"The Mobile Register and the Wilmington, North Carolina, STAR, show signs of advancement and improvement. Both of these papers are among the brightest written in the South. Both are bitterly Bourbonin tone, but except when their political toes are trodden on they are fair and able in discussion. Their improvement in typo-graphical appearance should herald a like change in every way.'

 New Berne item: Our reporter, who was in Goldsboro Wednesday, learned that the grading on the Midland extension has been completed to within a mile and a half of Smithfield; a large number of ties have been placed in position and all the culverts completed.

- Raleigh Recorder: Prof. C. D. Grandy, of Chapel Hill, writes: "Rev. M D. Jeffries has accepted our call, and will preach his first sermon here on the second Sabbath in January. — Rev. W. M. Kennedy has been called to the pastorate of the new church at Richlands.

- New Berne Nut Shell: Yesterday morning about half past eleven o'clock, Mr. John O'Neal, a white man, from Hyde county, was knocked from a corn cracker anchored off Stimson's mill, in Neuseriver, and drowned. The unfortunate man leaves a widow and two childen to mourn his untimely loss. He was a middle-aged man, and as far as we know, was highly respect ed by those who were acquainted with him.

- Charlotte Home-Democrat: It will be seen by the decisions of the Supreme Court of this State, that in the case of the A., T. & O. Railroad (Charlotte & Statesville) against the city of Charlotte, a new trial is ordered. That is right, as Judge Avery did not give the city a fair chance in the trial at fall term, when he ordered a judgment against the city for about $50,000, without letting the jury take the case or hear all the evidence.

- Graham Gleaner: On Wednesday last we visited the new cotton mills being built by our townsman, Capt. Jas. N. Williamson. The factory building is on the most approved modern style of architecture for manufacturing purposes, besides being very substantial and handsome in appearance. It is two stories with a tower three stories, 210 feet in length and 50 feet wide. It is being filled with machinery and by the first of March the proprietor expects to start 1,000 spindles and 100 looms.

— Pittsboro Record: On last Friday night some negroes got on a drunken spree, in the eastern part of this county near the Wake line, and one of them struck another on the head with a fence rail. On Sunday night the injured negro died in Wake county and his head being examined by Dr. C. N. Robinson the skull was found to have been fractured. We have not yet heard of the arrest of the supposed murderer, and presume he has escaped.

- Dr. John F. Foard writes to the North Carolina Farmer: "My friend and neighbor, J. D. Click, Esq., discovered this year that, after cutting his Early Amber sugar cane, there was a very abundant crop of suckers sprouted from the stumps, which made a very heavy crop of forage. When fed to milch cows it increased the flavor of the milk wonderfully, and hogs would leave corn to eat it while green, and when dried it made excellent fodder. Thus two crops were gathered from one sowing, and the latter perhaps the most profitable."

- Wadesboro Times: Mr. John Frazier, near Erie's Mills, in Montgomery county, died very suddenly last Friday of apoplexy. — The colored fair opened here at the Dixie fair grounds on Tuesday last under circumstances that augured success. sion. We paid a hurried visit to the grounds that evening, and confess that we were surprised, considering all the circumstances, to see such creditable exhibits as they made. We take this occasion to say to our people that the best lesson to be drawn from the fair may be found in the example of W. C. Coleman. At the close of the war he was a slave. To-day he is a man of means and an enterprising merchant. He is a fair illustration of what they may and can do. On yesterday addresses were made by Col. O. H. Dockery, Col. C. R. Jones and N. W. will deliver addresses. - Raleigh News-Observer: At a meeting of the Raleigh Academy of Medicine the following officers were elected: Dr. E. Burke Haywood, President; Dr. A. W Knox, Secretary; Dr. P. E. Hines, Treasurer. - The Southern States are again sending boys to Chapel Hill; Florida, South Carolina and Virginia being represented. The railroad is nearly finished, property is rising in value, new dwellings are building and everybody is hopeful. - Major Rogers says that he expects to complete the road from Tarboro to Williamston by May 1st, 1882. The company have secured a fine water front at Jamesville, which place will be the eastern terminus. Raleigh's connection with the east is a thing of the near future. We congratulate our people. We are informed by Major Henry J. Rogers, vice president of the Seaboard and Raleigh Railroad, who called to see us last evening, that an engine and iron sufficient to lay forty-five miles of the track of this road have already been purchased. Capt. Charles L. McAlpine and a corps of engineers will leave New York next Tuesday for Tarboro to commence the work of construction on the road between that place and

