OUTLINES.

The latest speculation concerning the new Cabinet that is to be is that Lincoln may be retained. It is reported as certain that Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, will be Secretary of State. The following, according to the New York Times, is the list from which the Secretaries of the Navy, and Interior and Attorney General and Postmaster General are to be taken: Senator J. B. Chaffee, of Colorado; ex-Senator Timothy O. Howe, of Wisconsin; ex-Senator Aaron A. Sargent, of California; ex-Secretary George S. Boutwell, of Massachusetts; Mr. Chauncy I. Wiley, of Missouri; ex-Marshal W. W. Dudley, of Indiana, now Commissioner of Pensions; Gen. Edward P. Beale, Mr. Emory A. Storrs, of Illinois; Gen. Longstreet, of Georgia; Settle, of North Carolina, and ex-Governor Davis, of Texas.

Chaffee, Dudley, and Beale, are thought to stand the best chance of success. The Congress meets next Monday, when the Republicans, for the first time in many years, will have control of both the Senate and the House. With the Executive, the Legislature and the Judiciary they ought to be satisfied, unless they should develop a conscience and be ashamed of the way they got possession of the Senate. Here is the composition of the 48th Congress: Senate—Republicans, 37; Democrats, 11; scattering, 2. House—Republicans, 146; Democrats, 135; scattering, 12.

There are only seven Republicans who are trying to be elected Speaker of the House.

The Malleyes are in jail, and their cells are carpeted richly and otherwise furnished handsomely.

There is a report that Attorney General MacVeagh wrote a very peppery letter to the President. Let it be published.

Guiteau says he would like to take the lecture field. He feels confident he could make it pan out $50,000 the first year. He has no idea of being hanged.

The Courier-Journal thinks the New York Sun has "gone to meet Mr. Voorhees" on the protection tariff question. Very likely. The Democratic party can survive such defection.

I have many applications for the Mahone part in the great farce I am getting up to be played in North Carolina. But they are such a broken down set of Democrats they can't fill the bill.—Tom Cooper to Dr. Mott.

McCullough, the actor, has been criticizing Salvini and Rossi's manner in dealing with Shakespeare's great creations. He does not like their ways. And yet Boston, the most critical of audiences in this country, and the fairest and ablest critics of New York, place these two great Italian players far above Booth and all other Americans.

Another "crank" has turned up in Washington. He hails from Rhode Island, is named Henry S. Hubbard, and says he is "the spirit of Garfield" and is in Washington to preside at the trial of Guiteau. He is very intelligent, it is said. "He characterized Guiteau's acts as the grandest exhibition of spirit obedience, without question, that has ever been recorded."

The New York Express, under Cyrus Field's ownership, will aspire, it is said, to be the New York organ of Arthur. It has been Democratic. The Star is half-and-half. The World claims to be Democratic, but exerts but little influence with the party. It is owned by a Republican, Jay Gould. The Star and News are straight out Democratic. The Journal of Commerce leans that way.

There is a new novel in verse of Southern inspiration, we suppose. It is by Sallie Neill Roach, is dedicated to "the Lost Cause," and is called "Theon, a Southern Romance in Rhyme." The specimens we have seen are not inviting, but are no worse than we met with recently in a New England book claiming to be poetry. We have a volume or two of North Carolina verse that can rival either.

Burkhead and Yates at three different hours in the Baptist, and Rev. Dr. Mangum and Rev. J. E. Mann in the Episcopal church, the former at night.

Spirits Turpentine.

The thermometer stood 20 degrees above zero at Statesville on the 24th inst.

Salisbury Watchman: A party numbering about forty left here on Tuesday for Atlanta. We learn that three young men of this county returned from Texas on Friday evening last.

Durham Recorder: On yesterday morning, the preachers of the New Berne District, through Revs. N. M. J. Cross and J. F. Swindell, presented Dr. Closs with a handsome suit of clothes as a token of their high regard and fatherly affection for him.

Richmond (Va.) Herald: Fifty-seven school houses have been built in a single county in North Carolina, within one year. Will the Examiner and Chronicle, The Watchman, and the other first class Baptist papers at the North tell of this?

