Put this aside for future meditation after reading it. It is a nice comment upon Republican rule. We clip from the New York letter in the Philadelphia Ledger, a moderate Republican paper:

So far as the ocean carrying trade is concerned it must be acknowledged New York has now ceased to be an American port. The fact is humiliating to one's American pride, but the statistics of the past year tell their own story.

The small-pox is spreading in every direction, and it is altogether probable that it will ramify the country. The utmost caution should be observed. Vaccination should be universal, and when the disease occurs the strictest quarantine should be observed.

This is "some country." The square miles foot up 3,025,600. This is equal to some 60 States as large as North Carolina. Alaska added makes it some 3,500,000 square miles.

Ex-Senator McDonald, of Indiana, in a recent speech on a protective tariff, took ground against it in two particulars:

"The first was that such a tariff is in no just sense a tax, and to the extent that it excludes foreign merchandise from our markets it is no tax at all; it is a bounty, and the Constitution does not authorize Congress to impose a burden of that kind upon its citizens."

The Baltimore Sun thus refers to the death of the much lamented Judge Brooks:

"Hon. George W. Brooks, Judge of the United States District Court for the eastern district of North Carolina, who died Friday last, was distinguished in public and private life, particularly for having prevented civil commotion in North Carolina by releasing, under habeas corpus, eminent citizens who had been imprisoned by Governor Holden, under martial law, in the year 1870.

A company has been formed in New Jersey with a proposed capital of $25,000,000. The object is to furnish light for Eastern cities. The gas works are to be in the Pennsylvania coal regions, and the gas will be conducted to the cities even as far as 250 miles.

Spirits Turpentine.

The Oxford Orphan's Friend is out again with Rev. H. Marsh as editor. The Monroe Express has begun its sixth year. A sound, useful paper and we hope it prospers every way.

The Durham Recorder, formerly the Hillsboro Recorder, has completed its sixty-second year. A green old age and a useful paper. Long may it wave over the land of the free and the home of the brave. It is by many years the oldest paper in North Carolina.

That venerable and popular "old gent," Santa Claus, we are glad to hear from the Milton Chronicle, (may its years be numbered with its present editor at the helm) paid a visit to that establishment on Christmas. Glad he had not forgotten any of the press gang.

Milton Chronicle: The Gov. Jarvis deserves credit for the very prompt manner in which he ordered troops to Plymouth and quieted the African riot. The ring-leaders of this riot should be hanged as high as old John Brown. It is about time to teach negroes and whites that the laws of this land shall be respected and obeyed.

Washington Press: The Washington Light Infantry under the command of Capt. D. N. Bogart, deserve the thanks and gratitude of the entire State for their prompt action in this matter, and we learn that Gov. Jarvis, who arrived at the capital the day after the riot, highly commended them for their promptness and dispatch.

Pittsboro Record: Mr. Thomas Hadley, of Hadley's township, met with a sudden and shocking death on last Saturday. He had been probing and cut down a tree in cutting away a limb from under the body of the tree it suddenly turned and fell to the ground, catching Mr. Hadley under it and crushing his head into a jelly, causing instant death.

Local Notes. The weather has been very unsettled and disagreeable since the new year came in.

The cold wave didn't put in its appearance as soon as was expected, but it will come soon enough.

Rev. Dr. Patterson leaves this morning for a trip to Texas, in the interest of the University of the South.

Mayor Smith had only one case of "drunk and down" before him yesterday morning, and he was discharged.

The city was again enveloped in fog Monday night. So thick was it that the steamer Elizabeth, upon arriving from below, had to be lighted to her wharf.

The proposed Clinton and Point Caswell Railroad. The subscribers to the proposed narrow gauge railroad between Point Caswell, Pendler county, and Clinton, Sampson county, to connect with Wilmington by steamers, have appointed Messrs. J. C. Heyer and Owen Fennell, Jr., a committee to canvass this city for subscriptions in aid of the proposed enterprise, which is expected to prove of great benefit to Wilmington.

Warrenton Gazette: The average yield of lint cotton is not one-half a bale per acre in the county. All of our farmers can easily make their lands produce 1,000 pounds of good, heavy tobacco per acre; $10 per acre (it is almost double that price now) is $100 per acre, while cotton is at 12 cents (half bale per acre) amounts to only $24.

Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: While in Virginia last week we heard it as coming from Gov. W. E. Cameron, that a well known and eloquent ex-member of Congress would uplift the banner of a "Liberal" movement in North Carolina.

Bell Tower for the Fire Alarm. The contract for the erection of the bell tower on the lot of the Howard Relief F. E. Company No. 1, on Fourth, between Market and Dock streets, has been awarded to Elvin Artis, colored, subject to the approval of the Board of Audit and Finance.

The tower is to be 49 feet 8 inches in height and 14 feet square at the base, and built after a plan furnished by Mr. Jas. F. Post, which was adopted as the most suitable, and is now on file at the City Hall.

Kinston Journal: The custom of "shooting matches" wherein a chicken or turkey is tied to a stake and shot at by the bystanders, is not observed at Kinston during the Christmas holidays. Sheriff Davis captured six turkeys out of eight at a shooting match during Christmas week.

The Chatham Record came to time Christmas week and doubt any other weekly paper in the State is doing the same thing. The Journal has never lost an issue.

A subscriber writes us from Maysville, Jones county, that the barn and gin house of Mr. Thos. S. Gillet was burned on the night of December 27th, and that it was believed to be the work of an incendiary. The loss falls heavily on Mr. Gillet as it was only last spring that he lost his dwelling—a house worth about $2,000—by fire.

Statesville Landmark: On Monday, December 26th, Messrs. Cal. Brown and Henry Morrison, of Shiloh township, were running a horse-race for 50 cents, when Mr. Brown's horse broke an artery and shortly thereafter died. Some thoughtful soul, whose kindness shall never be forgotten, hung on the Landmark's door-knob, the night before Christmas, a stocking about so long, filled with apples, candy, a tin horn, a jumping jack, a toy pistol, a sweet potato, and what not.

The vacant Judgeship. Ex-Judge Russell and Gen. Manning have been in Washington for a day or two past looking after the interests of the Cape Fear District, and trying to get some "good man" in to succeed the lamented Brooks.

The By-way, we hear that several have actually expressed a willingness to sacrifice themselves and their interests so far as to accept the vacant Judgeship in case it should be packed off on them. Among these self-sacrificing patriots we hear mentioned the names of Ex-Judge Russell, Judge Seymour, Ex-Judge Buxton, Ex-Judge Moore, Ex-Judge Tourge and others.

THE CITY.

Daily Weather Bulletin. The following are the indications for today: For the Middle Atlantic States, generally cloudy weather and rain, winds shifting to southeast, and southeasterly, with falling barometer and a slight rise in temperature.

For the South Atlantic States, local rains and partly cloudy, slightly warmer weather, with winds shifting to southwest and falling barometer.

For the Gulf States, light local rains, followed by clearing weather, with southwest to northwest winds, and a slight rise in temperature; and during Wednesday rising barometer. For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, rain, followed by partly cloudy weather, winds shifting to southwest, with slight changes in temperature and rising barometer during Wednesday.

Works of Art. The beautiful scenes on exhibition at Heinsberger's, representing the Natural Bridge in Virginia, alluded to in our last, are the handiwork of Mrs. J. J. Jackson, of Chatham county, and a sister of our townsman, Mr. David G. Worth.

Second Presbyterian Church—An Encouraging Financial Exhibit. At the annual meeting of the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city, Rev. C. M.
