OUTLINES.

Three of the Iron Mountain train robbers have been sentenced to the Arkansas penitentiary for seventy years each. A verdict for $12,000 damages was awarded Henry Clews, the banker, for malicious prosecution at Buffalo, N. Y.

A committee of Democratic and Republican Senators, consisting of five from each party, met to consult as to the organization of the Senate. It required but fifteen minutes for them to find out that no compromise could be effected.

President Arthur kicks the beam at 215 pounds. Louisville had the largest, not "lightest," trade in September.

The eloquent Senator Vest votes a level head. He says it is the duty of the Democrats to organize the Senate if it takes all winter.

Gen. Henry D. Slocum has been nominated for Mayor of Brooklyn, N. Y., by the Jeffersonian Democracy and the People's party.

Secretary Blaine has been impudently written a life of President Garfield, but the book firm wants it ready in six months.

Guiteau's confession is the one thing that was needed to fix guilt upon him and insure his hanging. He perpetrated the crime of his own motion, and he planned it with a deliberation and care and executed it with a precision and foresight that make him a most conspicuous criminal.

The good people of Fayetteville have our sympathy in the pecuniary difficulties by which they are environed. We copy elsewhere an account of the matter.

The notorious "Boss" Shepherd is about putting in his appearance at Washington. He has been living lately in Mexico. Under Garfield he expected but little favors.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Star is one of the most readable papers in the South, and is a bright newspaper. It has an eccentric way of calling the Press in turn a "virulent bloody-shirt shaker" or a "liberal and able paper" which is amusing.

Thanks. If the Star ever accused our able contemporary of liberality it was a slip of the pencil—a false accusation. The Press is not only able but it is one of the best newspapers in the country.

THE MORNING STAR.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1881.

WHOLE NO. 4953

North Carolina has lost two journalists during the last week. Mr. Seth M. Carpenter, of the New Bernian, died in his 51st year.

A committee of Democratic and Republican Senators, consisting of five from each party, met to consult as to the organization of the Senate.

Halstead, editor of the Cincinnati Commercial, says he speaks by the authority of the President, that Andrew D. White, President of Cornell University and ex-Minister to Germany, will succeed Secretary Blaine in the State Department.

Nelson W. Aldrich, the new Rhode Island Senator, is comparatively young, has good abilities, and is a member of the U. S. House.

"Live, Newy and Aply Conducted." Fayetteville Examiner.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Wilmington Star, comes to us in a new dress. September 23d marks the beginning of the fifteenth year of its existence.

"The Best Daily in the State." Hillsboro Observer. The Wilmington Star comes to us in a new dress on the anniversary of the fourteenth year of its existence.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. AWAKE! L. VOLLEERS—For rent. BEN WHITE—To be hung.

THE CITY. REMOVAL—Harris news stand. BROWN & RODDICK—Removal. D. A. SMITH & Co.—Furniture.

Major's Court. The only case before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning was that of Calhoun Williams, an apparently demoralized individual, who says he came here from Florence, S. C., and who was arrested on Friday afternoon for acting disorderly at a store on Market street.

No head-ache or back-ache for ladies who drink "WINE OF CARDUI." For sale by J. C. MUNDY.

Local Notes. Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity. The Lotus Club meets Friday night.

Day's length 11 hours and 29 minutes. Judge Groves was in the city yesterday. Peach trees are in bloom at Wrightsville Sound.

The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday footed up 1,010 bales. Eggs are still scarce and high, and are selling at from 25 to 30 cents per dozen.

Messrs. Worth & Worth are having a large naval stores shed built on their wharf. Mr. DeLancy Evans, who was represented to be quite sick at Newbern a few days ago, has arrived home in improved health.

There will be services in the Second Presbyterian church to-day, at 11 A. M. and 7.30 P. M., conducted by Rev. Stedman Black. The Register of Deeds issued five marriage licenses during the past week, of which three were for white and two for colored couples.

Mayor Smith received a letter yesterday requesting that the police keep a lookout for a party who "eloped" from a certain place with a "gold ring." The furnaces at the City Hall, for heating the building, have just undergone a thorough overhauling and by Monday afternoon will be in first rate order.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Gross, of Savannah, is here on a visit to his brother, Rev. Father Gross, and will preach at St. Thomas' Catholic church to-day, morning and evening.

The Grand Jury of the Criminal Court was discharged yesterday, and we are assured that it was in every respect the best Grand Jury that has served since the establishment of the court.

Mr. Oscar G. Thompson, who is just from a visit to his wife's relations in Pamlico county, said he saw a rattlesnake that was killed near Stoneville, a few days ago, that was seven feet long, measured thirteen and a half inches in circumference, and had nineteen rattles and a button. Pender had better look out for her laurels!

Death of Gen. J. C. Abbott. Gen. Joseph C. Abbott died at the residence of Rev. Thomas M. Ambler, rector of St. Paul's church, in this city, yesterday at about 12.30 o'clock, after somewhat protracted illness. Deceased was born in Concord, New Hampshire, about 1826. He was for a long time editor of a paper at Manchester, New Hampshire, and was at one time connected with the press in Boston. Prior to the war he was Adjutant General of his native State.
