OUTLINES.

The examination of witnesses in the Guiteau case was continued yesterday; Dr. Bliss was one of the witnesses examined; a section of the vertebræ of the late President was exhibited; Guiteau announced that he had Jno. B. Townsend, of New York. and Leonard Swelt and A. S. Trupe, of Chicago, to assist him; while being taken back to jail a man on horseback rode up to the prison van and shot at Guiteau: the ball grazed his arm; the man rode off and escaped. -- George Law died in New York Friday. -- Postmaster General James and party left Washington for Charleston yesterday. -- The Pacific National Bank of Boston has closed its doors. - Railroad traffic between St. Louis and Chicago is seriously interfered with by heavy rains which have washed out the road-beds - An anti-Land League meeting was held in County Tipperary, Ireland. - Earthquake shocks occurred at Cologne and Bonn. - The Central National Bank of Boston, which stopped payment yesterday morning, resumed again in the afternoon. - A "crank," named Jones, has been arrested in Washington as the man who shot at Guiteau vesterday. - New York markets: Money 3@6 per cent. per annum and 1-64 per cent. per diem; cotton steady at 12@121c: southern flour dull and heavy at $5 90@ 8 00; wheat without important change, ungraded white $1 27@1 424; corn to higher. ungraded 60@69c; rosin dull and lower at $2 30@2 35; spirits turpentine firm at 544

Oscar II. Harpel, a well known Philadelphia poet and printer, died a few days ago in Louisville, Ky. He was born in 1828.

The New York coach drivers are on a strike. Call in "Kurnel" De Lancev Kane; he ought to do all the coach driving for Gotham.

The Southern Radicals are now engaged busily in hunting for the five hundred Billy Mahones who are to trade off the old Democratic party.

We some how forgot to say that America is a gain victorious in Old England. Lorillard's colt Passaic won a race two days since. Blood

Our correspondent "Justice" must really excuse us. We must respectfully decline to continue a controversy of so little interest to our readers generally.

Abbey captured Patti. Haverly offered $4,000 a night in advance and $25,000 guaranty, but he was outbidden. The contract is for thirty concerts. The price of tickets to be $5 and downwards.

There will be but 146 Republicans in the next U. S. House of Representatives. This is one less than a majority. A Democratic Mahone must be found among the members. The Greenbackers and Independents will hold the balance of power.

We are glad to see Mr. James Barron Hope appreciated. He has been requested to repeat his Yorktown poem before the Philadelphia Historical Society. The poet-editor of Virginia made a decided hitabout the only thing at Yorktown that was not disappointing.

- We have received a letter from Mr. George M. Gibbs, of Fayetteville, re questing Information as to the receipt published by us on Sunday, Oct. 30th, signed by John Gibbs, and dated April 17th, 1750, which was picked up on our streets, the writer stating that the signer of said receipt, John Gibbs, and George Gibbs, mentioned in the body of the document, were brothers of his father, Mr. Robert Gibbs.

The Lard and Molasses Story.

The following is the sequel to the lard and molasses "dot," published in our last, as told by the "two clerks" alluded to:

"A certain retail grocer called recently upon a certain wholesale establishment, to know if they had lost a pail of lard lately, as he had one in his store with their names stencilled on the lid, left there by a colored individual whom he knew was not able to buy so much at one time, and he felt confident that he had stolen it. The widea-wake book-keeper, hearing this statement remarked that he was positive that the lard was some that was stolen about a month ago from the firm. The shipping and receiving clerk was notified to investigate the matter, but finding no satisfactory clue that would enable them to claim the lard, dropped the whole thing. Soon after this the retail dealer found the lard-as he supposed-rather heavy, and curiosity led him to open the package, which, to his astonishment and chagrin, contained molasses."

Foreign Shipments. The following comprise the foreign shipments yesterday: The Norwegian barque Jens Nilsen, Capt. Berg, for Liverpool, by Messrs. Williams & Murchison, with 1,359 bales of cotton, weighing 628,848 pounds, and valued at $73,890; the Norwegian barque Abeona, Capt. Northrop & Cumming, with 85,879 feet lumber, 50,000 shingles and 25,000 brick, valued at $1,-800.88. Total value of foreign exports for the day $154,840.88. Western No Carolina Railroad. Governor Jarvis, Senator Vance and State Treasurer Worth, railroad commissioners, held a meeting at Clinton, yesterday, and decided to extend the time for the completion of this road.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1881.

