OUTLINES.

Floods in Iowa and Illinois are doing great damage to crops. Gov. Morgan has not yet accepted the Secretaryship of the Treasury; it is rumored that other Cabinet changes are being considered. A rumor is afloat that the Czar of Russia has been assassinated, but lacks confirmation, and proves to be wholly unfounded. Foxhall won the Cambridgehire stakes. The mate of a British steamer murdered at Savannah, Ga., Sunday; the matter is being rigidly investigated. The railroad depot at Taylorsville, Ga., burned. French cotton manufacturers deprecate a reduction of duties. Mrs. Walker Batts, at Smithville, Ga., shot by her husband; both claim that it was accidental, but a servant gives a different version. The Connecticut military visiting Charleston, S. C., left for home via Columbia and Charlotte yesterday; they were delighted at the cordiality of their reception. Street-car horses in Philadelphia suffering with "pink eye." Pleuro pneumonia among cattle in Delaware county, Pa. Two young white girls tried and acquitted for the murder of their father, Robert Williams, in Spottsylvania county, Va. Another Indian outbreak threatened in Arizona. The visit of the King of Italy to Berlin has been postponed, for fear of arousing French susceptibilities. An earthquake at Agram, Austro-Hungary, Sunday night; some houses were overturned. Two Italian villages burned; forty families homeless; three persons killed and eleven seriously injured. Rumored that Gen. Lambert will supersede M. Roustan as French minister at Tunis. Crescent brewery, at Aurora, Ill., burned. Baron James Rothschild died at Paris yesterday. Three unknown men attempted to rob an express train near Bucyrus, Ohio, but the thieves were frightened off. The seventh annual session of the Congress of the Episcopal Church began in Providence, Rhode Island, yesterday. N. Y. markets: Money 3/8 per cent; cotton quiet at 11 1/4; southern flour in buyers' favor and moderately active at $6 30/85; wheat 4 1/4; corn opened lower and closed with the decline partly recovered, ungraded 66 1/2; rosin steady at $2 55/2 60; spirits turpentine firm at $3.

Chicago is now enjoying a small-pox scare. It is prevailing in some localities in that city.

The Chicago Tribune, Republican, calls the friends of the Administration, "Guitean Stalwarts."

Twelve hundred horses in Philadelphia are suffering from "pink eye" and pleuro-pneumonia.

The Greenback party in Ohio is immense. It polled nearly 1,000 votes in the last election. If it grows it may poll 100,000 by A. D. 2,000.

The papers are having more or less to say of the separation of Edwin Booth from his long afflicted wife. The more it is ventilated the worse it appears for the actor.

It is now understood in Washington that Secretary Blaine will remain at the head of the State Department until after the December session. James will leave soon.

To-morrow is Governors' Day at the Atlanta Exposition. Postpone your visit until the middle of November, and the show will be about as complete as it will be.

North Carolina in 1879 produced 44,668 bushels buckwheat, 2,421 bushels barley, 28,019,839 bushels corn, 3,838,068 bushels oats, 285,160 bushels rye, and 3,397,398 bushels wheat.

In the show and theatrical line thus far this season Wilmington has been favored. Already we have had two big shows and with the one tonight eight theatrical companies. There is yet to come Forepaugh's monster show, and eighteen companies are booked at the Opera House.

A musician named Eckhardt is said to be something of a rival of Marvin. He is known to have six or eight wives living. One lives in New York, and others in Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Florida, Texas, &c. Brand him in the cheeks and send him to Utah. He will become a great "saint."

