

going. Signor Rossi called upon the Presi-ting. Ample preparation is being made Wilmir for a big season's work. - A number of our farmers are preparing to diversify more largely this year than heretofore. It's the way to success. --- There is an increasing demand for dwelling houses in dav Elizabeth City. - Washington Press : We were sorry to learn of the accidental shooting of ittle Dick, son of Mr. D. H. Farrow, which occurred on the wharf, where he had gone with several boys to practice with a pistol. A premature discharge took place, the ball catering the shoulder and making a flesh wound. No serious results have followed. -We regret to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. James F. Clark, which took place at the home of Major S. T. Wright, on Maul's Point. - Warrenton Gazette: We were down the Wilmington railroad last week as far as the flourishing city of Wilson. Nearly every train that passed south had from 25 to 100 able bodied negro men on board, going South to work in the sugar and turpentine plantations. One contractor told us that he paid men (none but the best are taken) $175 a year and board, and paid their way there and back at the end of the year. ---- From the best information we can get at least 800 able-bodied colored men have left and are preparing to leave Warren county since the 1st of January. In our opinion it is only a mere question of time when nearly all of them will move South, just as the Indian has gone West. The truth is we are fooling ourselves instead of the darkey. - Goldsboro Messenger: Another well-known gentleman and honored North Carolinian has gone to his rest. It is our painful duty to announce the death of Dr. . T. Murphy, of Sampson county, which sad event occurred at his residence in Clinton on the night of the 8th inst., from can cer, aged about 60 years. Dr. Murphy waa gentleman of high intelligence and uns plemished character, respected by all who knew him. He had served his county faithfully in the Senate, and was for a long ime an active participant in the political affairs of North Carolina. ---- Mr. Louis Sasser, whose serious illness we announced in our last issue, died Thursday morning, aged 79 years. — The Grand Lodge of the order of Knights of Pythias for North Carolina will meet in this city the 14th of February next.

dent when in Washington last week.

The Washington Post is a good paper-better as a news purveyor now than ever before.

The Edgefield people, in South Carolina, take a cheerful view of the negro exodus, and they seem to think it is all for the best.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Times accuses Bob Ingersoll of "wretched plagiarism" in his last psalm of despair over the dead child in Washington.

The New York World is trying to find out if Gen. Grant ever received the $250,000 raised by voluntary subscription for his benefit. There seems to be some doubt about this.

That immense Georgian reformer, Senator, Brown, favors a bill to give each Senator a secretary at a salary of $2,000. He ought also to favor a barber and boot-black for each Senator at a salary of $600. This is a great country and Brown is a regular trump.

Ah ! Mr. John S. Swann, of Kanawha county, West Virginia, has written an article for the leading Republican paper in that State advocating the total repudiation of the debt of the two Virginias. The seeds sown by Mahone and Arthur will be sure to bear fruit in the future.

We find the following definition of Stalwart in the Richmond Dispatch, copied from a work entitled "Words, Facts and Phrases:"

" Stalwart .- This word has a curious origin: it/comes from the Anglo-Saxon stealen, to steal, and its original form was stalworth, that which is worth stealing. "No wonder the Star Route thieves are all Stalwarts.

Report comes from New York that Oscar Wilde is in pursuit of very valuable property in Louisiana that belonged before the war to his uncle, Judge John Kingsbury Elgee, a brilliant lawyer in his day. The property was worth one million dollars, but had not all been paid for.

We understood last week that ninety new cases of small-pox were reported in one day in Richmond, Va. This looks like it had become

An Englishman, Wallis Nash, has written a book called "Two Years in Oregon." We find the following in the Philadelphia Press concerning it:

"The Oregon newspaper excites his curi-ous interest with its column of 'locals' in this style: 'Beautiful weather.-New York Sirup at Thompson's. - The spring plowing is nearly done.-Use the celebrated XI flour, the best in the market .- Our young friend Pete M—, called on us yesterday; good boy, Pete.—Miss Addie Bines is visit-ing friends in town." Mr. Nash will find just such paragraphs in papers published much nearer the metropolis of the United States than Oregon.

