David Davis has appointed James E. Harvey, a Democrat, as his private Secretary.

Guiteau is very much afraid of being murdered. If he is acquitted he will have good cause for such fear.

The question is asked "What defeated Mr. Bookwalter in Ohio?' Why, the answer is easy enough: the old reason-the want of votes. Is that not enough? The Protectionists papers are in great glee over Senator Voorhees's political somersault on the tariff question. Indianians do not understand the cause of the flop. We had confidence in Edwin Booth because he was represented as devoted to his invalid wife and daugh-But it is said he has separated from his wife, although she has been so very sick for so long a time.

Shame on him!

The little Scotch cutter Madge, after beating all contestants, ran up to Newport, Rhode Island, and got badly beaten by the Boston yacht Shadow. We thought some nautical Iroquois or Foxhall would be found to bang out the Britisher.

The time will come in this century or the next, or some time, when it will be found that useless dogs are not half as profitable as sheep, When that era of intelligence dawns the legislator will rise up and do something for the latter.

The talk is now of ousting David Davis. It is said it can be done, and ted a call to Georgetown, D. C., parish, by Republicans. They will elect one of their own number. Davis cannot vote for himself. They can give 38 votes with Mahone, which will elect their man by one majority. If this is done wont the old man feel funny. and mean with it? Since David Davis agreed to be used as an instrument of wrong the Radical bloody-shirt flappers have found out that he is a "gentleman of probity and great ability." If he had refused these same unprincipled fellows would have ridiculed him, as they have been doing for two or three years.

J. A. WILLARD.

We cannot say that we admire the pictures that represent President Arthur. It is not an intelligent face, but of a good eater and drinker, with an immense amount of the animal. We should take him, from his phiz, to be a lover of sly jokes, who could smoke all night and drink his full share. He may not drink at all, but they do say he is master of lively "cuss-words" on occasion. He is tall, portly, of imposing presence. When he received the French guests he is described thus by the correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch.

"Just before 3 o'clock President Arthur clad in simple black, entered the rotunds from the north door, on the arm of Secrefrom the north door, on the arm of Secretary Blaine. Everybody seemed struck with his fine appearance, and he bore himself like one equal to any social or official emergency. On approaching the visitors he was met by the French Minister, who was covered with gold lace. This dignitary, after making an address accompanied by earnest and graceful gesticulations, introduced him to the party one by one."

There is almost too much method in the madness of Guiteau. If he is insane he is the most cunning, practical and business-like madman who remains unhanged. In his letter to his brother-in-law, Mr. Scoville, who conducts his case for him, dated the 12th inst., he says:

"Did you see the President? If not, see him at once and get what time we want. He is bound to help me, and he will help me if you stick to him. Talk to him just as I would. Thirty days to plead and my book are the objects to be pressed now. Ask Mr. Merrick if we cannot compel Bailey to loan me his note book. If not, give me a man and I will go at it again. I think I can redictate it in two days. We ought to get possession of Bailey's book in some way. Do not waste any effort in trying to prove my actual insanity. It would disgust the court and jury. Legal insanity is all I claim, and that is just as real as actual. I want to see the leading Stalwarts I met in New York last fall in my defence.

A Yorktown letter to the Richmond State says:

"Maj. Forsythe, the quartermaster in charge of the camp, has been notified that the State troops will arrive as follows: New Jersey, on the 15th, North Carolina, 16th, Vermont and New Hampshire, 17th; Kentucky, New York, Michigaa, South Carolina, Rhode Island and Delaware, 18th; Ninth Regiment, Massachusetts, Boston Cadets, 19th; Connecticut, 19th, and the Sixteenth, Seventeenth and Eighteenth Pennsylvania Regiments, 19th.

"All the Governors of the Colonial States will be here by Monday.'