The New York dry goods market on last Saturday may be thus condensed: Cotton goods in moderate demand, light supply and firm. Low grade Amoskeag tickings advanced half a cent. Prints, dress, but stocks in good shape. Dried goods and ginghams in moderate demand. Spring cassimeres and worsted coatings in steady demand by clothiers.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXIX.—NO. 28. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1881. WHOLE NO. 4967

We are glad sincerely that the Baltimore men of culture have held a meeting to do something in the way of a memorial for that gifted son of Georgia who died recently, Sidney Lanier. We believe it is the purpose of those moving in the matter to attempt to relieve the necessities of the dead poet's family. The Baltimore American, in an excellent editorial on the movement, says of the noble poet:

"Lanier was not only a poet, but a poet, clear and crystalline as Christine Nilsson's singing, passionate as Leberg's, withal, he was a humble and sobered man, taking the everyday world's view and went humbly and soberly. He might be compared to Shelley in his ideal, impassioned thought, but it must be Shelley devoid of his vagaries and cranks, for there were not eccentricity nor affectation in Lanier, nor anything he did—always he was content each day to do his nearest duty and earn his bread by patient, faithful toil. Edmund C. Stedman's letter, which was read at the meeting, was a beautiful and touching bit of portraiture. It was so true to the man, so generous in its keen appreciation of his work and his purpose, that indeed there never was any young poet in this country who so quickly and closely endeared himself to our poets and artists."

"Bildad" writes from Washington to the Richmond State concerning the Yorktown celebration:

"The marked comparison between the popular reception given Arthur and Hancock at Yorktown is commented on here with a tinge of bitterness towards the Southerners who are supposed to have been prompted by political prejudice in favor of Hancock. The want of attention to General Sherman is another grievance attributed to political prejudice in the latitude of Virginia."

Hancock is a great favorite and for cause. Sherman is altogether "otherwise" and for cause, and that is the long and short of it. Arthur may become a favorite. That will depend upon himself.

Englishmen and Scotchmen living in Chicago held a meeting on last Saturday night in which the course of the British Government towards Ireland was denounced warmly. A special says:

"It was requested all Englishmen and Scotchmen may protest against this outrage, for the same means may be used to suppress the land reform in England and Scotland. Earnest sympathy is extended to the Irish people, urging them to avoid physical force, but trust to the steadiness of the ideas presented by Parnell, Davitt and the others, which appeal to the Englishman's and Scotchman's, as well as the Irishman's, sense of justice."

The Connecticut soldier boys are better behaved than their Massachusetts neighbors. The First Connecticut Regiment had a good time in Charleston, South Carolina.

Spirits Turpentine.

Col. J. McLeod Turner, Keeper of the Capitol, is a very critical condition, we learn from the Raleigh Visitor.

Good corn and cotton crops in Camden, but the rice crop is poor.

The Greenville Express has begun its fifth volume, under its present management there has been improvement.

Greensboro State: The Evening Tribune is the title of the daily newspaper which Capt. H. T. Fulghum, formerly editor of the Patriot, proposes to establish in Greensboro. From the prospectus we learn that the first issue will appear on Tuesday, November 1st. It will be independent.

Shelby Aurora: A protracted meeting is in progress in the Methodist church in this place. Capt. Y. Q. Johnson has informed the editor of the Lincoln Progress that arrangements are being made to extend the Carolina Central Railroad from this place to Spartanburg and Rutherfordton.

Warrenton Gazette: Col. Cheek is in the city for Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan, in all of which States he will deliver grange lectures. He will probably be absent about six weeks.

The new Methodist church at Wilson's old store, on the turnpike beyond Hunter's, was dedicated last Sunday by the Rev. Messrs. Griffith and Mann. Some six hundred people were present.

We have received No. 2 of the Wadesborough Intelligencer, S. W. Henly, editor and proprietor, terms $2 a year. The number before us is the only one we have seen of good decided quality. It is a deal of interesting reading, and the editor shows marked industry. The local department is full specially, and the editorials are prepared judiciously. We congratulate the editor upon his large and well gotten up paper.

Durham Plant: On Wednesday last Hicks Hollow lost a barn of tobacco by fire. The best of his crop was in this barn and he had succeeded in making a very fine cure. Loss $150; no insurance.

Last week S. G. Filinton, of Orange County, lost each a barn of tobacco by fire. Did not learn the amount of loss, but it was entire, as neither had insurance.

Winston Sentinel: There are now a hundred and forty students at the Salem Female Academy. Meetings are being held in different sections of the State endorsing Governor Vance. The people are with Zeb, and he is with the people.

