OUTLINES.

The Liverpool cotton corner ended quietly: the short-time movement of the cotton spinners has fallen through. Destructive storms in Kansas, Wisconsin and Nebraska; several persons killed and many wounded; the loss of property is very great a repetition of the disastrous spring floods is feared. - The first, second and third districts. New York, have elected Stalwart delegates to the State Convention. - The debt statement shows a decrease of $17,483. 641.66. — The Iron Mountain train robbers, arrested in Arkansas, have been identified and bound over for trial, - New Orleans Democrat's cotton crop reports show favorable and fine weather in Alabama, Arkansas Florida, Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi; the yield in all these States will be considerably less than last year: from one-half to nine-tenths of the crop has been gathered. - Extensive linseed oil works at Greenwich Point, on the Delaware river, burned; loss over $125,000. -Rear Admiral Fairfax has been placed on the retired list. - The profits of the chief of the cotton corner, at Liverpool, are