Among those who attended the funeral services of the late Dr. Holland, at the Brick Presbyterian Church, New York, were Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, editor of St. Nicholas, Dr. Frank Hamilton, E. C. Stedman, Miss Kate Field, Rev. Robert Colver, Rev. Dr. Charles S. Robinson, Col.T. W. Higginson and Richard W. Gilder-all authors, save Dr. Hamilton.

Spirits Turpentine.

Visitors to the State Fair say that it was rather a poor affair.

- Asheville has a homeopathic physician. This makes four in the State. - There were twenty-one deaths at Charlotte in September. Of these two were from Bright's disease.

- Rockingham Bee: The Pee Dee cotton mills has recently put in about twenty new improved looms for weaving plaids. - Raleigh News-Observer: There was a street fight yesterday between two white men, painters. One of them struck the other on the head with a club, causing a bad wound.

- Chatham Record: There is less water in this county just now than ever before known. Many wells and springs are entirely dry, all the smaller streams are dry, and in the larger streams there is very little water.

- Asheville Citizen: Rev. Neilson Falls, for some years rector of the Episcopal church at Morganton, has accepand left with his family last week for his new charge.

— Concord Sun: We were alarmed to see Prof. Willoughby Reade so close to our town as Charlotte. It turned out, however, that he had boxed up his borers and was only passing through, having no intention of reading to our people just now.

- Henderson Tobacconist: It is definitely known that the courthouse will be erected upon Maj. Young's lot, and once more we have peace. —It is said that the Raleigh and Gaston and Oxford and Henderson railroads will erect at once a union depot on the lot this side of Watkins' prize house.

— Winston Republican: There are several cases of typhoid fever, and a are several cases of typhoid fever, and a few of dyphtheria, in our towns. — The two hundred and twenty-third session of the Presbytery of Orange will be held at High Point, beginning on the 28th inst. — The frost, last week, did much damage to the tobacco in this section.

— Pittsbore Record: On yesterday we attended the twenty-first annual fair of our State Agricultural Society. As an agricultural fair it was a failure. The products of the soil on exhibition were ridiculously few. There were no hogs, but the cattle were of a superior quality. The general exhibit of agricultural implements was very limited, but a private firm had a large exhibit apart from the others. Floral Hall contained fewer attractions than usual and excited but little interest.

- Monroe Express: Mr. D. H Howie, a son of Mr. R. G. Howie, who lives near Pleasant Grove camp ground, was bitten on the finger by a mad dog on Wednesday evening. As soon as he was bitten a cord was tied tightly around the finger and he came to Dr. T. A. Crowell who cut out the wound and eauterized it thoroughly. The dog, after biting two other dogs, and some hogs, was killed by Mr. Howie's brother, who followed it for three miles.

—Monroe Enquirer: We mentioned in our last issue the occurrence of a difficulty between Mr. W. P. Clyburn and Mr. J. H. Stevens, Jr., during which Mr. Clyburn was stabbed in the back, and Mr. Stevens was struck with a rock in the left eye. Mr Clyburn's injuries terminated fatally, his death occurring about 4 o'clock on the morning of the 11th inst. The other parties connected with the affair-Messrs. J. H. Stevens, Jr., and W. S. Ringstaff-who were partners in a meat market and grain storewere rearrested on Monday, when it became known that Mr. Clyburn was sinking, and placed in confinement.

- New Berne Nut Shell: The editor of the Kinston Journal has purchased the Edenton Clarion and will begin editorial work in Edenton after November 10th. The new paper will be the Edenton Enquirer. — Â bad accident occurred yesterday, at the farm of Mr. Walter G. Bray, near this city, which resulted seriously to that gen tleman. Mr. Bray was ginning cotton, with about sixty pounds of steam on his engine, and discovering some motes under the saws, thrust his hand under to clean them out, when his hand and arm were drawn into the machinery and both terribly lacerated and gashed before the steam could be shut off.

