The South Carolina Fair has been in progress at Columbia during the week. Attendance fair.

There are at this time forty-two vessels over sixty tons burden in the port of Wilmington. This looks like business.

Miss Romeo Rubio is the name of the blushing young bride whom ex-President Diaz, of Mexico, has just led to the altar.

The gold I sowed for votes took the rust. I knew what would play that trick, but not the shiners. I never liked politics.—Astor.

The Greenbackers are immensely strong in Philadelphia. They succeeded in polling 257 votes. They expect to elect the next President.

In New York it is said President Arthur will favor in his message a reduction of internal revenue to the amount of $7,000,000. He will be non-committal as to the tariff. Oh!

Conkling and Grant did their best to elect Astor, the moneyed nabob, but alas! The Democrats laid him cold at the tune of some 2,000 majority. The Stalwarts gained no honors in that District.

Bismark's defeat in Germany is complete and he now sounds a retreat. He is talking of resigning, but that is his old favorite dodge. He has ruled his country like a despot. Germans would breathe freer if he were out of office.

I have failed in securing a place for you on the Supreme Court Bench heretofore, but I am pulling Arthur's ears in your behalf for a Cabinet appointment. Cheer up, friend of better days, Stalwartism holds the helm.—Grant to Settle.

Adelina Patti's first house in New York was not full though select. Price too high. The papers are complaining that the concert is short—too little for the money. But they admit that she is at the head of the singing profession.

Mrs. Garfield has written to Mr. Cyrus W. Field thanking him and all contributors to the Garfield Fund. She says becomingly:

"My children join me in this gratitude and in the desire that we accept this trust in their father's name we may be able to use it in a way worthy of him and satisfactory to those by whom it has been bestowed."

A writer in the Sanitary News, of Cincinnati, says the eucalyptus trees will not survive anywhere on the Atlantic coast, all of the older trees in New Orleans are dead. They have died in Europe after surviving for ten years. At Nice they perished with the thermometer not lower than forty degrees.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXIX.—NO. 43. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1881. WHOLE NO. 4982

THE CAROLINA CENTRAL.

The negotiations for the sale of a controlling interest in the Carolina Central Railroad have not yet been closed, but there seems no reasonable doubt that the sale will be effected.

Opinions differ as to the probable effect of this change of ownership on the commercial interests of Wilmington; but if the promises and conditions connected with the transfer are carried out in good faith we see no cause for serious apprehension.

The State of Georgia has 40 cotton mills, and they pay from 8 to 25 per cent. net on the capital invested.—Savannah News.

North Carolina has more than forty, we believe, but many of them are small. What they pay is one of those profound mysteries that can never be solved this side of eternity.

The Baltimore American, Republican Organ, in referring to Major Daniel's defeat in Virginia, makes a very sensible deduction when it says:

"It goes to show how much more effective is organization than oratory. It goes to show, too, it might have added, how much more effective is the free use of money among men who have no principles and no honor than the most persuasive appeals.

The late Parson Norman, of the North Carolina Conference, was an eccentric but useful man. On one occasion, whilst preaching, he was much annoyed by the conduct of some of the females. Some three or four had left the building, but one at a time. The rather jocose parson stopped, looked over the congregation, and then said, "Now, let the next ugliest woman get up and go out." They all remained.

The North Carolina State Convention met in its fifty-first session on the 9th of November. Rev. N. B. Cobb, President, called the body to order and asked Dr. Skinner to conduct the devotional exercises. The 84th Psalm read. The hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," sung. Prayer. A brief and appropriate address was then delivered by the President.

On motion, a committee on credentials was appointed. The committee report nearly a hundred delegates in attendance.

The following proceeded to the election of President. The committee reported the election of Rev. N. B. Cobb, President. The committee reported as Vice Presidents, J. C. Scarborough, Rev. J. B. Boone, Rev. J. A. Stedley, as Recording Secretaries, Wm. Biggs and W. L. Wright; Treasurer, B. F. Montague; Auditor, F. H. Biggs, Jr.

The following visitors were invited to seats in the Convention: Rev. Dr. J. L. M. Curry, of Richmond, Va., President of Foreign Mission Board of Southern Baptist Convention; Rev. Dr. F. A. Douglass, of New York, Corresponding Secretary of the American and Foreign Bible Society; Rev. Wm. Beavins, of New Hampshire; Rev. Dr. W. H. McIntosh, of Marion, Ala., Corresponding Secretary of Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention; Rev. D. W. Thomason, of South Carolina Convention.