Iredell county will soon have three cotton factories in operation. Owing to a defective fire, the tobacco barn of Mr. Jack Potts, in Davis county, caught on fire a short time since and was burned to the ground. The barn contained Mr. Pott's entire crop for the present year, and his loss is a heavy one.

Asheboro Courier: No liquor license in the county. Our farmers are behind in putting in their wheat crop on account of the protracted drought. The editor of the Wilmington Star is one of the few whose opinions we never fail to read. On the 29th ult., Y. M. C. Johnson of Columbia factory, left his home for Greensboro, with $885 for Mr. W. R. Burgess, of Greensboro, and was to return on Friday or Saturday. He was last seen at Farrell's hotel, High Point, where he took supper that night. He has not been seen or heard of since. His friends suspect that he has been murdered and robbed.

Wadesborough Intelligencer: Mrs. McLendon, mother of Dr. W. J. McLendon, died at the home of her son, near Wadesborough, yesterday. Mr. D. Gatewood showed us a stalk of cotton, a few days ago, while on the way to the Fair, with about 120 bolls upon it, all of which were well filled, and the cotton of a superior quality.

John Willoughby, col., had the misfortune last week to get his right hand caught in the steam gin of Messrs. Hutchinson & Cashwell. His hand was badly lacerated, and one finger torn entirely off. The third annual meeting of the Dixie Agricultural and Mechanical Fair Association was held in Wadesboro this week. It commenced Monday last, and ended yesterday.

The exhibition was not up to the usual standard, but this was not the fault of the officers or managers of the Association. But notwithstanding the many disadvantages and obstacles in its way, the third annual meeting of the Dixie Fair was by no means a failure. It was essentially a success, and evidenced the fact that our people are slowly but surely tending upward.

Goldboro Messenger: The meeting at the Baptist church last Friday night, called for the purpose of devising means in aid of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, was not as largely attended as we had hoped to see. A delegation of leading citizens from Sampson and Faison's were in this city last Friday expecting to meet Mr. W. J. Best, of the Midland Railroad, and to confer with him relative to the projected Clinton & Faison Railway. They hope to interest Mr. Best in that enterprise, and propose extending the road to LaGrange as a feeder to the Midland Railroad. Mr. Best could not get here to meet the delegation, and the gentlemen returned to their homes without seeing him.

The force on the Midland N. C. Railroad has again increased to about 175 laborers, and the work is progressing. We learn also that Mr. Best has stated to gentlemen in this city that he has given out the contract for the building of the bridge across Little River, near this city. A delegation from Smithfield waited on Mr. Best here Saturday, and was heartily and cordially received. He presented in note, secured by mortgage, as a token of their appreciation of having the Midland Railroad to go via Smithfield.

THE CITY.

OPERA HOUSE—Eviction. MUNSON—Fall overcoats, etc. HEINSBERGER—The Organina. JUDIE TOLAR—Ten dollars reward. NORTHBROOK & CUMMING—Ship notice.

Local Notes. Beef is said to be very scarce in market just now. Ventilators are being placed in the County Court House. The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday footed up 1,527 bales.

The big tank for the Water Works Company has been completed. Mr. Frank W. Paul, Manager of Haverly's Widow Bedott Company, like all of Haverly's lieutenants, is the right man in the right place.

We learn through a "postal" that Mr. Joseph L. Brake, of Edgecombe, who runs only one plow, made eighteen entries at Rocky Mount for the Fair.

Mr. F. H. Darby, City Attorney, left yesterday morning for a visit to his brother, Mr. Thos. A. Darby, formerly of this city, but now of Florida. Col. B. R. Moore will attend to Mr. Darby's business as City Attorney during his absence.

Mr. DeL. Evans is in Newbern as a representative of the Carolina Rice Mills of this city, and the News says: "The competition which his presence creates in markets of Eastern North Carolina is the life of our rice trade, and we are glad to see him here."

