Wilson killed his half brother and Brad Garland killed A. B. Harris; there was a murder committed in the same place a few weeks ago. - A noted Indian chief and thirty of his band of marauders killed by Mexicans near Chihuahua. --- An Express messenger is charged with the robbery of a train on the Southern Pacific Railway. - Gen. Wm. McRae has resigned the superintendency of the W. & A. R. R., of Georgia. - R. A. Brown, a prominent citizen of Americus, Ga., committed suicide. - A fatal type of small pox, resembling plague, is spreading in Dakota; some of the victims die in twentyfour hours after being attacked; Pittsburg. Cincinnati and New York report from eleven to twenty-five deaths each from the disease during the past week. - Leon Moore killed his sweetheart and himself through jealousy, at Biddeford, Me. A postal car thief from Bennington, Vt., arrested at Chattanooga, Tenn. - New York markets: Money 5@6 per cent. cotton dull and nominal at 12@12 5-16c; southern flour quiet and firm at $5 65@ 800; wheat irregular and unsettled; red $1 25@1 42; corn $@dc lower; ungraded 68@724c; rosin steady at $2 25@2 35; spirits turpentine firm.

The ablest and purest of New York statesmen, Horatio Seymour, is with the Southern Democrats in favor of a tariff for revenue only.

Fred Lamar has "busted." Even tager did not preserve him. one of the big Pennsylvania brewers. He fails for $300,000. Moderate.

The German immigration in 1882 promises to outstrip that of 1881, which was tremendous. People in Germany are tired of the rule of the Kaiser and Bismarck.

Mr. Gladstone's English admirers wished to present him with a hundred thousand dollar residence. He declined most positively. This will make Grant's mouth water.

Several fatal aecidents occurred in Baltimore on Monday from the devilish toy pistol. On July 4th some thirteen or more deaths occurred in that city from fooling with them.

Mormon emissaries in England are said to be reaping a harvest. If they were all tarred and feathered and placed in boats and shipped to Zulu-land, they would receive their dues. There is some grounds for attributing importance to an Independent movement in Pennsylvania. The Philadelphia Press, Republican organ, so regards it. It originates in a disgust of Cameron bossism. Having begun with Howe in my great Civil Service campaign, I shall first draw upon friend Grant's old whiskey ring pals, and that supply years of age. exhausted, will next tackle his lovely Cabinet-Robeson, "Landaulet" Williams and the remainder.—Latest Presidential soliloguy. We rise to inquire what has become of the "bitter biting cold-ene or those Decembers" almost without a parallel, which the truthful Vennor promised the icemen of Maine and the jelly-makers of the South? Oh, Vennor! Vennor! much guessing has ruined your reputation. Sit Lawyer Scoville's wife is thought to be somewhat of a "crank." In fact, some papers are intimating that she is as "cranky" in a way as her very rascally brother Charles, the assassin. By the way, the opinion is widening that Charles will kick the beam and that before many weeks. That is the well defined opinion in Washington.

VOL. XXIX.---NO. 80.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1881.

If half what the papers say about to ye. Mahonizing the South should turn out to be true the Southern Democrats are a shabby set. They are represented as being so stupid and forgetful and ignorant as to be ready to rush into the outstretched Radical Stalwart arms at the bidding of such poor creatures as Billy Mahone. Time will show how much of truth there is in such speculations. We will say this, that a strong, honest Democrat with a good political record as to State Rights, local self-government and the tariff, can carry the very States that are threatened, according to the veracious papers, with a Mahone movement in 1884. Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Texas can be relied upon in 1884 for a Democratic majority if the right man is chosen-one the people know they can trust. Just put

We wish to make two points as to theatrical matters: Two or three ladies suffered from the draughts in the Opera House during the Rossi performance. Many complained of being uncomfortable. If companies will slash plays they ought to give due notice in advance. It is not fair to charge for all and give only a half or two-thirds. This has been done here two or three times within two years. If necessary to get through by 10 o'clock, let the performance begin at 7 o'clock. There is no law requiring 8 o'clock.

that in your pipe and smoke it.