"Merry Christmas!" The Jewish Fair and Festival Next

At the invitation of Mr. A. Weill, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, and Mr. J. I. Macks, Secretary and Treasurer, we examined vesterday the arrangements in progress for the Fair and Festival of the congregation of the Temple of Israel, to come off at the City Hall on the 27th, 28th and 29th inst. One of the most noticeable features is the Postoffice, located on the west side of the hall, flanked by two fancy tables. Near the centre of the hall is the Floral Stand, with "Rebecca's Well" further on towards the entrance, while two more fancy tables are located on the east side of the hall, with a stage for the orators between them, which latter is placed in the position chosen for it especially with reference to the acoustic properties of the hall, it being ascertained by experiment that a speaker can be heard much more distinctly from the side than from the end of the hall, where the permanent stage is situated. Immediately in front of the latter are the refreshment and confectionery tables. All of these, including postoffice, stands and tables, are put up in an exceedingly stylish manner, and at the time of our visit Mr. B. F. White was engaged in arranging the decorations, which will be of various colors and designs and very attractive to the eye. The fair and festival will doubtless embrace all the features of a first-class entertainment of its kind, and will probably surpass anything of the sort attempted in Wilmington in a long time.

As before stated, Mayor Smith will formally open the fair, and Eugene S. Martin, Esq., will deliver the address.

Among the articles to be raffled off at the fair may be mentioned a bale of cotton a fine mirror, a fine French clock, a number of China sets, and a variety of other useful and ornamental articles,

A Cutting Scrape. Friday night, about 11 o'clock, a young colored man, named John Maultsby, got into an altercation with another colored individual named John Witherspoon, at a colored dance house on Water street, during which Maultsby drew a knife on Witherspoon, when the latter struck his antagonist and knocked him down. At this juncture parties interfered and seized Witherspoon. when Maultsby made a desperate thrust with his knife over the heads of the parties in charge of Witherspoon and plunged the point of the weapon into the latter's head, inflicting a very severe wound, from which the blood spouted freely. Maultsby thereupon dropped the knife and fled, pursued by Officer Everett, of the police force, who opportunely arrived at the scene, and who heard the cry of "stop him!" as Maultsby bolted out at the door and started up the street. Maultsby was soon overhauled by the officer, having been intercepted by Officer Bowden, whose beat he had entered, and was taken to the guard house.

This was the substance of the evidence before Mayor Smith yesterday morning, and the weapon used-an ordinary shoe knife -was exhibited in Court.

Defendant was ordered to enter into bond in the sum of $100, with good security, for his appearance at the February term of the Criminal Court, in default of which, after being turned over to the Sheriff, he was committed to jail.

A Cutting Affair in Pender County. Eli Watson, colored, has been lodged in our county jail on the charge of having committed assault and battery with a deadly weapon upon another colored man named Sanders. It seems that they were at work together in a swamp in Pender county, a few days since, when a difficulty arose between them which resulted in Sanders receiving a severe cut in the abdomen, another on the breast and still another on the head, while Watson was slightly cut on the leg. Justice Grady, of Cape Fear Town-- The prisoners in the county ship, in this county, came across the parties soon afterwards in his own "bailiwick," but subsequently discovered that the trouble took place in Pender, whereupon he turned them over to Justice Armstrong of that county, who sent Watson on to the Superior Court, which was in session the past week; but the case was continued for the term, and the defendant sent here for confinement. We understand that the wounds of Sanders' > were considered quite serious. St. John's Day.

We repeat, as our paper will not appear on that day, that Tuesday, the 27th of December, known by the Masons as St. John's Day, will be appropriately celebrated by the fraternity of this city by the installation of officers for the ensuing Masonic year, in private, in the Lodge Room, at 3 o'clock p. m.; and at 71 o'clock p. m., a procession will be formed at the Lodge Room and proceed to the Opera House, where an address will be delivered by Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Raleigh. The public are invited to attend the exercises at the Opera House.

Nutt Street. A petition quite numerously signed by prominent business men of this city respecting the condition of Nutt street, in the neighborhood of the depot, will be laid before President Bridgers, of the W. & W. and W., C. & A. R., R., and we have no doubt that he will promptly remedy the inconvenience complained of.

Chess, Carley & Co., with 1,276 casks of spirits turpentine and 500 barrels of rosin, valued at $33,500 Total value of foreign exports for the day

Distribution of Supplies to the Poor. Capt. F. M. James, who kindly volunteered to deliver all contributions for the benefit of the poor which might be placed in his care, performed that duty yesterday. He found ninety-two needy and destitute families, to whom he distributed the articles in accordance with his idea of their respective necessities, and had nineteen packages of coffee left, which he turned over to the Ladies' Benevolent Society. Mr. James deserves much credit for the good work he has accomplished, and the community is also to be commended for the liberal spirit manifested. Those who were benefitted no doubt feel profoundly grateful.