- Reidsville Times: From the best we can gather the tobacco on the ridges has not been bit much; it is only the low places and near the water courses that it was badly bitten. -A cat at Squire Burton's last week gave birth to two puppies and one kitten. The puppies had mouths like a cat, but otherwise they were dogs. The dogs died. —We learn that Mr. Noel, of Pittsylvania, Va., levied last week on sixteen mules and one hundred barrels of corn, belonging to the North Carolina Midland for pay for some contract of work he had with that road. The mules had been sold to Mr. Best and were just being got ready for shipment to Eastern North Carolina.

- Kinston Journal: On last Wednesday morning the gin house of Mr. I. H. Pollock, of Beaver Creek, Jones county, was burned and with it about four bales of - Kinston's last sensation is the supposed elopement last week of the wife of Mr. W. J. Taylor, ex-sheriff of Greene county, with Henry M. Whitehead, who lived near town. Mr. Whitehead left by private conveyance taking with him all of his effects, leaving his grown daughter and several small children, whose mother died not long since, to look out for themselves. Mrs. Taylor and her little son about 4 years old left the next morning on the western bound train without the knowledge of her

- Lenoir Topic: A strange mania for crime seems to have taken possession of the people. On last Saturday Pickens Connelly, Jr., of this county, and his brother Charlie Connelly crossed over the Catawba river, into Burke county, a distance below Icard station, and went to the house of old Squire Akin. The Connelly boys were intoxicated and a quarrel and fight ensued, in which we understand that old Mr. Akin was badly cut with a knife and young Akin was so fearfully carved up that the physician who dressed his wounds says that he has little hope of his recovery. The Connellys then returned to their home in this county, took a considerable sum of money belonging to their father, and left for parts unknown.

- Charlotte Observer: Day before yesterday, in Berryhill township, occurred the sad coincidence of the death of a father and daughter under the same roof within a few hours of each other. Mr. J. M. Berryhill died at 2.30 o'elock in the afternoon and his daughter Lula died at 6 the same evening. —A little son of Mr. A. M. Wilheim, of township No. 1, Cabarrus county, about ten days ago picked up in a cotton patch a nugget of virgin gold which weighed 92 pennyweights, Mr. Wil-helm exhibited it at this office yesterday. Near the cotton patch are several small veins, and the Reid mine—at which years ago was found the largest nugget of pure gold ever taken from any mine in this country, and at which since that time a large number of nuggets weighing from several pounds to a few pennyweights have been discovered—is but three miles away. —It was hoped for a long time that the Virginia Midland would take the Atlantic Tennessee and Ohio road, but this anticipation proving delusive, the bids of the Richmond and Danville syndicate which culminated yesterday were accepted. There are two theories as to the consequences of the lease, and an undisputed fact. The talk is that the gauge of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio road will be changed immediately to five feet to conform to the gauge of the other roads of the syndicate.

TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE.-Thousands of rats, mice, cats, bed-begs, roaches, lose their lives by collision with "Rough on Rats." Sold by druggists, 15c. Depot J. C. Munds, Wilmington.

Local Dots. - A regular London fog enveloped this city Sunday night.

- The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday footed up 77 bales.

- E. H. McQuigg has sufficiently recovered to be able to be on the streets.

-The roar of the surf sounded very distinctly in this city Sunday night. - There was a fine shower of rain here yesterday morning, about 8 o'clock, and again last night. - Mr. W. S. Warrock has greatly improved, and on Sunday was able to walk about the house a little. - Mr. Benjamin Jacobs has been very ill for some time, having been confined to his room ever since last May. - There was a heavy rain, lasting from 10 A. M. until about noon, in the neighborhood of Point Caswell yesterday. - The large steam pumps for the Water Works at Hilton are being put in position, and the large tank is nearly completed.

- The most of the Favetteville boats have been tied up and the crews discharged. The North State arrived here from White Hall Sunday morning.

- The Baptist (colored) State Convention will meet at the First Baptist church, corner of Campbell and Fifth streets, on Wednesday, the 19th inst., at 9 o'clock A. M.