Lost His Pocket Book. Rev. T. Page Ricard, of the Fifth Street M. E. church, had the misfortune a few days ago to lose his pocket book, containing about sixteen dollars in money and some valuable papers. It is reported that a colored man subsequently found a pocket book in the street with papers in it, but no money. If this was the pocket book Mr. R. lost, or had taken from his pocket, he would be glad to get it, as the papers can be of no value to any one but himself. Preachers, like editors and reporters, always have use for all the money they can get, and

It is hard to let it go Without the "quid pro quo."

Sudden Death. A colored woman named Penny Williams, residing in the southern section of the city, was sitting in a chair at her home yesterday about noon, when she suddenly fell to the floor and died in a few minutes. Coroner Hester's was notified and viewed the body, but did not think it necessary under the circumstances to hold an inquest. Deceased was about 50 years of age, and is thought to have been a victim of heart disease.

Forepaugh's Novel Exhibition. Forepaugh's famous show is coming here on Saturday, the 13th of November. In view of this fact we transfer to our columns the following description of the entertainment from the Toledo Blade, in which city the show recently appeared:

"Adam Forepaugh's great show arrived in town yesterday morning and pitched its main camp on the circus grounds near Third and Grand River avenues. At ten o'clock there was a street parade which gave the public some idea of the resources of this immense establishment. First came the beautiful pagant illustrating the departure of Lalla Rookh from Delhi; then followed the twenty trained elephants, and a long line of gilded chariots and cages of animals, led by a herd of elephants, moved through the densely thronged streets. This feature was very striking and interesting. The numerous elephants and camels, the lion loose upon its cage, the serpents, the numerous bands of music and the steam calliope all conspired to excite the interest of the multitude. The show spread on the circus ground are immense affairs, and this is a show of the greatest magnitude. The first is filled with wild animals, of which there are a great number and variety. Besides the animals used in menageries there are several rare and curious representatives of the animal kingdom. All are in excellent condition, showing that they have been well cared for. A well proportioned exhibition was studied with interest by the great mass of visitors, especially those who remained after the close of the circus performance to see the animals fed.

The circus programme was carried out in a large double tent capable of seating 8,000 spectators. It was comfortably filled yesterday afternoon, and jammed in the evening. There were not less than 15,000 people at the two performances, and all were pleased with the show. The performance was carried on in two rings at the same time, and the interest was never suffered to lag for a moment. The attention of the spectators was occupied all the time; in fact they had all they could attend to if they saw all that was going on, for the number of people and the variety of the sports in the two arenas were such that the spectator well felt an earnest desire to see every one. All the performers are among the best of their class. The leaping and acrobatic feats were excellent, and in all its details the circus performance was first-class."

Magistrates Courts. Charles Kornges, colored, was arraigned before Justice Hall, yesterday morning, on the affidavit of Catharine Merrick, colored, charged with assault and battery, and judgment was suspended on the payment of costs.

Before Justice Gardner, yesterday, the following cases were heard and disposed of: John Hill, colored, arraigned on a peace warrant sworn out by Scipio Hill, also colored, was required to pay the costs and give bond in the sum of $50 to keep the peace until the first Monday in February.

In the case of Oscar Farmer, colored, for the willful abandonment of his lawful wife, Esther Farmer, judgment was suspended on the payment of costs, provided the parties agree to live together as man and wife again; or, otherwise, he to allow his wife $1.50 per week for her support.

Charles H. Howe, colored, was arraigned on the charge of larceny of geese from Bennet Bounds, colored. It transpired during the progress of the investigation in this case that Howe had some of Bounds' geese and Bounds some of Howe's. In other words, Howe had lost some of his geese, and, in trying to recover them, had unintentionally got some of Bounds' mixed with his own, both having private marks by which they could be distinguished. Justice Gardner saw that each man got his own geese and then dismissed the case, each paying one-half the costs.

Daily Weather Bulletin. The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations named, at 3 P. M. yesterday, Washington mean time; and also the amount of rainfall in inches for the twenty-four hours ending daily at 8 P. M., except Tuesday, when it is 48 hours, as furnished by the Signal Office of this city: These observations, it should be understood, are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.