Just so! Just so!

We try to be just. Having followed a report in our exchanges concerning Dr. Bliss's charge for services in the Garfield case, we must give him the benefit of a denial reported in the Washington Post. He says he has made no bill nor has he stated any amount due him. The same can be said of Drs. Agnew and Hamilton. They leave the matter in the hands of the committee in the House of Representatives. No bills from the physicians have been sent in.

Speaker Keifer is unpopular decidedly. He will not have an easy time as presiding officer of the House. The Richmond State's special of 16th savs : "It is said that the clique who, with Speaker Keifer, are ruling the House, have already selected the men who are to be favored with appointments on these committees if the House should allow the increase. Speaker Keifer has done nothing so far to remove the prejudice, even among Republicans, created by his cast of committees, and this adverse feeling is heightened by the belief that he is managed by Robeson, Page, Hazleton and a few others." There is an awful scandal in diplomatic circles in Washington. The Russian Minister, Mr. Bartholemei, has an ugly English wife who is coarse and vulgar. They have been married but one year and have seven children. She boasts that she, husband and children are all illegitimate.

The papers now speak of the Wilde Irishman as that "idiot." He is a very absurd fellow at best.

The Lecture Last Night. St. Thomas Catholic church was crowded last evening with people who had assembled to hear the lecture of Bishop Keane on "The Bible, the New Revision and the Catholic Church." The lecture was delivered in response to the solicitation of numerous citizens who were anxious to hear the distinguished prelate on the subject named. Bishop Keane ably discussed the theme he had selected, and eloquently and forcibly advocated his views on the Exciting Runaways, Smash-ups and Narrow Escapes.

Considerable excitement was created yesterday morning, about 11 o'clock, by runaway horses. A horse attached to a country cart started on Second street and came dashing around the corner of Second and Dock, frightening another horse attached to buggy, near the southwest corner of those two streets, and causing him to attempt to runaway also, but he was finally halted without doing any damage. About this point the wheels were wrenched from rhe country cart, and the horse continued his frantic flight with the body and a portion of the shafts, turning the corner of Front and Dock streets and running to a point opposite Mr. Schutte's restaurant, where he broke loose from the cart and was finally brought to a stand still. Just before reaching the intersection of Front and Dock the noise made by the horse and cart frightened Mr. B. H. J. Ahren's horse, also attached to a buggy, and standing in front of his ice house, causing him to runaway and eventually smash the vehicle, which catastrophe happened nearly in front of Messrs. P. Cumming & Co.'s grain store, just after turning into Water street, where the animal was halted in his mad career. Near the corner of Front and Dock streets several persons narrowly escaped being run over by the demoralized animals. Committed for Trinl-Recovery of Stolen Money, &c. The three colored girls, Alice Fairfield, Charlotte Green and Rena Pearson, who were arrested on Monday morning, by officers John Statcher and J. W. Whitney, charged with stealing a pocket book containing $55 from a colored man from South Carolina, named R. A. Bull, had a hearing before Justice McQuigg yesterday morning, when Charlotte Green was discharged and the other two were committed. - Subsequently the pocket book, containing eight of the missing five dollar bills was found secreted in a pillow belonging to Alice Fairfield and in her room, when a further examination was had and Reps Pearson was released; Alice Fairfield being required to give bond in the sum of $100 for her ap-

For the first time in several days, his Honor held a levee vesterday morning. The first case called was that of K. Olsen, seaman, charged with being drunk and down, who was turned over to Consul Heide

N. H. Battoms and Luke Grace, two colored men, were arraigned on the charge of fast and reckless driving. The evidence was substantially as given in yesterday's paper, and at the close of the examination Battoms, who held the reins at the time, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 or be imprisoned for twenty days, and Grace was required to pay a fine of $5 or go below for ten days.

Obadiah Jenkins, for being disorderly and resisting the police, was fined $10.
