

THE MORNING STAR.

Table with advertising rates: Single copy 10 cents, 10 copies 1 dollar, 100 copies 10 dollars, etc.

The new President is full six feet high, broad-shouldered with mutton-chop whiskers. He married a Virginia lady, and we may hope that he is not unfriendly to the South.

Shortly after his admission to the bar he was married to a daughter of Lieut. Wm. Lewis Herndon, the heroic commander of the steamship Central America, which was lost with about four hundred lives in 1857.

Some of the Northern papers think President Arthur should call an extra session of the Senate at once to elect a President thereof.

"He may deem it necessary to convene Congress, but the earliest reassembling of the Senate is a supreme necessity, to enable that body to elect a President. This is a period in the history of the nation when patriotism and duty are paramount to all party interests."

It is a matter of taste. The Philadelphia Ledger, Independent Republican, the Philadelphia North American, the oldest Republican paper in the country, the Baltimore American, an able Republican paper, published forty miles from the Capital, have no black lines to express sympathy and sorrow for the death of the President.

About twenty years ago the murdered President wrote a poem on memory. We give the concluding lines that in the light of the tragic end seem prophetic:

I see the shadow of my former self Gliding from childhood up to man's estate. The path of youth winds down through many a vale. And on the brink of many a dreary abyss, From out whose darkness comes no ray of light.

Raleigh held a public meeting concerning the death of the President. Gov. Jarvis presided. Speeches were made by the Governor, Col. T. C. Fuller, Capt. I. J. Young, R. H. Battle, C. L. Harris, Rev. Dr. Skinner, Gov. Holden, Judge Merrimon, James H. Harris, colored, W. R. Henry and James A. Doyle. Resolutions of sympathy, &c., were adopted.

A special to the Charleston News and Courier from Richmond, Va., dated the 20th inst., says the duel was fought four miles from Warrenton, in that State. Lewis fired and missed, and Wise then fired in the air. The duellists were expected to return to Richmond at once.

Spirits Turpentine. Mr. W. R. Barker, of Salisbury, was shot in the hand in attempting to wrest a pistol from the hands of a drunken rough named John Johnston.

New Bern News: Mr. J. J. Kinsey, we learn, will go to Wilmington to-day to erect the life-saving station below that city, under the contract of Mr. Stimson.

Gastonia Gazette: Bob Hunter, a negro employed by Mr. J. W. Robinson, section master at Garibaldi, committed an outrage on a little negro girl only nine years old, last week, near Garibaldi. He has fled.

Lenoir Topic: A heavy rain fell in portions of this county last Sunday. A worm, known in this section as the "army worm," has made its appearance in various portions of Wilkes, Alexander, Burke and Caldwell counties. It differs from the army worm of the West, yet it is very destructive to the grass and fodder fields.

Salisbury Watchman: Mr. Chas. Sides, of this vicinity, was thrown from a mule, Thursday morning last, and seriously hurt. He fell on his head, and the damage sustained was mainly in the back of the neck.

Hillsboro Observer: We have had several showers of rain since our last issue. A tobacco barn belonging to Jas. Roberts, Jr., in Little River Township, was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning before day. Loss about $200.

Weldon News: We learn that the freight train on the Wilmington and Raleigh Road, near Dudley Station. It seems that the freight was going on the side track, and, when half-way on, the mail came along at the forty miles an hour, and before the air-brakes could stop the train, the engine struck a freight car and telegraphed it. The engine was badly damaged, and five freight cars were broken up. The freight engine brought the passengers on. None of the passengers were injured.

Mt. Airy Post: A few days ago Thos. Smith had a very narrow escape from being killed by a wild bear. He had been to the woods searching for cattle, and on coming out found himself face to face with a huge bear. The animal, instead of fleeing, turned upon Mr. Smith, and was soon hugging him for all he was worth. Being unarmed, with great presence of mind Mr. Smith feigned death and dropped, dragging the animal with him. The bear probably reasoned that his victim was now safe, and he might go for his mate and have company at the feast.

Proposed Public Meeting. We learn from Mayor Smith that it is his intention to call a public meeting of citizens, to assemble at the Opera House on Monday next, the day on which the remains of the late President Garfield will be interred, to give expression to the sentiments of this entire community, without regard to political or other distinctions, at the great loss the country has sustained in the death of our President at the hands of a villainous assassin; and that he will also recommend a general suspension of business during the hours devoted to the obsequies.

Agricultural Fairs. We acknowledge, with the compliments of L. M. Long, Secretary, the reception of a complimentary ticket to the twelfth annual exhibition of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, at Weldon, N. C., October 31st, and November 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th, 1881.

Magistrate's Court. Belle Hall, colored, had a hearing before Justice Hall, yesterday, charged with committing assault and battery upon Polly Kornegay, also colored. Defendant found guilty and required to pay one penny and the costs.

Commissioner McQuigg on Tuesday, had a further hearing yesterday, but the testimony not being all in, was again continued until this morning, at 10 o'clock.

SEVEN AND MARINE. The steamer D. Murckison, which arrived late last evening, after a somewhat prolonged absence, reports about 24 or 25 inches of water on the shoals and the river still falling.

Messrs. Cornelius Smith and Walker Newton, two Bald Head pilots, left on the 9th of September for Boston, for the purpose of purchasing a new pilot boat, and considerable apprehension has very naturally been felt relative to their safety. Capt. Doane, of the steamship Regulator, which arrived here yesterday, states that the two pilots were in New York on Saturday last with their new pilot boat, and desired to be reported. The boat, we understand, is a very fine one, costing nearly $5,000. The friends of the parties will be glad to hear that they are safe.

BRAIN AND NERVE.—Wells' Health Renewer, greatest remedy on earth for impotence, leanness, sexual debility, &c. $1 at druggists. Depot, J. C. Munds, Wilmington.

CITY ITEMS. THE MORNING STAR can always be had at the following places in the city: The Purcell House, Harris' News Stand, and the Star Office.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.—Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the "Boston Christian Freeman"—"We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing in every case of infant colic, and during the process of teething it is invaluable. We have in an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub wakes as bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have an ever-ready supply on hand, and will be without it from the birth of the child till it has dined with the teething stage, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists, 25 cents a bottle.