Table with columns: Station, Temp., Rainfall, Weather. Atlanta 60 00 Clear, Augusta 73 00 Clear, Charlotte 64 00 Clear, Corsicana 69 00 Fair, Galveston 70 00 Smoked, Jacksonville 77 00 Clear, Montgomery 72 00 Clear, Savannah 71 13 Fair, Wilmington 70 00 Clear, Cedar Keys 73 00 Fair, Pensacola 70 00 Fair, Port Eads 70 15 Fair.

The following are the indications for the South Atlantic States to-day: Fair weather, northeasterly winds, higher barometer, and stationary or higher temperature.

Mayor's Court. Mayor Smith had another full levee yesterday morning. The first case called was Patrick Sullivan, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, the judgment of the court being that the defendant be bound over to the Criminal Court in a bond of $50, in default of which he was turned over to the sheriff and committed to jail.

J. A. Adams, charged with being drunk and down, was discharged.

Alexander Sauls, charged with committing an assault upon Samuel Forbes with a deadly weapon, was required to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was turned over to the sheriff and lodged in jail.

A case of an affray between two colored individuals was continued over on account of the absence of one of the parties.

Medical. If you have any skin diseases or diseases of the hair or scalp any itching or discolorations, sun burns, freckles, pimples, rough or dry harsh skin, you have in Dr. C. W. Bennett's Skin Cure, a sure, perfect and elegant remedy. Sold by all druggists.

OPERA HOUSE.

Haverly's Widow Bedott Company. We had at the Opera House last evening one of the most laughable and irresistibly amusing entertainments given here in many a day, and there was a large audience in attendance, who seemed to enjoy it to the fullest extent possible. Mr. C. B. Bishop, as the Widow Bedott, is literally "immense," and keeps the audience roaring so continuously that the brief respite given when he is off the stage becomes really a relief. He presents a new and old stage character, but he presents it as only he can. In his competent hands the part is a great success, delights everybody and sends them home still laughing and regretful only that they cannot see him again the next night. He is supported by a first-class company that enables him to admirably present Nasby's farcical comedy, and they win everywhere, as they heartily deserve to, the warmest praise and heartiest applause. A taking feature of the performance was the singing cleverly introduced to give variety and to vary the monotony, a purpose for which it well succeeded, the singers being repeatedly encored. Come and see us again Mr. Bishop, and come often.

To night we are to have Eviction, a play that has won high praise from competent critics and given by a company no less distinguished. It treats of the present troubles in Ireland and is said to present a truthful and realistic view of the situation.

Larceny of Clothing and Jewelry. A colored woman named Anna Davis was arrested yesterday and had a preliminary investigation before one of our magistrates on the charge of appropriating several articles of clothing, jewelry, etc., the property of a lady in whose employ she had been. Defendant was adjudged guilty and was ordered to give bond with good security, in the sum of $100 for her appearance, at the end of the week, my establishment of the Criminal Court, in default of which she was committed to jail.

RIVER AND MARINE.

Steamship Benefactor, come, arrived at New York yesterday.

Schr. Joseph Souther, Watts, hence, Merrick, colored, charged with assault and battery, and judgment was suspended on the payment of costs.

CITY ITEMS.

AN INTERESTING DISPUTE.—The courts of New Orleans have now before them an intriguing and interesting case. It is alleged that Mrs. Emma Clarke of the same town was a fugitive slave, and that she was obtained from her owner on the promise to collect it, while she was ignorant of her great good luck. The company here has some of the cases in its history. All that is wanted is to know who is the owner. The next drawing is the 18th, will take place on Monday 30th, and M. A. Dauphin, Orleans, La., will promptly give any information relative thereto.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has unflinchingly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, particularly among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children, which, it operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do use it, and bless her; especially in this case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here, and the fact is, that no mother has discharged her duty to her children, if she has not used it. It is the best of the best of the best. It is the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Friend, New York City. Sold by all druggists. Price a bottle, ten cents.