Danbury Reporter: We learn that a number of witnesses were summoned to go before the grand jury last week, against the men who took from the jail in Danbury, a short time since, and hung with a handsome suit of clothes as a token of their high regard and fatherly affection for him.

Raleigh Visitor: The remains of Mr. E. A. Batchelor, who was suddenly killed at Cameron, on Saturday evening last, were taken to Warrenton this morning for interment. The death of this young man has caused a feeling of regret in our community, where he was so well known.

Winston Sentinel: More or less blockading is carried on here in the whiskey business in a small way. Whiskey in kegs that never saw the face of a revenue officer or felt the influence of a government stamp, is brought here under cover of the darkness and sold on the back streets to negroes and white dealers.

Pittsboro Recorder: Chatham boasts, among her other curiosities, of having the tallest man in America. He is a mulatto, named James Gilbert, and is exactly seven feet, two inches high.

Edenton Enquirer: On Sunday last, the dwelling house on the farm in Bear Swamp, this county, the property of E. J. Burke, Esq., was entirely destroyed by fire. The fire was caused by sparks from the chimney.—Gen. W. S. Hancock and his staff arrived at Currituck Sound Tuesday where they are trying their marksmanship at the "foresight" rifle. We learn they are having a pleasant, but rather damp time of it. The people from all directions have been flocking to see Gen. Hancock.

Statesville Landmark: Rev. John W. Rosebro, a native of Statesville, but now pastor of the Presbyterian church of Mossy Creek, Augusta county, Va., has been elected pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Savannah, Ga., by a unanimous vote.

Warrenton Gazette: Our honored friend, Gen. Jos. B. Littlejohn, has shown us a handsome and unique medal presented to his father by Napoleon I., when he visited the Courts of Versailles as Secretary to Judge Ellsworth, Gen. Davis and Mr. Murray, our commissioners to settle the matters of indemnity and commerce between the two countries.—Capt. W. T. Alston has been kind enough to show us several valuable and interesting letters that passed years ago between those great and good men, Nat. Macon, Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson, John Randolph and Lafayette. Some of the letters were merely friendly ones, addressed to Mr. Macon, while others, especially those from President Jackson, contained serious discussions on political questions. None of the letters were ever published.

Monroe Enquirer: We regret to learn of the death of Mr. James C. Williams, which sad event occurred at his residence, four miles east of this place, on last Sunday, the 20th, after an illness of about sixty years of age, was one of our best citizens.—We regret to learn that Mr. Marion Sutton, of Sandy Ridge, was severely injured on last Friday morning while feeding a cotton gin. At the time of the accident he was engaged in raking seed mounds from under the gin with his foot, when the saw caught one leg of his pants and pulled his leg in, severely mutilating the limb in several places from the knees down.—Some fiend in human shape visited the wagon lot near the Baptist church, on last Friday night, and committed acts of cruelty that could be equaled only by a savage. In the first instance, two of the good horses were wantonly stabbed in the side. One of them belonged to Mr. John H. Weir, of Jackson, and received a gash in its side of about two feet in length and as deep as the rib of the animal would allow the knife to penetrate. The other horse, which belonged to a mountaineer, was not so badly injured.

Wadesboro Times: On Saturday night last the two cotton gins, grist mill and steam engine of Mr. Walter J. Ratliff, in Gulgledge's township, were destroyed by fire. The loss is heavy, amounting about $4,000, on which there was an insurance of some $2,700. There was some cotton also consumed, but we did not learn the amount.—We regret to announce that Capt. Riden Bennett had his hand caught in a cotton gin Tuesday, and so cut as to necessitate the amputation of one of his fingers.

Liliesville dots: Ass Brooks died in Union county, Nov. 14th, 1881. He was born June 18th, 1777. These figures are authentic; make your own calculations.

For over fifty years he was a member of the Baptist church.—Sherwood C. Liles, of Cairo, has had picked and ginned a bale of "second growth" cotton, and says that for fineness and silkiness of the lint he has never seen anything equal to it. [The Strange it is, but yet oh, how true, that blockade runners carry along a better grade of—well, say apples, chestnuts and flour, than can be bought publicly in Wadesboro or Lilesville. No adulteration there; you can smell the corn-cobs, peach-kernels and apple-seed. They sell at low figures.

