OUTLINES.

The Republicans carry the State elections in Iowa and Ohio; a light vote polled in both States; the Temperance vote in Ohio was small; the Greenbackers seem to have held their own in Iowa. - Legislature of Minnesota convened in extra session. __ The Tammany and Irving Hall delecations were excluded from the New York State Democratic Convention; Hon. Erastus Brooks was made permanent President. __ The Senate considered the question of the continuance of the standing committees as constituted at the last session, but adjourned for the day without further action. __ Dr. Holland, the author, died suddenly in New York. - The Indian excitement in Arizona is dying out. - About forty Jewish refugees from Russia arrived in Cinciunati yesterday. - Several counterfeiters have been arrested in Philadelphia and at Guthrie, Ky., by agents of the Secret Service. - Ex-Gov. Moses held in $1,000 bail for obtaining money on false pretences, in New York. - Henry B. White, Secretary of the Shoe and Leather Insurance Co., of Boston, is a defaulter for $15,000 and has absconded. - Baltimore & Ohio Railroad declares a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent., after carrying $1,400,000 to the surplus fund. - Thirteen fatal cases of cholera at Mecca for the last half month of September. - A $20,-000 fire at Congers, Ga., yesterday. -The State Fair at Raleigh opened auspiciously; Gov. Jarvis delivered an address; there was a reunion of ex-Confederates. - Republican Senatorial caucus determined to select David Davis as candidate to displace Bayard as President pro tem. -New York markets: Money 4a6 per cent.; cotton steady at 11 9-16@11 13-16c; southern flour dull and weak at $6 60@7 75; wheat irregular and unsettled and opened 4@2c lower, but afterwards recovered from Paul H. Havne's Ode at the opening of the Atlanta Exposition is said to have been very fine. It has not been published yet.

The Hoey-Hardie Combination played to a fine house at Savannah and the News has only most appreciative words for the company.

The Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic reminds its readers that the introduction of mule-power into the South was the work of the Marquis de La Fayette. Fact!

Two hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars have been invested for Mrs. Garfield in United States four per cent. bonds. These will yield her $11,000.

It costs something to have a seat in the New York Cotton Exchange. Three or four days ago $5,800 was hid for seats. At the Produce Exchange $2,390 was bid for a seat.

"The outrage has been consummated" groan the organs; and all because the Democrats acted upon the principle that majorities govern even in the U. S. Senate. The organs call it "usurpation." Funny! Yea, Cheeky!

The vote of Senator David Davis on the Senate Presidential question gives much satisfaction to the Stalwarts. They have discovered that he is on the right side of the fence for once in his life. They think the same thing of Mahone and his Repudiation

Ohio elected on Tuesday a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Supreme Court Judge, Attorney General, Treasurer and Superintendent of Public Works. Iowa elected the same day a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Supreme Judge and Superintendant of Public Instruction.

The Tammany delegation were excluded from the New York State Convention, so they left for home. Another split and there was no Arthur to heal the sores and close up the breach. What extreme folly. They call that sort of thing politics. Bah!

Ohio has gone Republican again. This will be as much a surprise to Republicans as Democrats, as the result was regarded as very doubtful just before the election. Iowa is still wedded to its idol. It goes Republican largely.

- Beaufort Telephone: From a conversation with Mr. Thomas, of the Signal Service Bureau, stationed at Fort Macon, we learn that a tariff has been established by the government, and that private business can now be sent over the coast line of telegraph, which has formed a connection with the Western Union.

- Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: Commissioner McGehee writes to A. J. Hester, Esq., of Person, that last year's tobacco can be sent to Atlanta, and exhibits may be sent any time up to January 1st. We had supposed all would be required to be present at the opening. Mr. C. S. Winstead, of Person, has offered a $25 prize for the best singing, at the county Sunday School Convention

- Asheville Citizen: Geo. Snider, white, an escaped penitentiary convict from North Carolina, was arrested in Greenville, S. C., on Sunday last The crime of which he was convicted in North Carolina was horse-stealing. — The many friends of D. F. Davis, Esq., a prominent young merchant of Marshall, will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred in this place on Saturday.

- Greensboro State: On Monday morning last, a young man named Strauss, ne of the workmen in the North Carolina handle works, had the misfortune to receive a severe cut in one of his thighs by sitting too close to one of the saws. His wound is not dangerous, though painful.