Rev. Dr. Vates-A Testimonial of the

Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., the beloved pastor of Front Street M. E. church, was the recipient of a handsome testimonial of the love and appreciation of the younger members of his congregation, principally in the shape of a "pounding," as it is commonly termed. Among other things deposited in the reception room to his credit was a large number of packages of provisions and useful articles generally, while he was also presented by the ladies of the congregation with a fine overcoat, handkerchief, kid gloves, and silk hat. Capt. W M. Parker officiated as spokesman in a neat and creditable little speech, which was feelingly and touchingly responded to by Dr. Yates. The young people further enjoyed themselves with vocal and instrumental music, and everything passed off pleasantly and agreeably to all interested Br. Yates fills his pulpit to-day for the last time previous to his departure for Conference to receive an appointment to a new field of labor. The strongest attachment exists between him and his congregation, and he will leave hosts of friends outside of his own charge, who esteem him for his pure, christian, characteristic spirit.

The Steamer St. Nicholas. The steamer St. Nicholas, Capt. Sloat, put in at this port yesterday for slight repairs to her machinery and for coal, landing at Messrs. Fowler & Morrison's wharf, where she will probably remain for several days. She is of 380 tons burthen, carries a crew of fourteen, has an engine 36 inches in diameter, with an 8 feet stroke, and is 144 feet long has 29 feet 6 inches breadth of beam and 7 feet depth of hold. She is also provided with twelve berths and two handsome staterooms for families, and has accommodations for seven hundred passengers. The St. Nicholas belongs to Mr. J. W. Fellows, of New York, and is bound from New York to Jacksonville, Florida, being designed to run during the winter months between Pilatka, Florida, and Savannah, Georgia. Mr. Fellows is the owner of three other boats now running on the interior waters of Florida-the David Clark, the City of Bridgeton and the Florida. Through the courtesy of Capt. Sloat and his officers we had the pleasure of a pretty thorough examination of the St. Nicholas and found her a very handsome boat, furnished with all the modern improvements and conveniences.

The McLaurin and Braddy Shooting

We were enabled yesterday to get fuller particulars of the shooting of Mr. T. B. Braddy than were contained in the necessarily brief paragraph in our last. It seems that there had been an old fead between the parties, and that Mr. Braddy went to Mr. D. W. McLaurin's mill and told him he understood he (B.) intended to horsewhip him (M.) on sight, and asked him if the report was correct. Mr. Braddy immediately drew his pistol, but before he could use it on Mr. McLaurin the latter commenced firing on Mr. Braddy, one ball taking effect in the head and another in the thigh. McLaurin then had his wagon hitched up and sent the wounded man home, and also sent a messenger for a physician. Braddy was not dead at last accounts, but it was certain he could not live. Both are prominent residents and planters of Marion county, S. C., and have large families, Braddy being about 40 and McLaurin about 50 years of age. It is reported that McLaurin went to Marion Court House on Friday and delivered him-

The Immigrant's Friend Society. At a meeting of the Immigrants' Friend Society, formed a few months since, it was determined to enter more actively and energetically upon the work for which the association was organized, which has for its aim, the promotion and encouragement of immigration to this particular section of North Carolina and affording all necessary information and assistance it may be possible for them to render, and without charge. They will require some funds for printing etc., and a committee will wait upon our business men for the purpose of securing contributions to the desired extent.

Friends, you who reside out of the city, and have never met this now famous Clothier, are you desirous of procuring a Stylish Outfit far a little money? Then send Ctterbourg a trial order—give him the test; but, before doing so, in order to better satisfy yourselves, write to any resident Minister, Bank President, Physician, Lawyer, or his Honor the Mayor of Wilmington, and ask who and what Otterbourg is; inquire into the principals that govern so successfully this now famous Clothing Establishment, and we'll wager the finest outfit in our establishment that not one word will be given in reply detrimental to the reputation of Otterbourg or his renowned "Men's Wear Depot."
