

NEURALGIA, Nervous Irritability, Sciatica and all painful Ner vous Diseases.-A treatise by a well known physisian, a specialist on these subjects, concludes as follows: "Neuralgia is one of the most painful of diseases, and is attended with more or less neryous irritation. Sciatica is also a form of neuralgia, and all painful nervous diseases come under that name. Neuralgia means nerve ache, and part of the body, as the nerves are supplied to part of the body, as the test and supplied to every part.

I have for many years closely studied the cause of neuralgia, and the nature of the nervous system, with the many diseases that it is subject to, and have found by actual experience that the true and primary cause of neuralgia is poverty of the nervous fluid—it becomes impoverished and poor, and in some cases starved, not because the patient does not eat, but what is eaten is not appauriated to the nervous system; there are appropriated to the nervous system; there are many causes for this, but Dr. C. INDIAN SUMMER.

Now shines the sun with tempered rays, And through the mild December days His face is veiled with fog and haze.
"Tis Indian summer. The grass is sprouting on the mead, Where kindly cattle stray and feed, And well the weather suits the need Of tramp or drummer.

Our sweetly variable clime Brings Indian summer in its prime A month or so beyond its time, To please and bless us. New joy has earth from sunshine caught, And miracles by nature wrought Make women wonder why they bought Their winter dresses.

Now softly swells the ocean's surge, And on the near horizon's verge, So low that in the mist they merge, The clouds are waiting. Though stripped are all the trees of leaves, Pet Nature's fruitful bosom heaves, And inwardly the small boy grieves O'er sleds and skating.

If one should wake on such a morn, And hear across the sprouting corn The bleating of the lamb new born, No wonder were it; And should the sweet but brief delights Of sunny days and moonlit nights Bring back the sad mosquito's bites, A man might bear it.

POLITICAL POINTS.

- Mr. Blaine is admitted on all hands to be a man of extraordinary talents, who has rendered not only his party. but the country as a whole, many valuable services. - New York Times, Rep.

- Perhaps after Arthur gets the Half Breeds all out and the Stalwarts all in the sort of a civil service that will keep them in will commend itself to him. Cleveland Plaindealer, Dem.

- Senator Garland's bill relative to the Presidential inability will be likely to command considerable attention, since Mr. Garland is conceded to be one of the best constitutional lawyers in the Senate. - Baltamore American, Rep.

- New York State is again under obligation to the Stalwarts. They have deprived her of the Speakership of the House of Representatives. First and last, Mr. Conkling has contrived to be of tremendous value to his own State. - New York Tribune,

- A business session, practical laws on business, no politics, a revision of the tariff, a cut-off on silver coinage, postal improvement, and legislation to fill gaps in existing Federal law about the Presidency, its election, title and tenure in disputed cases or during Presidential disability, is all the people ask of Congress .- Philadelphia Press, Rep.

DRAMATIC NOTES.

William J. Florence, the actor, proposes to leave the stage very soon. - Clara Louise Kellogg paid the penitentiary and asylum at Lincoln, Ne-braska, a visit last week and sang for the inmates. She was escorted by Governor

- Madame Adelina Patti, according to the Cincinnati papers, will appear at the May festival in that city in opera—a pleasure that no other city in the United States will have.

- Mrs. Mowatt, who was the delight of theatre-goers forty years ago, used to tell this: "She was playing 'Juliet' one night to a crowded house. In the last scene, as she lay dead in the tomb, she managed to ask 'Romeo' how the scene was going as he bent over her dead body: 'Beautifully,' he whispered.
'The people down stairs have to put up umbrellas to keep from being drowned by the tears of those in the gallery.

- The Dramatic critic is Asleep. The play Does not Interest him. He will give it Thunder in the Paper. The Actors will be Sorry when they read the paper, because it will Say they are not Artists. After the Play the Critic will go to the Variety Show. Will he sleep there? No, he will not. The lady in the Short Dress and Pink Tights will buy six Copies of the Paper in the Morning, because the Critic will Say she is an Artist. It is very Comfortable to be an Artist when there are Critics in the Neighborhood.

It is a pleasure, when afflicted with rheumatism to cure yourself when it can be done so effectually and inexpensively as with St. Jacobs Oil. Mrs. Ann Dougherty resides at 364 E street, South Boston. She is an elderly lady, and has been afflicted with salt rheum between her fingers for over sixteen years. She suffered terribly, and tried all kinds of remedies without obtaining any relief. She used St. Jacobs Oil four times, and by that time she could sleep at night, which she could not do before. She used St. Jacobs Oil again and got better and better, until now she is entirely cured. She commenced the use of St. Jacobs Oil about two months ago, and now thinks there is nothing like it. Her hand used to swell terribly, but all that has gone now. Her disease commenced to abate about the time she first used the Oil, but she has had no swelling since.

Gentlemen:—Some three months ago I began the use of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic, upon the advice of many friends who knew its virtues. I was suffering from general debility to such an extent that my labor was exceedingly burdensome to me. A vacation of a month did not give me much relief, but on the contrary, was followed by increased prostration and sinking chills. At this time I began the use of your Iron Tonic, from which I realized almost immediate and wonderful results. The old energy returned and I found that my natural force was not permanently abated. I have used three bottles of the Tonic. Since using it I have done twice the labor that I ever did in the same time during my illness, and with double the ease. With the tranquil nerve and vigor of body, has come also a clearness of thought never before enjoyed. If the Tonic has not done the work, I know not what. I give it the credit.

Most gratefully yours,

NOTICES OF THE PRESS:

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

—Charlotte Democrat. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register. The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington Star has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the

The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteent year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight. The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo-graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor. Although at the head of the press in this State mall that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magnitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a model newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond Va.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carelinian, we are proud of it.—

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dailies in the South.—Robesonian.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotts Observer. That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomao. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all,—Tarboro Southerner. The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.— The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlotte

The Morning Star, one of the best dailies we know, and as a newspaper, in our opinion, the very best, has entered upon its twelfth year. In every particular the Star comes fully up to the mark as the principle daily in our chief commercial city. Long may it twinkle.—Alamance Gleon-

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial de-acrtment is conducted with much ability.—Mor-

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily "waxed" until it now heaves resplendent in the full glow of a confederacy, the STAR has steadily waxed until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newspaper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder. The Wilmington Morning Star has entered up-on the thirteenth year of its existence, and we on the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too.) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are theroughly educated newspaper men. May the thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial, enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness—Goldsboro Messenger.
