The dome of the engine was hurled a great distance. Altogether there were 42 members of the North Carolina Press Association at Atlanta, representing all parts of the Old North State. Meeting were held every night at Atlanta, and the editors all appear to have enjoyed themselves greatly. They all ad-mire our State's exhibit. — From a private letter received here yesterday we learn some additional facts with regard to the lynching of the two negroes at Oxford last Thursday. It appears that in their confession the doomed men stated that they had planned to kill one of three men, or, if posible, all of the three. These three were Mr. Lynch, Mr. Brogden and Mr. Cle-ments, the latter being the Register of Deeds of Granville county. All these genmen live in the suburbs of the town. Col. McClure is again in Washington. He writes to his paper, Philadelphia Times, on the 4th:

"On one point the signs are unmistakable. The Arthur administration will be a personal administration after the Grant pattern, but with vastly more political sagac-ity in its direction. The stalwart sails will not be fully spread until after the holidays, and then leaders and followers will hear the old Grant tunes with variations as the party music.

An interesting letter in the Charleston News and Courier, from Atlanta, Ga., gives a clear view of the political situation in that State. The writer thinks breakers are ahead for the Democracy. He says their triumph is by no means assured. The Mahone success will embolden the Independents, who are led by "men of intelligence, property and respectability." The following is interesting:

"The last political campaign in Georgia made up the most vicious chapter in the political history of the State. For shameful personal abuse, eloquent oratory, popular enthusiasm, sectional bitterness and general demoralization, it stands without a parallel. It resulted in the establishment, by an overwhelming majority, of a political triumvi-rate, composed of Joseph E. Brown, John B. Gordon and Alfred H. Colquitt. It left Brown with four years to serve in the Senate, and in the next campaign there will, therefore, be no contest for his place. It left Colquitt with a second term in the Executive office, and tired of it and, therefore, not a candidate for re-election. It left Gorden entirely out of politics, but stronger in his hold upon the affections of the people. Colquitt is yet undecided as to his candidacy for the United States Senate as the successor of Hill, and Gordon has no idea of standing for Governor. So we have the anomalous spectacle of the three leaders who won the last fight personally uninterested in the next struggle. Mr. Hill's chances for reelection to the next Senate depend altogether upon the composition of the Le-gislature which will be elected at the same time the next Governor of the State is chosen. He has a great many bitter and uncompromising enemies, but his hold upon he people has been greatly strengthened by us recent course in the Senate, and by reason of his terrible sufferings from what is commonly believed incurable cancer of the

There are twenty-five second rate men aspiring to be Governor. Martin J. Crawford, of Columbus, is thought to be the strongest. He is Associate Justice and a man of marked ability, common sense and wit. That describes Senator Vance. So there will be trouble in many States, it seems.

The Jewish Festival. Our Jewish fellow citizens intend giving a festival at the City Hall Christmas week, commencing on the 27th inst., which promises to be the grandest affair of the kind given in Wilmington for some time. The object of the enterprise is to raise funds to pay off the debt of the Temple of Israel and every inducement will be offered the public to assist in the enterprise.

The Hall will be tastefully decorated. and an elegant assortment of articles will be offered for sale or raffle, and in addition there will be the usual display of fancy work and tempting edibles. Committees are actively at work making arrangements for the festival and we are promised a novel and especially attractive entertainment.

A Larceny of Two Years Standing.

Wm. Beatty, colored, the happy possessor of two or three aliases, was arrested by Special Deputy J. W. Millis, Monday night, charged with stealing a bag of potatoes from George W. Harper. The crime is alleged to have been committed over two years ago, and a warrant was issued for Beatty's arrest at the time, but he managed to elude the vigilance of the officers until the night in question, when he was pointed out to Mr. Millis and taken into custody. He was required to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance before Justice Millis for preliminary examination on Thursday at 12 o'clock, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Distributing Minutes---Encouraging Exhibit.

At the monthly business meeting of the First Baptist Church, held on Monday evening, the minutes of the last meeting of the Eastern Association were distributed. The pastor, Rev. J. B. Taylor, called attention to an encouraging fact noted in these minutes. During the past Associational year, besides arranging for its debt of over $6,000, one-half of which has already been paid in, wounds received were very peculiar ones under the circumstances, and it was feared at first that the unfortunate man had not long to live, but at last accounts, yesterday, it was thought there had been a little improvement in his condition, which, how-

The "Descon" on Another Rampage. "Deacon P." left for Raleigh yesterday morning, and for a few days his handsome form, benign countenance, and beaming smile will be missed from the precincts of Front street. In this instance, as no band was along, it was unnecessary for him to take his baton as drum-major, or his keys for catching "varmints" by locking their mouths. His mission is that of training the goat by attending the Grand Lodge of Ma sons, and, as he had ridden the animal a few times before, he naturally concluded that he needed neither step-ladder, saddle, or bridle, but could hold by the horns. The "Deacon," however, is a good fellow, and we would like for our friends at Raleigh to take good care of him, and in advance we caution them that if he talks very loudly it is merely the effect of his daily surroundings near Hart, Bailey & Co.'s copper and machine shops.

RIVER AND MARINE.

- The steamship San Domingo, of the Clyde line, is expected to arrive here from New York on Saturday next. She is said to register 1,600 tons.

- The steamship Gulf Stream, Captain Ingram, left New York at 4 P. M. on Saturday, and arrived at her wharf at Wilmington on Monday evening at about 8.30 o'clock, which is said to be the quickest trip on record between the two ports.

- The Signal Officer received information from Smithville yesterday afternoon to the effect that the side-wheel steamer Port Royal, Capt. Martin, heretofore reported aground inside of Queen's Inlet, at Middle Sound, had passed that point at 2.45 P. M., coming up to this port, having gotten off at high water. There was considerable anxiety about the steamer for a week or more, and the signal officers on the coast had been notified to look out for her.

- The Schooner Curran, from Sloop Point for this port, with a cargo of something over one hundred barrels of turpentine, a quantity of peanuts and something near a dozen bales of cotton, in attempting to come in at what is known as "Corn Cake" Inlet, on Sunday, the weather being cloudy and Capt. Price being afraid to risk going across Frying Pan Shoals, got too near the shore and struck the outer breakers and was so badly damaged and shattered that she sunk in five minutes. The vessel will prove a total loss, and the cargo will be scattered so badly that it is not likely much of it will be saved. The Curran was the property of Capt. S. B. Price, of Smith-