The President announced the following committees: On Finance—B. F. Mitchell, J. S. Allen, B. H. Phillips. Time and Place of Next Session—F. H. Jones, J. B. Richardson, C. C. Haymore.

To Nominate Preachers for Next Session—P. A. Dunn, H. W. Reinhart, F. P. Hobgood. The Baptist church was crowded to its full capacity last night to hear the Introductory Sermon of the Convention, which was preached by Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner, pastor of the First Baptist church at Raleigh. It was a great effort and, though occupying more than an hour in delivering, was followed with marked attention by the congregation.

The preacher took as his text Joshua, v. 13-15. His theme was the great work which has been committed to His people by God.

Spirits Turpentine.

—New Berne desires to have a Signal Station. —Robesonian: Cotton receipts at Shoe Heel for the month of October were 1,050 bales; total for this season 3,899 bales.

—The first number of a neat but small evening paper, published at Greensboro by R. T. Fulgum, called the Tribune, has been received. We send our best wishes.

—Raleigh Visitor: Mr. D. W. Spivey died at Youngville, in Franklin county, on Monday last. He was a very prominent man of that county.

—Kinston Journal: Turkeys $1.50 per pair. Country hams 18 cents per pound. Mrs. Lanie Churchill, an aged lady of 93 years, of Greene county, died on Tuesday November 1st.

—Raleigh News-Observer: In view of the fine native woods of our State, it is suggested that we should establish manufacturing of furniture among the line of our factories. There is one drawback, and as far as we know only one, it is the want of local freights.

—Goldboro Messenger: We are pleased to learn from Judge Clarke, that the New Berne and Beaufort canal improvement, which has for its object the connection of the waters of the Neuse river and Beaufort harbor, by widening and deepening the old Club-Foot and Harlowe's Creek canal, to become a transit for seagoing vessels, is in a fair way of being accomplished.

—Greensboro Patriot: Mrs. Ella Williams, daughter of the late Rev. Wm. Barringer, and beloved wife of C. W. Ogburn, Esq., after several weeks of illness, died at her residence here on Sunday the 10th ult., leaving her husband, two small children and many friends to mourn her untimely death.

—Walden News: On Wednesday Werner Naw, while working bread in his father's bakery, caught his hand in the roller, which crushed all of his fingers and drew out the finger nails.

—Walden News: On Wednesday a white man by the name of Barber, from Northampton county, while walking across the bridge fell off, striking the ground below, a distance of thirty-five or forty feet. He was very drunk, and was not much hurt.

—Walden News: On Wednesday a fire broke out in the building of Mr. W. T. Parker, at Halifax, was burned to the ground. The building, engine and eight bales of cotton were entirely destroyed, entailing a heavy loss of insurance.

—Warsaw Brief Mention: We deeply regret to learn that a young man from this county, Haywood Boney, had the misfortune to get his hands badly lacerated by Merritt and Register's saw mill, at Seven Springs, Wayne Co., last Friday.

—Walden News: On Wednesday a fire broke out in the building of Mr. W. T. Parker, at Halifax, was burned to the ground. The building, engine and eight bales of cotton were entirely destroyed, entailing a heavy loss of insurance.

Local Notes.

—Thanksgiving—the 24th—not quite two weeks off. —The receipts of cotton yesterday footed up 1,362 bales.

—Some slight improvements are being made to the front of Masonic Hall. —The circus tents will be pitched on Dickerson's Hill, where the last two shows exhibited.

—Spirits turpentine still on the boom, sales being made yesterday at 52 1/2 cents per gallon. —The repairs to Boney bridge have been completed, and it is now reported to be in good order.

—About nine gallons of New River oysters were condemned and sent out of the market yesterday. —Mr. Jno. Keith, formerly a carpenter in the shops of the W. & W. Railroad Company, died at Fayetteville on Thursday last.

—Several timber rafts arrived here from up the river yesterday, and a good many more are on the way, having taken advantage of the slight rise in the river. —The fence around the extension of Pine Forest Cemetery was completed yesterday, and it will now be neatly white-washed. A lodge in the grounds is in contemplation, we understand.

—The circus will auction off part of its stock of work horses while here, preparatory to going into winter quarters. You needn't try to buy the elephants, though; they are not for sale.

