OUTLINES.

The Flipper court martial has rendered its verdict, but it will not be known until passed upon by the reviewing authorities. _____An Italian, in New York, killed his wife, fatally shot his mother-in-law, and then shot himself through the neck; he has a chance of recovery. ---- A country merchant, in Alabama, was called up at night by negroes, killed and robbed. The steamer Hibernian arrived at St. Johns. from Queenstown, after a passage of seventeen days; she sustained damage, and the third officer was washed overboard and perished. ---- The supply firm and bank of Nininger & Co., at Miles City, Dakota. failed for $285,000. --- Two hundred and seventy bodies have been recovered from the ruins of the burned theatre at Vienna; the fourth gallery, from which it is believed not a single person escaped, had not been explored. ---- Austin, appointed assistant doorkeeper of the House, is from Tennessee, and not from North Carolina. -The Cotton Planters' Convention adjourned to meet at Little Rock in 1882. ____A steamer from Gibraltar for Antwerp is supposed to have foundered in the Bay of Biscay, with forty persons on board. - Col. John W. Forney is dead. ----Wm. Mullhall died of hydrophobia, at Mobile; he was bitten three months ago by his own dog. ---- Norfolk Cotton Exchange reports show that the top crop of cotton in North Carolina is small and insignificant being too late to mature; picking is finished in 17 counties. --- An explosion in a German colliery caused the death of sixtysix persons. --- Great frauds on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad have been discovered; from $100,000 to $200.000 have been stolen by employes. ----New York markets: Money 4@6 per cent.; cot ton quiet at 11 15-16@121c; southern flour dull and unchanged at $5 85@8 37; wheat opened lower, but afterwards recovered and advanced, closing weak and declining;

day. He had been a prominent editor for more than thirty years and was the author of three or four books. He was a man of much mental cleverness but without genius or greatness. He was a man of generous impulses, broadly charitable in his views and opinions, and a warm friend of the South. His paper is Independent Democratic. For sixteen years or more he affiliated with the Republicans, but he supported Hancock heartily with tongue and pen, and since then has been earnest and eloquent in favor of the Democratic party and a restoration of good feeling between the sections. He was a Jeffersonian Democrat before the war and he never got weaned from the grand old principles of liberty and law. He was probably 65 years of age. He has been a conspicuous figure in his day and was well known at home and in Europe. Mrs. Cornelia P. Spencer, second

It was a highly interesting and entertaining account of a first trip to Florida, and a description of its people, customs, buildings, climate, topography, products, advantages and disadvantages, as viewed by the speaker, after having visited the "Land of Flowers" repeatedly. Mr. Pitts was very pleasantly and appropriatly introduced by prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, collcking, and teething siege. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cureswind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. Col. Jas. G. Burr. and his instructive and pleasing effort was greatly appreciated by the audience in attendance.

Wants to Know.

One of our business friends wants to know if it would not be advisable for the owners of property on Water street, and particularly between Princess and Chesnut streets, to arrange their gutters in such a manner as to carry the water into the street, and not deposit it in young waterfalls on the pavement, which one is apt to encounter in trying to avoid the miniature lakes which abound in that locality? The pavement is so narrow that if two persons meet abreast of a telegraph pole or an awning frame they have to drop their umbrellas

The Virginia Legislature met on Wednesday. Gov. Holliday sent in his last message.

The Washington Post is enthusiastic actually over Mary Anderson's Evadne. What a change, "my countrymen."

The President's message is being praised pretty generally. Of course in a great big document like that there must be a few chances to wedge in a lew adverse opinions.

The largest sweet potato we have seen mentioned in our State exchanges for the season was 10 pounds. It is mentioned that Sumter county, S. C., has sent to the Atlanta Fair one that weighs 18 pounds.

There is much excitement is Charleston county, S. C., over the Stock bill that recently passed the Legislature. There are large herds of cattle that roam at will, and it is said that the law will be equivalent to a law of confiscation.

Several army officers testified in behalf of Flipper and gave him a good character. But it is not uncommon for a Northern bank cashier to have a first-rate character until his defaulting is made known. If Flipper is innocent we hope he will be vindicated and acquitted.

Frank Sharon, a young barber at Fall River, Mass., quarrelled with his wife, went home, found her asleep, kissed her three times, then put his pistol to her neck and killed her instantly. He says "something crossed his mind and told him to do it." That Guiteau business is growing. It is time for hanging to put a stop to these mysterious and dangerous mental impressions.

In estimating the amount of matter and the get-up of the STAR, with the steady work that appears in all departments, it should be remembered that the white population is about 7,000 only. This is about the size of the community upon which we must echo the words of the gentle, melancholy Goldsmith in the "Traveller:" "Where'er I roam, whatever realms to see, My heart, untravell'd, fondly turns to thee."

The Weldon News copies and heads what we said of Rev. Robert O. Burton, "Deserved Praise," and adds: "The Wilmington STAR speaks in a highly complimentary manner of Rev. R. O. Burton, of this county, and deservedly so. We assure our cotemporary that the reverend gentleman has not lost in the least his powers or force, but still commands the undivided attention and interest of his hearers now as he did when his years were not so many.

- Weldon News: Mr. R. E. Peele, of Crowells, was ordained as a minister of the gospel at Conoconary church in that place, on Wednesday night of last week. Rev. Mr. Blake and Rev. Mr. Vann officiated.

- Laurinburg Enterprise: A physician informs us that typhoid fever is raging alarmingly in the country, a few miles from town, whole families being prostrated with it in some localities. A bale of cotton weighing 1,025 pounds was sold in this town last Saturday by Mr. J. D. Jones, of this county. — The Farmer & Mechanic insinuates the opinion that the successor to Governor Jarvis will be a Republican. Suppose the movement to Mahoneize North Carolina succeeds, then what kind of a "hair pin" will the next Governor be-eh? - Our friend Dorsey Battle, we regret to learn, retires from the editorship of the Tarboro Southerner, a paper now nearly fifty-nine years old. For several years he has given the people of Edgecombe and the adjacent counties a readable, faithful, useful paper, spiced with fun and good sense.
