Guiteau is anxious to be tried. He must have faith in the insanity

It is believed in London that Mr. Gladstone contemplates retiring to private life.

During October the coinage at the mints of the United States amounted to $12,653,590.

The Washington Post has become a pictorial daily. It is now a very good newspaper.

A Washington rumor is to the effect that Gen. James A. Williamson, of Iowa, has been tendered the Secretaryship of the Interior.

Guiteau belonged to the "Oneida Community" in New York. Mr. J. H. Noyes, its founder, says he does not believe in Guiteau's insanity and will so testify.

Mr. Arthur is said to have spoken within a day or two quite plainly as to his wishes regarding the Star Route raseals. He wishes them prosecuted without delay. Good.

General Wickham, the self-respecting Republican in Virginia who would not swallow Mahone and his ticket, prophecies that Daniel will be elected by 20,000. Oh, that he may prove a true prophet.

The public debt was reduced $13,-000,000 in October. At the rate of reduction that has been observed for some months it would take but ten years to wipe it out. Since July 1 it has been reduced $55,064,345.08.

The following items show how enormous were the swindles perpetrated in the Star Route lines:

The annual cost of service on the Star Routes in Montana has been reduced by the Postmaster General to-day from $18. 739 to $6,425 in one case and from $12,627 to $5,412 in the other."

The Philadelphia Times does itself no credit in trying to whitewash the conduct of the Massachusetts Ninth at Richmond, Virginia. It denies that they "did the things charged against them." The Richmond State tells another story, as do other

"No committee or citizen attended upon him; but Governor Long happily spied the man trudging off, and sent a bus to carry the wayfarer to his temporary home. Mr. Winthrop was lodged in a historic mansion, the furniture of which Dr. Loring had sent down from Washington. After the oration some Massachusetts gentlemen called on Mr. Winthrop, and it came out that the orator of the brave occasion was left without food. His son had foraged the village in vain for a supply.'

This is very shameful and inexcusable. The French guests have made loud complaints as to neglect. It was the worst managed affair that ever occurred. We hope never to hear again of any such attempts at glorification.

The Baltimore Gazette places a very different estimate upon Keene from that placed by the Washington Post. The latter accused him of ranting in the old Bowery school way. The former says of his Richelieu:

"Mr. Keene was very careful in giving the various points of this great character, and throughout study and thought were evidenced, while the powerful scenes were rendered with great force, beauty and effect. There was an entire absence of rant; there was no overstraining for effect, and from the beginning to the end his performance was a masterly one."

The announcement in New York that the President was to be in that city is said to have caused much excitement among Republican politicians. Fancy George Washington or Thomas Jefferson running down to Virginia to help pull the political wires in a State fight. We beg pardon of the shades of G. W. and T. J. for the thought.

Here is what the Baltimore American has to say of North Carolina ores and minerals at Atlanta:

"The collection of North Carolina ores and minerals exhibited by the agent of the Richmond & Danville Railroad is said to be rich and various beyond anything of the kind ever seen before. North Carolina is believed to contain the greatest mineral de-posits on the continent, and Yancey, Buncombe, Jackson, Swain, Macon and Cherokee counties are declared to excel Colorado and Nevada in subterranean resources."

Dr. Ralph Walsh, editor of the Retrospeet of Medicine and Surgery, takes the position in the last number that President Garfield's wound need not have proved fatal. Dr. Pus Cavity Bliss, as the New Haven Register calls him, is arraigned severely. It is not a fight in which non-professionals can take a hand.

W., C. & A. R. R.—Change of schedule

Some of our business friends have suggested that a through pouch for Norfolk by night train connecting at Weldon with the fast train from Raleigh, reaching Norfolk early in the morning, would be a source of no little convenience, and they would be glad if our obliging Postmaster, Colonel Brink, whose ears have ever been open to the appeals of the business community, would interest himself in the effort to secure such an accommodation. According to the present arrangement a reply to a letter written in Wilmington on Monday would not reach here from Norfolk until so late an hour on Wednesday night that it would not get into the hands of the party to whom it was addressed until Thursday morning, while if the above suggestion were carried into effect the communication the line would be prompt, which in some instances might prove very important.

The Fire Last Evening-Six Houses

The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, was caused by the burning of six small one-story frame buildings on Dawson, between Third and Fourth streets. in the extreme southern section of the city. The fire originated in the one next to the corner of Third and Dawson, owned by Johnson Hooper, colored, and occupied by Henry Haslin, colored, and destroyed that, the one west of it, also belonging to Johnson Hooper, and occupied by Amos King, colored, and then, on the east, the houses owned and occupied by Frank Bryan and John McKinney, colored, and Mr. Henry Burnett, and the one on the corner of Fourth and Dawson, owned by Capt. W. A. Cumming and occupied by a white widow lady named Smith. Henry Haslin and Frank Bryan lost part of their furniture. The Fire Department was promptly on and, and the C. M. Stedman Company, located in that ward, was on the ground, and was particularly noticeable as doing excellent service in the immediate vicinity of the conflagration. They also had the misforune to lose one of their hooks.