—A Fox Hunt that Wasn't a Fox Hunt. A party of eight or ten gentlemen went down to Myrtle Grove Sunday evening, with the intention of having the next morning one of the fox hunts "you read about" on the beach. They bivouacked that night at a house in the neighborhood, known as the Jim Bennett place, all of the party save one sleeping on hay or grass spread down upon the floor; but that one preferring a harder bed to the risk of being called to account for his wickedness by a big moccasin snake before morning.

—The party noticed while on the beach millions of migratory birds flying southward, no doubt feeling from the approaching "cool wave." The party returned home that evening, well pleased with their trip, having had, as they expressed it, "a jolly good time."

—Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching. There are quite a number of strange tramps here, who are going about the streets, principally on the "hills" beyond. Once in a while there may be found one who is a worthy object of charity, but they are not all so "by a large majority."

—Mr. Sprunt's Condition. Mr. Sprunt passed a very comfortable night, but was in great pain in the forenoon of yesterday, which unfavorable condition, however, was succeeded during the afternoon by much more encouraging symptoms, and at last accounts he was resting very easy and comfortably.

—Another Tramp Scooped Up. A tramp, who gave a fictitious name, as was afterwards discovered by papers and letters in his possession, which were addressed to A. W. Jones, was arrested by Officer Gordon, of the police force, yesterday, under the vagrant act, he having been detected in the act of begging at some of the stores on Market street. He was put in the guard house to await a hearing before Mayor Smith this morning. He appears to have relatives, including a mother, living on Long Island.

—BURNETT'S COCOAINE, UNLIKE ALL OTHER HAIR DRESSINGS, is the best for promoting the growth of and beautifying the Hair, and rendering it dark and glossy. The COCAINE holds, in a liquid form, a large proportion of deodorized Coconut Oil, prepared expressly for this purpose. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair.

The following are the indications for today: Middle Atlantic States northeast to southeast winds, threatening weather and rains or snow; a slight rise in temperature and falling barometer. South Atlantic States local rains and partly cloudy weather, winds mostly from the northeast to southeast, stationary or falling barometer, and stationary or a slight rise in temperature. Gulf States, areas of rain, followed by partly cloudy weather, and variable winds, shifting to west and north, except in the eastern portion. Tennessee and Ohio Valley, local rains, followed by partly cloudy weather, winds shifting to south and west, falling, followed by rising barometer, and slight changes in temperature.

—The Great Forepaugh Show. Under this head the Charleston News and Courier of the 11th has the following: "Promptly at 3 o'clock the procession started down King street, a train of gorgeous chariots, cages, horses and elephants, almost a mile long. There was no nonsense about it. It was in all respects a 'bang up' procession, and the boys went into ecstasies over it. The $10,000 beauty—and she is a beauty—was seated on an elephant and looked as pretty as a pink, while the fair one who personates 'Columbia,' although probably only a $30 beauty, looked equally as pretty on her lofty perch.

—There are two rings under the circus tent, and what is more to the purpose, there are performances in both. The circus performance too, is something far ahead of anything of the kind ever seen here. To give an idea of the elaborate character of the performance it may be mentioned that all the circus companies have heretofore visited Charleston advertised as a special feature an acrobat who performs the "difficult" act, feat of throwing two somersaults in the air." Forepaugh far surpasses all competitors by having a half dozen men who do the trick one after the other. Not only was the elephantine pyramid produced as advertised, but a couple of the best acrobats in the company actually vaulted over the pyramid, throwing two somersaults before reaching the ground. There are over thirty acrobats in the ring at one time, a half dozen equestriennes, several female gymnasts and a female bicyclist who rides the bicycle over a wire stretched across the canvas. [All in all, as circuses go, it is only fair to say that this is by long odds the best that has ever been seen in this city.]

—The circus will arrive here early this morning, and will pitch its tents on Dickerson's Hill, above the Carolina Central depot, being the same ground occupied by Robinson and Coup. The parade will start about ten o'clock this morning, and there will be two full performances—afternoon and night.

What Base Uses, Etc.

Mr. F. Martens, who has charge of the steam fire engine "Adrian's" horses, discovered a human jaw-bone in the midst of a pile of ballast, a few days since, with a full set of teeth, only one of which was in the least decayed. It was examined by a professional gentleman, versed in such matters, and pronounced the jaw-bone of a young man about 33 years of age, who had been dead only about three years, as indicated by the character of the skeleton. The ballast in which it was found came from some port in France, and is being used on our streets.