The sentries still guard the tomb of the late President at Cleveland, Ohio. A detachment of United States infantry constitute the guard. This is a strange period in the history of the greatest nation of freemen the history of the world knows. One dead President has to be protected from robbers and a living President has to be followed by detectives as he travels from the capitol of the Union to the great commercial metropolis of the Western

The Richmond (Va.) State heads its local columns-"A Crazy Christmas-Made hideous by noises, fights, drunkenness and general disorder-A citizen's Christmas ends in his death-A crammed criminal calendar in the Police Court." That is not very cheerful reading, it must be admitted. The Christian anniversary has been converted into a day of carousing, crime and violence. The records of the country show this.

The total number of revenue officers is 3,841. It costs $5,054,076.48 annually to collect $137,000,000 of

-Kinston Journal: The sporting club that visited Beaufort last week from this place report 125 ducks and 12 wild - New York Tribune: A colored tailor from North Carolina is said to have made $50,000 in Boston since the war. He gives employment to over 100 persons. - Philadelphia Times: General

Longstreet will ask the Legislatures of Tennessee and North Carolina to give him charters for the extension of his proposed road into those States.

- George Workman, an able-bodied white man, was arrested in Hillsboro last Saturday night by Constable Steward for stealing a pair of gloves, valued at 75 cents, from the store of C. M. Parks, Esq. —Hillsboro Observer.

— Greensboro Bugle: Mrs. Su-san Fitzgerald, sister of Maj. Jas. M. Garrett, died Sunday night, 25th, from a stroke of paralysis. Her first attack was on Thursday night and she never rallied. -We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Junius Gilbreth, a young gentleman living about three and a half miles south of Greensboro. He was about twenty three — A Washington paper says that Houdin's cast of the head of Washington is in the possession of W. W. Story, the poet-sculptor at Rome, who is an American. The Raleigh News-Observer says: "The fine bronze statue of Washington which adorns capital square is the work of Houdin, a famous French artist. The original statue, in white marble, is in the rotunda of the capitol of Richmond, Va." - Monroe Express; Rev. J. L. Williams, for some time pastor of the Wadesboro Presbyterian church, has resigned his charge, and returned to his old home in Hopewell township. Mecklenburg county. - Real estate in Monroe has advanced at least 40 per cent. in value within the last twelve months. —Butter is a drug in Statesville at 8 cents. It fetches 25 cents here readily. — On last Saturday night, a small frame building, the property of Dick Houston, colored, was destroyed by fire. Loss $250. — Monroe Enquirer: Senator Vance says that if he could only recollect the decisions of the Supreme Court as well as he can funny stories, he would be as difficult to overcome as was the Irishman who was blown up in a tunnel. The unfortunate Irishman's wife was lamenting in higubrious tones over what was left of Pat, when suddenly she straightened up and, with pride in her face, said: "Oh, but Pat, when yu wur aliye there wasn't a man in the mines could stand before ye. Sure about noon.

— The Nash county pole-punching was a "hefty" success. Eleven idle young men made a tremendous charge upon an iron ring tied with a red ribbon to a skinned pine pole. A hundred or two idle people looked on in admiration at the grand performance. It was much more tragical than amusing, as the following from the Wilson Advance shows: "I regret to state that a little boy, about ten years old, was badly injured by trying to cross the tournament track when one of the knights was riding at full speed The boy was dangerously, if not seriously, injured internally, and it is feared he will not recover."

 Last Saturday Burnell Leathers and Haynes Pratt were arraigned before Squire M. A. Angier, charged with committing an assault upon Green Barbee, col-The evidence against the defendants was sufficient to convince the Justice that they were guilty of the charge, and he bound them over in a bond of one hundred dollars each, to appear at the next term of the Superior Court. Green Barbee was very painfully injured. He was knocked in the nead with a hoe, a part of the elbow was cut off and a deep gash cut in the back.—
Durham Recorder. [A bond of $100 for breaking a negro's head is very insignificant. If he were to die the bond would not amount to much. It ought to have been $1,000.—STAR.]