During the height of the excitement a cry was raised that a baby was missing, but it was subsequently recovered uninjured. It seemed to be the impression that there was very little insurance on the property.

Another Attempted Burglary.

In addition to those already given, we have heard of another instance of an attempt to enter the residence of one of our citizens. On Wednesday morning a lady residing on Fifth street woke up about 2 o'clock, and, thinking it was about daylight, looked out of her window, when she discovered a stout colored man, bare-footed, under the same. She had some of the male members of the family aroused and two of them ran out, one of them discharging his pistol in the direction where the burglar was supposed to be concealed. From the condition in which one of the windows was found it is supposed he must have previously entered a room in the wing to the main building. Our police and citizens cannot be too vigilant.

CATARRH OF THE BLADDER .-Stinging, smarting, irritation of the urinary passages, diseased discharges, cured by Buchupsiba. Druggists. Depot J. C. Munds, Wilmington. U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

What Disposition was Made of Several Cases of Importance.

Pending the adjournment of the U. S. District Court in the early part of the week, in consequence of the illness of Judge Brooks and his consequent inability to attend, District Attorney Albertson, who, in such cases, as the highest officer of the Government, is allowed more than ordinary latitude, disposed of a few cases of some importance. Jesse Hall, for attempting to pass a counterfeit coin upon Mrs. Daniel Register, of Bladenboro', Bladen county, some four or five months ago, and who has since been in jail here, was brought into court and submitted, and was remanded to jail, where it is supposed he will be permitted to take the insolvent debtor's oath at the end of thirty days.

Wm. Mooney, an old resident of Brunswick county, who was arrested some time ago on the charge of attempting to commit a fraud upon the Pension Bureau by falsely representing himself to have been a soldier in the war of 1812, was surrendered by his sureties and went to jail, but was subsequently released on his own recognizance in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the Court: this act of leniency and mercy being based upon the age and infirmities of the defendant.

George W. Blaney, colored, charged with abstracting a letter from the mails in this city some six or eight months ago, and whose case was continued until the last term, will have to remain in jail until the next term of the Court. Sam. Kornegay, implicated in the same transaction, renewed his bond and was discharged.

Several parties, charged with violating the internal revenue laws, made submissions to the District Attorney and were permitted to settle the same.

Wheeling a Baby Over a Wire-100 Feet from the Ground.

"The daring acts of the heroic little airqueen, M'lle Zuila, formed the grand centre of attraction last night. As she traversed the giddy road, high in mid-air, trundling her infant daughter in a wheelbarrow, th immense audience seemed breathless and spell-bound; then were heard exclamations of terror, and, finally, as she safely reached the end of her perilous journey, the pro-longed applause fairly shook the arena. Last night she performed the startling feat of going to the top of the canvas, where she perched herself on a seat that had been arranged. Here, far above the excited and tremulous throng, she tied a handkerchief over her eyes, then enveloped her body up to her arms in a sack, and seizing the trapeze bar, she flew a distance of fifty feet, turning a hand-to-hand somersault in mid-air, and traversing, with bandaged eyes and body encased in sacks, the slen-der and scarcely discernible wire! The wildest enthusiasm prevailed at the termi nation of this, the most audacious and adroit exhibition of courage and skill ever seen in this city. Zuila is the only person in the world who performs this persons feat."—Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal.

THE RICE MARKET.

EDITOR OF THE STAR: It has been observed that we have no regular quotations of rice in our market reports, either of rough or cleaned rice. Perhaps it is due to the limited production of this grain since the civil war. It is to be hoped that since the growth of this crop has so largely increased during the last three years that the planters may have the benefit of full market rates, and there is no better way to insure this than by a frequent publication of the prices of this article at the principal rice markets South, as well as at the North. The pioneer planters who undertook to establish this growth (after the universal failures that followed its introduction subsequent to the close of the civil war) are entitled to full market values for their crops. They labor under the disadvantages of a small market and great distance to larger ones. It is true now, but was not last year, that the owners of the new pounding mills agree to pound any rice that they refuse to buy.

This removes all cause of complaint and with a view of giving the planter the relative prices of rough and cleaned the following facts are given by Major N. O. Til-ton, Superintendent of the great Haber-sham pounding mills at Savannah, Ga. These figures are taken by Maj. Tilton from tables prepared with great care and tested by many year's experience. All the expenses of pounding and putting up in packages for market (nine per cent, is the toll for pounding) are included. When the following prices are obtained the rice in the rough state would net at the mill

Confederate Bonds.

WANTED---$10,000,000 Conpon Bonds. Until orders exhausted will pay $2.50 per $1,000 for from $1,000 to $1,000,000 of these bonds with all the coupons attached maturing in 1855 (except the one due Jan. 1, 1865), and since attached. The present demand for these otherwise valueless securities is so apparently causeless and likely to terminate at any moment, that the greatest speed should be used in forwarding the bonds. Send by registered mail at once, and I will remit by return mail check on N. Y. Bank at the above rate. Those who prefer can ship by express. C. O. D.

Those who prefer can ship by express, C. O. D., with leave to examine. If by any chance bonds arrive after order is exhausted, I will return by next mail. Send to address below. RAPHAEL. J. MOSES, Jr., Attorney at Law
