- New Berne held a meeting indorsing heartily the W. J. Best railroad

- Greensboro State: On Tuesday morning last, before day, a colored man, named Peter Reynolds, residing some four or five miles north of Greensboro, fell out of the door of his house and broke his jaw. The man was so much injured by the fall he died the same night. He was a sober and industrious man.

- Warrenton Gazette: Mrs. Jack Thomas, of Franklin county, was buried at Mr. Samuel Dowtin's on Sunday last. - Dr. Fleming, of Raleigh, was in town this week. We understand he is negotiating for the purchase of Col. Davis's mill. with a view to building a cotton factory.

- Beautort Telephone: Capt. John L. Goodwin reports that a man was found at Great Hammock, in Pamlico county, about the 5th inst., supposed to be drowned He was much decomposed, having been dead some time and was buried by the parties who discovered him near the place

- Mt. Airy Post: The dwelling of Joel Snider, on the Winston road just below Coe's was destroyed by fire on Thursday night. We learn that the house caught from a furnace, at which the family had been making syrup the day before. In addition to his buildings he lost quite a quantity of wheat, rye, bacon, &c.

Wake Forest College has 130 students. —Our readers will please note that we have secured the services of Bro. Farriss as general agent and correspondent of the Recorder. Bro. Farriss is a native of this State, a graduate of Wake Forest College, and for a while a student at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

- Wilson Advance: We are gratified to learn that the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad authorities have altered the Wilson freight rates, so that they are now the same as the Goldsboro rates. Wilson is now put on the same footing as Goldsboro, for which we are indebted to Hon. R. R. Bridgers, President of the road, Capt. J. F. Divine, general superintendent, and Mr. Sol Haas, general freight agent. Our merchants and other shippers are under many obligations to these excellent officers, which they fully appreciate, for securing such a beneficial arrangement

- Toisnot Home: It seems to be almost a settled fact that the Rocky Mount & Raleigh Railroad is to be built. We understand they propose making it an air line from Turboro to Raleigh. In that event it will cross the Wilmington & Weldon road about three miles north of this place, or near Sharpsburg. —Mr. Norris B. Jones, mail agent on the W. & W. R. He received a very severe injury to his knee, and it was thought to be out of place.

- Reidville Times: Kit Holland's sons, Walters and Willard, sold some tobacco last week that they had bought and put away since December, to a Richmond and Petersburg firm for a profit of eight thousand dollars. Pretty good lick for them-four thousand apiece. I hear that W. T. Blackwell, of Durham, has bought out every leaf dealer of his stock in that lown, just went around and offered each one so much for what he had, and the price suited them. When last heard he had bought to about one hundred and sixtyeight thousand dollars and was still buying. They say he will have over three million pounds. occurred at a bridge over Swift Creek, south of the city. An engine, to which were attached four mules, was moving across the bridge, which is about 100 feet in length, when it gave way and the engine, mules and men were all let down in a confused heap.

One of the mules, in struggling, kicked a negro on the head, fracturing his skull, it is said. The mules were not injured, but the engine was badly damaged. — Greens-boro item: Acting Coroner J. W. Albright held a very interesting inquest trial on yes-terday over the body of Lieut. T. L. Faucett, formerly of Orange county. The facts elicited were these: Faucett was working at the Danamore Iron Works, in Rockingham county, and on Tuesday last, just about sunset, had a quarrel with Wm. Rowe, an Englishman, who is "boss" at the works.

Faucett received a severe cut on the hand

DARING ROBBERY.

Capture of the Alleged Thieves, Who are Held for Their Appearance at

On Sunday morning, about 2 o'clock, Officer Marsh Walker, of the police force, came upon two men with a horse and cart, the latter containing a barrel of pork, on Water street, at the mouth of the alley in the rear of the Seamen's Home. The officer asked what they were doing with the horse and cart on the street at that hour in the morning, and one of the men, ascertained afterwards to be one Richard Reed-the other in the meantime having hurriedly departed-stated that he had been sent by a colored man named Campbell to get the horse and cart, with the barrel of pork, and take them to Mr. John Oldenbuttel's store, on Market street. Officer Walker rejoined that there must be something wrong about that, as he had noticed the horse and cart about two hours before that and there was no barrel in the cart then. In fact, the officer states that the parties were in the act of placing the tail-board of the cart in position when he came upon them. The policeman arrested Reed and took him, together with the vehicle and its contents, to the station house, and in the meantime Sergeant Robt. Green and Officer Williams arrested his companion, Sandy Stewart, about half-past 2 o'clock, at an eating house on Nutt street, when he was also locked up. John Campbell alias John Stokley, who lives in the country, went to the City Hall Sunday morning early, searching for his horse and cart, when he was likewise locked up. Officer Walker and others traced the barrel by the track it made in the sand to the back door of Messrs. Adrian & Vollers' warehouse, in the alley alluded to, which fronts on Dock street, when it was found that the door was open. Word was then sent to Mr. Adrian, the senior of the firm, and he went to the warehouse, where he found undoubted evidence that the barrel of pork had been taken therefrom, it being the impression that a confederate of the thieves had been preceding evening. The case came up before Mayor Smith yesterday morning, when, after hearing the evidence, that of the defendants being very conflicting, Richard Reed and Sandy Stewart were ordered to give bond in the sum of $200 each, and John Campbell alias John Stokley in the sum of $100, for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, which meets in this city on Monday next, in default of which they were lodged

She was be-Yesterday afternoon, shortly before 3 o'clock, after about the tenth or twelfth gun had been discharged in the salute which was being fired in respect to the memory of President Garfield, nearly opposite the Custom House, a premature discharge of one of the pieces took place, resulting in a terrible accident to Private John Sneeden. who at the time was engaged in ramming the cartridge. His left hand was blown entirely from his wrist, leaving only the thumb dangling by a small portion of the skin, which had to be cut off, and shattering his right hand fearfully. He fell off the wharf upon a flat which was lying immediately was broken down by a heavy steam engine which was crossing it. This accident, ra-ther strange in its character, occurred about under the mouth of the cannon, from which he was removed to an improptu stretcher and taken to his residence on Third, between Nun and Church streets, the flow of blood having been previously stopped by Lieut. Maffitt, who had had experience in such matters during his connection with the Confederate navy. Subsequently the left arm of the sufferer was amputated just below the elbow, and a portion of the right hand, including thumb and forefinger, leaving three fingers, which, however, may also have to come off. His face is also badly burned, but it is hoped that his sight is not injured to any great extent. Mr. Sneeden, who is a young man, employed in the establishment of Messrs. F. M. is unsuited to the solemn feeling of awe and grief inspired by this heartrending event, it is fit that we express our abhor-rence and detestation of the dastardly crime from which it has resulted. Liberty and social happiness can only be preserved through the ministrations of law and the maintenance of order and he is a public enemy who practices violent resorts for the redress of real or supposed grievances,

Col. McRae closed the reading of the resolutions with a few remarks appropriate to the occasion, after which they were unanimously adopted.

They treated the matter from a religious standpoint and spoke very feelingly of the Christian fortitude displayed by the President during the fearful ordeal of suffering through which he was called upon to pass, the noble traits of character displayed by his devoted wife at the bedside of her wounded and dying husband, and of the shock to the aged mother when it was made known to her that her beloved son had passed through the dark valley. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes the "Boston Christian Freeman": We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can spareciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had fluished with the teething slege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. All cents a bottle.