- Wilson Advance: Davis & Watson's steam saw mill, in Spring Hill township, was burned last Saturday night. We have not learned the particulars. There was a big row at Fieldsboro Tuesday night, in which sticks and knives were freely used. About twenty white men and negroes took a hand in this little game, and one poor negro was seriously injured. It is unnecessary to add that all the participants in the row were drunk. - News reached here Saturday night that a white man named Alex. Godwin had been found Saturday evening, about 6 o'clock, on the railroad track about three miles from this place in a dying condition, and that he did afterwards die from his wounds while beng carried to his home near Black Creek. There was a rumor on the streets Monday that when in a conscious state, just before he died, Godwin stated that Tab Baker, a d-d negro, killed him with a club. Godwin had been in Wilson all day in an intoxicated state, and the evidence showed that he left our town on the southern bound passenger train, and that he either fell or was knocked off.

- Durham Recorder: Gen. Al-Scales has introduced a bill in the House to repeal the entire internal revenue laws. To that portion of the law in regard to the "tobacco tax," we enter our emphatic protest. No greater calamity could be visited upon our tobacco manufacturers and farmers than such an action proposed by Gen. Scales. — University Railroad com-pleted at last to within three miles of Chapel Hill, and the first passenger train down the N. C. road Tuesday crowded with stu-We learn there will be a daily train running from Chapel Hill to Raleigh - One day last week while our townsman, Mr. W. H. Hanks, was engaged in putting up the gas fixtures in the new building of Messrs. Stokes & Geer, he went down into the gas pit, for the purpose of seeing if it was properly arranged. The gas was escaping in such quantities that he was soon suffocated. Mr. Proctor, clerk in M. A. Angier & Son's store, happened to be at the rear of the building, and heard some one groaning. He ran to the "gas pit" and found Mr. Hanks lying stretched in the bottom. The alarm was given, and in a few seconds Mr. Hanks was rescued from a most horrible death. short while after he was taken out he rallied, and soon entirely recovered. -From a short interview with one of the party of huntsmen who returned last week from Lake Ellis, Carteret county, North Carolina, we learn that the ducking season has not yet arrived. The winter thus far has been comparatively moderate, and it requires continued blustery, bitter weather to break up the ducks, geese and swan from the sounds and drive them into the inland ponds and lakes. The canvas-back and red-head were not to be seen at all. An occasional shot at a mallard, summer duck and butter-ball kept the camp supplied with fowl. The butter-ball is particularly fat and sweet and kills hunger very easily. -The farmers in eastern Carolina seem to be tardy in finishing up the year's crop, hence it was almost impossible to employ a man to drive deer. Sport in this line, however, was fine. Deer were abundant; so much so, that mig ratory sportsmen believed them to be more numerous in the ever glade counties of Pender, Jones, Onslow. Craven, Pamlico and Carteret than in any part of the South.

Sneak Thieves.

Two colored boys, one about 15 or 16 years of age and the other about 12 or 13, have been in the habit of going into stores and other business places together, and, while one would engage the proprietor or clerk in conversation, or in asking the price of articles on the shelves, so that he would have to turn his back upon them, the other would steal whatever he could lay his hands upon and conceal about his person, and then both would take their departure. Several merchants have been thus victimized by the precious pair, only discovering their loss when it was too late to recover the property or cause the arrest of the thieves. It is hoped some effort will be made to bring them to justice.

Paving Nutt Street. The improvement of Nutt street, which has been going on for some weeks, under the direction of Mr. R. H. Beery, the contractor, was completed on Tuesday. It has been paved with three-inch plank from Mulberry street to the Carolina Central depot, a distance of one thousand seven hundred and fifty feet, and is now reported to be in a good condition, as far as the paving is concerned.

Magistrate's Court. Patsy Jones, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millis, yesterday, on the charge of slandering Rachel Jones, also of the colored persuasion. Defendant was adjudged guilty of the naughty misdemeanor and required to give bond in the sum of $50 for her appearance at the February term of the Criminal Court. In default of which she was committed to jail.