Miss Lavenia Edwards, a young lady who was highly esteemed, residing in the neighborhood of Greensboro, died very suddenly on Thursday last.

- Washington Press: Mr. Styron informs us that the Clyde Company will put on a new line of boats direct from this place to Norfolk, and the boats now running on this route will be put on the New Berne route. — The number of deaths reported in our town during the month of August were seven. — Gen. J. M. Leach s reported in an interview in New York as saying that the prohibition cause was killed for the next fifty years in North Carolina — Asheboro Courier: Our farmers are preparing for a big wheat crop.

Long may the STAR hold its high place in the journalistic firmament and emit its steady light.

The prospect of a duel was the sensation in Liberty township last Saturday. One of the parties we learn has been arrested. —The latest news from the much talked-of railroad from Goldsboro to Salisbury makes us more hopeful. They are throwing dirt. Every heart in Ran-dolph wishes the work the earliest success.

— Winston Sentinel: Corn is selling in Wilkes county at 75 cents a bushel. Hog cholera is playing havoc with swine in portions of Stokes county. Ex-Sheriff Gentry, we learn, has lost fifty and has others sick. —The Raleigh papers say that English sparrows are fairly storming that city. Winston has been full of them for several years, and though they generally whip out the feathered tribe in the parks up North, our birds seem to hold their own with them. There is too much their own with them. There is too much North Carolina grit in their craws to allow these new comers to drive them from their

Dr. Robert Nall and the pastor, Rev. J. L. Plunkett. Among those who took advantage of the invitation and showed an interest in their salvation were old and young men, male and female, and the oldest members of the church declared that never before was there such an arousing

- Raleigh News-Observer: Mr. R. S. Perry yesterday received a telegram containing the sad news of the death of his son, Alfred, at Ennis, Texas, in a railroad accident on Saturday. The remains will be brought to this city on Friday. — Died, yesterday morning, at the residence of her husband, near Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Carrie Sievers, after a lingering illness of typhoid fever. — Two negro women on yesterday engaged in a fight in front of Christ church. Another dusky female came up and pitched in, and finally a negro man took a hand. The quartette fought along several blocks, but none was arrested.

To-day there will be shooting for sweep stakes by the gun clubs. The matches will be interesting. On Thursday the match between the Asheville and Raleigh Clubs will be shot. There will not be $1,000 up

- Statesville Landmark: One of zens of Sharpesburg township expresses the opinion that, not withstanding the panic about the failure of crops, corn will sell in the heap this fall at 65 cents per bushel. — A number of persons witnessed Tues-day evening, about 8.30 o'clock, a meteor of extraordinary beauty and brilliancy in the northern sky. It fell a great distance, and when near the horizon burst into a thousand dazzling particles. Some pro-nounce it the most beautiful meteor they ever saw. — A brick extension, 46x90 feet, is to be built at once to the Western North Carolina Railroad depot at this place. — The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church, which was commenced two weeks ago, closed last Monday night. Six persons were added to the membership of the church last Sunday week, and fifteen last Monday night.

—Charlotte Observer: The drought still prevents wheat sowing. —— Rev. Dr. Harding, the lately resigned pastor, preached at the Second Presbyterian church. He has not yet fully determined when he will leave Charlotte or where his future labors will be. — The Western North Carolina Railroad states that it ships walnut logs from Asheville to Hamburg, Germany, at the rate of $15 00 per ton. — Water was struck a few days ago at the depth of 52 feet in three wells which were dug on the proposed site of the new cotton factory a Concord. They were cut for a great part of the distance too, through solid rock, so the disgust of the proprietors can be imagined when it was discovered that the water was impregnated with minerals and would be unfit for use in all probability, as t would ruin the boilers. cials of the Western North Carolina Railroad who were in town yesterday, it was earned that an electric light is now used on the work of construction on the Paint Rock branch, and that the setting of the sun is a matter of no consequence. He has numbers of friends in Augusta, Athens, Atlanta and Rome, where he has been officiating during the Summer months, and s cordially welcomed here."

Removing Obstructions. All goods boxes, show eases, signs and other articles calculated in any way to obstruct the sidewalks in the business part of the city were being removed yesterday u der the directions of the Mayor, and among the rest, the "Big Boot," which has been made to "toe the mark" as a sign for the past forty years, having, we learn, been first brought into service by Messrs. G. & C. Bradley, who were engaged in boot and shoe business here for a long time. Latterly it had been on duty in front of Mr. G. Rosenthal's boot and shoe store.

