- We notice water pipe going down pretty lively in different sections of the city, and judge that people are beginning to realize that water works are very convenient institutions.

 New River oystermen informed us yesterday that oysters were gradually getting poorer as the season advances, instead of fatter, as is usually the case. There are, however, some very fine ones brought to market.

- The work of improvement of streets and sidewalks goes steadily onward, and if the present able and careful management continues, there will soon be no cause to complain of having to wade through sand or mud puddles anywhere within the limits of our good city.

- We are requested by some of the business fraternity to call the attention of the authorities to the condition of the sidewalk on North Water street, near its intersection with Market. Also, to the fact that the same vicinity is usually made a loafing place of by idle crowds, who frequently obstruct the passage of persons on business intent.

A Suggestion and a Reminiscence.

It has been suggested to the Historical and Scientific Society of this city that the 'Devil's Tramping Ground," in Chatham, recently described by a correspondent, is only the remains of several tar kilns of ancient days. In this connection, a gentleman reminds us of an anecdote that a prominent lawyer of this city, not long since deceased, used to tell with great relish, to the effect that, whenever Mr. B., a prominent citizen, long since dead, used to be passing the remains of a kiln, he was in the habit of striking an attitude, and, shaking his fingers excitedly, point into space and suggestively ask, in a deep, guttural tone, Whar is the man that built that ar tarkiln now?" And the echo would answer, Where !"

Better be Vaccinated. The spread of small-pox so generally throughout the country is creating no little anxiety in the public mind, and even here in Wilmington there is a certain amount of dread on account of the near approach of the terrible disease. There is, however, really no cause for apprehension at present, though there is of course a possibility of the dread disorder being introduced here, and, in view of that fact, it would be safest for all who have not had the disease to go to Dr. Walker, Superintendent of Health, at his office on Princess, between Front and Princess streets, and be vaccinated.

The Vokes Family.

Alluding to the performance of this sprightly troupe in Richmond, the Dispatch has this to say:

"The performance opened with a pretty little dramatic sketch, which might have been very dull, but was made sprightly and interesting by the clever acting. Miss Fanny Brown's acting in the character of Ruth Cary was both natural and piquant.

The Vokes family appeared in their so-called extravaganza Belles of the Kitchen; but the name is not well applied. and Missus' are away, and the servants have a good time generally during their ab-sence. The idea is well carried out, and in much more consistent a fashion than usual in performances of this kind; yet there is a deficiency in that the fun has no climax, and the ending is announced by the dropping of the curtain-not by the action.

The burlesque of the tower scene in Trovatore' was admirable, and was enthu siastically encored. It was intensely ab surd to see Manrico unsuccessfully balancing a clothes-horse on a kitchen table while Leonora, on her knees, dodged the impend-ing evil, and both sang the exquisite music most delightfully. It was a pleasure to hear once more Miss Bessie Sansom's rippling, musical laugh—the very soul of merriment and irresistibly contagious. All the parts were well taken and the dancing was excellent.

The Vokes Family give a performance at the Opera House in this city on Tuesday next, the 10th inst.

Consecration of a Bishop.

The consecration of Rev. H. Pinkney Northrop as Bishop of North Carolina takes place at the Cathedral in Baltimore to-morrow, and the Sun says it promises to be one of the most notable affairs of the kind celebrated in that city for some time. Pontificial high mass will be said at 11 o'clock, during which Archbishop Gibbons will perform the ceremony of consecration. Right Rev. John J. Keane, of Richmond, will, in the absence of Bishop Lynch of Charleston, who is indisposed, deliver the sermon. It is expected that all of the Bishops of the Province of Baltimore, and several from other provinces, will be present. The greater portion of the clergy of the city will be in attendance. The programme of arrangements for the occasion has not yet been definitely settled.

Mayor's Court. A. R. Batson and Amzi Ruddisil, two colored hotel waiters, were arraigned for engaging in a disorderly tussel, which bid fair to develop into a first-class row or disturbance. The principal part of the blame seemed to attach to Batson, who was re quired to pay a fine of $5 or be imprisoned for ten days. Ruddisil was discharged. Joseph Galloway, white, charged with disorderly conduct, was ordered to pay a fine of $5 or go below for ten days.

Magistrate's Court. Isaiah Easton was arraigned before Justice Millis, yesterday morning, on the charge of committing an assault and battery upon Mary Jones, colored. Defendant was found guilty, but judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs. From this decision defendant appealed, and was required to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Rev Sylvanus Cobb thus writes the "Boston Christian Freeman": We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever.