Greenville Express: Allen Cotton, colored, raised a pumpkin on Col. Sugg's farm that weighed 106 pounds. He sold it for 75 cents.—Mr. John M. King, of Farmville, told us last week that he sold his bay mare, Mattie B., at the Tarboro Fair, to the owner of Sailor Boy, for $750.—Rev. George Joyner, of Marlboro, who returned yesterday from an extended trip through Beaufort and Hyde counties, informs us that the crops of rice, cotton and corn were simply magnificent in that fertile region this year.—The difference between cotton and wool is, one is grown down South and the other is grown on a Southdown. Do you see?—The David House has a good farm three miles from town, over the river, and he and his two sons are model farmers. This year they have made 50 bales of cotton on 50 acres of land, and 175 barrels of corn on 27 acres.—John Langley, colored, was arrested on Saturday last, near Pactolus charged with the horrid crime of attempted rape upon a white girl. The girl was going to school when the monster seized her, and her cries and screams and struggles alone prevented him from accomplishing his purpose. Talk was openly made of lynching the scoundrel, but wiser counsel prevailed, and he was taken to jail Sunday.

Local Dots.—The receipts of cotton yesterday footed up 1,433 bales.—A beautiful rainbow was visible yesterday morning, about 8 o'clock.—Mr. Seth Davis leaves this morning for Nassau, but will return between now and Christmas.—There was a heavy and continuous rain yesterday, and it is supposed to have been pretty general.—The Norwegian barque Lovoid, Capt. Pans, was cleared from this port for Bristol, England, yesterday, by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, with 800 casks of spirits turpentine and 2,800 barrels of rosin, valued at $28,600.—Mrs. Alex. I. Porter, of Nashville, Tenn., is President, Miss Clara Barton, of Danville, N. Y., Secretary, and Miss Mary Maxwell, (care of J. M. Dixon, Maxville House, Nashville, Tenn.), Treasurer, of the Association formed for securing a life-size portrait of Mrs. President Polk, to be placed in the White House, allusion to which was made yesterday. Persons who do not find it convenient to see Mrs. H. Voller, the Vice President for Wilmington, can send their contributions direct to the Treasurer.

Forgery.—One Charles Williams, colored, had a preliminary examination before Justice Gardner, yesterday, on the affidavit of John Deal, white, charged with obtaining five dollars in money from Mr. John W. Henderson, of this city, on an order to which he had forged the name of J. W. Westbrook, President of Pender county. According to the evidence the order was forged on the 12th inst. and the money collected on Sunday, the 13th inst. The order requested Mr. Henderson to let the bearer (whose name was given as Nat. Bryan) have the sum of five dollars, and the signer, purporting to be Mr. Westbrook, would refund the amount when he brought some turpentine down. It was presented by John Deal, and he received the money, and it came out during the investigation that the two divided the proceeds, each taking $2.50. In other words, the examination served to indicate a conspiracy between Charles Williams and John Deal to get the money. Williams was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the present term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was locked up. Deal then had an examination and was also held for his appearance in default of security in a like amount.

The Late Shooting Case.—Mr. D. W. McLaurin, who shot Mr. T. B. Braddy, near Little Rock, Marion county, S. C., on the 16th inst., an account of which appeared in the STAR at the time, was subsequently taken before Justice McIver, on a writ of habeas corpus, and admitted to bail in the sum of $3,000. Braddy died from the effects of the wounds some days since. It is understood that McLaurin will find no difficulty in giving the bond required. The trial of the case will be held in Marion in February.

About "Patridges."—Boys, if you want to have a good time shooting "patridges" jine Uncle Sammie Davis on one of his excursions to "Rose Hill." The top-crop of "patridges" in that ballwick is just too awfully utter to think about. In a full day's hunt you can bag enough of the "Rose Hill" birds to make a good lunch for a year-old baby. Uncle Sammie's buggy cushions are a trifle hard, but they are all right when you get used to 'em.

"BLACK-DRAUGHT" cures costiveness and Sick-Headache.

