a difficulty with one Alex. Johnson, colored, vesterday, during which he made a furious assault upon him with an axe, but fortunately inflicted no injury. Johnson soon afterwards had a warrant issued, which was placed in the hands of Officer C. H. Strode, who went to the depot to arrest the offender, but as soon as Fennell saw him coming, imagining the purport of his errand, "he took to his heels." The officer pursued the fugitive "over the hills and far away," until he finally got up with him under Boney Bridge, when he was captured and taken to Justice Gardner's office. Here preliminary examination was had, and the defendant was ordered to give a bond of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

The Recent Probable Fatal Affray in Pender.

J. Hiram Armstrong, colored, had a hearng before Justice Grattan Williams, in Pender county, on Tuesday, on the charge of committing an assault and battery with a deadly weapon with intent to kill Donas Larkins, colored, about eight or ten days ago; the injuries of the said Larkins having been previously examined by Dr. S. S Satchwell, a practicing physician of Pender county, and pronounced dangerous. Defendant was ordered to be imprisoned in the county jail, without benefit of security, to await further developments in regard to the condition of Larkins, and if the latter should hereafter improve and give promise of ultimate recovery, then Armstrong is to be released on giving a justified bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court for Pender county. Armstrong has been sent to our county jail for confinement.

If we are to have a cattle ordinance, and it is to be enforced at all, why not treat all persons alike ? As it now stands citizens residing east of Seventh street, north of Red Cross street and south of Castle street, have no protection. Why they should be exempt from the benefits of the ordinance (if benefits they are) it would be difficult to conceive. Their flower gardens are as much prized, their sleep as easily disturbed by the tingling bells, and their cabbage and vegetables generally entitled to as much regard as those of the more favored ones inside the limits around which our "City Fathers" have thrown the mantle of their protection. "Tote fair." the interested ones say, is a trite aphorism, as applicable to municipal Campbell, also colored. Judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

The same defendant was then arraigned on a peace warrant, sworn out by Belle Campbell, and was ordered to pay the costs and give bond in the sum of $25 to keep the peace for sixty days. Sol. Gause was before Justice Gardner vesterday, for slander and assault and on a ceace warrant. In the case of slander he was ordered to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at court; in the case of assault judgment was suspended on the payment of costs, and in the matter of the peace warrant he was ordered to pay the costs and give bond and security in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for sixty days, and failing to comply with which conditions he was lodged in jail.