House of Correction. The following prisoners, convicted at the late term of the Criminal Court, have been sent to the House of Correction: Lou. Huggins, 3 months; Sam. Larkins, 3 months; Isaiah Easton, alias Gause, 30 days.

For Yorktown.

We have received General Orders No. 59 from the Adjutant General's office, from which we learn that the companies of the Yorktown Battalion in part from this immediate section, comprising what is denominated the "Middle Detachment." will leave upon the Seaboard Air-Line Railroad and Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, on Monday morning, October 17, from points on the main line. The Durham Light Infantry will leave Durham in time to make connection at Raleigh Monday morning with the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. The Anson Veterans will leave Wadesboro so as to make connection at Hamlet with the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railread Monday morning. The Fayetteville companies will leave Fayetteville in time to make the connection at Sanford Monday morning. The companies from Wilmington, Kenansville, Goldsboro and Tarboro will leave their respective starting points so as to make connection at Weldon with the train on the Seaboard Railroad on Monday, October 17, uniting with the portion of the Middle Detachment coming from Raleigh. This detachment will proceed from Portsmouth by the Old Dominion Steamship Company's steamer to Yorktown, where it will arrive in the early part of the night. The round trip fare per man, as arranged with the proper authorities, will be as follows: Wadesborp. $10.22; Fayetteville, $8.99; Wilmington, $8.51; Goldsboro, $5.99; Magnolia, $7.07; Tarboro. $4.76.

Messrs. James E. Willson, D. B. Mitchell and S. G. Hall, of the Cornet Concert Club of this city, who are to form part of the State Band under the direction of Prof. Neave, of Salisbury, will leave here this morning for Raleigh, where the band will be regularly organized.

RIVER AND MARINE. - The cablegram from London in our last issue, alluding to the arrival at Falmouth of the solitary survivor of the schooner Annie J. Palmer, which capsized on her voyage from Wilmington to Hayti, doubtless had reference to the schooner Walter E. Palmer, Capt. Z. B. Ellis, which was cleared from this port for Port-au-Prince, Hayti, on the first of September last, by Messrs. E. Kidder & Sons, with a cargo of 130,846 feet of lumber. Mr. E. G. Barker, of the firm of E. G. Barker & Co., who chartered her upon her arrival here from Boston, is confident that she is the vessel lost. In fact, no vessel of the name mentioned in the dispatch has arrived here so far as can now be recollected. The Walter E. Palmer belonged in Stockton, Me., and registered 128 tons. Her crew consisted of Andy Scott, Joseph Albert, A. F. Johnson and George R. Kelley, all of Boston, Massachusetts, and Ephraim Wilson, colored, of Nassau, N. P. Capt, Ellis remarked to hls friends here that he had made a succession of very remunerative trips, and after the one upon which he was about to embark he should go home and stay some time with his family; but "man proposes and God disposes."

The Circus. Coup's great circus and hippodrome will pitch its tents in this city to-day on the hill above the Carolina Central depot, the same spot occupied by the Robinson show few weeks since, and give two exhibitions afternoon and night. The parade will take place this morning about 10 o'clock, and is to excel in every way the usual circus procession. A correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch, writing from Lynchburg, says:

"Yesterday was the grandest day of its kind ever seen in Lynchburg. Before sun-rise the denizens of the rural districts began to swarm into our city, and by 9 o'clock the streets were literally packed. The cause of this unusual outpouring of the populace was the appearance in this place of Coup's four-ring circus and Paris hippodrome. The parade certainly eclipsed everything of the kind ever seen for novelty, attractiveness and splendor.

"Of the performance, there was but one verdict from the people: 'Simply immense;' and many who went this afternoon will visit it again to night, for the hippodrome races supass the expectations of the most sanguine. The racing stock is in splendid condition, and as they fly around the race course the enthusiasm of the people knows no bounds, and deafening cheers greet the victorious racer as he bears away the palm of victory. The circus department, in three distinct rings, is equally fine, and Mr. Coup will always find the purse strings of our citizens open when he repeats his visit,'

CITY ITEMS.

THE MORNING STAR can always be had at the following places in the city: The Purcell House, Harris' News Stand. and the STAR Office.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A BENEFACTRESS. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure that we will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhem. It softens the gums, reduces infiammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the praparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