Appointees of the Late Conference.—Rev. Frank H. Wood, who received the appointment at the late Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Durham, to preside over the destinies of the Front Street M. E. church of this city for the ensuing Conference year, is well known in Wilmington, where he was stationed some eleven or twelve years ago as pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. church, and has many very warm friends here, who will most cordially welcome him once more into their midst. Mr. Wood was stationed at Newbern during the Conference year just closed.

Our friends of the Fifth Street church were doubtless glad to learn that the Conference had respected their wishes and returned them Rev. T. Page Ricard, their beloved pastor of the past two years, to officiate for them again. He has been a laborious and faithful worker, and his zeal has been instrumental in much good. His many friends in and out of the church he has served so well will welcome him back.

We congratulate our Methodist friends in Raleigh in securing Rev. Dr. Yates to serve them during the next Conference year, and those in Newbern, that in losing Mr. Wood they have been so fortunate as to secure so able and zealous a successor as Rev. Dr. Burkhead, late Presiding Elder of this District.

Enterprise.—Messrs. B. D. Morrell & Son have attached to their establishment on Second street a circular and scroll saw combined, which does very neat work, ripping stuff two and one-eighth inches thick and sawing brackets two inches and three-quarters thick. The machine is supplied with a variety of saws for different descriptions of work, which can be changed at pleasure.

Report to the Signal Office.—Under the head of "Hanshagen's Balloon Voyage," Mr. J. G. Hasbagen, of this city, who accompanied Prof. King in his recent perilous trip, gives in the Washington Post, of Sunday last, a graphic account of his adventures, being in the shape of a report to the Signal Office.

John McGinness says: Dr. Benson, I will pray for you as long as I live, because you took pity on me when I was sick and in the hospital, and sent me two boxes of your Celery and Chamomile Pills; and they cured me of Sciatica, Neuralgia and Nervous weakness.

Rock Spring.

In looking over the records of the proceedings of the Board of Town Commissioners of Wilmington in the year 1823 we find frequent reference made to the somewhat famous "Rock Spring," the water from which even at this late day is claimed, either jestingly or earnestly, to possess the extraordinary virtue of preventing those who have once quaffed it from remaining permanently away from the place, and under date of September 3rd of that year we find this order: "That Mr. James Usher be notified to remove the naval stores or any other article which he may have lying on Chesnut street near the Rock Spring, within one week from the date hereof, under penalty of Ten Dollars for each and every day the same shall be found to remain after the said 10th day of the present month."

The Commissioners at this time were E. B. Dudley, Magistrate of Police, W. H. Halsey, John Cowan, and Ed. P. Hall. E. B. Dudley was afterwards selected Governor of the State.

Mayor's Court.—Charles Anderson, white, was arraigned before Mayor Smith yesterday morning on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon, Sue Johnson, the young woman alluded to in our last as having been shot at by the defendant, declined to prosecute in the case. Anderson was required to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the present term of the Criminal Court, which was furnished and he was released.

Virginia Bolden, colored, charged with acting very disorderly, cursing and swearing and using obscene language on the public streets, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 or go below for thirty days.

RIVER AND MARINE.

The steamship Regulator, hence, arrived at New York yesterday.

Nor. barque Haabet, Tellefsen, for this port, was at Bermuda on the 24th inst.

Schr. Franconia, Tanton, hence, arrived at New York on the 27th inst. Had strong northerly and westerly gales, split sails.

The river was falling at last accounts, but the rain of yesterday is supposed to have extended far enough up the country to cause another considerable rise.

SOUTHWARD THE SOUTHERN GENERALS FLY.—About Thanksgiving Times for some years past, many of the leading Journals throughout the land have chronicled the movements southward of Gen. Beauregard, of La., and Jubal A. Early, of Va., to New Orleans, where they resort semi-annually to construct under their sole control the Grand Distribution of the Louisiana State Lottery, which will next occur at New Orleans. A sufficient number of tickets, to the value of millions of dollars will be cast among the ticket holders, and the full particulars of which can be ascertained by reading M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. One hundred thousand dollars is the first prize. Who will get it?

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and administering the wife with which he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homoeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night the child slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the decision practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and is now sending her neighbors to procure it, and is sending crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A true trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby; and overcomes the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