- Our friends in Pender and Sampson are still red hot for the proposed railroad between Clinton and Point Caswell, and a meeting to take definite action in the matter will soon be held.

- The Committee on Classification of the Produce Exchange have fixed the standard color of merchantable and colored spirits turpentine, and call the attention of all interested to the fact. The "standards" can be seen at the Produce Exchange.

- The fish that generally do congregate in the vicinity of New Inlet were in a fair way yesterday to be "taken in," some of the county officials having started in that direction "armed and equipped," with all the paraphernalia necessary to their complete suppression.

City and County Hospital.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers Dr. W. W. Lane was selected as Resident Physician of the City and County Hospital, which is to be opened at an early day. Dr. Lane is well qualified for the position, having had two or three years' experience as Surgeon in Charge of the Marine Hospital in this city.

The location of the hospital, at what was formerly known as the Wilmington Garden, is a most excellent one, the grounds embracing an entire square, beautifully laid out, with an abundance of plants, shrubbery, flowers and grape arbors, while the buildings are ample in every respect for the present necessities of the institution.

The hospital, we learn will be put in immediate running order and opened at the earliest practicable moment.

Improvements.

Mr. J. C. Heyer's fine residence, on the southeast corner of Fourth and Red Cross streets, is approaching completion. It will be a large and elegantly finished building.

Mr. George Honnett's new residence, on "Sunset Hill," is also well under way again, and will be a fine building when completed. It will be remembered that the frame had been raised and was blown down by the terrific hurricane, that visited this city on the 9th of September. Several other buildings are going up in different sections of the city.

Magistrates' Court.

Lewis Freeman, colored, was before Justice Hall, yesterday morning, charged with assault and battery upon Hester Freeman, his own wife. Defendant was found guilty and ordered to pay one penny and John Fisher, colored, was arraigned before the same magistrate on the affidavit of Sam Larkins, also colored, charged with assault, and was required to fork over one penny and the costs.

Our Military.

The Wilmington Light Infantry, under command of Capt. Jno. L. Cantwell, left for Yorktown yesterday morning. The company went with fuller ranks than was expected, there being about forty-three men, rank and file. They are now at the end of their journey and doubtless having a good time, notwithstanding the dust and crowded condition of things which have been mentioned as drawbacks to the general enjoyment.

Forepaugh. Mr. Fred. Lawrence, Agent for Forpaugh's Circus, was here yesterday, making the necessary arrangements for the appearance of the show here on Saturday, the 12th of November. This will be the first visit of Forepaugh, to this city, though it was billed for this place once and missed connection. There are upwards of twenty elephants connected with the show, and the street parade is said to be on a grand scale.

Mayor's Court. The only cases before Mayor Smith's Court yesterday morning were those of several dealers in different articles who failed to pay their license tax. Judgment was suspended on the payment of the tax

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A BENEFACTRESS. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

DIED.

CRAIG.—On Myrtle Grove Sound, October 17, 1881, THOMAS CRAIG, aged 70 years 11 months and 6 days. Funeral will take place at his late residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

POTTER.—Near this city, at 8 o'clock, on Sunday evening, SAMUEL F. POTTER, aged about 44 years.

Mr. Potter was the eldest child of the late Samuel R. Potter, Esq., who was a gentleman of prominence in this section and a successful planter. The subject of this brief notice possessed many admirable traits of character. He was generous to a fault, liberal in his charities and loyal to his friends, indeed he regarded no sacrifice too great for those to whom he was attached. He formed but few intimates, and those only who nce too great for those to whom he was attached. He formed but few intimates, and those only who knew him well knew his intrinsic worth and the sincerity of his nature. Few men were more reliable, few men more true to all the obligations of friendship than he was, and this too without any pretensions, for he had no hypocrisy in his nature, but was candid, loyal and true. Peace to his ashes.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from St. James' Church, this (Tuesday) morning, at 10 o'clock, thence to Oakdale Cemetery.
